

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

VOL. XX.—NO. 22.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, MARCH 4, 1892.

TERMS—$2.00 PER YEAR.

We wish to call your attention to the fact that we are the headquarters for Silver, Brass, and Iron Bedsteads of every description. It is now conceded by the majority of people that bedsteads of metal are preferable to those made of wood. Some of the advantages the metallic stands have over those of wood are: durability, cleanliness, healthfulness, they occupy less space, contain no wood to warp, and add much to the furnishings of a room. The brass used in the construction of all our bedsteads is selected stock, carefully polished, and then lacquered with the finest English lacquer, a guarantee against tarnish. We warrant every bedstead we sell to be just as represented, and make a specialty of finishing Iron Bedsteads (with brass trimmings), in any color desired, matching the most delicate tints and shades.

We also wish to call your attention to our Bedding Department. We make to order, luxurious upholstered springs, pure South American horse hair mattresses, choice live geese down and feather pillows and bolsters; and also carry in stock the standard spring beds, California blankets, and in fact almost everything that will have a tendency to make your sleeping hours most comfortable and enjoyable. Estimates given for furnishing private residences and institutions.

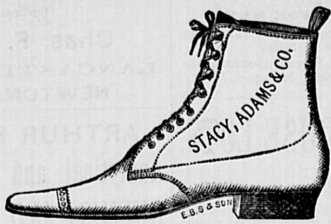

You are personally invited to inspect our stock, which consists of the most desirable goods from English and American manufacturers.

PUTNAM & SPOONER,

546 WASHINGTON STREET.
Opposite Adams House, BOSTON.

THE LATEST GENT'S CALF BLUCHER.

$3.

$5.

$4.

$6.

EVERY PAIR WARRANTED.

STACY, ADAMS & CO.

669 Washington Street, 33 Green Street, BOSTON,
and 440 Harvard St., CAMBRIDGE.

MACDONALD BROS.

MANUFACTURERS OF

AWNINGS.

Canopies for Weddings, Receptions,
ETC., TO LET

And Put Up at Short Notice.

166 and 168 Lincoln Street, - - BOSTON.

HARRY BROOKS DAY,

TEACHER OF

PIANO-FORTE

Organ, 'Harmony,
COUNTERPOINT and COMPOSITION
Elliott Block, or Hotel Hunnewell,
NEWTON.

Clara D. Whitman-Reed, M. D.
RESIDENCE AND OFFICE,
437 Centre St., opposite Vernon, Newton
Hours—1 to 3 and 7 P. M.

DR. F. M. PERRY,

VETERINARIAN,

Telephone 28-4. Cor. Centre & Richardson Sts.
Or at Bush's Stable, Newton. 4-1.

MASSAGE.

MISS LENA HANSEN.
Pupil of Baron Nils Pesse.
Address,
65 BELLEVUE ST., NEWTON.

PARLOR STOVES

-AT-

BENT'S FURNITURE ROOMS

WATERTOWN.

CREAM.

THE FAMOUS

Turner Centre Cream,
FOR SALE BY

C. P. ATKINS

Ten Cents for One-Half Pint.

Shirts Made to Order!

By E. B. BLACKWELL,
43 THORNTON STREET, - NEWTON.

A Perfect Fit Guaranteed.

Best Material. First-Class Work.

Superior Shirts, $1.50. Best Dress Shirts, $2 each.

Will call on customers at such time and place
as will suit their convenience.

Repairing is Done Neatly and Promptly.

New Socks, 50c.; Neckbands, 15c.; Wristbands, 15c.; Cuffs, 30c.; Collars, 25c.; Centre
Plates, 50c.

Readily fitting shirts made to fit well.

Thos. O'Callaghan & CO.

CARPETS.

In the Dull Season of the year competition is sharpest. Unless equal inducements are offered to buyers, customers are gained by one house, and lost to another.

We have long since recognized in this, the Dull Season, that one of two things is absolutely necessary—a sacrifice of the regular price of goods, or a loss of customers already ours.

The low price at which we offer standard goods is proof positive that we have preferred the former to the latter.

LOWELL

Extra Supers

ALL WOOL,
Made, Laid and Lined,

75c. PER YARD.

ROXBURY,
STINSON

-AND-

SMITH'S BEST QUALITY

TAPESTRIES

Made, Laid and Lined

80c. PER YARD.

ENGLISH,
LOWELL

-AND-

BIGELOW
5-FRAME

BRUSSELS,

Made, Laid and Lined,

$1.25 PER YARD.

THOS. O'CALLAGHAN & CO.,

597, 599 and 601 Washington St.

Opp. Globe Theatre, Boston.

West Newton Lyceum.

The next meeting of the West Newton
Lyceum, will be held in

CITY HALL,

Wednesday Evening, Mar. 9, '92.

PROGRAM.
QUESTION FOR DEBATE.—"Should the President and Senators of the U. S. be elected by popular vote."

AFF.—Geo. L. Chandler. NEG.—J. T. Allen.

LECTURE BY REV. N. P. GILMAN.

SUBJECT, "Right Method in Social Reform."

Admission 5c. 6 Tickets 25c.

President, ABOT BASSSETT.

Secretary, ARTHUR R. COE.

S. F. CATE,

FURNISHING - UNDERTAKER

WASHINGTON STREET,
WEST NEWTON, MASS. Telephone 5119

Livery, Hack & Boarding Stable

(Established 1861.)

Barge, "City of Newton."

Boat Sleigh, "Snow Bird."

S. F. CATE, West Newton

Open March 1st.

SWIMMING

The Lessons in Swimming at

LASELL SEMINARY,
Auburndale,

Are open to women and children
not connected with the school. Now is a good time to begin so as to be ready to enjoy the ocean next summer.
The water is kept warm, there are convenient dressing-rooms, hair-drying machines, etc.

Terms, $1.25 a lesson, including everything. Apply to

MISS RANSOM, Teacher,
At the Seminary or by letter.

NEWTON.

C. Farley, Tuner, 433 Washington Street.
- Mr. J. R. W. Shapleigh is in California on a business trip.

- Mr. George Leonard returned this week from his visit to Sioux City.

- Mr. Edward F. Barnes has been elected a member of the Boston Real Estate exchange.

- Miss Harriet Frohisher is visiting friends in Germantown, Penn., for a month.

- Mr. J. H. Wheelock returned from Europe the first of the week, arriving on the Aurania.

- Mr. Chas. F. Rogers has been confined to his home the week with a severe attack of bronchitis.

- Mr. I. D. Allen is talking of putting up one or two houses on the Mt. Ida street section of his estate.

- Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brackett and Mr.
Arthur Brackett left Tuesday for Florida,
taking the steamer from Boston.

- Mr. Harry Gay's letters from Europe in the Boston papers are read with great interest by his Newton friends.

- The Free Library circulated 11,296 volumes in February. This number has been equalled only once, in March, 1890.

- Mr. Winthrop M. Burr has been admitted to partnership in the well known firm of Parkinson & Burr of Boston.

- Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hano attended the golden wedding reception of Alderman and Mrs. Lee of Brighton, last evening.

- The young people of the Eliot church had a sociable Tuesday evening, and enjoyed a pleasant hour with bean bag games.

- Miss Florence Bacon celebrated her eighty birthday, Wednesday evening, by entertaining some half dozen of her young friends.

- Mr. Carl Baermann is giving a series of Chamber music concerts at Union Hall, Boston, the second being given Tuesday evening.

- The fortune teller at the G. A. R.
Carnival was one of the popular features, and every young lady is now watching to see her fortune come true.

- The Junior League of the Methodist church was entertained Monday evening by Miss Mabel Lawrence, and each member took part in the program for the evening.

- The Social Science Club will meet at Mrs. L. B. Gay's, Franklin street, Wednesday, March 9, at 10 a. m. Subject of paper, "Relation of the Public Library to Public Schools." Guests invited.

- The Hillside Club met with Mrs. Langdon Coffin, Monday evening, and enjoyed scientific whist, the same hands being played by different quartets, with quite variable results.

- Ex-Mayor Stephen Goodhue Wheatland of Salem died suddenly in New York City, Wednesday afternoon. He was born in Newton, Aug. 11, 1824, and was the son of Capt. Richard Wheatland.

- At the annual election of officers of the Newton Horticultural Society, Dr. D. D.
Slade was elected president; N. T. Allen, vice-president; Louis H. Farlow, secretary; and Elijah H. Wood, treasurer.

- Mrs. S. K. Harwood of Hotel Hunnewell and Mrs. C. J. Bailey and two daughters left on Monday for Florida, where they will remain during March. They arrived safely at St. Augustine on Wednesday.

- Next Wednesday at Channing church parlors the Entertainment Club is to present the farces "None so deaf as those that won't hear" and "A Woman's Won't."
Tickets at Hubbard & Procter's as usual.

- The next meeting of the Newton Natural History Society will be held next Monday evening. Mr. W. C. Bates will give an illustrated lecture on "Venezuela and the Spanish Main." Over a hundred slides will be shown.

- Music in Grace church on Sunday night:
Processional, "O Saviour of the world," Magnificat (new). Kluemins Nane Dimitris (new).
Antiphon, "O Saviour of the world," who by thy cross and passion hast redeemed us.
Retrocessional, Jesus meek and gentle.

- Mr. Powers, a carpenter living on Oakland street, fell from the platform of a car between the Kneeland street depot and Columbus avenue, Boston, last Saturday, and was so seriously injured that he had to be taken to the hospital.

- Rev. Dr. Leonard of New York. Missionary Secretary, will deliver an address on missions at the Methodist church, Sunday evening. He is called one of the most eloquent speakers of the church, and it is hoped there will be a large number to hear him.

- The sociable of the Methodist church was held Wednesday evening at Mr. Hugh Campbell's, and the gentlemen served the supper and took charge of the evening's entertainment. An orchestra furnished music and there were games of various kinds.

- Donations for the Pomroy Home during the month of February were as follows:
Newton, milk, buckwheat, cake, bread, rolls, pastry; West Newton, clothing; West Newton, clothing, barrel of turnips; Newton Centre, milk, clothing, apples, vegetables; Boston, wood.

- The worst and largest storm of the winter came with the opening of March and the city has been very quiet in consequence. The city snow ploughs have kept the walks open and the electric cars have run without interruption, great efforts having been made to keep the tracks open.

- Mr. Sullivan's team created some excitement last Saturday by running away, being frightened by the sewer engine on Washington street. It left all but two wheels along the edge of the street, and ran to its stable on Church street, where it struck the door with such force as to seriously injure its foot.

- Real estate starting. Aban, Trowbridge & Co., have sold the second lot on the new street Stephen Moore is cutting through his estate on Hunnewell avenue to Mr.
Jerome Sondericker of the Institute of Technology, who will build there soon.
They have sold the lot, corner Crescent street and Sharon avenue, West Newton, 11150 ft., to Frank Ellis of Ward 3.

- The King's Daughters of the Methodist church held their annual meeting last Saturday and were entertained by the President, Mrs. H. S. Leonard. The dining room was handsomely decorated in purple and gold and the table decorations were very beautiful and elaborate, the illumination being by candles with purple shades, and at each plate was a badge with the guest's name engraved thereon. An entertainment was given in the evening.

- Miss Mabel L. Lawrence gave a very enjoyable musicale at her residence on Newtonville avenue, last Thursday evening. These were the artists: Miss Emma
S. Howe, soprano; Mr. Wilhelm Heinrich, tenor; Miss Gertrude E. Cobb, pianist; Mr.
Edwin L. Gardner, pianist; Mr. James Martin, violinist; and the European quartet—Misses Helen H. Bartlett, Mabel L.
Lawrence, Pauline Hammond and Anna Jorgensen. Miss Howe sang "At Tilt-light" by Nevin, "Spring Song" by Henschel, "Du Bist die Ruh" by Johns, and "Love Me" by Chopin. Mr. Heinrich was heard in songs by Schubert. Miss Lawrence sang in a duet with Mr. Gardner in which, as well as in the quartet, she was heartily received.

- A choral service will be given at Eliot church next Sunday evening, March 6th, at 7.30 o'clock, by the chorus choir of the church, Mr. W. H. Dunham, director. The following program will be rendered:

Organ Prelude. King Hall

Antiphon, O Lord my trust. Gnomed

Male Quartet O Salutaris Hostia. Gnomed

Antiphon How lovely are Thy dwellings. spoh

Introduction and tenor solo. From Rebekah.

Male Quartet From the 42nd Psalm. Mendelssohn

Quartet From the Golden Legend. Wagner

Organ Postlude Huldigungs March. Wagner

- Officer Harrison has been serving notices this morning on those who do not keep their sidewalks clear of snow. He found a great number of offenders, among them one of the city fathers, and others equally prominent. Now that the storm is over the shovellers ought to reap a harvest. Eternal vigilance is the price that will have to be paid for clean sidewalks, and the city government means business this year.

NEWTON CLUB.

DUPLICATE WHIST.

Last Saturday evening an interesting and exciting game of duplicate whist was played between sides chosen by Dr. O. E.
Hunt and Mr. T. J. Marble. There were forty players occupying ten tables.

Below is the score:—

DR. HUNT'S SIDE.

Johnson & Schofield, 209

Anders & Chaffee, 203

Marble & Geo. W. Brown, 205

Fitzpatrick & Buswell, 211

Sayer & Hall, 208

Sackett & Fenno, 207

Brigham & Priest, 209

Hatch & Brigham, 216

French & Rogers, 208

Brown & Sprague, 211

Hunt & Pierce, 208

Coffin & Coffin, 208

MR. MARBLE'S SIDE.

Wilson & Jones, 207

Widman & Towse, 213

Lowell & Sampson, 205

Fitzpatrick & Buswell, 211

Sayer & Hall, 208

Sackett & Fenno, 207

Brigham & Priest, 209

Hatch & Brigham, 216

French & Rogers, 208

Brown & Sprague, 211

Hunt & Pierce, 208

Coffin & Coffin, 208

MR. MARBLE'S SIDE.

Wilson & Jones, 207

Widman & Towse, 213

Lowell & Sampson, 205

Fitzpatrick & Buswell, 211

Sayer & Hall, 208

Sackett & Fenno, 207

Brigham & Priest, 209

Hatch & Brigham, 216

French & Rogers, 208

Brown & Sprague, 211

Hunt & Pierce, 208

Coffin & Coffin, 208

MR. MARBLE'S SIDE.

Wilson & Jones, 207

Widman & Towse, 213

Lowell & Sampson, 205

Fitzpatrick & Buswell, 211

Sayer & Hall, 208

Sackett & Fenno, 207

Brigham & Priest, 209

Hatch & Brigham, 216

French & Rogers, 208

Brown & Sprague, 211

Hunt & Pierce, 208

Coffin & Coffin, 208

MR. MARBLE'S SIDE.

Wilson & Jones, 207

Widman & Towse, 213

Lowell & Sampson, 205

Fitzpatrick & Buswell, 211

Sayer & Hall, 208

Sackett & Fenno, 207

Brigham & Priest, 209

Hatch & Brigham, 216

French & Rogers, 208

The Storm and the Schools.

To the Editor of the Graphic:

Where is our Superintendent of Schools? Out of town? Asleep? It is oblivious of all storms? What is the matter that the storm signal "no school" was not sounded Wednesday. Certainly any man of ordinary intelligence would see that it was no day for girls to be out. He may think it "brave" to come out in such a storm as raged Wednesday morning and perhaps from a warm bed or a cosy nook before a cheerful fire he might rub his hands and say as he is quoted "it won't hurt them." Certainly parents knowing the danger of colds, sickness, and perhaps pneumonia to young ladies of delicate organization coming through such a storm, and then sitting in school with wet or damp clothes, would not allow their daughters to risk their lives or health on such a day. Nor can they understand why any intelligent man having the power in his hands to prevent it, should show such a disregard for the health of the scholars.
His action or lack of action does not commend itself to the citizens of Newton. Many were the comments, some more forcible than elegant on the train that morning. His ears must have been almost enough to keep his whole body warm without a furnace fire. Now Mr.
Editor it is not a good time to ride the City of Newton to this useless appendage, School Superintendent, and thus save the salary and the trouble always caused by the officer.

Let the Masters of the Grammar Schools (as they do now practically) have charge of the schools in the ward, and the high school principal have the charge of that school. Certainly they know better what is wanted in their schools than a man who only comes in occasionally, and cannot know much of the personnel of the school. B. B.

Mr. Day's Chamber Concerts.

Mr. Harry Brooks Day gave the first of his two chamber concerts in the beautiful oak-paneled dining room of Hotel Hunnewell, Tuesday evening. In spite of the severe storm there was an audience of nearly a hundred present, and the fine program was listened to with special pleasure. Mr. Day's taste and rare skill being especially shown in the trios, in which he was assisted by Mr.
Wulf Fries, violinist and Mr. C. N. Allen, violinist. It is not the first time Mr.
Day has played concert music with these artists and the trios were very thoroughly given, and called out enthusiastic applause. The vocalist of the evening was Mrs. Frances Danton Wood, who gave two songs by A. Goring Thomas,

NEWTON TARIFF REFORM CLUB.
The Tariff is a Tax.

Every person interested in the subject of the Tariff, is cordially invited to take part in the sessions carried on in this column. Respected consideration will be given to inquiries, criticisms, and communications of every kind, whether coming from Tariff Reformers, Free Traders or High Protectionists. Address: Secretary of the Tariff Reform Club, Newton Centre, Mass.

THE SPRINGER FREE WOOL BILL.

MAJORITY REPORT WHICH ACCOMPANIED THE MEASURE ON ITS PRESENTATION TO THE HOUSE.

The reports of the majority and minority of house committee on ways and means to accompany the Springer wool bill has been presented to the national House. The majority report was prepared by Springer, and the minority report by Mr. Burrows of Michigan. The majority report says the McKinley bill was passed with enormous rates of duties, many of them prohibitory and all unreasonably high. "There can be no good reason," says the report, "for maintaining such high taxes upon articles which are so necessary to the health and comfort of the people. A peculiar feature of these rates is that, owing to the high rates per pound and per square yard added to the ad valorem rates, the duties were highest upon the cheaper grades of goods worn by the masses of the people and lowest upon the high-priced goods worn by those in better circumstances." "Twenty-five per cent," comments the report, "was all the protection that wool manufacturers in 1867 asked in order to enable them to compete successfully with their foreign rivals; but it seems in the case of woolen goods, as in all others, the amount of protection required increases from year to year. As the industries get older and better established more protection is demanded."

The report proceeds to show that, while it is claimed the specific duties imposed on woolen goods by the McKinley law were merely compensatory, careful examination will show that the specific duties are in fact highly protective and in many cases prohibitory. The rates proposed in the bill submitted, the report says, are fixed with due regard to the labor, cost of production, and to the necessities of consumers. The lowest rates are placed upon goods upon which the least labor has been bestowed and which are consumed by the greatest number of people. The history of the effect of high tariffs on wool and woolen goods is reviewed with the object of showing that since our first beginning in 1807 the policy of high protective tariffs on wool and woolens disastrous results have followed to growers, manufacturers and consumers. The report says: "In 1808 there were 6,730,000 sheep in Ohio; in 1870 the number had fallen to 4,928,000; in 1880 to 4,080,000; in 1885 to 3,943,000; in 1890 there were only 3,943,000 reported; while in 1891 the number was given at 4,061,000. Similar results took place in all the other states east of the Missouri and Mississippi rivers. The increase in the number of sheep in the United States has been in states west of those rivers or in localities where there was a free range upon the public domain. There were in the whole United States in 1808 nearly 30,000,000 sheep. There are now only 43,000,000, an increase of 4,430,000 in 24 years."

In 1867 there were only 38,000,000 pounds of wool imported into the United States, which was 19 per cent only of the wool consumed in this country. In 1891 there were 120,000,000 pounds of wool imported, which was 30.8 per cent of the total consumption of the country. The wool growers of 1867 believed the imposition of high tariff on wool would secure them the control of the home market. The result proves how greatly they were mistaken. Moreover wool has steadily declined in price from 1867, when it was worth 62 cents a pound in currency, to the present time. The McKinley act increased duty on wool an average of one cent a pound. The result has been a fall in price of two to three cents a pound instead of a rise in price. After 25 years of experiment the result has been a reduction of one-half the number of sheep in the states east of the Mississippi and Missouri rivers and a reduction of one-half in the price of wool.

The manufacturers of woolen goods, says the report, are divided in opinion as to whether wool should be placed upon the free list, but all concede the great disadvantage to which American woolen manufacturers are subjected by reason of the tariff on wool. The census statement shows that if we deduct the idle establishments (271) and the shoddy establishments (100) there were only 250 woolen establishments in active operation in 1890. This shows a decrease of 70 since 1880. Woolen establishments have increased in Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey and in the New England states, but, as a rule, there has been a falling off in woolen establishments between 1880 and 1890 and in the southern states and states west of the Allegheny mountains. The report declares that with a high protective tariff on the raw material and compensatory and high ad valorem duties on the finished product, the products limited to the home market, woolen manufacturers cannot even hope to increase their productions beyond the annual increase of population.

The report says: Woolen goods, or goods composed in whole or in part of wool, are articles of universal consumption in this country. The existing law imposes an average tax of 91 per cent on such goods when imported. Just how much this protection increases the cost of domestic goods to American consumers cannot be ascertained with accuracy. As all persons are compelled to use woolen goods all are compelled to pay the increased cost by reason of the tariff. This taxation is taken from the many for the benefit of the few. Notwithstanding the high protection accorded manufacturers of woolen goods, the quality of such goods has deteriorated from year to year since the discovery of machinery for converting woolen fags into substitutes for wool. In 1890 there were in this country 30 shoddy establishments with an annual product of $402,590. The shoddy produced in the United States in 1890 will amount to 100,000,000 pounds. The shoddy wool produced in that year amounted to only 92,000,000 pounds. It thus appears that the high protective tariff on wool has forced manufacturers to use a cheaper material than wool; and the competition which now threatens mostly the wool producers of the country comes from the 94 establishments manufacturing shoddy in the United States rather than from wool grown in Australia and South America. A comparison is then made of wool in the United States and England from 1806 to the present time. The figures are given by S. N. D. North, secretary of the national association of wool manufacturers at Boston, and special agent of the census office in charge of wool statistics. Mr. North made the comparison by taking the prices of Ohio medium washed wool and Port Phillip fleece, an Australian wool of substantially the same quality. The Boston prices between 1866 and 1870, when specie payments were resumed in the United States, were reduced to basis. These statistics show that the London and Boston prices have varied very little from year to year. The report says that domestic wool is confined to a limited market. Its only purchasers are American manufacturers. They buy only what they can use to advantage. A high protective tariff on wool has the effect of limiting the demand for American wools, as under such tariffs neither domestic wool nor domestic manufacturers of wool can be exported and sold at a profit; and that amount only of domestic wool will be purchased and consumed which will be required to make with the foreign wool which must be used to produce the required quality and quantity of goods to supply the home market.

As free sugar has increased the consumption of sugar in 1891 over 1890 24 per cent the report looks for at least an equal increase in the consumption of woolen goods if the bill passes. The report says that nearly $6,000,000 a year of revenue would be lost through admitting raw wool free. It is not possible to tell just what would be the effect of the reductions on woolen goods. Reductions of duties would cheapen the price of raw wool and thus largely increase consumption. Increased consumption would call for increased home manufacture, as well as, temporarily at least, enlarged importations. But it is impossible to estimate accurately the effect upon revenues of changes in tariff duties. The report, however, declares that any reduction of public income by the passage of this bill will be far more than balanced by the healthy decrease in public expenditure. "By substituting it," it says, "in Mr. Jefferson's well known phrase, 'economy for taxation,' we can run the risk of causing a deficit in the revenues of the government while lifting a grievous load of taxation from some of the plain necessities of life."

THE ENDOWMENT ORDERS.

MR. ATKINSON SHARPLY CRITICIZES THE RETAINED LAWYERS.

Mr. Edward Atkinson is making a strong fight for honesty in more senses than one in his war against the fraudulent short term endowment orders. The legislative correspondent of the Springfield Republican says: Mr. Atkinson has not only testified—and been as sharply cross-examined by one of our ex-governors as if he were seeking to swindle instead of to prevent it—but he has taken up the matter in a communication to the Transcript. He suggests that the principals who put forward ex-governors and ex-councillors as their legislative agents, should themselves be put on the stand and be examined by the state officers now in power—the attorney-general, insurance commissioner, etc.—as to their published statements and private management of these orders. This is very good advice, and the committee on insurance which is giving these hearings ought to summon them and give them a chance to be questioned. The newspapers have changed their tone considerably since last year in this matter, and few of them now defend the swindling orders, or suppress the evidence against them; and legislation against them, which should have been sharply urged last year, is now likely to be carried. Mr. Atkinson says: "The course of my cross-examination was such as to give me the idea that the counsel wished to convey an indirect impression that there might be some analogy between the so-called endowments companies which I had described as swindles and such societies as the Masons, the Odd Fellows and the Royal Arcanum. To this I replied that I had reason to believe that personal character and integrity formed an element necessary to admission in all these associations, and while such membership might not give absolute assurance of integrity, it was yet to some extent a safeguard. What standard of integrity or character has been set up either for membership or for management of the swindling endowment associations recently exposed?"

It would puzzle the learned counsel to answer this question, or to refute the further statement of Mr. Atkinson that he had examined the plans of certain endowment associations, and that they held out an expectation of returns which it would be impossible to assure with any safety to the members, and that this fraud could have been exposed by any one competent to deal with the principles of insurance. This fact was not contested by the counsel, but by cross-examinations it was sought to be obscured and put aside. A question like this was asked, says Mr. Atkinson: "Are there not many members even in the best-managed life insurance companies who forfeit their contracts by non-payment?" To which I reply, "There are and the state has as far as possible endeavored to protect them from the consequences of their misfortune; but from my examination of the endowment associations the fact and the misfortune that a great number of members or contributors may be obliged to forfeit what they have paid, is held out as a bait to induce others to join, and it is the meanest motive that could be presented." Every person who has heard the arguments, more or less plausible, of the men who have made or wished to make a living or a fortune by promoting such associations, will recognize this statement of Mr. Atkinson's as strictly true. In one instance I prevented a person more or less under my influence from taking up this business, in which he told me there were large profits, but in which, as I questioned him, this forfeiture fraud became visible as the main source of income. I think Mr. Atkinson in error, however, in supposing that the counsel he mentions would refuse to take fees from the Louisiana lottery if they were practicing in that state; though they might refuse here. A fee is a fee, and is seldom refused by counsel of this description, unless it is too small.

Rev. Wm. Hollinshead.

Pastor of the Presbyterian church of Sparta, N. J., voluntarily writes strongly in favor of Hoo's Sarapilla. He says: "Nothing I know of will cleanse the blood, stimulate the liver or clean the stomach like this remedy. I know of scores who have been helped or cured by it."

The New Hose House at Nonantum.

Plans have been prepared and estimates are asked by the committee on public property for the erection of a building for the accommodation of the fire department and police at Nonantum. The site selected is at the corner of Watertown and Bridge streets and is now occupied by the old police station. This building is in bad repair, insecure, and is to be taken down and the material used in the new structures.

The new building is planned for a hose wagon, but is so arranged that an engine can be accommodated when the growth of the village shall demand it.

The general dimensions are 21x44 feet and two stories high. The first story contains the apparatus room, two stalls and the stable fitted with all the necessary conveniences.

The front of the building is to be on Watertown street and a paved driveway extends from the street to the entrance to the apparatus room. At the right of the entrance is the hose tower containing the staircase to the second story and under this the stairs to the basement. In the rear but wholly disconnected from these rooms is the hay loft and grain bins, reached by a staircase from the stable. The tower is continued above the staircase and forms a prominent feature of the building. It is a little over fifty feet high from the cellar floor to the deck, the height being necessary to hang the hose, which has to be washed out and dried whenever used, in order to prevent rotting. The top of the tower is provided with an open clock for a bell and sander which it is expected will be placed there.

The police station is directly in rear of the building and contains an office, three cells and a lodging room, and is fitted up with the conveniences of a modern station.

The exterior of the buildings is of red brick with Milford granite and terra cotta trimmings. The wood work is of North Carolina pine finished to show the natural color. The architects, Messrs. Kendall and Stevens, have spared no pains in the building a credit to the city, and it will, when completed, be equal to any building of its class now owned by the city.

The erection of the building at the present time is largely due to the efforts of Councilman Forknall, who has urged the needs of this locality upon the city government for the past two years, and finds a recognition of his demand in the present action of the property committee.

Burglar Captured.

This morning about two o'clock, John Wood, the well-known plumber who resides on Main Street, was awakened by hearing glass break. He immediately grappled with the burglar, and after a terrible struggle succeeded in holding him until his wife obtained help. On being searched at the station, Mr. Wood's watch and wallet were growing worse rapidly. He had lost all faith in medicine, but hearing Mr. Bitters so well recommended, I gave them a trial. Six bottles cured me.—Smith P. Hunt Waverley, Iowa.

The President.

Of the Bank of Waverley, Iowa, says: Sulphur Bitters saved my life. For ten years I suffered from Catarrh and Liver Complaint; I lost forty-five pounds and was growing worse rapidly. I had lost all faith in medicine, but hearing Mr. Bitters so well recommended, I gave them a trial. Six bottles cured me.—Smith P. Hunt Waverley, Iowa.

Coughing Leads to Consumption. Kemp's Balsam will stop the cough at once.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Servant (answering bell)—"My master isn't in, sir; you may leave the bill if you wish." Caller (in surprise)—"Bill! I have no bill. I wish to—." Servant (in surprise also)—"No bill. Then you must have called at the wrong house."—Life.

Did they? "Half a million, about, was what he got. But it didn't do him much good. He turned it nearly all over to his lawyers—" "And they paid it back to the bank, of course?" "Eh?"—Indianapolis Journal.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

PURE, ECONOMICAL.
Compare quality and price with any other.
SAMPLE FREE.
STEPHEN L. BARTLETT, Importer, Boston, Mass.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

MIDDLESEX, SS. PROBATE COURT.
To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, and all other persons interested in the estate of Lorenzo Gibbs late of Newton in said county, deceased:

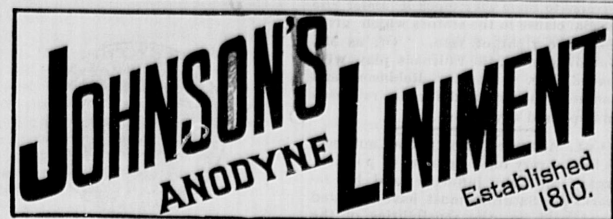

GREETING:
Whereas a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court for Probate, by Lawrence Bond, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, and that he may be exempt from giving a surety or sureties on his bond pursuant to said will and statute;

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Lowell in said county of Middlesex, on the third Tuesday of March next, at nine o'clock before noon, to show cause, if any you have, against the same.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once a week, for three successive weeks, in the newspaper called the Newton Graphic printed at Newton, the last publication to be two days, at least, before said Court.

Witness, George M. Brooks, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this twenty-fifth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

J. H. TYLER, Register.

Originated by an Old Family Physician,
For INTERNAL as much as EXTERNAL Use.

I, S. JOHNSON, Esq. My Dear Sir—Fifty years ago this month your father, Dr. Johnson, called at my store and left with me some Johnson's Anodyne Liniment on sale. I remember him distinctly today, and could tell you just how he was dressed on that day fifty years ago. I have sold Johnson's Anodyne Liniment ever since and I can most truly say that it has maintained its high standard and popularity from that time to this. No doubt if you have many customers who remember the good old doctor who first compounded this medicine, and received it direct from his hand fifty years ago. Extending my kind wishes, I remain, JOHN B. RAND, FOR PURELY HOUSEHOLD USE, ALMOST A CENTURY.

Generation after Generation have Known and Blessed It.
All who order direct from us, and request it, shall receive a certificate that the money shall be refunded if not abundantly satisfied. Retail price, 35 cents, six $2.00, express prepaid, if you can't get it near home. Ask for it, sold by druggists. Full information sent free. I. S. JOHNSON & CO., 21 Custom House Street, Boston, Mass.

EVERYONE ATTENTION!

If You Want to Purchase HARDWARE,
—SUC AS—

Carpenters Tools, Nails and House Trimmings, Barbed Wire, Poultry Netting, Pocket Cutlery, clippers, Shears and Lawn Mowers.

Call and see us at our New Store.

If You Want to Paint Your House
We can sell you ready mixed Paints, White Lead, Oil, Varnishes and Brushes.

HAVE YOU BEGUN HOUSE CLEANING?

And do you need a Step Ladder and a Window Brush or a Carpet Sweeper? If you do call at our store and we sell you one of these articles at prices which defy competition.

DO YOU NEED ANY TINWARE?

If you do we can fit you out with just what you want for we manufacture it ourselves. WE CAN PLEASE YOU WITH ONE OF OUR MYSTIC RANGES, OIL STOVES OR REFRIGERATORS.

A. J. FISKE & CO., PLUMBERS,
WEST NEWTON, MASS.

EXPERIENCE AND PROMPTNESS.

NICE WORK GUARANTEED BY THE

NEWTON CARPET CLEANING COMPANY.

Only 1 cent per yard running for taking up; 3 cents per running yard for cleaning. Wool, Brussels or Tapestry; 4 cents for Wiltons, Velvets or Axminsters 8 cents per square yard for Turkish Rugs or Carpets; 4 cents per running yard for laying; Stairs, 50 cents and upwards per flight. Carpet Sewing, $2.50 per day. Renovating and repairing of carpets a specialty. Carpet work in all its branches done properly and at reasonable prices. All kinds of Carpet Linings for sale. Church Cushions and Mattings cleaned at bottom prices. Carpets called for and delivered free of charge. Send postal. Sole Manufacturer of the

SIMON A. WHITE,
P. O. Box 71, Newtonville. Telephone 7. Factory and Residence, Clinton Street.

P. A. MURRAY,
Carriage Builder.
ALL
Work Guaranteed.

Special attention given to REPAIRING AND PAINTING FINE CARRIAGES AND SLEIGES

WASHINGTON, COR. PARK ST., NEWTON.

Water Bugs and Roaches
CLEAR THEM OUT WITH OUR EXTERMINATOR
No dust. No trouble to use.
Price, 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. If you druggist or grocer does not keep it, we will mail package on receipt of price.
BARNARD & CO.,
7 TEMPLE PLACE, BOSTON.

Genuine Bargains

Always to be obtained by examination of the varied assortment of

IMPERFECT GOODS AND REMNANTS,
STRICTLY ALL WOOL.

Made at the Assabet Mills which are exclusively sold
and at the lowest prices by

THE PEOPLE'S DRY GOODS COMPANY
MAYNARD, MASS.

Job Printing.
ESTABLISHMENT
We desire to call the attention of the public to our facilities for the prompt execution of every description of Newspaper, Book, AND Job Printing.

J. HENRY BACON

Successor to Francis Murdoch & Co.

Dry Goods & Notions

Ladies' and Gents' Furnishing Goods,

OIL and STRAW CARPETS,

Trunks, Bags, &c.

BACON'S BLOCK,

Nos. 279 to 281 Washington St.,

NEWTON.

THEODORE L. MASON,

Agent for the celebrated

Rockford Watch

ELGIN, WALTHAM, and other American Watches always in stock. Repairing of Fine Watches, French, Grandfather and American Clocks a specialty. All work warranted to give satisfaction.

Eliot Block, Centre Street, Newton, Mass.

J. L. PHILLIPS,
PLUMBER, STEAM

GAS FITTER.

Steam and Hot Water Heating a Specialty.

44 Spruce Street, Waltham, - Mass.

Mrs. E. A. SMITH,
MILLINERY!

202 Moody Street,

Opposite Walnut Street,

WALTHAM.

PURE - MILK
supplied daily from

PROSPECT VALLEY FARM.

One Cow's Milk supplied when desired.

H. COLDWELL & SON,
WALTHAM, MASS

P. O. Box 1992.

J. OTIS McFADDEN,

DEALER IN

Window Shades, Wire Screens, Wall

Papers, Venetian Blinds.

23 CORNHILL, BOSTON.

M. C. HIGGINS
PRACTICAL PLUMBER

—AND—

Sanitary Engineer.

(Formerly with S. F. Carrier.)

Sumner's Block, Newton.

PLUMBING WORK IN ALL ITS BRANCHES Having had twenty-two years' experience in the business in this city; perfect satisfaction guaranteed.

CHURCHILL & BEAN

Tailors.

IMPORTERS

—OF—

FINE CLOTHS

503 Washington St.

BOSTON.

G. F. CHURCHILL, Newtonville.

J. H. BEAN, Dorchester.

NEWTONVILLE.

C. Farley, tuner, 433 Washington Street.
—F. W. Carnes spent Sunday with relatives in Saugus.

—Rev. Ira A. Priest will preach at Fairfield, N. H., Sunday.

—Mr. George W. Morse is expected home from Florida next week.

—Dr. O. E. Hunt has gone to Lakewood, N. J., to remain through March.

—Mrs. R. A. White left Tuesday for her new home in Inglewood, Illinois.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dennison left last week on a California excursion.

—J. M. Brooks has taken a position as decorator with John A. Gray of Boston.

—A. M. Noyes has returned from Hopeville, where he has made a stay of some weeks.

—The regular meeting of the Lend a Hand Society was held on Thursday afternoon, this week.

—Prof Munroe's dancing class held a very enjoyable "German" in Tremont Hall, Monday evening.

—Nonantum Tribe will work the adoption degree on three candidates, Tuesday evening, March 15.

—Fred Leavett and George Mulliken have bought out a cigar and paper store on Tremont street, Boston.

—The monthly sociable of the M. E. church was held at the residence of D. S. Simpson on Thursday evening.

—Mr. H. B. Parker was the successful winner of the handsome carving set on Ward 2 table at the U. A. Fair.

—The Neighborhood Club met on Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. Needham on Lowell street.

—Rev. S. H. Roodin of the Columbus avenue Universalist church, Boston, preached at the Universalist church last Sunday.

—Mrs. Sarah Munzer has recovered from her recent illness, and is able to attend to her business again with the Misses Cunningham.

—George Willey has resigned from C. C. Clapp's and accepted a fine position in a large manufacturing establishment at South Braintree.

—Mrs. John E. Butler of Linwood avenue is slowly convalescing from her recent illness, and her friends hope to see her about again soon.

—Mrs. Mary R. Martin gave one of her course of papers on Shakespeare at her home on Prescott street, Monday morning, the subject being, "King John."

—Grand Senior Warden, W. S. French, was one of the speakers at the complimentary banquet tendered Grand Patriarch Mayo at Maiden on Monday evening.

—Letters remaining in the Newtonville postoffice are as follows: Maggie Connor, Mary A. Farrell, Miss M. P. Finnegan, Mary Keating, Harry Marsh, Mary McDonough.

—Miss Esther E. Barry gave in last week's Parish Record a very interesting account of the progress of the Universalist church during the past twenty-one years of its existence.

—A large party of friends gathered at the depot Tuesday a. m. to witness the departure of Mrs. R. A. White and son, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Barker, who left for their Western home in Englewood, Chicago.

—Rev. Ira A. Priest and family have this week taken up their permanent residence, and Mr. Priest will begin his pastoral duties on Sunday. We trust a large audience will be present to greet Mr. Priest at the beginning of his labor here.

—Geo. Trotter of Watertown street is now suffering from the effects of a painful accident received Monday morning about 7:30; he was descending the cellar stairs, when his foot slipped and he fell upon the hard concrete, striking upon his head. He was taken up unconscious and remained in that state until about 10:30. He is attended by Doctors Talbot and Baker, and it is hoped his recovery will be rapid, although his brain sustained a severe concussion.

—The Ideal Minstrels Club, a local company consisting of both ladies and gentlemen, gave a very pleasant entertainment at the residence of Mr. D. S. Simpson, Newtonville avenue, last evening.

—The Interlocutors were Messrs. Frank Morehouse and Hammond Stowell while Messrs. C. A. Soden, A. C. Watkins, W. A. Jackson and G. M. Bridges acted as end men, the jokes were capital, calling forth round after round of applause, while the solos and choruses were finely rendered.

—The solos by Miss Clara Rouns, Miss Fannie Stowell and Mr. C. A. Soden deserving special mention, as does also the guitar solo by Dr. Mason.

—One of the prettiest parties of the season was a veritable Leap Year one given in Tremont Hall, on Monday evening, under the auspices of the Lend a Hand Society, and most successfully conducted by the fair managers in charge, Miss Susie H. Bigelow, door manager, Miss Mabel Park, Miss Davis. The patrons were Mr. W. F. Kimball, Mr. J. L. Richards, Howe's orchestra of Boston furnished music for twenty-one dances and four extras, the grand march being led by Miss Bigelow and Mr. Newell. The hall was very prettily draped with trimmings of pink, blue and white, and plants, flowers and piano lamps added to the general brilliancy.

—The dressing room was elaborately fitted up as a modern reception room with decorations of lavender, yellow, plants and flowers. Among those present were Miss H. Clow, Miss Cunningham, Miss Davis, Mrs. Frank Banchoff, Mrs. G. L. Bullens, Miss Goldthwaite, Miss Fennel, Miss Mabel Fisher, Miss Drury, Miss Galley, Miss Ida Snow, Mrs. Mollie Snow, Miss Alice Hale, Miss Jennie Preston, Miss Clara Smith, Miss Grout, Miss Lewis, Miss Mabel Park, Miss May Wellington, Miss Carrie Williams, Mr. G. L. Bullens, Mr. Buxton, Mr. Harry Sisson, Mr. Frank Banchoff, Mr. Whipple, Mr. Chase, Mr. Hall, Mr. Morehouse, Mr. Cook of Allston, Mr. Harold Woodworth, Mr. Robert W. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Gram, Mr. Wignin, Mr. George Hooper of Bridgewater, Mr. E. Y. Willey, Mr. Grout, Mr. Hale, Mr. Newell and Mr. George. Some very handsome dresses were worn by the ladies present, conspicuous among them were those of Miss Bigelow, who wore a dress of white cashmere trimmings of white lace and ribbons; Miss Lewis, in green surah over peony cloth with violet trimmings and ribbons; Miss Ida Snow, yellow silk, white and gold trimmings; Miss Grout, pink silk, black jet trimmings; Miss Mollie Snow, blue crepe, black velvet and flowers; Miss Clara Smith, yellow silk and white lace; Miss Goldthwaite, blue surah, lace trimmings and ribbons; Miss Davis, pink India silk, ribbons and flowers; Miss Mary Wellington, pink India silk and crepe, with white feather trimmings; Miss Jennie Preston, pink India silk, ribbons and flowers; Miss Rose Cunningham, pink candel's hair and crepe de chine; Miss Mabel Park, black lace, trimmings of flowers and snail's; Mrs. G. L. Bullens, pink silk and pearl trimmings. Dill, the caterer, served a dainty collation. Dancing from 8 until 10 o'clock.

A Great Bargain

Is offered by the Central Dry Goods Co., Waltham, in Fruit of the Loom Cotton at only 10 cents a yard. This is only a sample of prices at this store. The Electric cars pass the door.

Bargains

in wall paper and shades are offered by J. Oils McFadden, 25 Cornhill, Boston. It will pay you to call upon him.

WEST NEWTON.

—C. Farley, tuner, 433 Wash'n st. Newton.
—The O. I. H. initiated one candidate at its meeting, Tuesday evening.

—Mr. C. G. Phillips is in the South for a business trip of several months.

—The engagement of Miss Nellie Evans and Mr. A. R. Richardson is announced.

—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ritchie depart for Europe next week. They will be abroad for a year.

—Miss Alice Burrage of Prince street left Tuesday for Greenfield, Mass., where she will attend school.

—A week's mission by the Oblate Fathers of Mary Immaculate will begin in St. Bernard's church, on Sunday next, March 6.

—The meeting of West Newton Lyceum is postponed to March 10. Hon. N. P. Gilman will give a lecture on "Right Methods in Social Reform."

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles I. Travelli will give a reception in their elegant new home in the near future. It will partake of the nature of a house warming.

—Rev. Lawrence J. O'Toole has nearly recovered from the effects of his recent illness, and his parishioners and friends rejoice in his convalescence.

—Loyalty Lodge of Good Templars will give another free concert and temperance lecture in City Hall, Sunday, March 13, full particulars next week.

—Residents very strongly oppose the establishing here of a private asylum for the care of insane patients. The city evidently has no aspirations in that direction, though not lacking sympathy for the afflicted.

—Commander Arthur E. Kimball of J. Wiley Edmunds' camp 100 S. V., secured the brass cannon at the G. A. R. carnival, receiving the largest number of votes in the contest. The handsome silver tea service went to Mrs. C. H. Stacy who had 667 votes.

—Mr. F. H. Humphrey has just completed a very elaborate set of conductors for a new house for Mr. John Edmunds which is being put up by H. H. Hunt. The tops are mounted with a paneled cornice and they are held in place of ornamental straps.

—There are letters at the postoffice for Ann R. Adams, Rev. Nehemiah Boynton, Miss H. M. Bohman, Michael Dugan, Joseph Dwyer, C. H. Dougherty, Mrs. J. L. Dixon, Rev. C. E. Prohasko, Helen Fuller, Mary Hull, C. E. Hibbard, Mr. Hurley, Kate N. Jest, Miss E. J. Ladd, Cora Mackenzie, N. C. Milliken, William Taylor.

—The Neighborhood Club bowling parties are very enjoyable social affairs. It is a fact that some of the pretty society girls can give points on the game to their gentlemen friends, but they retreat from the public piers and wouldn't have their scores published for anything "don't you know?" Bowling is popular with the ladies who are not slow to appreciate a good thing.

AUBURNDALE.

—Farley, pianos, 433 Wash. St. Newton.
—Mr. Howard Gaunt, was in town this week.

—Mr. Rufus Estabrook is improving very slowly.

—Mrs. C. Parker has returned from New York.

—Mr. Joseph Davis of Central street is still quite feeble.

—Mr. David Jackson and family of Westport left yesterday for their home in Manitoba.

—Mrs. H. A. Pemberton of Woodland avenue entertained the six-had euchre club last Friday afternoon.

—Two celestials from Boston are to open a Chinese laundry in the block on Auburn street leased by T. F. Melody.

—The John Boyle O'Reilly Literary Association are arranging for a minstrel entertainment to be given in Auburn Hall, March 17.

—It is due Miss Edith Farley to say that she was not at the dance given by Mrs. Harry Ayer at the Woodland Park Hotel, Feb. 18th.

—Mr. James Vickers received a handsome chair from the G. A. R. fair, last week, as a result of guessing nearest to the correct number of beans in a bottle.

—Mrs. E. F. Bethmann and Miss Bethmann of the Hotel Berkeley, Boston, are at the Woodland Park Hotel, where the former is convalescing after a severe illness.

—The Communion service at the Methodist church will be held next Sunday evening at 7:30. There will also be a reception of members. The subject of the morning discourse will be, "The Lord's Supper."

—A lady tried an experiment with the city water by tying a piece of cotton flannel over the faucet. If any one will do this it will be a surprise to see the mud which can be washed out of the cloth after a few hours.

—There are letters at the postoffice this week for Mr. C. L. Brown, Miss Hattie Faxon, Charles L. Fletcher, Elmer Houghton, Rev. Cyrus Hamlin, D. D. Miss Monie Johnson, Miss Maggie Kenny, Mr. Nelson Robertson.

—Why do we have such bad walking in Auburndale? The sidewalks used to be a subject of admiring comment years ago by the city people who happened to come here after a storm. Have the laws been changed or do they need enforcing?

—Rev. Edward Abbott, D. D., of St. James church, North Cambridge, will speak at the first Lenten services this evening at the Church of the Messiah. There was a celebration of the Holy Communion on Ash Wednesday, March 2, and interesting services will be continued during Lent.

—Mr. James Vickers of Maple street was quite badly hurt last Tuesday evening in getting off the 5:33 outward train from Boston. He was thrown or stepped off the forward part of the train while it was in motion, and fell heavily on the inward track striking his head on one of the iron rails. He was taken up unconscious and driven to his home in a carriage where Dr. Clarke attended him. He was found to have received a very severe scalp wound and was otherwise badly shaken and condition until midnight. He is now getting along as comfortably as can be expected.

—Mr. and Mrs. David Jackson of Weston were agreeably surprised by a large company of friends, who unexpectedly dropped in upon them at their residence on South avenue, in that town, last Thursday evening. The Jackson family have resided in Weston 20 years, and departed March 1 for in Manitoba, their future home. The property in Manitoba consists of a ranch of 200 acres and a modern dwelling house just put up for Mr. Jackson. The party partook of the nature of a farewell, and those present were Mr. and Mrs. Jackson's neighbors and friends, and relatives from Boston, Waltham and the Newtons, comprising a company of 200 ladies and gentlemen. The occasion was an enjoyable one, and was marked by the presentation of suitable gifts to the host and hostess. Mr. Jackson's gift was an elegant gold watch and chain, and Mrs. Jackson received a set of silver spoons in a leather satin-lined case. The presentation speech was made by Mr. E. Jennings of Weston. After the presentation, solo numbers were rendered by Mr. Merrill and pianoforte selections given by Mr. Barker and Miss Carrie Seaver. A collation and the usual social features closed the evening's exercises. A large number of Auburndale people and others from the Newtons were among the guests.

ALL DUE TO A DREAM.

Some Good Fairies Sent a Poor Little Irish Boy His Fortune.

There died in this city on April 6, 1890, an honest, hard working machinist by the name of Patrick Shine, who, having accumulated some little wealth and knowing that his end was near, a few weeks previous to his death deeded all of his property to his faithful wife, Ellen, their union never having been blessed with children. The loss of her life companion prostrated the widow, and her grief was so great that just three months later—on June 6, 1890—Ellen Shine, no longer able to bear up under her load of sorrow, quietly breathed her last to rejoin her beloved husband in another world.

Ellen Shine died intestate, and her property was taken charge of by Public Administrator James C. Pennie, who at once advertised and otherwise searched for any unknown heirs, so that if they existed they could have an opportunity to present their claims.

Among the people who knew Ellen Shine was Mrs. Mary Ann Johnson, of 140 Fell street, the wife of a mechanic. Mrs. Shine and Mrs. Johnson were both of them natives of County Cork, Ireland, and whenever they met they used to exchange reminiscences of the days of their youth. When Mrs. Johnson learned through the newspapers that her old friend had died and that the public administrator had charge of her property for the lack of legal claimants she was greatly distressed, and the matter worried her for many weeks. In vain the good woman endeavored her brains in endeavor to remember whether she had ever heard of any one related to Ellen Shine. She could recollect no one.

The matter occupied her mind so much that it is not at all surprising that one night (Aug. 30, 1891), after retiring, still much perturbed over the fact that all the money should go to strangers, Mrs. Johnson had her peaceful slumbers disturbed by a dream. She dreamed of Ellen Shine as a young girl home in Ireland, surrounded by a host of relatives, and conspicuous in that visionary picture from dreamland was the figure of Rev. Father James, well known to the dreamer.

When Mrs. Johnson awoke next morning she remembered her dream and thought it strange that in it Father James should be mixed up with the youthful days of her late friend. The more she pondered over this, to her, inexplicable fact the more she became convinced that the proper person to apply to for information concerning the relatives of Ellen Shine was the old parish priest, and she resolved at once to write to him.

Her surmise proved correct. In due time she received a letter from the Rev. Father James, now known as Canon Hegarty, in which he said that he knew Ellen Shine well when she was still at her Irish home; that her maiden name was Ellen Dooley, and that her nearest relative living was a nephew by the name of Joseph Cotter, residing in a village near Cork, called Carrignaver. The canon also advised Mrs. Johnson to turn the case over to some attorney at once.

Judge Levy gave satisfactory judgment, without more than the delay necessary for the purpose of obtaining the proofs of Cotter's claim from Ireland, and the young Irish lad was officially notified that he was the sole owner of a house and lot on Garden street, and another lot in the O'Neil and Healy tract, all left to him by an aunt whom he had never known, by the assistance of the beneficent fairies of dreamland.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Profession Versus Business.

A friend of mine, a physician, did a rich manufacturer a vast service in the way of his profession. When the obliged man asked for his account he requested a deduction for prompt payment, and this being declined, grumbled over the amount. The doctor was immovable. "You are at liberty," he said, "to pay nothing or all." "But this is business," avowed the other, "why not discuss it like any other business?" "I am not a business man," said my friend; "I belong to a profession. I sell that which no man can weigh or measure."

Finally the bill was paid, and then the manufacturer, suddenly changing his tone, said, "Well, now that the business is completed, I should like you to accept this as a slight proof of our gratitude. It was a check for three times the amount of the debt. The doctor said, 'No; I never allow a man to overpay me.' The next day the check was sent to a hospital in which the physician was interested.—Dr. Weir Mitchell in Century.

An Expensive Dining Room.

A well known statesman took dinner at Tilden's old home in Gramercy park, New York. He was captivated by the decorations of the dining room. Next day he looked up the decorator. "I want you to convert my dining room into just such a room as the one at Gramercy park," said he.

"I shall be delighted to do so," replied the man, "but the cost?"

"Never mind the cost," said the statesman. "I know it will be large, but you do the work and I will pay you for it."

"Yes, I know you will," persisted the man; but I think you had better know just what you will be expected to pay. That room at Gramercy park brought me $50,000. The statesman got over his infatuation immediately and told the decorator that he would call on him later.—Washington Cor. Cleveland Leader.

Imbecile Boys Chase the Rainbow.

One of the peculiar freaks of some of the boys at the Home for the Feeble Minded at Lincoln is the annual heira after the bag of gold buried at the base of a rainbow arch, according to the fairy tales. How these boys become possessed of the idea I cannot say, but regularly each summer they run away after big rainbow storms, when the conditions are such as to produce the natural phenomenon, to capture the gold. Each time they return tired, hungry and bedraggled, glad to resume their old places.—Interview in Chicago News.

AN ITALIAN OVEN.

Contrivances That Prevent Dust, Smoke and Other Annoyances.

When the Italian cooking apparatus is used, neither dust, dirt, gas, smoke, heavy cake, soggy potatoes nor explosions ruffles tempers. It is neither range nor simply stove. It looks like a tub covered with shining tiles of blue and white porcelain. It is a trifle high, and in order to operate it to the best advantage it is best to stand on a little foot-stool or platform. Under the stove is a semicircular closet reaching up to about half its height and holding from one to three sacks (about four bushels) of charcoal. On the top are one, two or three openings—little square, boxlike grates, sinking perhaps four or five inches and about eight inches square. Under the grates are receptacles with doors for ashes, and in the center is a larger receptacle for heating dishes.

Over the stove and about half way up the wall is a canopy, shaped like the stove at the bottom, but gradually narrowing to the top at the front and side until it is almost tunnel shaped, where it joins the chimney, is an opening into the chimney, about the size of a very small stovepipe. There is always a good draft without dampers.

For boiling, a few bits of cane are put in the square or grate over which the kettle or the saucepan is to be placed; then a shovelful of charcoal is put over the canes, a light is applied and, if you are in a hurry, over the hole is put a curious contrivance very like a stovepipe, perhaps two feet high, with a funnel at the top, a contrivance that is expressively known in Italian as "il diavolo!" possibly because it starts the fire in such a marvelously short time.

If the articles to be boiled are vegetables, the kettle is placed directly over the grate, and "il diavolo" is laid upon the shelf above. If, however, something more delicate is to be cooked, a tripod about three inches high is put over the grate and the boiler is placed on that, so that there is not even a possibility of burning or scorching; then a circle of coals is put on the outside of the stove about the boiler, which is tightly covered. It takes from twenty minutes to half an hour to cook this way, and everything cooked is cooked all over.

For baking, the preliminary preparations are the same, but the dish holding the mixture is placed in an outer dish of block tin, and over it is put that wonderful magician, the "forno di campagna," that looks like a peck or a half bushel measure, according to its size, made of sheet iron and inverted. There is an opening at one side, up which slips the handle of the baking tin or the saucepan, and over which the form slips, settling firmly down on the stove.

Under the dish that contains the material to be baked is the charcoal fire in the grate; about it glowing coals are put and replenished before the glow dies out, and on top of the "forno" more glowing coals are placed and treated in the same way. Everywhere there is an equal diffusion of heat. Mince pies, sponge cake, custards, bread and turkeys are browned perfectly. The "forno" wasn't invented by an Italian, but by a Frenchman, and it would be quite possible to use it with our charcoal stoves.—New York Sun.

Scotland and the Thistle.

The thistle was selected as the national emblem of Scotland in the year 1010. It was during the reign of Malcolm I that a notable invasion of the country was made by the Danes. They came in thousands, and landing on the coast swarmed over the inhabited districts like locusts, destroying, burning and plundering wherever they went. For safety the inhabitants fled to the castles and fortified towns, and among the most notable of the fortresses of Aberdeenshire was Staine's castle, where were collected a large number of people of the neighborhood. The Danes projected a surprise. Approaching the castle in the darkness they planned to scale its walls, and laid aside their shoes that the greater secrecy might be observed when drawing near to the fortifications.

The surprise might have been successful had it not been for the fact that, on descending into the dry moat, they found, to their great discomfiture and mortification, it was filled with thistles, by which their feet were so severely pricked that several made an outcry, which aroused the defenders of the castle and brought them to the wall in time to repel the onset. Regarding their good fortune in repelling the Danes as due to the thistles, these plants were immediately placed in the arms of Scotland and adopted as the emblem of the country.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A Celebrated Dog.

Wordsworth and Scott both celebrated in their poems the famous old Gelert. This dog, a deerhound, was given by King John to his son-in-law Llewellyn, who kept him at his hunting lodge, in the neighborhood of the Welsh mountain Snowden. Gelert was missed one morning from the hunt by his master. Llewellyn, upon his return to the lodge, saw the dog, and discovered that its mouth was besmeared with blood. Concluding that the dog had devoured his child, the infuriated master slew the poor animal. Upon investigation, he discovered a dead wolf by the child's cradle, while the child was safely and soundly sleeping. The brave dog had saved Llewellyn's heir from the wolf. A monument was erected to the faithful creature, which bears the name of Beth-Gelert.—Harper's Young People.

How Negroes Catch a Scorpion.

In Jamaica the negroes believe that scorpions know their name; so they never call out, "See, a scorpion," when they meet with one on the ground or wall, for fear of his escaping. They thus indirectly recognize the scorpion's delicate appreciation of sound; but if you wish to stop a scorpion in his flight, blow air on him from the mouth, and he at once coils himself up. I have repeatedly done this; but with a spider it has a contrary effect.—London Spectator.

MINER ROBINSON, ELECTRICAL ENGINEER.

12 Pearl Street, Room 27, Boston. Residence, Chestnut St., West Newton.
Private Residences fitted for the
ELECTRIC LIGHT.
Electric Light and Power Installations. Highest grade Electrical Construction Work of every description. Estimates Furnish d.
Boston, 3311. TELEPHONE. West Newton, 234-2.

BARGAINS.

B BRASS B BEDSTEADS
AND IRON B BEDSTEADS.
Larger variety than found elsewhere in N. E.
H. W. BIGELOW COMPANY,
Importers, Manufacturers and Retailers.
70 WASHINGTON ST. BOSTON.
H. W. BIGELOW, Residence, Newtonville.

FORKNALL & TOMS, Wood Turning of Every Description, STAIR POSTS, RAILS AND BALUSTERS, House-Brackets, Band Sawing, Moulding, Pattern Making, Etc., Etc.

132 CHARLESTOWN STREET, BOSTON. REUBEN FORKNALL, Newton.

SEND US A POSTAL CARD. BOSTON.

"When Washington was president he had a magnificent state carriage." "I believe so." "But when he was at his cherry tree age he was satisfied with a hack."

The world is full of people who wouldn't sell whiskey for $100 a glass who are glad to take the saloonkeeper's money in a thousand different ways and put it in their pockets.—Rim's Horn.

Husband—"What are we going to do about that hand organ that plays in front of our windows every morning and almost drives me wild?" Wife—"We might take a trip to Europe."—Epoch.

Fond Mamma (anxiously)—"I saw you playing with that new boy across the street. Is he a good boy?" Young Hopeful—"Yes, reg'lar chump."—Good News.

Some Advantages.

Advantage secured is cash invested in practical utility. Intelligent selection is cash in economy. In considering the purchase of a piano remember we both manufacture and sell the popular

BRICCS PIANOS.

We afford you every advantage; our factory and ware-rooms being in the same building, the process of manufacture, raw material and the finished piano can be inspected without leaving the building. You get all your information from first quarters and headquarters for these instruments, which stand out today before the musical public as the pianos of superior make, tone, finish, and durability.

C. C. BRIGGS & CO., Mfgs.
5 & 7 Appleton St., Boston.

Trousers to Measure for $5.00

About twenty different styles to close, will be made to order for the above price if you leave your measure at once.

J. H. NICKERSON,
WEST NEWTON, MASS.

MASSAGE TREATMENT.
MRS. E. L. BOND,
Address,
PELHAM ST., NEWTON CENTRE 19-41.

The Largest and Finest Business Establishment in the City of Waltham.

PARLOR, HALL, DINING ROOM, AND BED ROOM

FURNITURE
LOWEST PRICES.
F. L. GRAVES,
FURNITURE EMPORIUM,
224 Moody St., Waltham.

FRUIT OF THE LOOM yard wide
COTTON AT 7c a yd.

Only ten yards to a customer
Central Dry Goods Co.
107 & 109 Moody St.,
WALTHAM.

Leave Electric Car at Hall's corner.

CARL UPMANN'S
Bouquet CIGAR
"Has Proved the Best 10c. Cigar."

LACTART

ACID OF MILK
Cures Dyspepsia. 25c. 50c. a bottle

A FESTIVE SCENE.

THE N. H. S. SENIOR CLASS RECEPTION IN THE NEW DRILL HALL.

The senior class '92 of the Newton High school held their annual reception Monday evening in the new drill hall, Newtonville.

It was the first class reception held in the new hall, and the increased area and modern architecture of the hall enabled the class officers to design and carry out very elaborate decorations.

The hall was lavishly yet tastefully ornamented with streamers of white and yellow bunting, the former the class color and the yellow representing the school color.

The ceiling was a maze of white streamers stretching in graceful lengths in many directions, and the walls were draped with yellow and white bunting, tastefully gathered in festoons. National colors were draped above the main entrance and directly opposite was the class motto "Character is Destiny," occupying a place over the cabinet where the school battalion flags are displayed. At the west end of the hall before a bower formed by evergreens and palms, with Japanese lanterns which brightened the effect, the matrons received the guests.

The corners of the hall were groups of evergreens decorated with class symbols and numbers.

The matrons were Mrs. George L. Lovett, Mrs. Geo. Wallace, Mrs. M. L. Whitney and Mrs. C. W. Lord. Mr. Harold H. Blake, the class president, acted as floor director, and the aids were: Messrs. G. K. Burgess, L. N. Whitney, H. A. Stone, G. P. Hatch, C. S. Bryant, E. R. Brackett, R. C. Thomas, J. D. Greene, J. A. Lord and W. E. Blodgett. At eight o'clock the guests were received by the matrons and shortly afterwards dancing commenced and lasted until midnight. Very pretty were the favors, the class and school colors being used in the tassels and printing, but nevertheless their attractiveness paled in the eyes of the maiden or youth whose favor's name was inscribed beneath a certain number.

Over 300 were present to enjoy the annual reception, and among the dancers or as quieter guests were many parents and friends.

Many charming gowns were worn by the young ladies, and the hall decorations, contrasted with these tasteful and many hued costumes, made the scene one of unusual brightness and beauty to the beholder. Some of those present wore gowns representing their class colors and in addition to the many present from classes '93 and '94 many of the alumni representing classes '80, '89 and '91 were present.

The music, furnished by Russell's orchestra of Boston, was excellent, or so everyone declared it, and a dainty collation served during the evening by Cater James of Waltham was enjoyed by all.

The affair was a decided success, and its memories will long remain with those who participated, and those who had it in charge are to be congratulated on so successful an evening given under the regime of class '92.

Among the many present were Misses Logan, May, Rose, Hager, Coolidge, Barnes, Suessette, Ratsey, S. M. Adams, Alice Adams, Trowbridge, Nichols, Wallace, Wood, Bailey, Tower, Converse, Houghton, Chandler, Nickerson, Holmes, Burrage, Carroll, Barker, Kimberley, Fyffe, Lord, Davis, Bird, Josephine Wallace, Edith Rogers, Carrie Rogers, Bassett, Hastings, Young, Beckman, Whittemore, Hunter, Lovett, Stevens, Moore, Trowbridge, Ayer, Hall, Tilton, Ramsdell, Patten, Parker, Hawes, Adams, Brown, Hammond, Jewell, McCullom, Bradley, Sands, Bertha Davis, Jessie Davis, Manson, Coppins, Blaisdell, Duple, Tyler, Cutler, Collins, Mackenzie, Gurneally, Abbott, Ballou, Linder, Woodward, Cheesey, Messrs. H. N. Stonemetz, G. V. Phipps, M. R. Houdlett, E. N. Blodgett, F. B. Patrick, M. B. Tower, F. T. Estes, E. R. Thompson, H. R. Williams, P. H. Crafts, C. S. Bryant, F. S. Miller, P. F. Spaulding, W. R. Soule, W. H. Rice, H. F. Page, Clifford Kendall, W. H. Pulsifer, R. N. Wildes, A. W. Tarbell, Samuel Tyler, Holmes Whitmore, Howard Whitmore, H. L. Burrage, E. L. Greene, R. S. Howard, Stuart Bosson, Willis Stacy, W. R. Bancroft, Thomas Weston, Jr., Clifford Bawes, D. S. Hornbrook, A. N. Vose, O. S. Humes, Jacques, C. S. Stevens, J. S. Knox, C. T. Adams, G. S. Young, G. D. Allen, H. S. Allen, I. S. Dillingham, W. S. Dillingham, C. H. Stone, H. D. Priest, Austin Redpath, E. C. Hollis, H. L. Felton, P. B. Chase, E. L. Crane, Claire Williams, F. S. Ashenden, E. S. Johnson, W. E. Ellison, W. T. Coppins.

OLD PART OF BOSTON.

MR. E. G. PORTER'S ADDRESS BEFORE THE WOMAN'S EDUCATIONAL CLUB.

At the last meeting of the West Newton Educational Club, an address of unusual interest was given by Mr. E. G. Porter about the old part of Boston. He exhibited two maps; one of the town as it appeared in 1722; the other showed the old North Square now entirely transformed, although some of the ancient houses are standing, having been thoroughly and strongly built. These once elegant mansions now occupied by foreigners of the lowest class, were surrounded by flowering plants and fruit trees, and spacious grounds. On Essex Street the gardens extended to the water, and presented a charming appearance when approached from the harbor. All was then water where now stand three rail-way stations; L. E. & F. a canal, the first in the country, extended from the mill-pond to the sea. It had several draw-bridges which were often opened, thus obstructing travel, and requiring patience to the good people of that day.

Three streets led to the North end, Fore St., Middle St. and Back St. The North Street of that day was not the same as the present. Washington St. had several names, part of it being called Newbury St., part Orange, part Middle St., etc. State St. was then King St. at the head of which stood the State house. Near by was erected the first church, a rude log structure, which was soon succeeded by another, built upon the present site of Young's Hotel. During the first 150 years there were few brick buildings erected; nearly all the dwellings were wood; there were no sidewalks, and a town pump supplied the citizens with water. Later, many fine residences were built for the solid men of the town, some of which are still standing.

The South church, at the head of Milk St., was called the "old South," after other churches were built. In it were square pews having private doors, so the occupants could leave or enter without being seen. There were two galleries; the upper one for the negroes, and this was customary in all the churches of that day. The church in North Sq., afterwards called the "old North," was known as "the church of the Mathers." This church was torn down by the British and used for fuel during the siege of Boston. The present "old North" is Christ church on Salem St., built in 1723. The signal light was hung from this tower for Paul Revere.

"If the British march By land or sea from the town to-night, Hang a lantern aloft in the belfry arch Of the old North Church tower as a signal light; One if by land, and two if by sea; And on the opposite shore will be, Ready to vice and spread the alarm, Thro' every Middlesex village and farm, For the country folk to be up and to arm."

Old Boston being a peninsula, there was no connection by land with the surrounding country, excepting by a narrow strip of land called Roxbury Neck. This was a roundabout way of reaching Cambridge and Lexington, and would have been a long and tiresome march for the British soldiers, though for many years it was the only route for carriages. Over this neck passed the stage coaches which ran to the neighboring towns. The Suffolk Inn, in Elm St., was the headquarters of the stage which ran to Newton Upper Falls, leaving about 5 o'clock. At 2 a. m. a stage coach started for Portland, reaching its destination the same evening. This was considered quick traveling in those days, on the 17 of June 1783, a bridge extending from the foot of Prince St. to Charlestown was opened, and was the occasion of great excitement and rejoicing.

The spire of the old Cockerel church was long a famous landmark, this called an account of the rooster which served as a wind, the cockerel was blown from his lofty perch and now adorns the Shepard Memorial church in Cambridge. Mr. Porter suggested that it was not the Puritan's opposition to the symbol of the rooster, which induced them to use this instead. The cockerel recalled St. Peter, and went back to the middle ages, being much older than the cross as an emblem.

In Garden Court lived Gov. Hutchinson who served his native town long and faithfully in many capacities. He was obliged to emigrate on account of his proclivities, and was bitterly and unjustly abused by his townsmen. Sir John Franklin lived next door; and on the corner of N. Bennett St. and Hancock lived the Mathers. A most remarkable family, Cotton Mather being the most learned man in our history. The house where they lived is still standing. In Salutation Alley lived Benjamin Franklin. In Sheaf St. at one time there were 14 ministers; Lyman Beecher lived there at a later period. In this vicinity was the Eliot school whose head master, Tilton, was known as "Master Johnnie." He was connected with the school as pupil, monitor, assist in master, headmaster, and master emeritus for 30 years, and was probably the only Boston teacher who ever received a pension. On his desk were always 3 articles; a quill, pen-knife and rattan, all of which were considered a necessary equipment for a school-master of the old time. As long as he lived he wore the ancient breeches, breeches, shoe buckles, queue, etc. His home on the corner of Prince and Margaret St. is still standing. With him studied Edward Everett, who drove his mother's cow to pasture on Boston Common.

Many interesting anecdotes of the early settlers were related, and the present names of many localities were traced to their origin. Mr. Porter spoke briefly of those concerned in the execution of the Salem witches. They were men of sincere convictions and honest beliefs in the possession of human beings by evil spirits. This belief was more widely spread in England, Scotland, and on the continent than in New England. Only 19 persons were hanged here, while scores were executed abroad, proving the New England Puritans to have been liberal men for their times, though we are accustomed to consider them as narrow and bigoted.

The address contained much valuable information, and was enlivened by anecdotes of the men and manners of bygone days.

An Army Kitten.

One evening, toward the close of the war, while Union soldiers lay at camp on a hillside near the Stanton river, Virginia, the cry of "Halt! who goes there?" from a sentry startled every soldier to his feet; and several of the more curious ran to the guard-line to find out what the trouble was. A minute later all knew that the night visitor who had been challenged was no enemy. A little girl about ten years of age, holding a white kitten in her arms, came forward into the light of the fires, conducted by two soldiers, who had told the sentry to pass her in, and who looked as proud as if they were escorting a queen.

The whole regiment gathered—including the colonel himself—to look at the child, and hear her tell the story of her short story it was—scarcely a paragraph; but there was matter enough in it for a full chapter. She lived near by with her father, who was sick and poor; and they were Northerners, she said, and "Union folks." Her mother was dead, and her brother had been killed while fighting in the Federal army. She "wanted to give something," and when the Union soldiers came she thought she would bring her pet kitten and present it to the colonel.

The colonel took the little girl in his arms and kissed her, and the kitten, too, and said it was not a bit ashamed of its weakness. He accepted the kitten with thanks; and its innocent donor was gallantly waited on to her humble home, loaded with generous contributions.

The white kitten was adopted by the regiment, but considered the property and special pet of the colonel, and when the war was over he took it home with him. Like the white lamb that stayed and fed with the victors after the battle of Autietam, that little creature, during its short but stirring army life, was a daily inspiration to better feelings and thoughts in the presence of all that it saw—a living flag of true gleaming among the thunder-clouds of human passion and strife.—Harper's Young People.

Beware of Quinacrine for Catarrh that contains Mercury. as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co.

Sold by Druggists, price 75 c. per bottle.

Children Cry for

Pitcher's Castoria.

NEWTON HIGHLANDS.

C. Farley, Tuner, 433 Washington Street
The Chautauquians Circle will meet next Monday with Mrs. Tyler.

Mrs. C. Peter Clark and son Edward, have gone to New Haven.

Mrs. L. K. Brigham has gone to Lakewood, New Jersey, for the benefit of her health.

Miss Gertrude Nelson returned to Bradford Academy Monday, after making a short visit at home.

The Chautauquians enjoyed a Colonial Character Party including a colonial dinner last Monday at Mrs. Bryant's.

M. E. services next Sunday morning, 10.45, subject, "The Christian Debtor." Evening at 7, "Honoring God and Dishonoring God."

Mrs. J. E. Hills, the president of the Congregational Sunday Circle, was present at its meeting on Wednesday, after an illness of many weeks.

The next meeting of the Monday Club will be with Mrs. Ryder, Lincoln street. Mr. George will continue his services with the club during March.

Rev. Mr. Allen will conduct the Unitarian services at Stevens Hall next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, subject, "Bearing with each other Burdens."

Mrs. F. A. O'Connor arrived home on Saturday after an absence of several weeks at Dorchester, on account of the illness of her father, Mr. Swan.

List of letters remaining in the post-office: Jerry Coffey, Henry Green, L. R. Holt, W. Higgins, Henry Hamlin, J. W. King, M. G. N. Lewis A. Weeks.

At the United States Hotel, Boston, the Round About Club had a social and dinner, Monday. There were 20 members present and Mr. Charles F. Johnson presided.

Rev. Dr. Gordon, for twenty years a missionary in Japan, addressed the audience at the Congregational church last Sunday morning on Japan and its people, and in the evening on some characteristics of Japanese Christians.

The Unitarian Ladies' Aid Society held a special business meeting, Wednesday, Mar. 2, at 8 o'clock, at the club house. The entertainment was perfected for an entertainment followed by a social and dance, to take place in Lincoln Hall on Friday evening, Mar. 11. The program will be as follows: "The Witches of 1692," and "The Witches of 1892." Miss Philbrick of Boston read in a most pleasing manner "The Witches of 1692," and "The Witches of 1892." Violin music also formed a feature of the entertainment.

The ladies of the Highland Club held their last afternoon entertainment on Tuesday at the Club House. A Witch Luncheon was served, the decorations being done in red and black and white. Toasts were given to "The Highland Club," "The Witches of 1692," and "The Witches of 1892." Miss Philbrick of Boston read in a most pleasing manner "The Witches of 1692," and "The Witches of 1892." Violin music also formed a feature of the entertainment.

The young ladies of the Highlands and vicinity invited their gentlemen friends to a leap year party on Saturday evening, at Lincoln Hall, which was a most successful affair. A large and brilliant company were present, and many elegant toasts were displayed by the young ladies. The evening's entertainment was a most successful one, and the young ladies, who were the center of attraction, were highly enjoyed by all present, and the young ladies are to be congratulated on the success of their efforts.

The Congregational Sewing Circle held their regular meeting on Wednesday afternoon at the chapel, and the ladies occupied the time with sewing for a missionary family. In the early evening a bountiful supper was served to members and their families. All the congregation were invited to the entertainment which followed, which consisted of piano solos by Miss Nickerson, read by Miss Oliver, and Miss Neilson of Boston, followed by several selections finely rendered by Miss Oliver, who displayed fine abilities. Mr. F. E. Houghton also favored the audience with a song, with Mrs. Houghton at the piano, after which a social was held, in which all took an active part.

NEWTON CENTRE.

"D. Sauer, Tailor" reads a modest sign on Pelham street.

Mr. C. A. Dole of Pelham street is in Kansas City, Missouri.

Mrs. Zadoc Lord of Glenwood avenue is in Portland, Me., on a visit.

Miss Hattie Westover has gone to Mahone Bay, N. S., her brother being very ill.

Mrs. Judge Lowell of Commonwealth avenue, Boston, gave a handsome dinner Friday.

The Washington despatches announce the appointment of E. Winsor as postmaster at Chelsea.

There are letters at the postoffice for Mrs. Martin Darcy, Thomas Gilbert, W. Henderson, Miss D. B. Knight, Miss Mary Ward.

Mrs. Sawyer of Newton has issued cards for a reception in honor of Miss Lawrence, daughter of Rev. Dr. Amos E. Lawrence, the fiancée of Professor Samuel F. Clark, whose engagement was announced recently.

Lassell Notes.

Friday evening, Feb. 26, Miss Isabella Shinn, teacher of elocution, gave an entertaining and instructive lecture, attended by several members of her classes. The selections were varied in character and received with enthusiastic applause.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Tucker of Vermont, and Rev. Messrs. Frost and Jones of Portland, were conference visitors to examine the school and report its work. They were at Lassell the 24th and 25th of February.

Parties are attending the Paderewsky concert. One went Saturday, Feb. 24. Another company attended the lecture upon Roman Oratory at Auburn Hall, Feb. 24.

There was a meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society Sunday afternoon, the 28th. The "S. I." society held an entertainment last Saturday evening, the 27th, in the hall of the "Lasellias" to a banquet. The entertainment, literary and gastronomic, is said to have been excellent, but as these occasions are not open to reporters it is impossible to describe in detail.

The cooking of Monday was white soup, blanquette of chicken, potato border, croquettes, pineapple sherbet. The private cooking classes have ended. The contest for the prize in bread-making will take place at the close of next term.

The swimming lessons, which were suspended during the coldest weather, begin anew this month.

The bad weather of March 2nd prevented a party from hearing Mrs. Jenness Miller in Boston.

Mr. Percival Chubb lectured upon Robert Louis Stevenson and the Romantic Revival, Wednesday evening, March 2, his lecture giving great satisfaction.

Aaron Burr's Eyes.

The late Miss Theodosia Burr Davis, of New York, was a dear friend of mine in the long, long ago days. The niece and ward of Matthew L. Davis, the intimate associate and biographer of Burr, she had a store of anecdotes of men who figured prominently in national affairs seventy or eighty years since; but this one—which I shall repeat as nearly as possible in her own words interested me most of all:

"I was a schoolgirl of fourteen, spending a short vacation at Uncle Matthew's house in the city, when one day I heard him calling to me from the hall below and went to the head of the stairs. 'Come down,' he said. 'There is a gentleman here who wishes to see you.' I hesitated, held back by some undefinable fear. Again he said, 'Come down,' and in such tones that I dared not disobey. He led me into the parlor, and there on the sofa sat an old man whom I had never before seen. Very old he looked, dressed in the costume of the last century, with his snow white hair drawn back and tied in a cue behind. But his eyes—they were not old. Large, dark and deep, they flashed with all the fire of youth. I never saw such eyes in man or woman. They fascinated while they frightened me.

"My uncle led me forward and said: 'Colonel Burr, this is the child of whom I spoke. I need not tell you whose name she bears.' The old man rose, took my hand in his and held me out at arms length and looked at me—looked at me with those eyes which seemed to see into my very soul. Only a moment, but the moment was an hour. Then he dropped my hands and exclaimed in a voice trembling with emotion: 'Take her away, Matthew, take her away! I cannot bear it!' I saw him only once afterward; it was on Broadway, and I tried to slip by him unperceived. But when I turned to look back he was standing still, following me with those wonderful, wonderful eyes. They haunt me still, and will, I know, while memory lasts."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Macaulay as a Host.

Macaulay was a pattern host. On his own account, it is true, he was no epicure, and his nephew tells us that at any time he would have been amply satisfied with a dinner such as is served at a decent seaside lodging house. This was a sad moral defect, but happily his conscientious views of the obligations of hospitality prevented his guests from suffering by it. He generally selected by a half conscious preference dishes of established character and traditional fame. His dissenting friends he treated to a fillet of veal, "which he maintained to be the recognized Sunday dinner in good old Nonconformist families." On Michaelmas day he would have been wretched had no goose smoked on the board. At Christmas he never forgot the old historic turkey.

If he was entertaining a couple of schoolboys who could construe the fourth satire of Juvenal, he would reward them for their proficiency with a dish of mullet that might have passed muster on the table of an angler or an emperor's freedman. With regard to the contents of his cellar, Macaulay prided himself on being able to say with Mr. John Thorp, "Mine is famous good stuff, to be sure, and if he were taken to task for his extravagance he would reply, in the words used by another of his favorite characters in fiction, that there was a great deal of good eating and drinking in £700 a year, if people knew how to manage it.—All the Year Round.

The Seniors in War.

One marked difference divided the generals of Frederick William III from those of Napoleon. The Duke of Brunswick was seventy-one years old, Prince Hohenlohe, sixty, and among subordinate commanders were men of sixty-eight, seventy, and seventy-four. Lefebvre, the oldest French general, was barely fifty-one; Angereau, forty-eight; Bernadotte, forty-two; Napoleon, Ney, Soult and Lannes, thirty-seven; Murat only thirty-five.

Excepting for the intervention in Holland in 1787, and the Duke of Brunswick's ill starred invasion of Champagne in 1792, the Prussian army—like that of Great Britain in 1854—had suffered from a long peace, one of the results in each case being a certain disbelief in young commanders. Von der Decken, writing in 1798 under the title "Is it necessary that we should only have young generals?" decided the question in the negative; and in the British army today an officer of the same age as that of Napoleon or Murat at Jena may find his energies confined to the command of a company, whatever his capacity.—Edinburgh Review.

Claims Before Congress.

Immediately after every change of administration, claims which were disallowed by the outgoing power pour in by thousands, to be considered and rejected again. Applicants imagine, evidently, that what one party will not grant the other may grant. Their persistence in many cases is astonishing. One citizen, who has not the shadow of a right to back him up, has written more than 1,000 letters to the treasury respecting his demand, and has expended more money in postage than the value of the claim. He has addressed his communications on the subject to every public official in Washington, from the president down, and even to the Chinese and other foreign ministers.—Washington Letter.

Went to Church Once.

A Maine woman who had an irreligious husband kept driving at him until she finally got him to go to church. Now mark how she was rewarded. Instead of following the service he looked at the congregation and noticed how much more handsomely the other women were dressed than his wife. This fact pricked him to the heart as no words of the minister could, and the next day he gave his wife $500 and told her to go and buy some clothes. Need we enlarge on the moral of this story? We think not.—New York Tribune.

Overheard in the Railway Station. First Young Woman—"Oh, don't go into that car, Meg; that's all full. Plenty of seats in the next car." Second Young Woman—"Oh come along! Some fools will get up and give us their seats."—Boston Transcript.

Gertrude—"You never do anything now, Margaret, but go to all sorts of churches and read those old books of theology. You never used to be like that." Margaret—"How can I help it, Gertrude? I'm writing a popular novel!"—Punch.

Dep. Sheriff Wheeler
Does Not Care to Live
If He Cannot Have HOOD'S Sarsaparilla

It would be difficult to find a man better known in the vicinity of Burlington, Vt., than Mr. R. D. Wheeler of Winoski Falls, the efficient Deputy Sheriff of Burlington county. He says: "C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. 'Dear Sirs: If Hood's Sarsaparilla cost $10.00 a Bottle

I should still keep using it, as I have for the past ten years. With me the question as to whether life is worth living depends upon whether I can get Hood's Sarsaparilla. I don't think I could live without it now, certainly I should not wish to, and suffer as I used to. For over ten years I suffered the horrors of the damned with for if ever a man suffers with anything in this world it is with that disease. It seems to me as if all other physical suffering were compressed into that one. I took about everything man ever tried for it but never got a dollar's worth of help until I began taking

Sciatic Rheumatism

Hood's Sarsaparilla

I have taken it now pretty regularly for ten years and have no more pain and can get around all right. I have advised a good many to try Hood's Sarsaparilla." R. D. WHEELER, Deputy Sheriff, Winoski Falls, Vt.

Hood's Pills Cure Liver Ills

You can't afford to paint your house every year.—The manufacturer who makes up his mind to produce a first-class article, paint for example, and sells it at a reasonable price, generally finds that there is room in the market for his productions. That a good article recommends itself, and once a customer always a customer. This has been the history of the Chilton Manuf. Co. Their paints have stood the test of time and proved their durability. What you want is a paint that will stand exposure to wind and rain and sun. You can't afford to paint your house every year, and you won't have to if you use the Chilton Paints. We have a color card for you.

To the Honorable, the Justice of the Peace Court of Newton, within the county of Middlesex, the petition of Charles A. Jordan of Newton in the county of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, respectfully represented by Rufus Somerby of Boston, having authority from, and rightfully acting for, George A. Baker the owner of the panorama hereinafter mentioned, then of Boston, but now of Cazanovia, in the state of New York, for the storage of a panorama, called "Battle of the war of the Rebellion," on the 15th day of March 1886, and for the cartage of the same for the agreed price of one dollar per month, and for the cartage of the said panorama to the place of storage for the sum of one and 25-100 dollars; that in accordance with said contract and with the full knowledge and consent of the said George A. Baker, your petitioner has carefully stored and kept said panorama since that time until the date of this petition, and carried the same to the place of storage, and there is due him therefor in accordance with the said contract the sum of $11, for said storage and $1.25 for said cartage; that on the 17th day of April 1891, your petitioner by his attorney, made a demand on the said George A. Baker in writing for the payment of the sum due him for said storage and cartage at the date of said demand, and that at the time said demand was made, and no payment has been made by the said Baker, or any one in his behalf on account of said storage and cartage. Your petitioner claims, after the said demand, and after the said panorama, now in his possession, and cartage of the same as aforesaid, and prays that an order may be issued for the sale of said panorama in satisfaction for the said debt in accordance with the provisions of the said statute in such cases made and provided.

CHAS. A. JORDAN.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

SUFFOLK, ss. Feb. 25 1892.

Then personally appeared the above named Charles A. Jordan and made oath to the facts set forth in the foregoing petition.

Before me,

GEORGE W. STETSON,

Justice of the Peace.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

MIDDLESEX, ss.

At the Police Court of Newt n Holden at Newton within the county of Middlesex, for civil business on the twenty-fifth day of February A. D. 1892: On the foregoing petition it is ordered that the petitioner give notice to the said George A. Baker, to appear before said Court on the nineteenth day of March A. D. 1892, at nine of the clock in the forenoon, for cause to be published at least once a week, for three successive weeks in said Newton, before the said nineteenth day of March, a true and attested copy of said petition, and of the order of the Court thereon, that the said George A. Baker, may then and there appear and show cause, why the prayer of the said petitioner should not be granted.

By the Court,

HENRY L. WHITTELEY,

Clerk.

A true copy of the petition, and the order thereon.

HENRY L. WHITTELEY,

Clerk.

Newton National Bank

NEWTON, MASS.

BUSINESS HOURS:

From 9 A. M., to 12 M., and from 2 to 4 P. M. On Saturdays, from 9 A. M., to 2 P. M.

JOSEPH N. BACON, President, FRANKLIN BACON, Cashier.

NEWTON SAVINGS BANK.

INCORPORATED 1831.

Bank Hours: From 9 a. m. to 12 m., and from 2 to 4 p. m.; on Saturdays from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m.

Office in the Newton National Bank Building.

JAMES F. C. HYDE, President. JOHN WARD, Vice President.

ADOLPHUS J. BLANCHARD, Treas. Trustees: Joseph N. Bacon, James F. C. Hyde, Dustin Lacey, Francis Muirhead, Wm. Henry Brackett, Samuel M. F. Eddy, F. E. Hunter, Charles E. Billings, William C. Strong, Charles A. Minor, Elliott J. Hyde John Ward and Chas. T. Pulsifer.

COMMITTEE OF INVESTMENT: James F. C. Hyde, Samuel M. Jackson, Francis Mordock.

CHAS. A. MINER, Clerk and Auditor. Interest begins on deposits on the first days of January, April, July and October.

THE West Newton Savings Bank

Incorporated 1837.

West Newton, Mass. AUSTIN R. MITCHELL, President.

JAMES H. NICKERSON, Treasurer. ALFRED L. BARBOUR, Clerk.

Trustees: Austin R. Mitchell, Benj. F. Houghton, Dwight Chester, Edward L. Pickard, Prescott C. Brigham, Samuel Barnard, Fred E. Crockett, Alfred L. Barbour, Edward W. Cate, Adams K. Tolman, C. F. Eddy, F. E. Hunter, Committee of Investment—Austin R. Mitchell, Edward L. Pickard, Dwight Chester, Samuel Barnard, Fred E. Crockett.

Open for business, daily, 8.30 to 11 a. m., 1.30 to 4 p. m.

Deposits will commence drawing interest on the first days of January, April, July and October.

GOOD PIE

is much prized, but many people can't eat pie because of dyspepsia or dyspeptic tendency.

Everybody

CAN EAT PIE

if it is made with Cottolene, the new pure substitute for lard. Cottolene is simply pure cottonseed oil and pure beef suet, two of the healthiest foods known.

Properly combined they are better than lard for all kinds of shortening, and everyone can eat, digest, and enjoy food cooked with it. Food that was indigestible when cooked with lard is easily digested when cooked with Cottolene, and many of the leading housekeepers of the land say they can make nicer bread, rolls, biscuits, cakes, cookies, ginger bread, pies, patties, tarts, griddle cakes, croquettes with Cottolene than with either lard or butter. Get it of your grocer and try it. Beware of imitations.

N. K. FAIRBANK & CO.,
SOLE MAKERS,
CHICAGO, and
5 Central Wharf, Boston.

SULPHUR BITTERS

THE BEST AND PUREST MEDICINE EVER MADE.

Don't be without a bottle. You will not regret it. Try it to-day. What makes you tremble so? YOUR NERVES are all unstrung, and NEED a gentle, soothing TONIC to assist nature to repair the damage which your excesses have caused. Sulphur Bitters

IS NOT A CHEAP
RUM OR WHISKY
DRINK

to be taken by the glass like other preparations which stimulate only to destroy. If you have failed to receive any benefit from other medicines or doctors, do not despair. Use Sulphur Bitters immediately. In all cases of stubborn, deep-seated diseases, Sulphur Bitters is the best medicine to use. Don't wait until to-morrow, try a bottle to-day.

Send 3 2-cent stamps to A. P. Ordway & Co., Boston, Mass., for best medical work published.

Don't Drink Impure water longer when you can get a good filter. They will fit a faucet, whether it has thread or not. Call and see at Barber Bros.

GEO. W. BUSH,
Funeral and Furnishing

UNDERTAKER,
ELMWOOD STREET, NEWTON.

Coffins, Caskets, Robes.

And every modern requisite for the proper performance of the business constantly on hand. Orders by telephone promptly attended to.

W. H. PHILLIPS

Would respectfully inform the citizens of Newton that we can be found at the above place, and will attend to all orders personally. Having had over twenty years' experience in the business, I trust I can attend to all calls that may come under my direction, to the satisfaction of all parties who may require the services of an undertaker. 11

S. K. MacLEOD

Carpenter and Builder.

Jobbing of all kinds neatly and promptly executed.

Bathrooms and fittings for Plumber's Work a Specialty.

Shop, Centre Place, opp. Public Library.

Residence, Boyd street, near Jewett.

P. O. Box, 480, NEWTON, MASS.

RHEUMATISM AND KIDNEY COMPLAINT

Cured by

DR. DAM'S VEGETABLE REMEDY

All Grocers sell and warrant it.

DO YOU COUGH

DON'T DELAY TAKE KEMP'S

BALSAM

THE BEST COUGH CURE

It Cures Coughs, Croup, Sore Throat, Croup, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Asthma. A certain cure for Consumption in first stages, and a sure relief in advanced stages. Use at once. You will see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Sold by druggists every where. Large bottles, 50 cents and $1.00.

NEVER SATISFIED.

DISCONTENT THE POWER THAT PUSHES US UPWARD AND ONWARD.

One Step in Advance Encourages Man-kind to Try for Greater Advance—The Problem of Progress Into Which the Thoughtful Man Sees Deeply.

Eager, enthusiastic and sanguine people always expect to feel unbounded satisfaction in the actual possession of that which they strive for. The boy longs to be a man, the youth craves independence; one looks forward to marriage as his ideal of bliss, another yearns for wealth, one covets position, another power; one hungers for knowledge, another for skill; one sighs for opportunity, another for ability. Whatever be the goal of their ambition, they believe that to be the one thing without a flaw, the one thing which is to insure their happiness and in the possession of which their enthusiasm is never to grow cold and their happiness never to fade.

When this goal is reached, and it often is, how are these sanguine expectations realized? Is the mind content and satisfied? Is the pleasure unsullied? Do the glowing colors continue as bright as before? Does their buoyancy receive no check? They have gained their point, but have they realized what they anticipated? Has the success been so very successful after all?

Probably most of those who have had these experiences will have to confess that while in the first flush of possession all was joyful excitement, yet in a short time that feeling gave way to a calmer and more dispassionate view of its value. Certain flaws and defects that would have been utterly scorned become apparent; it grew to be a commonplace and ordinary possession, and however unwilling they might be to part with it, yet it was no longer upon that, but upon other things still out of reach that their interest and enthusiasm were centered.

Mr. Philip Hamerton, speaking of the present attitude of the French people toward a republican form of government, gives an apt illustration of this truth. He says: "The republican sentiment, though resolute as to the preservation of republican forms, has certainly become wonderfully cool. The coolness of the young men is especially remarkable and significant. They are mostly republicans, it is true, and have no belief in the possibility of a monarchical restoration, but the more intelligent of them see the difficulties and the defects of a republican government very plainly and they have a tendency to dwell upon those difficulties and defects in a manner that would astonish the militant republicans of the past. This composed and rational temper is the state of mind that comes upon all of us after the settled possession of an object, and it is a sign of possession." Most of us can cite instances to match this both in public and private affairs nearer home.

The chief point to be considered, however, is whether this result is or is not to be deplored. Some regard it among the bitter experiences of life, showing merely the transitory and shallow nature of all happiness and the futility of all hopes. "Of what use is it," they say, "to strive and labor for that which, when attained, loses its power of blessing and cheering us? Why encourage an enthusiasm that must fade away and hold up an ideal that is presently to be trodden under foot?" So they sink into pessimism and come to believe that all is vanity and vexation of spirit. But the thoughtful and intelligent man sees far deeper into the problem than this. He has discovered that in this very truth, held to be so mournful, lies the kernel of all progress.

All the rose colored hopes that we indulge, all the attractive future spread out in such fair proportions to our imagination, lure us on to energy and effort. What does it matter that we exaggerate its importance, that we expect impossible effects from it, that all its defects and disadvantages are entirely hidden from our sight? Were it not so, how much of our striving would come to an end! And when we attain these objects, what more natural than that, the excitement of pursuit being over and the tension of mind relaxed, a calmness of spirit should follow and an ability to judge of its excellences and its disadvantages more dispassionately and more correctly.

Suppose the enjoyment is less keen and the satisfaction less complete than we had anticipated. Should the mere pleasure felt in success be the main object of our striving? Satisfaction indeed can only be a transient emotion to an intelligent and advancing man or woman. Were it a permanent condition of mind there could be no further progress. Take, for example, the youth who longs for a higher education and tries, through many obstacles, to obtain it. At length the opportunity comes, and his wishes are crowned with success. Yet his delight, at first very keen, gradually subsides into a calm serenity.

He comes by degrees to understand the meaning of his opportunity, its difficulties, its sacrifices, its labor and the new field of hope and aspiration which it opens up. He no longer rests satisfied with the opportunity for which he longed; his enthusiasm now takes another form; his hopes are raised to a higher level; his energies are engaged in taking advantage of the fortunate occasion, and he now looks with equal earnestness to the time when he shall have finished his course and begun the life work which he has planned.

And when that time comes he will go through the same experience. His glad enthusiasm will be transferred to a still higher altitude, and his new ideal will draw him still onward and upward. Is there anything sad or bitter in such an experience? Is there any loss of real happiness in this fading away of temporary pleasure? It is indeed the only road to happiness that is worthy of a noble man or woman—that happiness which follows the vigorous use of the faculties and the constant pressing upward to higher and higher attainments. —Philadelphia Press.

NEWTON FREE LIBRARY.

LIST OF NEW BOOKS.

Berg, L. de C. Safe Building. Vol. 2.	105.28
A treatise giving the practical and theoretical rules and formulae used in the construction of buildings.
Brief Counsel concerning Business, by an Old Man of Business.	54.690
Browning, O. Dante; his Life and Writings.	91.710
Based upon an article in the Encyclopedia Britannica.
Burnham, C. L. Miss Dag's Secretary; a West Point Romance.	62.907
Caldecott, R. Complete Collection of Randolph Caldecott's Contributions to the "Graphic," with a Preface by Lockyer.	R. 5.59
Chamney, E. W. Wick's Winnie's Mystery for the Old Oak Cabinet; the Story of a King's Daughter.	65.73
Dante Alighieri, Treatise "De Vulgaris Eloquentia," trans. into English with Explanatory Notes.	54.669
Deals first with the highest literary form of the vulgar tongue of Italy and afterwards with the lower forms.
Ewing, J. H. Last Words; a Final Collection of Stories.	63.897
Foreman, J. The Philippine Islands. A historical, geographical, ethnographical, social and commercial sketch of the Philippine Archipelago and its political dependencies.	75.259
French, H. W. Our Boys in Ireland.	36.333
Gore, J. H. A German Science Reader.	43.117
Selections chiefly from textbooks on a vocabulary of terms or words used in a technical sense.
Grenli, A. The Flora of Switzerland; for the Use of Tourists and Field Botanists; trans. by L. W. Patison.	101.553
Hart, A. B. Epoch Maps, illustrating American History.	72.313
Hayden, R. R. Correspondence and Table-Talk, with Memoir by his Son, T. W. Hayden. 2 vols.	95.454
Hepworth, T. C. Photography for Amateurs; a Non-Technical Manual for the Use of All.	101.602
Offered as a practical guide for amateur workers who have taken up photography as an occupation for their leisure hours.
Howe, H. M. The Metallurgy of Steel. Vol. 1.	107.31
This work is the outcome of a desire to give metallurgists an account of our American steel works.
Hughes, W. Class-Book of Physical Geography, with Examination Questions, Notes, etc.	101.567
Humphrey, F. Manual of Typewriting, Business Letter-Writer, and Exercises for Phonographic Practice.	105.442
Hurst, J. F. India; the Country and the People of India and Ceylon.	37.243
Lamb, C. Dramatic Essays; ed. with Introduction and Notes by B. Matthews.	54.688
Eighteen of Lamb's essays and reminiscences of English stage life, with five criticisms.
Morley, C. Peter, a Cat's one Tail; his Life and Adventures.	67.392
Or, G. and Chippie, C. History of Art in Persia; from the French.	57.265
Pictureque Franklin.	37.242
A book of pictures illustrating Franklin County, connected by a descriptive text.
Scott, H. W. Distinguished American Lawyers; with their Struggles and Triumphs in the Court; Introduction by J. J. Ingalls.	97.309
Thwaites, R. G. The Story of Wisconsin.	74.261
One of the Story of the States series, which traces the development of this state, with glimpses of French colonization, English occupation and American absorption.
Timbs, J. Anecdote Lives of Wits and Humorists. 2 vols.	91.700
Touge, A. W. A Son of Old Harry.	62.885
E. P. THURSTON, Librarian.
March 2, 1892.

That Lazy Joseph.

Lawyer P—is a very systematic man. The other day he had his house fitted with electric appliances, and giving instructions to his servant Joseph, he said—

"Now I want you to understand, Joseph, that when I ring once that means for you, and when I ring twice that means for Maggie, the housemaid." Joseph, who is the laziest wretch that ever accepted wages he did not earn, bowed respectfully and withdrew. A little later the bell rang. Joseph never moved. Presently it rang again and according to instructions Maggie came hurrying to her master, who was very angry.

"Why didn't that rascal, Joseph, come when I rang for him," said the lawyer, disgustedly.

"Why, sir," answered Maggie, "Joseph is busy in the office reading your newspaper. When he heard the first ring he said to me, 'Now, Maggie, wait until he rings the second time, and then it will be you he wants.'"

—New York Herald

After the Grip Hood's Sarsaparilla will restore your strength and health, and expel every trace of poison from the blood.

NEWTON CLUB BOWLING.

TEAM 10 ROLLS UP A BIG TOTAL AGAINST TEAM 4.

The match in the Newton Club team bowling tournament Monday evening between teams 10 and 4 was noteworthy for the large scores made by team 10, both Brown and Haskell scoring over 200 pins, with a total summing respectively

200 and 210.

Team 4 lost by 317 pins. The score:

TEAM TEN.

First Second Third Total

Rowler..... 131 198 165 494

Brown..... 212 140 173 525

Peters..... 162 157 157 476

Anders..... 126 174 155 455

Haskell..... 137 151 207 495

Team totals..... 768 819 841 2419

TEAM FOUR.

First Second Third Total

Dearborn..... 149 131 196 476

Pearson..... 152 149 139 440

Smith..... 139 130 130 399

Palmer..... 162 154 143 459

Avery..... 101 122 129 352

Team totals..... 674 687 737 2100

NEWTON CLUB WINS A NEUTRAL GAME.

The Newton Club and Newton Boat Club league teams rolled an interesting game on the alleys of the Arlington Boat Club Tuesday evening. The former led in all three strings and won by 153 pins.

Loring was high roller, with 485. Keller had the best single string, 182. The score:

NEWTON CLUB.

First Second Third Total

Rowler..... 146 170 135 451

Keller..... 152 132 143 427

Tapley..... 125 154 161 440

Savage..... 149 146 154 449

Richardson..... 163 149 158 470

Team totals..... 735 809 751 2295

NEWTON BOAT CLUB.

First Second Third Total

Loring..... 157 167 161 485

Dole..... 135 151 127 413

Buntin..... 156 126 126 408

Kinsley..... 114 156 136 406

Lawrie..... 141 115 157 413

Team totals..... 700 727 707 2134

The highest praise has been won by Hood's Pills for their easy, yet efficient, action.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

of 525 and 408. The lowest individual total was 455 pins, and the total was 2419, one of the largest scored on the club alleys this season.

Team 4 lost by 317 pins. The score:

TEAM TEN.

First Second Third Total

Rowler..... 131 198 165 494

Brown..... 212 140 173 525

Peters..... 162 157 157 476

Anders..... 126 174 155 455

Haskell..... 137 151 207 495

Team totals..... 768 819 841 2419

TEAM FOUR.

First Second Third Total

Dearborn..... 149 131 196 476

Pearson..... 152 149 139 440

Smith..... 139 130 130 399

Palmer..... 162 154 143 459

Avery..... 101 122 129 352

Team totals..... 674 687 737 2100

NEWTON CLUB WINS A NEUTRAL GAME.

The Newton Club and Newton Boat Club league teams rolled an interesting game on the alleys of the Arlington Boat Club Tuesday evening. The former led in all three strings and won by 153 pins.

Loring was high roller, with 485. Keller had the best single string, 182. The score:

NEWTON CLUB.

First Second Third Total

Rowler..... 146 170 135 451

Keller..... 152 132 143 427

Tapley..... 125 154 161 440

Savage..... 149 146 154 449

Richardson..... 163 149 158 470

Team totals..... 735 809 751 2295

NEWTON BOAT CLUB.

First Second Third Total

Loring..... 157 167 161 485

Dole..... 135 151 127 413

Buntin..... 156 126 126 408

Kinsley..... 114 156 136 406

Lawrie..... 141 115 157 413

Team totals..... 700 727 707 2134

The highest praise has been won by Hood's Pills for their easy, yet efficient, action.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

Hood's Pills cure Sick Headache.

What is

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance

WALTER THORPE, Newton Centre
Agent for the GRAPHIC, and receives subscriptions and makes collections for it. He also makes terms for advertising, handbills, and all other kinds of printing. Also, Real Estate to sell and to rent, and insurance against fire in the best English and American companies.

NEWTON CENTRE.

—For other Centre items see page 6.
—Mrs. Albert R. Dyer is at Washington, D. C.
—Mr. Robert Wales of Cedar street has gone to Iowa City, Iowa.
—Mr. Walter Brooks is visiting in Minneapolis for a few weeks.
—Mrs. Kidder of Summer street entertained the Whist Club on Monday evening.
—Seven houses to rent and four for sale in Newton Centre. Apply to W. Thorpe.
—Gentle spring is here and a great supply of seeds and fertilizers now on sale by W. O. Knapp & Co.

—Mr. Edward B. Bowen has gone to the west to visit his branch office there, returning in a month.

—Miss Mary V. Fennessy gives a whist party this afternoon to her Newton friends at her present home in Boston.

—The usual social took place Wednesday evening at the Congregational church vestry, quite a number being present.

—Prof. J. B. Thomas delivered an address in the Baptist church last evening, his subject dealing with the Bible and the church.

—Mrs. George Smith gave a dinner party on Saturday evening to her friends, Mr. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Badger of Boston.

—Mr. S. V. A. Hunter and family have taken apartments at the Vendome, Boston, where they expect to remain until the first of April.

—Mrs. G. M. Baker is occupying the residence of Rev. Lemuel C. Barnes, Paul and Cypress streets during the latter's absence in Palestine.

—Dr. Thomas W. Dike, who opened an office here within the past year, has decided to locate in Dedham, giving up his present practice in this place.

—Mr. Frederic C. Todd is in the west for a short time on business. Mrs. Todd is staying with her sister, Miss Cardin of Lake avenue, during his absence.

—Mr. Dwight Chester drew the valuable lamp at the carnival of Charles Ward Post, last week, but returned it to the table to be resold for the benefit of the Post.

—The Newton Centre Woman's Club met this morning with Mrs. George M. Boynton, Station street. The subject of the essay given by Mrs. Dietrich was, "The Women of Africa."

—At Richardson's an immense cod fish and seven other kinds of fish, dandelions, canned fruits, bottles of fresh cream, milk, fresh butter, fresh boiled lobsters, beef, lamb, veal, Newton eggs.

—The Ladies' Reading Club met with Mrs. Andrew F. Leatherbee of Beacon street, Monday afternoon, and enjoyed an interesting talk on Greece, by Mrs. Dyer of Boston. There was quite a large attendance.

—The new Chestnut Hill postoffice building, corner of Hammond and Middlesex streets has been completed, and Mr. Ernest Winsor of Hammond street has been appointed postmaster, dating from April first.

—The Congregational Society gave a social and supper on Wednesday evening in their vestry. The entertainment was singing by Miss North and Miss Belle S. Bassett and readings by Miss Alice Read.

—Miss Mabel Mason gave a large and delightful whist party, last evening, at her home on Homer street in honor of her friend, Miss Smith, who is visiting here. The many parlors of the house were filled with card tables and the guests occupied the seats around them, were all well known in this village and other parts of Newton.

—Mr. F. H. Hovey, the champion tennis player, will participate in the second annual tournament of the Magnolia Springs, Fla. Tennis Club, which will be given on the grounds connected with the hotel, on March 15th, and will continue through the week. Among other Northern players expected are Mr. V. C. Hall, Mr. A. E. Wright and Mr. R. V. Beach. —Evening Gazette.

—Dr. and Mrs. Sylvester received friends at their home, Beacon street, last Friday afternoon and evening, and although the storm was severe yet a large company gathered and expressed much pleasure in the doctor's recovery and return. Prof. and Mrs. J. B. Thomas assisted in receiving the guests. The messages from those who were unable to be present gave evidence of a hearty "welcome home" to the doctor.

—At the Methodist church Sunday morning Rev. A. B. Leonard, D. D., Corresponding Secretary of the Missionary Society, will preach on the subject of "Missions," and the annual missionary collection will be taken. In the evening the second lecture on hymn writers and their hymns will be given by the Rev. Mr. "I. W. Waters." Hymns will be the subject. Services will commence at 7 o'clock. Seats free. A cordial welcome to all.

—Mr. John J. Cantwell, the popular young organist of the Sacred Heart church, resigned his position here last Sunday in order to accept a more important position in Roxbury. He was the first regular organist of the new church and during the past year, succeeded in bringing the music of the church to a high standard. The many friends he has made here, both in and out of musical circles, wish him much success in his new position.

—Mrs. Gommans, wife of Mr. James Gommans of Beacon street, passed away quite suddenly last Saturday morning. She had been ill only a few days and the end was quite unexpected. The family in their sad bereavement have the sympathy of many friends. The deceased was an active and conscientious member of the Unitarian church. The funeral took place from her late home Monday at 2:30 p. m. only near relatives and intimate friends attending. Rev. Alexander P. Bower, pastor of the Unitarian church, officiated. Many elegant floral tributes were sent from friends. The interment was at Newton cemetery.

We have received the following communication. "Don't mention it! Keep it dark. Just think of it they say he did, that they know it and can prove it. Who, what, when, how, where. What are you talking about? Why, don't you know, haven't you heard, why everybody is talking about it. About what, do be more explicit. Well were you have been not to have heard that so and so stole so and so's rooster one night last week. Nonsense I do not believe a word of it, it is only some one meddling with somebody else's affairs that don't concern him. All right, you may believe him innocent if you choose, but he has been arrested and is going to be tried for it. And just think of it, the Improvement Association has been shrewd enough to make a trade with all the interested parties to have the trial take place in Associates Hall, Wednesday evening, March 16. So whoever wins will be able to pay his lawyer out of his share of the profits. Great dodge that eh? Sharp fellows those up at the Centre, better take it in. Well I guess I will."

—The first grand leap year ball given by young ladies of Newton Centre took place in Associates Hall, Monday evening. The affair proved a most delightful occasion. A promenade concert was given between 8 and 9 o'clock and immediately after the grand march was led by Miss Hannah A. Foley and Mr. J. B. Kneeland, assisted by Miss Katie Kneeland and Mr. Michael Kneeland, followed by the aids. Nearly 100 couples participated. The floor dress was Miss Hannah A. Foley, the matrons were Mrs. C. E. De Rusa, Mrs. H. Burns, Mrs. R. Burke. Some lovely costumes were worn by the ladies. Among the more notable were Mrs. Wake, black satin and jet; Mrs. Burke, grey cashmere and silk; Miss Hannah A. Foley, black china silk and lace; Miss Jennie Tierney, black satin; Miss N. H. O'Keefe, brown ottoman silk; Mrs. James McKinnon, brown satin and plush with gold passementerie; Miss Maggie Foley, cream challie and black nuns veiling with jet; Miss Jennie Tierney, black china silk, lace and jet; Miss Abbie Kneeland, white crepe, gold colored silk trimmings; Miss Annie McKinnon, Newtonville, steel grey silk; Miss Annida Kneeland, lavender crepe and feathers; Miss Annie Curley, black lace; Miss Nellie Callahan, white milk, yellow surah sash; Miss Katie Regan, pink cashmere. At intermission a collation was served. Livie's band furnished music. The occasion was an enjoyable one.

NEWTON HIGHLANDS.

For other Newton Highlands items see page 6.

—J. F. C. Hyde has sold three lots in Newton Highlands, containing 63,470 square feet of land, for Mr. Gordon Dexter, Mr. Elbridge Devine being the purchaser.

—Saturday evening, February 27, the young people of Newton Highlands and their friends enjoyed one of the most delightful parties that have been given here this winter. It was a Leap Year party in every sense of the word and reflects much credit on the young ladies for the faultless way in which it was carried out. Special mention should be made of the floor director who led the Grand March in a most unique manner.

NEWTON UPPER FALLS.

—Edward Flagz has got through at the Gamewell.

—Mr. George Hurd is confined to the house by illness.

—Mrs. Curry is visiting friends in Providence, R. I. this week.

—Joseph Mehan is at work for Mr. G. H. Chambers, the barber.

—Mr. James A. Cahill has secured a position in the Plymouth Bank.

—Another mammoth boiler arrived this week at the pumping station.

—Miles Cusack has added a new two horse express wagon to his increasing business.

—Mr. George Palmer has removed from Ellis street to the John Grover farm in Wellesley.

—Miss Hannah Arnold of Salem is visiting her cousin, Miss Edna Fitzgerald of Elliot street.

—The unique programs used for the Baptist entertainment attracted considerable attention.

—Fred Wilson, the veteran teamster who was formerly well known in Upper Falls, was in town this week.

—The Leap Year party in Moseley Hall, Needham, last evening, attracted quite a number from this village.

—Mail carrier Edes has purchased a glass front depot carriage which is in the paint shop being rejuvenated.

—A new hot water heater has been put in to the Hickey Paper Mills this week, its purpose being to save coal.

—Messrs. Edes Brothers have opened a fish market in the basement, corner of Summer and Chestnut streets.

—Charles Sullivan has left the Pettie Machine Works and is at work for the Union Cycle Co., Highlandville.

—Walter Fildes, who is very ill, was taken to the Newton Cottage Hospital, Tuesday, to secure every advantage possible.

—The Mission services at St. Mary's church were concluded Saturday, and the mission has been at St. Joseph's church, Needham, for four days this week.

—Mrs. Thomas Sullivan of Needham suffered a paralytic shock Saturday, and on Sunday Mrs. Wm. Burke of this place had a shock. Both ladies are comfortable at this writing.

—Edward Lee, the barber, has been ill with the grippe this week. It is rumored that he intends putting in both accommodations for patrons in the spring, an enterprise that will be heartily supported by residents of Upper Falls.

—Four Upper Falls boys were in the police court the first of the week for throwing snow balls, and it is hoped this will have the effect of stopping such actions in the public streets, throwing missiles being a direct violation of the Municipal law.

—The interesting matches in the Quinobegun bowling tourney are to be played tonight between teams 3 and 2, who are tied for first place. The tournament ended last evening when the last scheduled match was rolled between teams 2 and 5, the former winning handily. On Wednesday evening team 3 played team 5, defeating them, thus leaving the winners to fight out the previous tie between them. The match this evening will be a hot one.

—John Braley, a 17 year old nephew of Mr. Hopkinson, who has been at work in the dressers' room at the silk mill, was seriously injured Tuesday afternoon by getting caught in one of the dressers. He is learning to dress silk and while at work about one of the machines got one hand caught in the rolls, and before the power could be stopped the forearm was crushed nearly to the elbow. He was attended by Dr. McDevitt and later removed to the Cottage Hospital. It was at first thought he would lose the limb, but it is understood it will not be necessary to amputate the arm.

—The first March entertainment arranged by Mr. H. C. Forbes for the benefit of the Baptist church was given last evening in Prospect Hall. The Humming Bird Juvenile quartet of Boston and Mr. Chas. F. Williams, humorist and impersonator, comprised the artists and an interesting program was presented. The juvenile quartet won the universal admiration and commendation of the audience and the rarity of such diminutive songsters was a decided treat. Miss May Anderson, Miss Annie Williams, Master Walter Anderson in solos, and the duet by Miss Williams and Master Howard Wemyss were also heartily received. Mr. Williams was especially pleasing in his recitations and impersonations. The second entertainment will take place Thursday evening, March 24, by home talent.

ELIOT.

—Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Garey have been visiting out of town friends this week.

—Mr. Fred W. Turner who has made such a good showing the last two years in the common council race is ill with la grippe.

—Mr. Walter Brackett who injured his hand recently, submitted to an operation Tuesday, performed by Drs. Dean and Wiley and is somewhat improved.

NEWTON LOWER FALLS.

—Mr. D. F. Warren has added two large and handsome horses to his stock.

—Mr. E. H. Whitney started for Cuba last week to be absent about three weeks.

—The Bartholomew estate on Washington street has been leased and will soon be occupied.

—Five candidates were nominated for selectmen at the caucus held in Town Hall, Wellesley, last week.

—The coffee party held in Freeman Hall last Friday was largely attended; about $150 was realized from the affair.

—Rev. Dr. J. W. Twombly, pastor of the M. E. church, will preach next Sunday at 10:45 a. m. on "Probation after Death."

—The opening of the Lenten services were inaugurated Ash-Wednesday at St. Mary's with services at 11 a. m., and 7:30 p. m.

—Rev. Phillips Brooks, D. D., will visit St. Mary's church next Thursday evening and administer the rite of confirmation.

—The popular lecture course in this village was closed by Dr. Emory J. Haynes last Monday, with a very rare and interesting lecture on "Pictures from Life."

—During Lent the following preachers are announced for evening services: Mar. 2, Rev. Geo. W. Shinn, D. D.; Mar. 10, Rev. Phillips Brooks, D. D.; Mar. 16, Rev. W. T. Crocker; Mar. 23, Rev. H. N. Ackley; Mar. 30, Rev. John Matteson; Apr. 13, Rev. W. Hall Williams.

—A great mission will open in St. John's Catholic church on Sunday, March 6th. Two of the most eloquent pulpits orators in America will conduct the services. Preaching service will take place every evening at 7:30 from Mar. 6th to Mar. 20th. Father Callahan was obliged to make application fully a year ago in order to get the services of these great Mission Fathers.

—Mr. H. E. Jaquith of Wellesley Farms has begun suit against the town of Wellesley for destroying and removing a fence which he built last fall, and which it is claimed cut off several feet of the highway. The selectmen visited the place last week Thursday and gave orders for the removal of the fence to owners of property, which was done that day with the aid of axes. The affair has caused quite a breeze in this vicinity.

—The following is a program of Lenten services at St. Mary's church: Sunday morning, prayer and sermon, 10:45 a. m.; Sunday school, 12:15 p. m.; Evening prayer, 3:30 p. m.; Wednesdays, litany with short address, 10 a. m.; service at 7:30 p. m.; Fridays, service at 5 p. m.; Saturdays, children's service at 4:30 p. m.; Holy Communion, first Sunday in the month, 10:45 a. m.; other Sundays in Lent, 9 a. m.; Holy Week, Monday and Tuesday at 5 p. m.; Wednesday, 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Thursday, 7:30 p. m.; Good Friday, 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Easter Even, 5 p. m.; Easter day, service and holy communion 10:45 a. m.; children's service, 3:30 p. m.

NONANTUM.

—The cooking school was started last Tuesday night in the lower hall.

—A. O. Davidson, Esq., of the Etna Mills, is away on a business trip.

—Alec McGregor has returned to this village after an absence of nearly a year.

—The sermons by Dr. W. Calkins at the North church Sunday evenings are highly appreciated.

—Mrs. Margaret Sullivan, wife of D. Sullivan of Pleasant street, died quite suddenly last Saturday.

—Miss Jane Lavandey, who has been employed at the Nonantum Mills a number of years, was married and moved to Waltham last week.

—One of the Watertown papers last week stated that Mrs. Hudson of Bridge street was sick, the other stated that Mr. Geo. Hudson was sick, when as a matter of fact neither of them were sick.

—The Sons of St. George held a dance at Waltham street last Thursday evening. About a hundred tickets are sold in this vicinity and barges will be in readiness to convey persons to this place at the close of the dance, one o'clock. Harry Butterfield is ticket agent for this village.

—A very agreeable and happy company gathered at the lower Athol Hall, last Friday evening, the occasion being the second anniversary of St. Elmo Division Sons of Temperance. Supper was served at 7:45 o'clock by James of Waltham. After supper the chairman of the committee called upon T. J. Valentine of Everett, Mass., D. G. W. P., who stated that as his term of office was nearly closed he desired to leave a reminder of his pleasant association with the division with a new ballot box and gavel, which was received and general applause. Mr. H. F. Butler of Boston favored us with several songs; grand scribe, C. E. Dennett of Malden, made a short address; Master Gawn Wilson of Newton, sang one of his sweet songs and was presented with a bouquet of flowers; Miss Josie Hudson acted as accompanist during the evening; W. H. Waters, W. P. of the division, gave a reading and Miss Servinus sang; Delong Courkum, Esq., of Chelsea made a short address on the work of the stars in connection with the Sons of Temperance; a duet followed by Sigs Griggy and Brooks, and the event of the evening was the solo on the autoharp by Miss Hudson which was heartily encouraged. After a dialogue by the members and the singing of an ode, the services were brought to a close shortly after ten o'clock. The division extend its thanks to Master Wilson, Miss Hudson and Mr. H. E. Butler for their valuable services on this occasion.

WABAN.

—Mr. and Mrs. Bacon left last Thursday for Philadelphia.

—A door has been cut through from the ante-room to the stage in the hall.

—Mr. Harlow has an exhibition of water colors next week at Earle's galleries, Philadelphia.

—A drive party will be held in the hall next Wednesday evening. Admittance by tickets only which can be obtained of Mrs. Shepley.

"No baking powder is gaining public favor so rapidly as Cleveland's."

One reason is people like to know what they are eating, and the composition of Cleveland's baking powder is given on every label.

Plants For Sale!

A large collection of Palms, Ferns, Chrysanthemums, Etc.

DOYLE'S CONSERVATORIES.

Formerly Hovey's, Cambridge Street, Cambridge

WM. E. DOYLE, 43 Tremont St., Boston.

WALTER C. BROOKS & CO.

Importing Tailors

15 Milk Street - Boston

(Birthplace of Franklin

Opposite Old South Church)

W. C. BROOKS, Residence, NEWTON CENTRE.

We most respectfully announce the arrival of our Spring Importations

FINE WOOLENS

Moderate Prices.

C. B. SOMERS, TAILOR,

149 A Tremont St., Boston.

Residence, Lowell St., Newtonville.

—Waban has quite a sick list this week: Mrs. Fuller, Mr. Barnes, Mr. W. D. Dresser, Mrs. Heston and Howard Chisall, all being confined to the house.

—Mr. and Mrs. Saville gave an "at home" last Tuesday night, and in spite of the storm many were present. Among those there were noticed Mr. and Mrs. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. Henshaw, Mr. Blaney, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Shepley, Mr. and Mrs. Stone, Miss Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Strong, The Misses Strong, The Misses Collins, Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Harlow, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. A. Davidson, Mr. Walter Flint, Mr. F. A. Collins, Messrs. Dresser, Miss Chase, Miss Langley.

Fine Spring Woolems.

New importations received by C. B. Somers, of 149 A Tremont street, Boston. A very choice assortment for men's spring wear is shown for early buyers.

"I don't gain any strength."

Over and over again you hear this from the lips of dear ones.

After a time you look up with anxiety into eyes that ought to be bright, but are not.

You see a pinched and drawn face. You ask "What is the matter?" and get for answer "I don't know."

If you are wise you'll take every possible means to know.

Somo enemy is at work in the system, which, if neglected now, will, before many months elapse, give you ample cause to regret.

When every organ is performing its full duty, when the blood has free course through every vein—

When the heart works with perfect regularity, and the stream is pure and warm with life,

Then—

The eye will be bright, The drawn hard lines will disappear from the face, You'll laugh and be happy.

What brings about this marvelous change?

Why, the most natural of all the helpful agencies known to science.

Natural because it is everywhere, and belongs to every living thing.

Without it there would be no life.

With it in abundance there will be the absence of all disease.

OXYGEN is the one natural and sure foe to all unnatural conditions of the body.

OXYGEN will force its way to the outer tips of arterial life.

OXYGEN judiciously compounded and wisely administered gives to the tired organs the vital force they need, and brings you back to the full enjoyment of health and strength.

If you suffer, come to the OXYGEN PARLORS, 50 Bromfield St., Boston, and let us talk it over. THAT WILL COST YOU NOTHING.

If you cannot come, send us your name and address, and we'll send you a book that will be of the greatest help to you.

It will be sent you free of all charge.

F. O. EVERETT,

Medical Actuary.

U. S. Compound Oxygen Co.,

50 Bromfield St., Boston.

ENDORSEMENT

BY THE

BOARD OF TRADE

OF

THE LONE STAR

Cotton Picking Machine.

Waco, Texas, Dec. 5, 1891.

Mr. Seth Turner, Sec'y, Boston, Mass.

Dear Sir: Find enclosed herewith copy endorsement committee of Waco Board of Trade, also of two gentlemen prominent in the cotton business. We convince every one who sees our machine work. Yesterday we shipped one of our improved machines to Mr. Mason at Tusculum, Ala. and to-day we shipped another to Honey Grove, Texas. From both points we have advice that there is considerable cotton yet to be picked, so you see we have not withdrawn our machines from the field by any means.

Have had photos taken of our improved Cotton Picker, several views. Will send you these as soon as we get them.

Yours, etc.,

E. J. GURLEY, Prest

Waco, Texas, Dec. 1, 1891.

To whom it may concern:—

Recognizing the importance to the South of Cotton, and the heavy expense of picking it, we, the undersigned, members of the Waco Board of Trade, have watched with great interest the development of the Lone Star Cotton Picking Machine, and on Nov. 26th, having been informed by the President of the Company that a test would be made by the machine, went out to the Evans' Farm, about nine miles from Waco where a field had been reserved for the purpose, and we made a careful and impartial investigation of its work. We are fully convinced that the machine, as now improved by said Company, picks a large per cent of cotton, a cleaner staple, and in all respects far superior to human hands, as demonstrated to us on above mentioned date.

Congratulating the South and the officers of said Company upon this important invention, we are Respectfully,

(Signed),

R. B. Parrott, Prest.

Sare Sanger, V. Prest.

John T. Battle, Chair. Com.

Waco Board of Trade.

Waco, Texas, Dec. 3, 1891.

We, the undersigned, saw the Lone Star Cotton Picking Machine at work in a field near Waco on Dec. 1st, 1891, and we carefully compared the work done by it with the work done by hand in the same field, and we know that the machine left less cotton behind it than was left by those picking by hand, and that it picked cleaner cotton than the hand-picked cotton.

(Signed) Hugh L. McElroy,

Agt. Atwood Violet Co., New Orleans.

Cotton Buyer, Liverpool Syndicate.

The above evidence should be conclusive but it will take some time for men with money to digest it and act, as always, that When inventions are brought out that revolutionize the industries affected by them men are slow to believe. Field with his telegraph so perfected that no one could doubt that it would do all that was claimed for it, could find no one with capital to back him, and only succeeded by enlisting government aid. Each valuable invention now earning millions for its owner (and there are many such) have passed through a stage in its history, where shares in it could have been purchased at a nominal sum.

The Lone Star Cotton Picking Machine Company, has proved by actual use their machine capable of picking cotton at a small fraction of the cost by the old method. This must place this company in the van of the phenomenal financial successes of the century. We advise our sagacious readers to call on the Secretary, Room 229, Parker House, examine the machine and arrange to share in its financial success; while the less intelligent are pondering and letting the opportunity pass by.

Pearmain AND Brooks,

Bankers and Brokers.

(Members Boston Stock Exchange.)

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

VOL. XX.—NO. 23.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, MARCH 11, 1892.

TERMS—$2.00 PER YEAR.

We wish to call your attention to the fact that we are the headquarters for Silver, Brass, and Iron Bedsteads of every description. It is now conceded by the majority of people that bedsteads of metal are preferable to those made of wood. Some of the advantages the metallic stands have over those of wood are: durability, cleanliness, healthfulness, they occupy less space, contain no wood to warp, and add much to the furnishings of a room. The brass used in the construction of all our bedsteads is selected stock, carefully polished, and then lacquered with the finest English lacquer, a guarantee against tarnish. We warrant every bedstead we sell to be just as represented, and make a specialty of finishing Iron Bedsteads (with brass trimmings), in any color desired, matching the most delicate tints and shades.

We also wish to call your attention to our Bedding Department. We make to order, luxurious upholstered springs, pure South American horse hair mattresses, choice live geese down and feather pillows and bolsters; and also carry in stock the standard spring beds, California blankets, and in fact almost everything that will have a tendency to make your sleeping hours most comfortable and enjoyable. Estimates given for furnishing private residences and institutions.

You are personally invited to inspect our stock, which consists of the most desirable goods from English and American manufacturers.

PUTNAM & SPOONER,

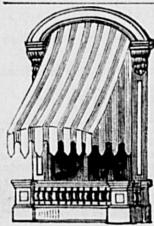

546 WASHINGTON STREET.
Opposite Adams House, BOSTON.

THE LATEST CENT'S GOLF BLUCHER.

EVERY PAIR WARRANTED.
STACY, ADAMS & CO.

669 Washington Street, 33 Green Street, BOSTON,
and 440 Harvard St., CAMBRIDGE.

MACDONALD BROS.
MANUFACTURERS OF

AWNINGS.

Canopies for Weddings, Receptions,

ETC., TO LET

And Put Up at Short Notice.

166 and 168 Lincoln Street, BOSTON.

THOS. O'CALLAGHAN & CO.

CARPETS

Bargains for the coming week

SMITH'S MOQUETTE, 95c. per yard.

LOWELL,
ENGLISH,
BIGELOW

BRUSSELS, 97½c.
per yard.

LOWELL
EX-SUPERS, 55c. per yard.

SANFORD'S, ROXBURY,
STINSON'S

TAPESTRIES, 65c.
per yard.

597, 599 and 601 Washington St.,
Opposite Globe Theatre, Boston.

HOWARD B. COFFIN

DEALER IN FINE TEAS and BEST COFFEES

AND NEWTON AGENT FOR
DEERFOOT - FARM - PRODUCTS.
363, 361 Centre and 4, 6 Hall Sts.
COLE'S BLOCK, NEWTON.

CREAM.

THE FAMOUS
Turner Centre Cream,

FOR SALE BY
C. P. ATKINS
Ten Cents for One-Half Pint.

HARRY BROOKS DAY, TEACHER OF PIANO-FORTE Organ, Harmony, COUNTERPOINT and COMPOSITION

Elliot Block, or Hotel Hunnewell,
NEWTON.

Clara D. Whitman-Reed, M. D.
RESIDENCE AND OFFICE,
437 Centre St., opposite Vernon,
Hours—1 to 3 and 7 P. M.

Dr. F. L. McINTOSH,
Corner of Washington and Jewett St.
(Office of the late Dr. Keith.)
Office Hours: 4 to 7 P. M. Usually at home
until 9 A. M.
Refers to Dr. W. Wesselhoof, and Dr.
James R. Bell.
Telephone, Newtonville, 46-2.

CAKE.

Your attention is called to the quality of our Cakes, they are equal to any made.
Try them.

Also

OYSTERS AND SALADS.

CROQUETTES AND PEAS.

ICES AND CREAMS.

JAMES PAXTON,

Caterer and Confectioner,
ELLIOT BLOCK, opp. Depot, NEWTON.

PARLOR STOVES

BENT'S FURNITURE ROOMS
WATERTOWN.

C. S. DECKER,
Custom Tailor
326 Centre Street,
NEWTON, - MASS.

West Newton Lyceum.

The next meeting of the West Newton
Lyceum, will be held in

CITY HALL,
Wednesday Evening, Mar. 16, '92

PROGRAM.
LECTURE. Rev. N. P. Gilman.
SUBJECT. "Right Method in Social Reform."
QUESTION FOR DEBATE.
"Does crime decrease in proportion to the intellectual advancement of the community."
Admission 5c. 6 Tickets 25c.

President, ABBOT BASSETT.
Secretary, ARTHUR R. COE.

Shirts Made to Order!

By E. B. BLACKWELL,
4 THORNTON STREET, - NEWTON.
A Perfect Fit Guaranteed.

Best Material. First-Class Work.
Superior Shirts, $1.50. Best Dress Shirts, $2 each.
Will call on customers at such time and place
as will suit their convenience.
Repairing is Done Neatly and Promptly.
New Bosoms, 50c.; Neckbands, 15c.; Wristbands,
15c.; Cuffs, 30c.; Collars 25c; Centre
Plates 25c.
Ready fitting shirts made to fit well.

Open March 1st.
SWIMMING

The Lessons in Swimming at LASELL SEMINARY,
Auburndale,

Are open to women and children
not connected with the school. Now
is a good time to begin so as to be ready to enjoy the ocean next summer. The water is kept warm, there are convenient dressing-rooms, hair-drying machines, etc.

Terms, $1.25 a lesson, including everything. Apply to

MISS RANSOM, Teacher,
At the Seminary or by letter.

DENTISTRY

H. E. Johnson, D.D.S.
Ten years Practical Experience.
Office, over Ingraham's Drug Store
WEST NEWTON.
First class operating in all branches at reasonable rates.
Office Hours: 8:30 a. m. to 5:00 p. m.

M. WALDRON, SPECIALIST.
Facial Blemishes, Positively Cured by Electrolysis Painless Method.
415 Columbus Ave., Boston.
Office Hours: 12 to 5 P. M.

NEWTON.

C. Farley, Tuner, 433 Washington Street.

Mr. Albert Brackett and family have arrived safely at Jacksonville.

Dr. J. F. Frisbie is suffering from a severe attack of facial neuralgia.

Rev. Mr. Buckingham and wife have gone to St. Augustine for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Leonard have gone to Nebraska and other western points on a six weeks' trip.

Mrs. F. B. Hitchcock and Miss Maria Hills have taken rooms at Mrs. Knowles, on Richardson street.

Miss Helena McCullough of New Bedford is the guest of her friend, Miss Nellie
C. Grace of Pearl street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Brackett of Bellevue street have gone to California, for the benefit of the latter's health.

Dr. F. N. Perry left this week for Ash-ville, N. C., with a view to making his permanent home there.

Mr. and Mrs. White of Hotel Hunnewell, leave tomorrow for Springfield to make their permanent home there.

Mrs. Florence S. Tolman has sold to Mr. Justin Whittier the estate corner of Orchard and St. James streets.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Emerson have returned from a month's visit to Old Point Comfort and other Southern places of interest.

City Treasurer Kenrick is still seriously ill, and is greatly missed by visitors to City Hall, but a slight improvement in his condition is now reported.

Rev. Wolcott Calkins, D. D., presided at the general meeting in Old South church yesterday afternoon, the last day of the foreign missionary conference.

Miss Mary E. Bartlett of Dorchester sent out invitations for an afternoon tea for Wednesday, March 9. Miss Cushing of Newton assisted her in receiving.

William Welch, the veteran gateman, returned to work Sunday but had to give up, not having sufficiently recovered from the effects of his recent illness.

The annual business meeting of the W.
C. T. U. will be held Monday, March 13, at 3 o'clock in Y. M. C. A. rooms. Reports will be given and officers elected.

Rev. Mr. Calkins' lectures on the Reformation will be continued next Sunday evening. "Thomas Cranmer the Reformer of the Church of England," is the subject.

The Elliott Hickory Cycle Company has very recently issued a very complete cyclopaedia, which has all the Elliott characteristics from cover to cover, the wooden cycle included.

The choral service at Elliot church last Sunday evening was one of the best yet given at the church, the solos and the songs of the male quartet and quintet being especially good.

A musical and dramatic entertainment will be held in the basement of the Church of Our Lady on the evening of March 17, (St. Patrick's night). It will conclude with a laughable Irish farce.

Mrs. John Martin of Newtonville is giving a series of parlor talks on Historical subjects to the Newton ladies, and the next at the residence of Mrs. Coffin, and "Queen Eleanor" is the subject.

Two musicals in aid of the kindergarten for the blind will be given at the residence of Mrs. J. S. Potter, Walnut Park, on March 30th and April 6th, at 8 p. m. The tickets are limited in number and the music will be of a high order.

Music in Grace church on Sunday night:

Processional, O day of rest and gladness.

Magnificat, Kimmins

Nunc Dimittis, Kimmins

Anthem, Turn thy face from my sins, Alwood

Retrospect, Kimmins

The sewer on Washington street is being pushed right ahead, in spite of the weather, and will soon reach the head of Hovey street when that section is to stop, as east of Hovey street is on a different slope and the sewer will run from there to Nonantum square.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Lillian Latta, daughter of Mr. J.
G. Latta, formerly postmaster of Newton, to Mr. Henry H. Hayes of Chicago. The ceremony took place March 9, and Mr. and Mrs. Hayes will be at home at 401 Bowen street, Chicago, after March 16.

Miss S. M. Dunklee leaves Los Angeles this week for San Francisco, and about the first of April she will start on her return journey. She writes that she is enjoying her trip very much, and especially the genial climate and magnificent scenery, and her health is much benefited by the change.

The meeting of the Social Science Club at Mrs. L. B. Gay's, this week, was quite a notable affair. The public library in relation to the schools was the subject for discussion, and Miss Bullard of the South Boston branch read a paper, giving the theoretical side of the question, and Miss Thurston of the Newton Library made very practical and interesting remarks.

The members of the Democratic Ward and City Committee of Ward One met and organized at their headquarters last evening. Mr. John E. Briston was elected chairman and Mr. Wm. F. Grace secretary.
The object of the meeting being the formation of a registration and naturalization club. Several names of the prominent Democrats of the ward were added to the list of members, and immediate steps will be taken to strengthen the ranks of the party previous to the coming National and State elections.

At a regular meeting of Local Union
275 of the B. O. C. & J. of A. of Newton the following resolutions were adopted:
Whereas, it has pleased the supreme ruler of the universe to remove by death from our midst, brother Daniel J. Clifford, we offer this as a tribute to his memory. It is resolved, that in the death of brother Daniel J. Clifford the brotherhood has lost a faithful worker and the union an esteemed member. Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to his family and also printed in the Newton papers.
T. L. Williams, J. A. Butler, committee.

Mrs. Emma Eames Story's sad point, says the Boston Herald, is that she is not wanting in dramatic force, but she seems to have no dramatic intelligence. A colder, calmer prima donna never sang. She is a stone. During her personation it is obvious that she is engaged in the singing and that her acting has a very small place in her mind. Occasionally she falls into fine, telling poses which she has evidently been taught. But the dramatic aspect of what she is doing, the impres-sioned interest of the story in which she is moving, never seems to touch her. It is said that at her debut all Paris was amazed at her extraordinary calmness and self-possession. This is what it is—she has no nerves, no sensibility. She does not feel her music or her acting. Between her and the realm of feeling and sensibility a veil hangs. Whether she will ever make a great prima donna depends upon the tearing away of this veil—upon that and the continuance of her physical strength.

The Channing Entertainment Club had a large audience, Wednesday evening, and the unusual attraction of three excellent plays were given in the excellent style for which the club is noted.

Where all did well it is hardly fair to particularize, but special honors were won by Miss Clara Soule, Mr. Sidney R.
Bartlett and Mr. Edward Angier Jr.

The program was as follows: "A House hold Fairy," Julian DeClifford; "Mr.
Irwin Moothead," Catherine, Miss Margaret Dodge. "None so Deaf as Those who Won't Hear," Singleton Coddle, Mr.
Sidney R. Bartlett; Washington Whit-well, Mr. Porter B. Chase; Eglington Coddle, Miss Laura R. Stone; Jane
Smith, (a servant), Miss Clara G. Soule.

"A Woman's Word," Mr. Harwood,
Mr. George Angier, Jr., Mr. Harwood,
Miss Alice Angier; Mr. Henry Harford,
Mr. Harry Day; Jessie Harford, Miss Leslie Vance Grant; James, Mr. Herbert L.
Felton, Lucy, Substitute for Miss Mabel
F. Kenrick, Harford's Servants.

Hotel Hunnewell has always been one of the most popular of the many family hotels about Boston, and guests who come there for a few months frequently remain for years, as Mr. Harwood leaves nothing undone for their comfort, and the table is not surpassed by any of the hotels in or about Boston.

The rooms are all heated by steam and lighted by electricity, and the commanding location of the house and its spacious piazas, with fine lawns, tennis courts, etc., make it a very popular summer home. There will soon be a number of rooms vacated, some families who have been guests for years, going to housekeeping in Newton, and others leaving for other cities. Those who apply early will secure their choice of rooms, and it is a very unusual thing for any rooms to be long vacant at the hotel. Generally applications have to be made months in advance to secure a room.

Y. M. C. A.

With commendable enterprise the Junior Department of the Y. M. C. A. are undertaking to supply a felt need among the boys and girls of Newton by providing a series of afternoon entertainments to be given in the Association hall.

Only a limited number of tickets for the course will be sold, subscriptions for which are now being received at fifty cents each.

W. D. Le Roy, an entertainer in high class magic, humorous experiments and unique conjuring will give the first on March 18th.

April 1st, Miss May Parks, cornet soloist, a ladies quartet, members of the Department, and other local talent, will give an afternoon of music and recitations.

And on April 15th, The Humming Bird Quartet, four little ladies and gentlemen, assisted by Master Willie Elliott, reader and violinist, will complete the course with a delightful entertainment which has been one of the most popular among juvenile as well as other audiences in the vicinity of Boston during the past season.

The practical talk previously advertised to be given by Mr. J. W. Davis next Monday evening in the Y. M. C. A. course will be postponed on account of the death of his sister Miss M. A. Davis.
Hoping that Mr. Davis has kindly consented to substitute for Mr. Davis, and will give a talk on "Hawaii the paradise of the Pacific and the world's Inferno, as seen through a stereopticon."

This will be given in the Elliot Church lecture room which has kindly been loaned for the purpose, the Association's hall being too small to permit a proper display of the pictures.

All interested are invited to attend.
Mr. H. F. Beut spoke on individual responsibility at the four o'clock men's meeting in Y. M. C. A. hall last Sunday and Mr. Stephen Moore will give an address the coming Sunday.

NEWTON LOWER FALLS.

Mr. W. R. Diamond is to soon remove to Boston.

Mr. Chas. H. Hale, of Wellesley Hills, has returned from a southern trip.

Mr. J. F. Wright, of Wellesley Farms, has returned from a trip to Europe.

The mission which is being held in St.
John's church for two weeks is being largely attended.

The large machines, which were being set up at the Mills the past three weeks are now in running order.

Mr. George Spring and wife are making a visit with Mr. Benjamin Clark, of Brighton, formerly of this place.

It is stated that Sullivan's mills are soon to run night and day, which will furnish employment for almost double the number of help now employed.

Bishop Brooks visited St. Mary's last evening and the church was crowded to the very doors. He preached a very eloquent sermon, and afterwards confirmed a large class. The new boy choir, under the direction of Mr. Harry Brooks Day, sang for the first time in the church, and gave great satisfaction.

Much interest was taken by Wellesley townsmen at their annual election, held last Monday. The candidates from this end of the town were defeated. Mr. Joe Monaghan, for selectman, was defeated by forty-two votes. For assessor, Daniel Warren failed of re-election by four votes;
John Cannon, for constable, was defeated after having held the position several years. The selectmen elected are: Richard T. Cunningham, Oliver C. Livermore and Sylvan C. Evans.

The Epworth League connected with the M. E. Church met at the residence of the pastor, Dr. Twombly, on Wednesday evening last. Instrumental selections were rendered by Mrs. Levi Wales and Miss Vina Hastings, and by Messrs. R. Lambert and W. L. D. Twombly. The League paper, the Muncie Pie, was read by the ed-itress, Miss Alma Sears, and an interesting talk on conchology was given by Mrs.
Twombly, illustrated with many specimens of shells from foreign shores. After a general session of song the company dispersed, well pleased with their evening's entertainment.

The Valentine boarding-house, Wellesley Hills, caught fire last week, Thursday at noon, which damaged the structure beyond all possible hope of rebuilding. The day being the worst of the year and on account of the huge snow drifts the fire department of the town arrived when the fire was raging, and after two hours of hard work succeeded in putting it out. There was little of the furniture and valuables saved compared with what was burned and broken, and quite a loss is estimated. The building was owned and occupied by Mrs.
Olive Valentine and family, and two families engaged rooms and boarded. The cause of fire is said to be overheating. Insured for $4,000.

THE MEMORIAL HALL.

A GOOD START MADE TOWARDS GETTING THE BUILDING.

The first practical step toward an organization for the purpose of erecting the Memorial Hall has been taken. The following articles of agreement were decided upon last week Thursday, at a meeting held for the purpose at the U.
S. Hotel, Boston.

"We whose names are hereto subscribed, do by this agreement associate ourselves, with the intention to constitute a corporation according to the provisions of the one hundred and fifteenth chapter of the Public Statutes of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and the acts in amendment thereof, and in addition thereto.

The name by which the corporation shall be known is the Newton Memorial Hall Association.

The purpose for which the Corporation is constituted is the purpose of building and maintaining a memorial Hall in the City of Newton as a Monument to the Memory of the soldiers and sailors from Newton in said Commonwealth, who served their country in the war of the Rebellion. To commemorate their bravery, their achievements and their sacrifices, and also to preserve in remembrance the spirit of loyalty, and self-sacrifice of the people of said Newton without distinction of age or sex in support of the Union during said war.

Also of furnishing accommodation for the organization or Posts of the Grand Army of the Republic, established in said Newton, and other charitable and social bodies of like character and purpose, also the establishment and maintenance of a Reading Room, Library, and Historical Museum and places therefor, and for social meetings and lectures.

The place within which the corporation is established or located is the City of Newton, aforesaid, within said Commonwealth.

Said Corporation is to have no Capital stock.

In witness whereof, we the undersigned etc.

These articles are to be signed by two citizens and two Post men from each ward of the city, which is enough for purposes of incorporation, other members of the association come in later under the By Laws.

The subscription papers are now being prepared and very soon our citizens will have an opportunity of showing their public spirit, by their generous response.

A strong feeling has been expressed by those most interested in this movement, that this building shall be a distinctive one. No business should be carried on in connection with it. The proposal which has been made that it be in connection with some future new City Hall, is particularly unacceptable.

The building as drawn by Hartwell and Richardson, and published in the Graphic, is what is wanted.

This building is estimated to cost Forty thousand dollars above the ground, but what is that to the monied men of Newton? One or two subscriptions of Five thousand each, ten of one thousand each, twenty of five hundred each, twenty of two hundred and fifty each,
and the balance in smaller sums.

It is easily done provided those who have the money are inclined to do it.

It is believed that they will. There is certainly a great deal of interest being taken in the enterprise and another month may see the erection of this beautiful building practically assured.

The location is to be left to the vote of the subscribers, so here is an incentive to each ward to subscribe liberally in order to have the strongest voice in the question of location.

Now let us all pull together in this matter which is in every way so worthy of our effort.

NEWTON CLUB.

DUPLICATE WHIST.

On Saturday evening there were eight tables, and an exciting contest between sides represented by Messrs. Sprague and Kingsbury, with the following results:

MR. SPRAGUE'S SIDE.

Sprague & Perkins.....177

Johnson & Pratt.....189

Sampson & Priest.....183

Goodrich & Mendenhall.....185

Hatch & Pease.....181

Pierce & Copeland.....187

Cole & Jones.....182

Mendall & Brackett.....191

1475

MR. KINGSBURY'S SIDE.

Kingsbury & Leland.....187

Pearson & Larrabee.....175

Chapman & Young.....181

Lowell & Wildman.....179

Fitzpatrick & Jones.....183

Anders & Russell.....187

Rose & Adams.....182

Coffin & Towne.....173

1437

On next Saturday evening, Messrs.
Brown & Marble will select sides, and it is anticipated that an interesting contest will be had, as the choice of players will be carefully made and as evenly matched as is possible.

Beautiful Palms.

Decorate your home with palms, Rubber Plants, Dracaenas, Ferns, Cyclamens, Primroses, etc. All sizes and prices at Mansfield's, Crafts st., Newtonville, P.O.
box 111. All plants delivered free.

The Gamewell Wins.

Judge Mason has rendered his decision in the case of the Gamewell Fire Alarm and Signal Co. vs. Moses G. Crane et al.

The court's decree states that defendant Crane's acts in connection with the new corporation are in violation of his agreement with plaintiff, that he be enjoined for the period covered by the agreement from competing in violation thereof, directly or indirectly, as an officer, mem-

CITY GOVERNMENT.

NEWTON HIGHLANDS RESIDENTS PROTEST AGAINST A STREET RAILWAY.

The Board of Aldermen met Monday evening. Mayor Hibbard in the chair and Aldermen Harbach, Coffin, Hyde, Wilson, Sorague and Sheppard present. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Mayor Hibbard appointed the following special policeman, who had successfully passed the civil service examination: James J. Mullen, Hiram B. Hartford, John T. Moody, Peter J. McAleer, William S. Scammon, Seth I. Johnson, Jeremiah E. McMahon, Daniel J. Corcoran, John J. Kilroy.

J. Herbert Brown was appointed special police on the Newton street railway.

Amos L. Hale was appointed registrar of voters for three years.

The school committee recommended a change in the tuition laws so that truant can be sent to the Norfolk county truant school at Walpole. Referred.

The school committee also recommended that quarters be fitted up in the old Claffin school building for the school department at an expense of $300. Referred.

A bill for making out the record of 637 births in Newton in 1891 was presented by Mr. Geo. Bridges and ordered paid.

The Hydrant account for 1891 of $13,000 was ordered paid.

Business from the Common Council was disposed of in concurrence, including petitions for crosswalks at Water-street and Broadway, at Park and Washington streets; requesting the legislative committee to appear in behalf of certain legislation at the state house; petition for abatement of street water-logging assessment of Henry L. Terry, on Lincoln and Woodward streets; for street light at corner of Pleasant street and Ashton Park; report of trustees of Reed fund of $40,000, showing an income of $1500 for the year; the report of the sinking fund commissioners for 1891, in which the amount to be raised this year was stated to be $59,000.

Geo. A. Blaney, the attorney for Chas. E. Ranlett, Otis Pettie, L. G. Pratt, Isaac F. Kingsbury, and other selectmen of the town of Newton, presented his bill for services rendered in the famous case of Lemon vs. the town of Newton, which was finally dismissed from the files of the court for lack of prosecution, after a great number of postponements secured by Mr. Blaney. His bill was $250 and it was referred to the committee on finance.

The report of the City Marshal for 1891 was presented and filed.

The order appropriating $2500 for sanitary improvements at the High School came from the Common Council referred back to the committee on public property for explanation, but the Aldermen refused to concur on motion of Alderman Hyde, who said the matter had been fully explained, the board adhered to its former action approving the bill.

Taos E. Baker and others petitioned to have the walks graded and gravelled on Fern street from Hancock to Central street.

The petition of Emerson and others to have Bowdoin street from Forest to Hillsdale streets laid out and accepted was referred.

Robert Levi asked to have a walk on Chester street graded and concreted.

Willie M. Russell asked to have his druggist's license transferred to his new store 20 Water-street. Referred.

F. L. Marston and others asked to have walks graded and concreted on Columbus and Chestnut streets, Ward Five.

Higgins and Nickerson asked for license to move building from Walker to Edinboro street.

About half the voters of Upper Falls petitioned for a path and steps through Mrs. Sullivan's land from Eliot to High street.

The Nonantum Club, recently formed, asked for a certificate of incorporation as a club for social purposes.

The Telephone Co. applied for license to extend two wires across street poles on Mr. Dowse's house, and also across Griffin Avenue, and Church street to Maple Avenue.

A. L. Jewett and others asked for two street lights on Eliot Avenue.

The Newton & Watertown Gas company asked for license to erect poles on Berkeley and Prince streets for the support of electric light wires, and also sent in a communication asking to have Prince street struck out of the application.

Alderman Wilson presented a petition from Messrs. Howe, Wood, Gorham and Hinckley asking for electric light poles on Berkeley street for the gas company.

Alderman Hyde presented an ordinance from the Board of Health relative to plumbing.

A. L. Jewett and others asked to have Eliot Ave. from Waltham street for 700 feet easterly laid out, graded and accepted as a public way.

George W. Barton gave notice of intention to build house 28 by 30 feet on Waltham street.

NONANTUM HOSE HOUSE.

Alderman Hyde presented an order appropriating $12,500 for the building of a hose house and police station at Nonantum.

Alderman Sheppard hoped the order would not pass in its present shape. He did not believe in building a hose house and police station together, but thought they ought to be separate. If we are going to spend all this money we might add $240 and this would pay for two separate buildings according to the figures of all the contractors who had sent in bids. They could be separated by 25 or 30 feet. Last year the chairman of the public property committee said the buildings could be put up for $7,500. The objection to the site was obviated by the new parochial school which is expected to be completed.

Alderman Hyde said one building was much better than two and two buildings would each be small and insignificant. The public property committee were unanimous with one exception, the police committee were unanimous and so was the fire committee.

Mayor Hibbard said the police committee was not unanimous about the price. Alderman Hyde said it was true but he could convince them if he had time.

Alderman Sheppard's amendment was not seconded and a vote was taken by yeas and nays. Aldermen Harbach, Coffin, Hyde and Wilson voting yes and Aldermen Sheppard no, and the order failed to pass.

On motion of Alderman Sheppard Michael Tighe was given leave to withdraw on his claim for damages. Also

F. C. Perry on his petition for abatement of bill for drain on Court street.

On motion of Alderman Coffin the highway committee were authorized to settle all claims arising from the contract of Chas. H. Hale for street widening which he had abandoned, and also to go ahead and crush what stone was needed by the city.

HEARINGS.

No one appeared at the hearing on the telephone company's petition for license to locate poles on Bridge, California, Chapel and Peabody streets.

OBJECT TO STREET RAILWAYS.

The hearing on the petition of the Newton & Boston Street Railway company for the right to extend its road from Homer street through Walnut to Newton Highlands called out a number of the residents of Walnut street at the Highlands to protest, and Alderman Hyde presented a remonstrance signed by all but two of the property owners from Griffin Avenue to the square.

Ex-Alderman S. L. Powers appeared for the railroad company and said the franchise to Newton Centre has been granted already, but the company found there was a demand that they extend the road to the Highlands and also to Upper Falls. The company has petitioned the legislature for the right to increase their capital stock to $100,000 and to issue bonds and a hearing will be given Tuesday. The company desired to extend the road to the Highlands and later to the Upper Falls. It seemed to him that it was just as important to connect Newton Highlands with Newtonville, which was the hub of the city if not of the State, as to connect Newton Centre with Newtonville. The Highlands should have the same privileges as to attending the High School as Newton Centre.

Mr. H. B. Parker said the company had asked for the extension in response to the petitions of a number of residents of the Highlands. One gentleman said he had two children in the High school, and when it stormed it cost him 60 cents a day to get them there, and he could not afford such an expense. There are others who can not attend the High school because their parents cannot afford to pay their fares. It seemed to him that any one who had the interest of the city at heart would sacrifice the peace and comfort of the town for the benefit of the city.

On motion of Alderman Coffin $400 was appropriated for the purchase of a parcel of land from Louis E. Belcher in Ward Six for a park, and also to convey the thanks of the city to the donor.

The order for the vacation of 14 days for the members of the police and fire departments was passed.

An order was passed that the Newton & Boston street railway company lay granite paving blocks.

The plumbing ordinance was read and passed to be enforced.

Mr. F. Miller of Hammond street and Linwood O. Towne of California street were drawn as jurors for the Supreme Court, to meet at Lowell on the second Monday in March.

The board then adjourned.

A Complaint Against the Police.

To the Editor of the Graphic:

An incident of police abuse took place in this village which has scarcely had its equal even by the reputed New York police.

A young man, a citizen, and the son of a citizen here, stood with his brother, a boy of about 12 years old a few steps from their home talking, when a policeman came along addressing them with the polite phrase, "What in H— are you doing here?" Upon this they went towards their home, the police following; when on the steps of the house the police grasped the young man to arrest him, the young man freed himself and went up the piazza of his father's house, when the police seized him and threw him down, choked him severely and put manacles on him.

When his mother, who was called by his brother, came out and found him kneeling on the boy choking him, asked what he was doing to the boy, his choice answer was, "It is none of your D— business and dragged the boy (in spite of the mother's protest) by the manacles towards the telegraph box to call the Patrol wagon, notwithstanding the boy pleaded to free him as he was willing and ready to go with him. All this outrage was done on pretence that the boy was drunk. When the case came before the court a number of witnesses who saw what had happened and others who saw him before, all testified that he was not really drunk, but a case of false testimony. The testimony of a policeman who declared that all the witnesses were liars, and other policemen who declared the boy was drunk, the judge gave judgment against the boy, notwithstanding he ought to have known that any one who declares everything a liar is ordinarily the biggest liar of all. He ought to have had a sense of fairness and judicial dignity to rebuke such insulting language towards their equals either in character or veracity. Such happenings do not raise the dignity of the court room, nor has the police the right or authority to arrest and manacle a peaceful citizen, even if he were supposed to be drunk, if he does not interfere or trouble any one; and even worse, going on the premises of the person, if he can be reached at any time to be summoned to appear before court. Where is our boasted right of citizenship? A policeman can trump up some pretended offence and arrest and manacle any citizen. Do our citizens not see that it is time that something ought to be done to stop the police abuse, we are too indifferent about our rights and allow them to be trampled upon. In a police court it is not a case of law, but of justice and common sense, which were completely wanting in this case.

Moses QUINBY.

West Newton, March 7, 1892.

Cancer Can be Cured, and by Dr. James H. Soliman, Jr., 25 Cent St., Boston, Mass.

Boston, Aug. 26, 1890.

Dr. Soliman has cured a cancer on my lip of several years' standing. It was cut out twice, by what they call eminent surgeons, at intervals of six years, after being cut out each time I knew by the feeling it was still there, and it was not until I met Dr. Soliman that I was cured. I would urge those afflicted with cancer not delay, but to go at once and be cured permanently as I have done. My dear Doctor I thank from the bottom of my heart.

JOHN HALLAHAN.

78 Charlestown Street.

Burglar Captured.

This morning about two o'clock, John Wood, the well-known plumber who resides on Main Street, was awakened by hearing glass break. On getting out of bed he received a blow on the head. He immediately grappled with the burglar, and after a terrible struggle succeeded in holding him until his wife obtained help. On being searched at the station, Mr. Wood's watch and wallet was found on his person. He gave the name of Robert Terry. The broken glass proved to be a bottle of Sulphur Bitters which had almost cured Mrs. Wood of rheumatism.—Exchange.

The President.

Of the Bank of Waverley, Iowa, says: Sulphur Bitters saved my life. For ten years I suffered from Catarrh and Liver Complaint; I lost forty-five pounds and was growing worse rapidly. I had almost lost faith in medicine, but hearing your Bitters so well recommended, I gave them a trial. Six bottles cured me.—Smith P. Hunt, Waverley, Iowa.

The great reason for the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is found in its positive merit. It cures where other preparations fail.

Mr. Geo. P. Bullard of Temple street said he was chiefly interested in the matter because he wanted a telephone at his house, and for several months had been told that no more telephones could be put in the ancient pole lines at Cambridge. He thought being without a telephone was a greater evil than the presence of poles on the streets.

Mr. Fiske said he certainly should urge the company to put no more wires on trees and he should recommend that telephones served by such wires should be taken out when the present contracts expired, as no satisfactory service could be given.

Ex-Alderman Luke asked if the superintendent did not tell him that the telephones in Cambridge were worth a million dollars, and Cambridge pays one-fifth of the county tax, which he thought was a sufficient reason for Newton opposing the annexation scheme. The order was passed.

On motion of Alderman Coffin $400 was appropriated for the purchase of a parcel of land from Louis E. Belcher in Ward Six for a park, and also to convey the thanks of the city to the donor.

The order for the vacation of 14 days for the members of the police and fire departments was passed.

An order was passed that the Newton & Boston street railway company lay granite paving blocks.

The plumbing ordinance was read and passed to be enforced.

Mr. F. Miller of Hammond street and Linwood O. Towne of California street were drawn as jurors for the Supreme Court, to meet at Lowell on the second Monday in March.

The board then adjourned.

A Complaint Against the Police.

To the Editor of the Graphic:

An incident of police abuse took place in this village which has scarcely had its equal even by the reputed New York police.

A young man, a citizen, and the son of a citizen here, stood with his brother, a boy of about 12 years old a few steps from their home talking, when a policeman came along addressing them with the polite phrase, "What in H— are you doing here?" Upon this they went towards their home, the police following; when on the steps of the house the police grasped the young man to arrest him, the young man freed himself and went up the piazza of his father's house, when the police seized him and threw him down, choked him severely and put manacles on him.

When his mother, who was called by his brother, came out and found him kneeling on the boy choking him, asked what he was doing to the boy, his choice answer was, "It is none of your D— business and dragged the boy (in spite of the mother's protest) by the manacles towards the telegraph box to call the Patrol wagon, notwithstanding the boy pleaded to free him as he was willing and ready to go with him. All this outrage was done on pretence that the boy was drunk. When the case came before the court a number of witnesses who saw what had happened and others who saw him before, all testified that he was not really drunk, but a case of false testimony. The testimony of a policeman who declared that all the witnesses were liars, and other policemen who declared the boy was drunk, the judge gave judgment against the boy, notwithstanding he ought to have known that any one who declares everything a liar is ordinarily the biggest liar of all. He ought to have had a sense of fairness and judicial dignity to rebuke such insulting language towards their equals either in character or veracity. Such happenings do not raise the dignity of the court room, nor has the police the right or authority to arrest and manacle a peaceful citizen, even if he were supposed to be drunk, if he does not interfere or trouble any one; and even worse, going on the premises of the person, if he can be reached at any time to be summoned to appear before court. Where is our boasted right of citizenship? A policeman can trump up some pretended offence and arrest and manacle any citizen. Do our citizens not see that it is time that something ought to be done to stop the police abuse, we are too indifferent about our rights and allow them to be trampled upon. In a police court it is not a case of law, but of justice and common sense, which were completely wanting in this case.

Moses QUINBY.

West Newton, March 7, 1892.

Cancer Can be Cured, and by Dr. James H. Soliman, Jr., 25 Cent St., Boston, Mass.

Boston, Aug. 26, 1890.

Dr. Soliman has cured a cancer on my lip of several years' standing. It was cut out twice, by what they call eminent surgeons, at intervals of six years, after being cut out each time I knew by the feeling it was still there, and it was not until I met Dr. Soliman that I was cured. I would urge those afflicted with cancer not delay, but to go at once and be cured permanently as I have done. My dear Doctor I thank from the bottom of my heart.

JOHN HALLAHAN.

78 Charlestown Street.

Burglar Captured.

This morning about two o'clock, John Wood, the well-known plumber who resides on Main Street, was awakened by hearing glass break. On getting out of bed he received a blow on the head. He immediately grappled with the burglar, and after a terrible struggle succeeded in holding him until his wife obtained help. On being searched at the station, Mr. Wood's watch and wallet was found on his person. He gave the name of Robert Terry. The broken glass proved to be a bottle of Sulphur Bitters which had almost cured Mrs. Wood of rheumatism.—Exchange.

The President.

Of the Bank of Waverley, Iowa, says: Sulphur Bitters saved my life. For ten years I suffered from Catarrh and Liver Complaint; I lost forty-five pounds and was growing worse rapidly. I had almost lost faith in medicine, but hearing your Bitters so well recommended, I gave them a trial. Six bottles cured me.—Smith P. Hunt, Waverley, Iowa.

The great reason for the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is found in its positive merit. It cures where other preparations fail.

Mr. Geo. P. Bullard of Temple street said he was chiefly interested in the matter because he wanted a telephone at his house, and for several months had been told that no more telephones could be put in the ancient pole lines at Cambridge. He thought being without a telephone was a greater evil than the presence of poles on the streets.

Mr. Fiske said he certainly should urge the company to put no more wires on trees and he should recommend that telephones served by such wires should be taken out when the present contracts expired, as no satisfactory service could be given.

Ex-Alderman Luke asked if the superintendent did not tell him that the telephones in Cambridge were worth a million dollars, and Cambridge pays one-fifth of the county tax, which he thought was a sufficient reason for Newton opposing the annexation scheme. The order was passed.

On motion of Alderman Coffin $400 was appropriated for the purchase of a parcel of land from Louis E. Belcher in Ward Six for a park, and also to convey the thanks of the city to the donor.

The order for the vacation of 14 days for the members of the police and fire departments was passed.

An order was passed that the Newton & Boston street railway company lay granite paving blocks.

The plumbing ordinance was read and passed to be enforced.

Mr. F. Miller of Hammond street and Linwood O. Towne of California street were drawn as jurors for the Supreme Court, to meet at Lowell on the second Monday in March.

The board then adjourned.

A Complaint Against the Police.

To the Editor of the Graphic:

An incident of police abuse took place in this village which has scarcely had its equal even by the reputed New York police.

A young man, a citizen, and the son of a citizen here, stood with his brother, a boy of about 12 years old a few steps from their home talking, when a policeman came along addressing them with the polite phrase, "What in H— are you doing here?" Upon this they went towards their home, the police following; when on the steps of the house the police grasped the young man to arrest him, the young man freed himself and went up the piazza of his father's house, when the police seized him and threw him down, choked him severely and put manacles on him.

When his mother, who was called by his brother, came out and found him kneeling on the boy choking him, asked what he was doing to the boy, his choice answer was, "It is none of your D— business and dragged the boy (in spite of the mother's protest) by the manacles towards the telegraph box to call the Patrol wagon, notwithstanding the boy pleaded to free him as he was willing and ready to go with him. All this outrage was done on pretence that the boy was drunk. When the case came before the court a number of witnesses who saw what had happened and others who saw him before, all testified that he was not really drunk, but a case of false testimony. The testimony of a policeman who declared that all the witnesses were liars, and other policemen who declared the boy was drunk, the judge gave judgment against the boy, notwithstanding he ought to have known that any one who declares everything a liar is ordinarily the biggest liar of all. He ought to have had a sense of fairness and judicial dignity to rebuke such insulting language towards their equals either in character or veracity. Such happenings do not raise the dignity of the court room, nor has the police the right or authority to arrest and manacle a peaceful citizen, even if he were supposed to be drunk, if he does not interfere or trouble any one; and even worse, going on the premises of the person, if he can be reached at any time to be summoned to appear before court. Where is our boasted right of citizenship? A policeman can trump up some pretended offence and arrest and manacle any citizen. Do our citizens not see that it is time that something ought to be done to stop the police abuse, we are too indifferent about our rights and allow them to be trampled upon. In a police court it is not a case of law, but of justice and common sense, which were completely wanting in this case.

Moses QUINBY.

West Newton, March 7, 1892.

Cancer Can be Cured, and by Dr. James H. Soliman, Jr., 25 Cent St., Boston, Mass.

Boston, Aug. 26, 1890.

Dr. Soliman has cured a cancer on my lip of several years' standing. It was cut out twice, by what they call eminent surgeons, at intervals of six years, after being cut out each time I knew by the feeling it was still there, and it was not until I met Dr. Soliman that I was cured. I would urge those afflicted with cancer not delay, but to go at once and be cured permanently as I have done. My dear Doctor I thank from the bottom of my heart.

JOHN HALLAHAN.

78 Charlestown Street.

Burglar Captured.

This morning about two o'clock, John Wood, the well-known plumber who resides on Main Street, was awakened by hearing glass break. On getting out of bed he received a blow on the head. He immediately grappled with the burglar, and after a terrible struggle succeeded in holding him until his wife obtained help. On being searched at the station, Mr. Wood's watch and wallet was found on his person. He gave the name of Robert Terry. The broken glass proved to be a bottle of Sulphur Bitters which had almost cured Mrs. Wood of rheumatism.—Exchange.

The President.

Of the Bank of Waverley, Iowa, says: Sulphur Bitters saved my life. For ten years I suffered from Catarrh and Liver Complaint; I lost forty-five pounds and was growing worse rapidly. I had almost lost faith in medicine, but hearing your Bitters so well recommended, I gave them a trial. Six bottles cured me.—Smith P. Hunt, Waverley, Iowa.

The great reason for the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is found in its positive merit. It cures where other preparations fail.

Mr. Geo. P. Bullard of Temple street said he was chiefly interested in the matter because he wanted a telephone at his house, and for several months had been told that no more telephones could be put in the ancient pole lines at Cambridge. He thought being without a telephone was a greater evil than the presence of poles on the streets.

Mr. Fiske said he certainly should urge the company to put no more wires on trees and he should recommend that telephones served by such wires should be taken out when the present contracts expired, as no satisfactory service could be given.

Ex-Alderman Luke asked if the superintendent did not tell him that the telephones in Cambridge were worth a million dollars, and Cambridge pays one-fifth of the county tax, which he thought was a sufficient reason for Newton opposing the annexation scheme. The order was passed.

On motion of Alderman Coffin $400 was appropriated for the purchase of a parcel of land from Louis E. Belcher in Ward Six for a park, and also to convey the thanks of the city to the donor.

The order for the vacation of 14 days for the members of the police and fire departments was passed.

An order was passed that the Newton & Boston street railway company lay granite paving blocks.

The plumbing ordinance was read and passed to be enforced.

Mr. F. Miller of Hammond street and Linwood O. Towne of California street were drawn as jurors for the Supreme Court, to meet at Lowell on the second Monday in March.

The board then adjourned.

A Complaint Against the Police.

To the Editor of the Graphic:

An incident of police abuse took place in this village which has scarcely had its equal even by the reputed New York police.

A young man, a citizen, and the son of a citizen here, stood with his brother, a boy of about 12 years old a few steps from their home talking, when a policeman came along addressing them with the polite phrase, "What in H— are you doing here?" Upon this they went towards their home, the police following; when on the steps of the house the police grasped the young man to arrest him, the young man freed himself and went up the piazza of his father's house, when the police seized him and threw him down, choked him severely and put manacles on him.

When his mother, who was called by his brother, came out and found him kneeling on the boy choking him, asked what he was doing to the boy, his choice answer was, "It is none of your D— business and dragged the boy (in spite of the mother's protest) by the manacles towards the telegraph box to call the Patrol wagon, notwithstanding the boy pleaded to free him as he was willing and ready to go with him. All this outrage was done on pretence that the boy was drunk. When the case came before the court a number of witnesses who saw what had happened and others who saw him before, all testified that he was not really drunk, but a case of false testimony. The testimony of a policeman who declared that all the witnesses were liars, and other policemen who declared the boy was drunk, the judge gave judgment against the boy, notwithstanding he ought to have known that any one who declares everything a liar is ordinarily the biggest liar of all. He ought to have had a sense of fairness and judicial dignity to rebuke such insulting language towards their equals either in character or veracity. Such happenings do not raise the dignity of the court room, nor has the police the right or authority to arrest and manacle a peaceful citizen, even if he were supposed to be drunk, if he does not interfere or trouble any one; and even worse, going on the premises of the person, if he can be reached at any time to be summoned to appear before court. Where is our boasted right of citizenship? A policeman can trump up some pretended offence and arrest and manacle any citizen. Do our citizens not see that it is time that something ought to be done to stop the police abuse, we are too indifferent about our rights and allow them to be trampled upon. In a police court it is not a case of law, but of justice and common sense, which were completely wanting in this case.

Moses QUINBY.

West Newton, March 7, 1892.

Cancer Can be Cured, and by Dr. James H. Soliman, Jr., 25 Cent St., Boston, Mass.

Boston, Aug. 26, 1890.

Dr. Soliman has cured a cancer on my lip of several years' standing. It was cut out twice, by what they call eminent surgeons, at intervals of six years, after being cut out each time I knew by the feeling it was still there, and it was not until I met Dr. Soliman that I was cured. I would urge those afflicted with cancer not delay, but to go at once and be cured permanently as I have done. My dear Doctor I thank from the bottom of my heart.

JOHN HALLAHAN.

78 Charlestown Street.

Burglar Captured.

This morning about two o'clock, John Wood, the well-known plumber who resides on Main Street, was awakened by hearing glass break. On getting out of bed he received a blow on the head. He immediately grappled with the burglar, and after a terrible struggle succeeded in holding him until his wife obtained help. On being searched at the station, Mr. Wood's watch and wallet was found on his person. He gave the name of Robert Terry. The broken glass proved to be a bottle of Sulphur Bitters which had almost cured Mrs. Wood of rheumatism.—Exchange.

The President.

Of the Bank of Waverley, Iowa, says: Sulphur Bitters saved my life. For ten years I suffered from Catarrh and Liver Complaint; I lost forty-five pounds and was growing worse rapidly. I had almost lost faith in medicine, but hearing your Bitters so well recommended, I gave them a trial. Six bottles cured me.—Smith P. Hunt, Waverley, Iowa.

The great reason for the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is found in its positive merit. It cures where other preparations fail.

Mr. Geo. P. Bullard of Temple street said he was chiefly interested in the matter because he wanted a telephone at his house, and for several months had been told that no more telephones could be put in the ancient pole lines at Cambridge. He thought being without a telephone was a greater evil than the presence of poles on the streets.

Mr. Fiske said he certainly should urge the company to put no more wires on trees and he should recommend that telephones served by such wires should be taken out when the present contracts expired, as no satisfactory service could be given.

Ex-Alderman Luke asked if the superintendent did not tell him that the telephones in Cambridge were worth a million dollars, and Cambridge pays one-fifth of the county tax, which he thought was a sufficient reason for Newton opposing the annexation scheme. The order was passed.

On motion of Alderman Coffin $400 was appropriated for the purchase of a parcel of land from Louis E. Belcher in Ward Six for a park, and also to convey the thanks of the city to the donor.

The order for the vacation of 14 days for the members of the police and fire departments was passed.

NEWTON TARIFF REFORM CLUB. The Tariff is a Tax.

Every person interested in the subject of the Tariff is cordially invited to take part in the discussion carried on in this column. Resolutions and communications of every kind whether coming from Tariff Reformers, Free Traders or High Protectionists. Address Secretary of the Tariff Reform Club, Newton Centre, Mass.

EX GOV. AMES ON FREE COAL AND IRON.

HE REINFORCES HIS POSITION AND REPLIES TO HIS CRITICS.

Congressman Walker has not reduced Oliver Ames to silence, though the latter directs his reply to another source. Says the ex-governor: The Home Market Bulletin for March states: "Hon. Oliver Ames has been slightly compromised by the tariff reformers. First, they offered him free coal and iron for his shovel works and got him to petition for it." There is not a particle of truth in this statement. No offer of this kind has been made to me, for the sufficient reason that if free coal, iron ore and scrap iron, for which I petitioned, were on the free list, the shovel works in which I am interested would not be benefited, as we use neither iron ore nor scrap-iron in any form, nor would we use New Scotland coal, as the anthracite coal of Pennsylvania, the Cumberland coal of Maryland and Ohio oil are all cheaper and better for our work.

I signed the petition that coal, iron ore and scrap iron be put on the free list, and that the duty on pig-iron be made 24 per cent. I did this not for any personal benefit, but for the encouragement and aid of the struggling iron industries of New England. In our shovel works we use as our raw material finished Swedish iron of a quality that is not produced in this country, and steel that we must buy in Pennsylvania or England. I never asked that these be admitted free of duty into this country. My only motive in signing the petition was that which should actuate any good citizen who knows and understands the difficulties of the New England manufacturers of iron. It may be, as the Bulletin says, the subject was not as well understood as it now is. Whether this be true or not, I still believe that free coal, free iron ore and scrap iron would be of great advantage to New England, making possible the maintenance of a flourishing local industry, while it would not injure the iron workers of Pennsylvania, Alabama and Georgia, into whose proper markets New England could not venture. Andrew Carnegie, with whom I discussed the question, assured me that, if the petition were granted, it could do no harm to his section of the country, for, said he, "Our distance from the sea, the Alleghany mountains, our cheap ores and fuel and our proximity to the great markets of the West, afford sufficient protection as to the items of your petition."

The Bulletin also says that, "Having read the Herald a good deal I have come to believe that the republicans have promised to reduce duties all along the line, and had not kept the promise." I plead guilty to the charge of reading the Herald, but in mitigation of this offense I will say that I also read the Journal and Advertiser, the New York Tribune and other papers with equal care. I read newspapers of all shades of opinion. In them I find many topics discussed. But I do not form my opinions or base my judgment on their utterance alone. If I am wrong in believing that the republican campaign of 1888 was fought on the promise that "duties should be reduced all along the line," my error has been shared by one who at that time was in a position to speak, and who then spoke with authority. In the letter in which he accepts the nomination to the presidency, Benjamin Harrison said: "The republican party holds the protective tariff to be constitutional, wholesome and necessary. We do not offer a fixed schedule, but a principle. We will revise the tariff, modify the rates, but always with an intelligent provision as to the effect upon domestic production and the wages of our working people." I cannot better express myself than in his words. In the ideas they convey I fully and heartily believe. I believe in a revision of the schedules that will modify the rates, using the word "modify" in its commonly accepted sense.

The Woolen Duties.

The attempt is being made to represent the reductions in the woolen duties made by the committee of ways and means as dangerous to the manufacturing interest and hostile to the wishes of the manufacturers. No doubt there are manufacturers who would take all the protection they could get, with a bounty thrown in, but the woolen schedule arranged by the ways and means committee is a conservative one and conveys no threat to any well-conducted business. No better evidence of this could be furnished than the fact that it has been accepted cordially by Representative Stevens, the largest individual manufacturer in the United States. Mr. Stevens is a good deal more of a business man than a politician, and is perfectly frank in expressing his view. If a deeper cut should be made by the House in the woolen rates than has been reported by the committee, he would have something to say in opposition, but the present rates are satisfactory to him and satisfactory to leading manufacturers who have been corresponding with him on the subject. They are in some cases lower than the Mills bill, but the schedule is more symmetrically adjusted than in that measure. If the House should make the duties lower, it might well excite fear that the interests of New England were to be disregarded for the supposed benefit of Kansas or Nebraska, but there is little reason to believe that any deeper cut will be made.

A Legislation Against the Trusts.

Three bills striking at the trust monopolies have been introduced in the present Congress. Senator George of Mississippi has introduced one in the Senate, and young Representative Tucker of Virginia has introduced the same measure in the House. Col. Breckinridge of Kentucky has introduced a separate bill in the House, which carries out with regard to all articles which have been subject to manipulation by trust, the idea which his cousin, Clinton R. Breckinridge of Arkansas, embodied in bills before the last Congress to make free of duty, cotton bagging and several other articles. The same idea is embodied in the bill of Senator George, but it contains another feature, liable to deal an effective blow at the monopolies if enacted into law. It proposes that any suit by a trust monopoly shall be unavailing when the defendant offers the fact of the monopoly existing in violation of law, in his defence. "If such ground of exception" runs the bill, "shall be proven to the satisfaction of the court, judgment of dismissal shall be granted, with double costs to the defendant, and with such reasonable sum for the attorney's fees for the defence thereof as may be allowed by the court." This provision is one which a trust would find it difficult to guard against. It would probably prove more effective than the prosecutions under the Sherman act of the last Congress, although those seemed to be accomplishing more than was expected by many who voted for the bill.

The district attorneys of the United States, under the directions of Attorney-General Miller, have been gathering considerable evidence and the results are showing themselves in the prosecutions of the whiskey trust, the Standard Oil company and some of the smaller combinations. I understand that an effort has been made to obtain evidence also against the dressed beef trust, but the results do not as yet seem to have disclosed themselves to the public. The recent decision of the supreme court in the Connellman case has crippled the law officers of the government somewhat in discovering evidence, but in the case of these great combinations it would seem that evidence ought to be accessible without compelling parties to testify who are unwilling to do so.

It is doubtful if either the bill of Col. Breckinridge or that of Senator George is considered seriously by the present Congress. Col. Breckinridge's measure is before the committee on ways and means, which has about all it can do during the present session. The other bill has been referred to the judiciary committee of the respective houses, but they also have a great pressure of business and it is doubtful if much attention is given to attacks upon trusts. There will probably be a disposition among the more conservative members of all these committees to give the Sherman act a longer trial, as long as the attorney-general is proceeding so actively under it.

ELEVATING THE B. & A.

SOME CHANGES IN THE PLAN ORIGINALLY PROPOSED.

The Boston & Albany Railroad Corporation is working out the details of a plan to get rid of the grade crossings in Newton.

To accomplish that purpose it was originally intended to construct an elevated road, starting below Faneuil station and continuing through the Newtons to a point just below the Auburn street bridge in Auburndale.

The plan of the elevated road contemplated the construction of solid masonry walls on either side of the tracks, enclosing a gravel filling packed hard, and forming a solid roadbed about 12 feet above the present grade, gradually sloping down to the old grade at the point of beginning and the terminus. The distance covered would be about four miles, and the road would reach its greatest elevation in that portion of Newton included in the Newtonville and West Newton districts. There it would be necessary to be at least 12 feet above the former grade. At the grade crossings it was originally intended to erect arches over the streets, supporting the overhead structure for the tracks. That plan will be practically carried out, but a departure will be made from the original idea of continuous solid walls, broken only by the succession of arches at street crossings, partly on account of the unsightly effect, and because of the great cost.

It is now the intention to raise simply a gravel embankment, sloping gradually on either side, where the plan is feasible. The gravel will be surfaced with loam and sodded, making the surroundings as attractive as possible. One section, to be laid out as above, has been provided for. It extends from Greenwood avenue in West Newton to Crescent street, covering a distance of seven-eighths of a mile. The same idea will be carried out, wherever it is practical, between Faneuil and the Auburndale bridge. The railroad people have already secured estimates of the property which it will be necessary to secure in order to carry out the project. The owners of real estate in the West Newton section have been interviewed by the agents of the corporation, and have been requested to submit figures on the valuation of land and buildings wanted.

The cost to the railroad of the property required in the West Newton section alone will be in the vicinity of $200,000. There is a big curve in the tracks above and below the West Newton station which is to be straightened. In order to do it the tracks in front of the station are to be moved north about 60 feet. The depot will be moved from its present position nearer to the elevated structure. It will be raised slightly above the level of the tracks and a basement added, in which iron staircases will be placed leading to the waiting rooms, from which there will be entrances to the platforms. A new baggage room will be added to the old station, and one of its important features will be an elevator, operated either by steam or water power, rendering the handling of baggage a comparatively easy matter. It is also probable that a smoking room will be fitted up in the basement.

The relocation of the tracks will bring them almost on a line with Davis street, which is to be widened and straightened. The changes will require the purchase of the buildings of C. H. Cole, manufacturer of heavy ironwork. They consist of a large 2-1/2 story wooden structure, and a brick engine room and boiler house. There is also a strip of land, about 30 feet in width, along the line of the estates of Dr. F. E. Crockett, Gen. S. H. Leonard, Allen Bros., W. H. Mague and other property owners.

Mr. Cole will probably remove his plant to some other city, as he cannot secure available land in the vicinity. On the Mague property there is a large wooden livery stable which will be moved back to a site now utilized for a house lot and occupied by a residence. The house will be moved to some other lot.

The grounds in the vicinity of the West Newton station will be very prettily laid out. Chestnut and Highlands streets will be bridged on a level with the elevated roadbed, and the present grade only slightly depressed.

Between Newtonville and Faneuil station the roadbed will be supported by exterior masonry walls in accordance with the original plan, which has already been fully described in the GRAPHIC. Some of the property on Washington street on the line of the road will be purchased where it is necessary to straighten curves. A new depot will be erected at Newton, and will be one of the most attractive and convenient stations along the line of the road between Boston and Worcester. The Newton city council favors the proposed elevated road, and it also meets with the general favor of citizens of the city who are especially desirous of getting rid of the grade crossings, and who believe that the plan suggested by the B. & A. corporation is feasible, and offers the least objections.

The city will take no official action until after the Legislature has fixed the proportion of cost to be borne by the railroad, city and state. The plan is such a radical departure from the customary methods of abolishing grade crossings that special legislation is necessary.

It is thought that the matter will be brought to a head soon, and that work on the new elevated road will be begun in the spring.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they wield is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co.

Sold by Druggists, price 75 c. p. r. bottle.

Coughing Leads to Consumption. Kemp's Balsam will stop the cough at once.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

An Ancient Philadelphia Bird.

Poor old Crocky Baldwin, the antiquated cockatoo at the Zoological gardens, whose age is variously estimated, but who is known to be well on to 100 years old, is pining away. Crocky's days are numbered, and the mournful old bird seems to realize it. Since his precarious condition was published some time ago letters have been received at the Zoo from all parts of the country, expressing solicitude for the condition of the aged bird. In many of these epistles offers of various sums have been made for Crocky's remains after death has done its work. These offers range from five dollars all the way up to fifty dollars, the latter offer having been received from a Boston taxidermist.—Philadelphia Record.

Payment for a Serviceable Suit.

John Blazer, a tailor of Terrell, Tex., has received a check for twenty-five dollars from C. C. Hemming, president of the National Bank of Gainesville, Tex., in payment for a uniform which the former made for the latter thirty years ago when both were inmates of the famous Rock Island prison. The uniform was made from two Federal overcoats, and in that garb Hemming evaded the vigilance of the guards and effected his escape. Hemming learned of his benefactor's whereabouts only a few days ago, and instantly sent him the check for the above amount out of gratitude to Blazer for enabling him to escape.—Cor. St. Louis Republic.

An Electric Equine.

George E. Benton, who resides on Indiana avenue, has discovered an electric horse. Benton stepped from a street car at Wabash, and Eighteenth street while the horses were being trotted. He placed his hand on the flank of one of the animals, a bay mare, and received a tremendous shock. The car was attached to a cable train and sped onward. After it had gone a block Benton returned and experienced a succession of slight shocks, which gradually died away as the mare became cooler from standing. Benton then had the mare trotted up and down the street for ten minutes. She came back in a foam and was taken at once to the dump ground. A dozen men then formed hands, first wetting the soles of their shoes thoroughly in the horse trough. As Benton put his hands on the mare every man distinctly felt the shock. "Now one man let go at a time," shouted Benton, and they did so, the shock intensifying as each man fell out, so that at last, when the number was reduced to three, the next man cried out, "Some of you fellows catch hold again; I can't stand this."

Mr. Benton sent the mare trotting again, and meantime climbed a lamp post. Another man climbed after him and caught hold of his hand. He clasped the post firmly with his legs and gave his disengaged hand to a third man, who in turn placed his hand on the mare's flank. Benton turned on the gas jet and put his index finger on the nozzle of the jet. Instantly a series of sparks flashed through the living chain from the excited horse and the gas blazed up. Benton was so exhausted by this last experiment that he had to be taken down from the lamp post. The manager of a dime museum has offered a large sum to the company for the privilege of exhibiting the horse.—Chicago Cor. Kansas City Times.

BENSOPP'S
ROYAL DUTCH COCOA
PURE, ECONOMICAL.
Compare quality and price with any other.
SAMPLE FREE.
STEPHEN L. BARTLETT, Importer, Boston, Mass.

How To Make Money A FEW HENS

In the motto and teachings of the Best Poultry Paper published. It Costs Only 50 cts. a year; six months 25 cts. Cash or stamps. Sample free. Address FARM-POULTRY, Box 2118, Boston, Mass.

NOTHING ON EARTH WILL MAKE HENS LAY
LIKE
SHERIDAN'S
CONDITION POWDER
IF YOU CAN'T GET IT NEAR HOME, SEND TO US.

It is Absolutely Pure, Highly Concentrated, Most Economical, because each small dose. Strictly a Medicine, not a Food. You can buy or raise food as cheap as you can. Prevents and Cures all diseases of Poultry. Worth more than gold when hens are moulting. "One large can saved me $40, and six more to prevent roup this winter," says a customer. For sale by druggists, grocers, general store and feed dealers. No other make like it. We will send post-paid by mail as follows—A new elegantly illustrated copy of the "FARMERS' POULTRY RAISING GUIDE" (price 35 cents) contains a daily poultry account worth the price, and two small packages of Powder for 60 cents; or, one large 3 1/4 pound can, for $1.50 (regular price) and Guide free. Sample pack, 50c. five for $1.00. Six large cans, express prepaid, $5.00. Send stamps or cash. In quantity costs less than one-fifth cent a day per hen. Testimonials sent free. L. S. JOHNSON & CO., 21 Custom House Street, Boston, Mass.

EVERYONE ATTENTION!

If You Want to Purchase HARDWARE,
Carpenters Tools, Nails and House Trimmings, Barbed Wire, Poultry Netting, Pocket Cutlery, cissors, Shears and Lawn Mowers.

Call and see us at our New Store.

If You Want to Paint Your House

We can sell you ready mixed Paints, White Lead, Oil, Varnishes and Brushes.

HAVE YOU BEGUN HOUSE CLEANING?

And do you need a Step Ladder and a Window Brush or a Carpet Sweeper? If you do call at our store and we sell you one of these articles at prices which defy competition.

DO YOU NEED ANY TINWARE?

If you do we can fit you out with just what you want for we manufacture it ourselves.

WE CAN PLEASE YOU WITH ONE OF OUR MYSTIC RANGES,
OIL STOVES OR REFRIGERATORS.

A. J. FISKE & CO., PLUMBERS,
WEST NEWTON, MASS.

EXPERIENCE AND PROMPTNESS.

NICE WORK GUARANTEED BY THE

NEWTON CARPET CLEANING COMPANY.

Only 1 cent per yard running for taking up; 3 cents per running yard for cleaning Wool, Brussels or Tapestry; 4 cents for Wiltons, Velvets or Axminster 8 cents per square yard for Turkeist Rugs or Carpets; 4 cents per running yard for laying; Stairs, 50 cents and upwards per flight. Carpet Sewing, $2.50 per day. Renovating and repairing of carpets a specialty. Carpet work in all its branches done properly and at reasonable prices. All kinds of Carpet Linings for sale. Church Cushions and Mattings cleaned at bottom prices. Carpets called for and delivered free of charge. Send postal. Sole Manufacturer of the

SIMON A. WHITE,
P. O. Box 71, Newtonville. Telephone 7. Factory and Residence, Clinton Street.

P. A. MURRAY,
Carriage Builder.
ALL
Work Guaranteed.
Special attention given to REPAIRING AND PAINTING FINE CARRIAGES AND SLEIGHS
WASHINGTON, OR. PARK ST., NEWTON.

Water Bugs and Roaches
CLEAR THEM OUT WITH OUR
No dust. No trouble to use.
Price, 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. If you druggist or grocer does not keep it, we will mail package on receipt of price
BARNARD & CO.,
7 TEMPLE PLACE, BOSTON.

Genuine Bargains

Always to be obtained by examination of the varied assortment of

IMPERFECT GOODS AND REMNANTS, STRICTLY ALL WOOL.

Made at the Assabet Mills which are exclusively sold
and at the lowest prices by

THE PEOPLE'S DRY GOODS COMPANY
MAYNARD, MASS.

Job Printing
ESTABLISHMENT
We desire to call the attention of the public to our facilities for the prompt execution of every description of Newspaper, Book, AND Job Printing.

J. HENRY BACON

Successor to Francis Murdoch & Co.

Dry Goods & Notions

Ladies' and Gents'

Furnishing Goods,

OIL and STRAW CARPETS,

Trunks, Bags, &c.

BACON'S BLOCK,

Nos. 279 to 281 Washington St.,

NEWTON.

THEODORE L. MASON,

Agent for the celebrated

Rockford Watch

ELGIN, WALTHAM, and other American
Watches always in stock.
Repairing of Fine Watches, French, Grandfather
and American Clocks a specialty.
All work warranted to give satisfaction.

Eliot Block, Centre Street, Newton, Mass.

Mrs. E. A. SMITH.
MILLINERY!

202 Moody Street,
Opposite Walnut Street,

WALTHAM.

PURE - MILK
supplied daily from

PROSPECT VALLEY FARM.

One Cow's Milk supplied whe desired.

H. COLDWELL & SON,

WALTHAM, MASS.

P. O. Box, 1992.

J. OTIS McFADDEN,

DEALER IN

Window Shades, Wire Screens, Wall

Papers, Venetian Blinds.

23 CORNHILL, BOSTON.

42-7

M. C. HIGGINS
PRACTICAL PLUMBER

—AND—

Sanitary Engineer.

(Formerly with S. F. Carrier.)

Sumner's Block, Newton.

PLUMBING WORK IN ALL ITS BRANCHES

Having had twenty-two years' experience the business in this city; perfect satisfaction guaranteed.

CHURCHILL & BEAN
Tailors.

IMPORTERS

FINE CLOTHS

503 Washington St.

BOSTON.

G. F. CHURCHILL, Newtonville.

J. H. BEAN, Dorchester.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the subscribers have been duly appointed: Executors of the will of Anne B. Lloyd late of Newton in the County of Middlesex, deceased, testate, and have taken upon themselves that trust by giving bonds, as the law directs.

All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same; and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to

ELDRIDGE H. LLOYD, } Executors.
ANNIE M. DEGEN, }
February 26, 1892. 22 31.

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY

5 WASHINGTON STREET, NEW TON, MASS.

Entered as second class matter.

Subscription for year, $2.00
Single Copies, 5 cents
By mail free of Postage.All money sent at the sender's risk. All checks, drafts and money orders should be made payable to

EDWARD D. BALDWIN, Editor and Publisher

TELEPHONE NO. 238-2.

The GRAPHIC is printed and mailed Friday afternoon, and is for sale at all News Stands in the Newtons, and at the Boston & Albany News Room, Boston Depot.All communications must be accompanied with the name of the writer, and unpublished communications cannot be returned by mail
unless stamps are enclosed.

EDWARD D. BALDWIN HAS BEEN CONSULTED WITH THE GRAPHIC

STREET RAILWAY EXTENSION.

As fast as any city reaches a reasonable size there always comes a demand for street railways to bring about easy communication between the different sections, and without these convenient carriers the growth of a city is retarded. This is especially true of suburban cities such as Newton. We have reached a point where the land within easy walking distance of a majority of the railroad stations is all taken up, and newcomers have to build farther away, and street railways are needed to enable them to reach their homes. It is an inevitable law in the progress of cities, and it is best to take a philosophical view of the matter.

Of course this progress is not gained without opposition. Many came to Newton because they were fond of the country and they dislike to see the land about them subdivided into small house lots, and they cannot help a crowded feeling, as if there was not air enough to breathe. The same feeling has been experienced by the pioneers in the western states, who always felt crowded if there was another settler within ten miles and were compelled to move further into the wilderness where the air was not contaminated.

With the small house lots come people of moderate means, who cannot afford to keep teams, and who have to depend on horse cars to get about the city. The great majority of people in Newton today are of this class, and they form the backbone of any city. A rich man may pay as much in taxes and occupy as much land as a hundred families of moderate means, but with the uncertainties of life and fortune, the city that has the hundred families would have the more stable character, and its prosperity would be more certain.

When the Newton Street Railway was started there was great opposition all along the route from large and small property owners, but so far no one has moved away, on account of the road, and the people who objected have become regular patrons of this road. The noise of the cars has ceased to be noticed and no petition for its removal would secure signatures from the abutments.

The same thing would probably result if the Newton & Boston street railway were extended to Newton Highlands. That section of the city has grown so rapidly that there is a demand for modern conveniences. They have entertainments up there which people on the north side would like to attend, and the Highlands people would like to come over to the Free Library, the Newton Club, and the other attractions on this side, but the Circuit railroad fares are a most up to the prohibitory point, and people do not like to travel eight or ten miles for the sake of getting a mile and a half from home. As an envious Newtonian remarked, with a street railway running directly to the center of culture and refinement, the Highlands would almost insensibly lose their bucolic characteristics and become Newtonians in fact as well as in name.

Of course one cannot help sympathizing with those Walnut street residents, who built their homes for the sake of the rural peace and quiet that prevailed in that section, but the Highlands has grown so fast, and become so big that it must have some convenient means of overflowing into the other villages, in order to be healthy, and if the people on Washington street, which is only 35 feet wide in some places, can stand a street railway, surely Walnut street, which is 50 feet wide could accommodate a rail way. At first a street railway is like a shower bath in winter, and produces much and vivid remonstrances, but Newton Centre has shown that when people once get used to the idea they not only like it but clamor for more. Newton Centre people remonstrated much more vigorously than the Highlands people, two years ago, but now they not only made no objections to the proposed location, but they want the road extended to the Boston line and are talking of a new company to build a road on Ward street and several other similar enterprises, and are finding fault with the Newton & Boston company for its lack of push in getting its road into running order.

STREET FENCES.

A writer in Harper's Bazar enters a timely protest against the craze for removing street fences and throwing lawns open to "all out doors," especially in villages and along streets which are thoroughfares. There is a good deal of sense in what he says of the bare and unprotected lawns and houses, when a good fence would not only be a defence against dogs and stray cattle, but also serve as a needed foundation setting to the house, which has an unfinished and undressed air when deprived of the fence.

He says that the only place for these defenceless residences is where they surround some public or private park, when the absence of a fence may be an advantage and give to the houses a sort of community and social air. But along a straight and travelled street the absence of a fence taken away all the semblance of privacy which should surround the house, and gives it a bold and flaunting air as if the house was not a home but only a hotel or lodging house. In his opinion there is nothing more painful and at the same time ridiculous than the country village with its straight street, where all the fences have been removed, in imitation of the blocks in city streets, and where the small houses are deprived of all attractiveness by the removal of an appropriate setting.

The writer may perhaps be a little severe, but there is a good deal worth thinking over in his short article and it shows that there are two sides to even a modern fashion. Some parts of Newton have had the anti-fence fever in its worst form, and they are not thereby rendered the most attractive spots in the city.

On the main thoroughfares the absence of fences is a distinct disadvantage where there is a family of small children, as they have to be constantly watched to keep them from falling under the feet of teams, and at the hearing Monday night, this was advanced as an argument against granting a location to electric cars on Walnut street at the Highlands, because there were no fences on the street.

The agitation of the question has begun in many places, and it is evident that a sentiment is growing up in favor of the fence, and possibly in a few years we may find people going the opposite extreme and regarding the fence as a necessary requisite to a home, the same as our forefathers used to do. Changes in fashion are good for business, and if any householder has a handsome fence, he may have the comfort that he has high authority for believing it to be a very desirable thing.

The free silver men have won a great victory in Congress by the aid of Republican votes, and now the question is whether the Republican Congressmen voted for free silver "to put the Democrats in a hole" or because they were really in favor of free silver. Mr. Lodge was paired against the measure which is certainly to his credit, and ex-Speaker Reed voted against it. An election is coming and the free silver states have votes, so that leaders of "peanut politics" might have been glad of the chance to apparently favor free silver. It is certainly fortunate for the Republicans in this state who believe in honest money that they have a representative of the ability and courage of Congressman Williams, to stand up against the free silver craze, but so far he has got precious little assistance from his Republican associates. Business men have no patience with petty politics when they see their business interests threatened with disaster, and the Eastern representatives who encouraged the free silver crowd will find this out. All this talk about free silver is already having a bad effect on business, and it is reported that most of those having money to lend now refuse to do so except on the condition that it be repaid in gold. It may be smart politics to disturb public confidence in this way, but it is a kind of smartness that is very short-sighted, and will in the end prove a very costly investment.

The second hearing on changing the laws of sewer assessments by some general law which will give all cities more liberty to fix the method of assessment to their special needs, was held at the State House, yesterday morning. City Solicitor Slocum represented the Newton Legislative Committee, and Alderman Sheppard and a number of prominent citizens were present. Waltham was largely represented and its Mayor presented a bill which seemed to meet the wishes of most of the cities and was favored by City Solicitor Slocum. The need of some change of the existing law was plainly shown, and it is hoped that the bill presented will pass, so that Newton can adopt some fair and equitable system of assessment, in place of the crude and hastily drawn up scheme that was adopted some months ago.

The Sewer Commissioners now think that the Metropolitan sewer will be ready for the use of Newton by the first of April. There have been many unavoidable postponements hitherto, but the Newton Sewers were ready for use some months ago, and have recently been flushed out and put in good condition. Some people still think that the pipe sewers are too small, but in a recent report of the sewer system of Memphis, pipes of the sizes used in Wards One and Seven have proved capable of carrying for the sewage of a population of some 30,000, and the sewers have never yet been filled to their full capacity. It will be some years, at least, before there are that number of people in the two wards mentioned, so that there is no need of this generation taking on any worries for fear the pipes will not be large enough.

It is said that the anti-Harrison forces are planning to unite on Gov. McKinley of Ohio, and even Senator Sherman is reported to have declared for him. McKinley would be strong in the silver states, as it was he who read the arraignment of Cleveland's administration for his efforts to "demonetize" silver at the last Republican convention, and less than a year ago in one of his speeches he declared that the Cleveland administration had pursued the policy of constantly dishonoring one of our two money metals. With McKinley and some free silver Democrat as rival candidates all honest money men would have to take to the woods. Such a contingency ought to reconcile every one to the renomination of President Harrison, for it is believed that he could be depended on to veto any free silver bill.

EX-GOVERNOR AMES is a rather tough man for theorists to tackle on business questions. Being accused by the Home Market Bulletin of reading the Boston Herald and being influenced by that, he pleads guilty to the charge of reading the Herald but says he also reads the Boston Advertiser and Journal and the New York Tribune, but does not form his opinions on the utterances of any paper. In other words he is a practical and intelligent business man, and it is such men whose views are worth a hundred fold more than the interested utterances of any political organ, or any man who only reads one paper and therefore sees only one side of the case.

HERBERT RADCLIFFE, the secretary of the Home Market Club during the last presidential campaign, thinks the McKinley bill was far from being a model measure, and that it was a disappointment to those who looked for reduced duties. Now England interests were not given much consideration, he says, and the departure of many great industries to the South and West are due to the duties on iron ore and coal. Mr. Radcliffe thus agrees with ex-Gov. Ames, and their opinion is shared by a great number of business men, who do not hesitate to express their sentiments in private.

THERE are some important changes in the plans first proposed for elevating the B. & A. tracks through Newton, but most of them have arguments in their favor, and the doing away of grade crossings is such an important matter, that people will not object to any unimportant details. The great thing is to get rid of the grade crossings.

THE town of Brookline and the city of Newton have appealed from Judge Barker's decision refusing to revise the award of the special commission appointed to apportion the expense of the metropolitan sewer among the towns and cities benefited. The case will be heard before the full bench of the Supreme Court this month.

REPRESENTATIVE HOWARD of this city introduced an order during this session, looking to the abolition of days of grace on notes, drafts, etc., and it is strongly endorsed by bankers, and a bill seems likely to pass the legislature.

Mr. C. P. Harkins

has taken a position with C. E. Osgood & Co., the liberal house furnishes of 744 and 756 Washington street, Boston, where he will be pleased to see his Newton friends.

Gloves

in great variety and all the spring shades at the Central Dry Goods Co., Waltham. Fitted and warranted.

MARRIED.

PETERSON-OLSON-At Norwood, March 3. Eric Peterson of Newton and Louise Charlott Olson, 31 years.

CUTTER-PRINE-At Peabody, Feb. 22. Walter H. Cutter of Newton and Ellen Boyd Prine.

DIED.

GRIFFITH-At Newton, March 4. Hattie Mabel Griffith, daughter of Chas. W. and Mary E. Griffith, aged 2 years, 8 months.

CONNELL-At Newton Centre, March 5. Mrs. Honora Connell, 34 years.

BRIEN-At Newton Centre, March 3. Dorothea Brien, infant daughter of William C. and Abbie Brien, 4 months.

FLANAGAN-At Newton Centre, March 3. Mrs. Margaret Flanagan, 62 years.

WAGSTAFF-At Newton 8th inst., Mary, wife of Alfred H. Wagstaff.

DAVIS-At Newton, March 10. Miss Mary J. Davis, aged 69. Funeral Monday the 14th at 10 A. M.

A cream of tartar baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength—Largest United States Government Food Report.

Royal Baking Powder Co., 106 Wall St., N. Y.

NOTICE

We are making up our list of properties for the coming Spring Sales. Owners of real estate who wish to have us handle their property should call soon or send particulars in regard to same.

JAMES F. C. HYDE,

31 Milk Street, Boston.

Leave YOUR ORDER for any kind of JOB PRINTING, at the Graphic Office.

WABAN.

—The Literary Club met today, (Friday) with Mrs. L. M. Flint.

—Mrs. Morse has returned from an extended trip in the West.

—The Benevolent Society met with Mrs. Gould Wednesday afternoon, Mar. 9.

—Waban is now known as the "Gilt Edge Newton," and it is worthy of the name.

—Mrs. Armstrong of Boston has started the building of her house on the lot adjoining Mr. Henshaw, on Chestnut street.

—The annual meeting of the Waban Improvement Society was held in Collins Hall, Mar. 10, to elect officers for the ensuing year.

—Mr. Sargent has given notice that no more can be admitted to the dancing class on account of the lack of room. This speaks well for Waban.

—We hear that our new police signal box has been completed at the Gamewell Works for about three weeks, but as our residents continue to be awakened at midnight to telephone for the patrol wagon for some fired individual we hope that there will be no more delay about putting the box in use.

—A most enjoyable and profitable evening was spent by the residents of Waban and a few of their friends. It took the form of a whist party at which was given in Collins Hall last Wednesday evening. There were twenty-five tables a d over a hundred present. The tickets were novel, being printed on playing cards, and long before the first of the week were all disposed of. Playing was from 8 until 10 p. m., after which came refreshments and dancing. Among those present were noticed Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Woodbury, Mr. and Mrs. Henshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Seaver, Mr. and Mrs. Strong, Mr. and Mrs. Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Harlow, Mr. and Mrs. McGee, Mr. and Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. Flint, Mrs. Strong, Mr. Lawrence Strong, Mr. and Mrs. Buffum, Mr. and Mrs. Gowne, Mr. and Mrs. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Shaw, Messrs. Dresser and Mrs. Dresser, Mr. Will Buffum, Miss Coe, Mr. Rob Seaver, Mrs. Grant and Mr. La son of Newton, Mrs. Shepley, Messrs. Davis, Messrs. Senay, Mr. Fred Collins, Misses Collins, Mr. Maynard Collins, Miss Putnam, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. John A. Gould, Miss Kendrick, Mr. Arthur B. Harlow, Miss Cushing, Dr. Wiley, Mr. and Mrs. Page, Mr. Blatter, Mrs. W. W. White. The ladies' first prize was won by Mrs. Henshaw, the second by Mrs. Robinson. Gentlemen's first was captured by Mr. Stone and the book by Mr. L. M. Davis. The party was under the direction of Mrs. Shepley and Mr. Harlow, and was declared by all an immense success.

Conference of Charities.

All friends of Associated Charities are invited to attend a meeting in Huntington Hall, Institute of Technology, Boylston St. Boston, Thursday, Mar. 17, at 3.30 p. m.

Hon. J. D. Long will preside, and J. G. Thorp, Jr. will speak on the Norwegian system of granting all licenses to retail ardent spirits to a city or town to develop the bulk of profits to objects of public utility otherwise wholly dependent on voluntary support. There will be a discussion upon the plan, of itself, and with reference to its possible application here. MARY R. MARTIN, Sec. N. A. C.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

WANTED-At Newtonville or Newton Centre by a gentleman and wife two connecting furnished rooms with board. References exchanged. Address, A. B. C. Newtonville, 224 E. 2d St.

TO LET-Two bright sunny rooms, furnished or unfurnished. Apply at 32 Emerson st. 23 1t

TO LET-Pleasant rooms at Hotel Hawthornell. Apply at Hotel or address S. K. Hawthornell, Newton. 23 1t

A YOUNG MAN-Wants a permanent situation as gardener or coachman or both, understands greenhouses, hotbeds, fruit trees, and full charge of gentleman's place. Address S. A. H., care Mrs. A. A. Martin, Ipswich, Mass.

LOST-Tuesday 8th inst. on Washington St., near Electric Car Station, a Silver Watch, marked G. G. K. on case, with Gold Chain and Pendant. One finding and delivering same to subscriber will be suitably compensated. 23 1t

"ANTIDOT" is the great headache cure. It affords almost instant relief in cases of headache, neuralgia, rheumatism, and neuralgia. Price 25 cents. Can be mailed to any address. Wheeler Pharmaceutical Co., Boston, Mass.

NEW MILCH COW FOR SALE-Giving 18 quarts. Apply to Wm. T. H. Phelps, Lowell Seminary, Andover, Mass. 22 2t

SITUATION WANTED-By a Conchman, with good references and understands the business. Address, J. M. Box 689 Watertown, Mass. 23 1t

TO LET-On Church Street, Newton, a tenement of 4 rooms. Rent $11 per month. Apply to R. J. Kenyon, 100 Centre St., Jamaica Plain, or to E. Earle, 248 Church St., Newton. 20 1t

WANTED-By the Associated Charities, washing or sweeping for a woman at Newton, washing to be taken home by a skilled laundress at Auburndale, and employment by the day for both men and women. Address, Mrs. Mary R. Martin, Newtonville. Office hours, 9 to 10 A. M. every Wednesday, 3 to 5 P. M. Wednesdays, 9 to 10 P. M. Fridays and Saturdays.

TO LET-A nearly new house of 8 rooms, bath and laundry, all modern conveniences, in a pleasant neighborhood, five minutes from the Newton station, on the south side of the track, rent moderate. Apply at this office. 12 1f

PERNOLLA'S LAUNDRY AND INTELLIGENCE OFFICE. I have in my laundry a mangle, arrived from England. All plain clothes without buttons can be mangled as nicely as if hot irons were used. Tablecloths and napkins look as though they were new. Mangles, 15 cents per dozen. I have in the intelligence office a girl who gets up and serves dinner, church and supper parties. Ladies who wish such help will please call at Pernolla's Office, Adams Street, Newton.

TO LET-Room of Post Office, house in thorough repair, newly papered and painted throughout. Suitable for four families, and will be let in single tenements or entire. None but respectable and orderly people need apply. Address with references, Aban, Trowbridge & Co., Eliot Block, Newton. 46 1f

DAWSON ROSE.

Every lover of plants must have this and other novelties which we control. Send for a descriptive catalogue which includes these and an unsurpassed stock of fruit and ornamental trees, shrubs, roses, rhododendrons, rare conifers, choicest perennials, etc.

WM. C. STRONG & CO.,

WABAN, MASS.

LUMBER.

GILKEY & STONE,

ARSENAL ST., WATERTOWN.

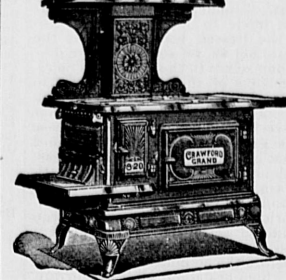

Real Estate.
Mortgages.
Insurance.

Newton, Newtonville, West Newton, Auburndale.

SPECIAL ATTENTION paid to SALE and LEASING of ESTATES in the above villages.

Representatives of all the LEADING INSURANCE COMPANIES OFFICES.

J. C. FULLER, Newtonville Sq. J. FRENCH & SON, 226 Washington Street, Boston.

CRAWFORD
GRAND.Ranges and Furnaces.

The Crawford Range has no Superior in the Market.

Hot Water, Hot Air and Steam Heating,

Sheet Iron, Copper and Tin Working.

WALKER & PRATT MFG. CO.,

GALEN STREET, WATERTOWN.

6 Per Cent. Per Annum.

THE DEBENTURE BONDS OF THE Middlesex Banking Company of Middletown, Conn. Secured by First Mortgages on Real Estate, deposited with the UNION TRUST CO. of New York, and a safe and profitable investment. For sale at par and accrued interest by EDWARD P. HATCH, Agent, First Nat. Bank, West Newton, Mass. 23-17.

For Artistic PHOTOGRAPHS OF CHILDREN visit the Studio of 111 Moody Street. W. A. Webster Waltham, Mass.

Cars of Newton Electric Street R. R. pass the Studio. Leave the Cars at Hall's Corner.

G. W. RIGBY,
Carpenter and Builder.

ALL JOBBING PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.
Shop: WASHINGTON ST., opp. WABAN
NEWTON MASS.

S. A. MERRITT.

Designer, Draper and Maker of latest fashionable modes in Evening and Street Costumes.

Reasonable Prices. 31 PARSONS STREET, NEWTONVILLE. Electric Cars pass the Street. 10

GENTLEMEN BUY your shoes DIRECTLY from the FACTORY, or save TWO PROFITS. Ours $3.00 Fine Sewed VELT SHOES are unequalled for Style, Comfort and Wear. PLYMOUTH ROCK SHOE CO. 797 Washington St., BOSTON.

SHERIFF'S SALE

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

MIDDLESEX, ss. February 16th 1892.

Annaken on execution and will be sold at Public Auction at my office in my dwelling house, No. 23 Church street, in Newton in said County of Middlesex on Saturday the sixteenth day of April 1892, at nine o'clock A. M., all the right of the estate of Martin O'Brien of Somerville in our County of Middlesex had on the ninth day of April 1892, at nine o'clock A. M., all the right of the estate of Martin O'Brien of Somerville in our County of Middlesex had on the ninth day of April 1892, at nine o'clock A. M., (that being the time when the same was attached on process) in and to the following described parcel of real estate to wit:

A certain parcel of land situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex being lots 3 and 4 on a plan made by James A. Pease and dated April 1, 1881 and recorded in Middlesex Registry of Deeds, Plan Book 64 Plan 29 the same being bounded and described as follows: Beginning at the easterly corner of said lot 3 at a point in the north-westerly line of a new street called Cleveland Road, distant one hundred and twenty-seven feet southwesterly from the intersection of said line with the southeasterly line of Waltham St., said point of intersection being distant sixty-four feet 10 inches southwesterly from land in w or formerly of F. A. Scott measuring along said southeasterly line of Waltham St., thence running southeasterly on said Lot 6, sixty three feet to land now or formerly of F. A. Scott, thence running North-easterly by said Lot 2 on said plan, thence running southeasterly by said Lot 2 sixty-three feet to Cleveland Road and the point of beginning. Being the same premises conveyed by said Martin O'Brien to Fredrick C. Deale by deed recorded with Middlesex (So. Dist.) Deeds, Lib. 2041 Page 154.

SAMUEL W. TUCKER, Deputy Sheriff.

HOLMES' Baggage Express.

You can always find one of Holmes' Express men at their stand, Newton Baggage Room, from 6.30 A. M. to 8 P. M., where a call may be left, or leave orders at G. F. Atkins, Grocer, or by Telephone Call at Hubbard & Procter's Apothecary.

Furniture and Piano Moving, also Crockery and Pictures carefully packed for transportation.

General Jobbing of every description promptly attended to.

Residence: 152 Adams Street, Newton, Mass.

GEO. W. BUSH

Livery, Hack and Boarding Stable

Particular attention paid to Boarding Horses. Hacks at depot for conveyance of passengers to any part of the city. Horses and carriages for business or pleasure.

ELMWOOD STREET.

TELEPHONE CONNECTION

Do You Need Gloves

Select now

From our Spring Line

Gloves

Fitted and Warranted.

Central Dry Goods Co.

107 & 109 Moody St.,

WALTHAM.

Leave Electric Car at Hall's corner.

By ELLIOT J. HYDE, Auct.

Mortgagee's Sale
of Real Estate.

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage, given by Melvin W. Gould to William Stearns, the underigned, dated July 3rd 1890 and re-recorded with Middlesex deeds, So. Dist., lib. 1890 fol. 559, and for breach of the condition of said mortgage will be sold at public auction on the premises hereinafter described, on Tuesday, April 12th, 1892, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, certain parcel of land situated in that part of Newton in the County of Middlesex, called Waban, being lots three hundred and eighty-six (386) and three hundred and eighty-six (386) on a plan of Waban village, Newton, Mass., 1880, made by Ernest W. Bowditch, and recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Registry of Deeds, bounded and described as follows, viz: North-easterly by Nehodden Road, thence measuring one hundred and sixty-five and 10-100 (165.10) feet. North-westerly by lot No. three hundred and eighty-four (384) on said plan, there measuring one hundred and eighty-eight and 86-100 (188.86) feet, and North-easterly by lot No. three hundred and eighty-seven (387) on said plan, there measuring one hundred and fourteen and 5-10 (114.5) feet. Containing 29.04 sq. feet. $290 to be paid at the time of sale. For further particulars apply to A. Blume, Attorney at Law, 27 School St., Boston.

WILLIAM STEARNS, Mortgagee.

23-31.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

MIDDLESEX, SS. PROBATE COURT.

To the next of kin, creditors, and other persons interested in the estate of Cordelia B. Keith, late of Newton in said County, deceased, Intestate:

WHEREAS, application has been made to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to William W. Keith of Newton in the County of Middlesex, and to exempt him from giving surety or securities on his bond pursuant to statute;

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge in said County of Middlesex, on the first Tuesday of April next, at nine o'clock before noon, to show cause, if any you have, against granting the same. And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once a week, for three successive weeks, in the newspaper called the Newton Graphic printed at Newton the last publication to be two days, at least, before said Court.

Witness, George M. Brooks, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this second day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

J. H. TYLER, Register.

NEWTONVILLE.

—Rev. Royal T. Sawyer has returned from Fairfield, N. H.

—Miss Josephine Hoogs has gone to Saxton's river, Vermont.

—Rev. Ira A. Priest will take up his residence here next week.

—Mr. George W. Morse is expected home from Florida next week.

—C. H. Woodworth leaves next Monday for Hague, South Dakota.

—Mr. Edward H. Pierce and Miss Pierce, are at the Huntington, Boston.

—Bernard Elliott of Lowell street is out again, after an illness of several weeks.

—Miss Eva Grows of Gloucester is visiting Mrs. William Soule of Walker street.

—Mrs. C. W. Brooks was called to Salem yesterday to attend the funeral of a relative.

—Mr. Thomas Knowles of Morton, N. H., is visiting Mr. Christopher Knowles of this village.

—Norumbega Tribe will work the chief's degree on the new tribe in Needham March 25.

—The engagement is announced of Miss Mabel Park to Mr. Edward J. Willey of Court street.

—Waban Lodge, I. O. O. F., worked the initiatory degree on several candidates last Wednesday evening.

—Miss Maude Davis entertained a small company of friends at her home on Walnut Terrace Monday evening.

—George Wilkey spent Sunday at his home on Court street, returning the first of the week to South Braintree.

—Mrs. Vivian, guest for a number of weeks of Mrs. Lydia Higgins, has returned to her home in Gloucester, Mass.

—Mr. Charles F. Rogers, Jr., has sold to Mr. E. M. Rumery the Lyford property he recently purchased on Court street.

—The next meeting of the Neighborhood Club will be with Miss Minnie McAdams at her home on Court street.

—Residents of Linwood avenue complain that the gas lights in that vicinity are seldom lighted, and insufficient when lighted.

—George Trotter of Watertown street is rapidly recovering from the injuries received from a bad fall about three weeks ago.

—There are uncalled for letters at the post office as follows: Given Edwin, Needham Falls; Nixon Emma, Plimney Mrs. Edward.

—The second term of Miss Gertrude Jones' dancing class was successfully ended on Tuesday evening at her home on Washington street.

—The regular meeting of the A. O. U. W. was held in Tremont hall on Monday p.m., for the installation of new members, followed by a collation.

—Dr. Baker sent a generous check to the treasurer of the Chas. Ward Post in acknowledgment of the silver water pitcher which was voted him.

—The 3d annual meet of the N. H. S. Athletic Association will be held at the drill hall, Newtonville, Tuesday evening, March 15, at 7:30 p. m.

—Rev. Ira A. Priest, the new pastor of the Universalist church, delivered an able discourse on Sunday morning, which was listened to by a very large and appreciative audience.

—A very interesting meeting of the Woman's Guild was held Tuesday afternoon in the Methodist church vestry, young ladies from the Normal school of Boston giving exercises in the Swedish gymnastics.

—A down electric car on Monday afternoon when near the Central Congregational church collided with a heavily loaded grain team, somewhat demolishing the wagon and badly injuring two of the horses.

—The monthly meeting of the New Church club, was held at the Thorndike, Boston, last Wednesday, March 9, at 5:30 p. m., and a paper on "The Universality of the Inspired Scripture" was read by Rev. John Worcester.

—Michael Cox of Waltham was injured by a falling bucket in the Newtonville sewer trench last Friday, receiving a cut in the head, in which Dr. Talbot took several stitches. A number of similar accidents have occurred recently.

—The usual monthly social and supper at the Universalist church last evening took the form of a reception to Rev. and Mrs. Priest. An excellent musical entertainment was presented, and the supper was furnished by the young people of the Lend-a-Hand Society.

—The Goddard Literary Union is not abolished, as many seem to think, but simply been taking a vacation this winter, but a committee of six have provided good entertainments for each sociable, and at the annual meeting in April, it will map out the work intended for next season.

—The Chicago Evening Post says: Rev. Rufus A. White is the cleric who has recently taken the pulpit vacated by Miss Kollock. He is a broad and liberal theologian; one of the practical kind of Christians. His first sermon stirred the members of his church from stem to gudgeon.

—The next meeting of the Guild will be held in the Methodist vestry on Monday, March 21, and the pleasure of listening to Mrs. Deane of Edgartown, on "The Influence of Flowers upon National Life." It is a fine paper and will doubtless attract a large audience.

—Charles Ward Post, 62, G. A. R., will give a reception to Chaplain Morse in Grand Army hall, Monday evening, March 14. It is then that the "farewell words" will be spoken as Mr. Morse departs soon after for Virginia, where he will locate with his family. This lodge is increasing very rapidly. It is composed of the best men in Newtonville, and it has only cost in this order $11.33 per year, to carry $2000 for the past ten years.

—The Neighborhood Club met last Wednesday evening with Mr. Herbert Needham of Lowell street. What was the prevailing game of the evening, Mr. Ernest Boyden winning the first prize and Miss Jones of Wilton, N. H., the 1st ladies' prize. Some very pleasing banjo music was rendered by gentlemen from Somerville. Miss Pierce of Somerville, sister of Mr. H. F. Pierce, also gave choice vocal solos.

—On Tuesday the Newtonville Guild listened to the report of the secretary, who also read a beautiful tribute to the memory of Mrs. E. J. Parker and letters from Mary Eldredge, of Jewett, N. M., who spoke of the needs of the Navaho Indians. A committee was appointed, with Miss Susie Dickinson as chairman, to solicit funds to buy a sewing machine to aid in the making of clothing for their immediate use. The paper for the afternoon was given by Miss Hopkins, who is soon to take a position at the Drexel Institute, Philadelphia.

—Another Victory for Cleveland's.

On March 4th the contract for supplying the U. S. Army with baking powder, was again awarded to the Cleveland Baking Powder Co. This makes the sixth consecutive order for Cleveland's Baking Powder from the government, and now the proposals specify that baking powder offered must be "in quality equal to Cleveland's."

That is commendation that speaks volumes.

WEST NEWTON.

—Mr. J. S. Alley is building a house on Prince street.

—Admiral L. A. Kimberly has returned from Washington.

—Mr. and Mrs. Greenwood are receiving congratulations. It is a girl.

—Mrs. Jane M. Hastings' new house on Temple street is nearly ready for occupancy.

—The engagement between Miss Cora Underwood and Mr. Frank Eddy is announced.

—The Lyceum will discuss social reform next Wednesday, and Rev. N. P. Gilman will speak.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Eddy left here Thursday for California, where they will remain two months.

—Mr. Oscar F. Lucas has sold out his store and tinware business to Mr. Cushman of Providence.

—Mr. N. Seaver of the Lower Falls district has entered the employ of Albert F. Wright, pharmacist.

—The Second Congregational society held a social last evening, following a meeting of the sewing circle.

—Mr. Edward P. Bond and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Eddy left yesterday on a Raymond excursion for Chicago.

—Mrs. Josiah E. Bacon gave a very pleasant afternoon tea, Wednesday, in honor of Miss Agnes Hastings.

—Mr. T. H. Stinson is seriously ill at his home on Fountain street. His health is impaired from overwork.

—Rev. E. A. Horton, formerly pastor of the Second Church, Boston, occupied Rev. Mr. Jaynes pulpit last Sunday.

—Capt. Kendrick, the genial city treasurer, is convalescing slowly and will probably resume his official duties in a week or two.

—During the year 1891 there were 630 births in this city, the larger number in Ward 2, which headed the list with a record of 150.

—Mr. W. H. Leatherbee is building a new residence on Prince street. When completed it will be occupied by Mr. J. S. Alley of Temple street.

—The choir of the Second Congregational church will give a concert on Tuesday evening of March 30, presenting an attractive vocal and instrumental program.

—Ex-Senator Alley, who has been spending the winter here with his son at his residence on Temple street, has been quite ill, but is now convalescing.

—The police officers have been very busy the past few days distributing water bills, issued from the office of the water registrar, Mr. J. C. Whitney.

—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ritchie departed for New York yesterday. They leave that city for Europe Saturday morning and expect to be abroad several months.

—Rev. Dr. Fales, rector emeritus of Christ church, Waltham, will be the preacher tonight, Friday, at the Church of the Messiah. Service at 7:45 o'clock.

—Rev. Dr. J. S. Lindsay, rector of St. Paul's church, Boston, will preach at the Church of the Messiah Tuesday evening, March 15, at 7:45 o'clock. All welcome.

—The next meeting of the Women's Educational Club will be held this Friday p. m. Subject, Symposium on Crime. Opening paper by members of the club.

—Mr. George P. Whitmore, worshipful master of Dalhousie lodge, F. and A. M., recently entertained the past masters and officers of the local fraternity at his residence on Winthrop street.

—The last sociable of the season of the Unitarian Society occurs in the church parlors Friday evening next. Special entertainment features will be provided, including a lecture by Admiral Kimberly.

—The new Amoskeag engine has been ordered and will be turned over to the fire department about June 1. It will be a thoroughly constructed piece of apparatus and a valuable addition to the city's protective plant.

—The residents of Prince street object to unsightly telephone poles, still it is fair to presume that they appreciate the usefulness of the telephone. There are people who want the privileges and not the inconveniences.

—One of the changes proposed in connection with the elevated railroad is the continuation of Putnam street through to Washington, Cole's Iron manufacturing and blacksmith plant will be removed probably to some other community.

—The Unity Dramatic Club has in rehearsal a comedy in three acts by Henry J. Byron, entitled, "Art to the Knife," which will give in the Unitarian church parlors the last of this month. Due notice will be given of the date of the performance.

—A frame dwelling of 11 rooms, on the corner of Webster Park and Webster street, has been sold by Henry W. Savage for Mr. George H. Haynes to Mr. George S. Houghton on private terms. Mr. Houghton is sub master of the Lawrence school in South Boston. The lot contains 12,000 feet.

—The following persons successfully passed the civil service examination for police appointments and have been assigned for special service: James J. Mullen, Hiram B. Hartford, John T. Moody, Peter J. McAleer, William S. Scamman, Seth J. Johnson, Jeremiah E. McMahon, Daniel J. Corcoran.

—There are letters in the postoffice for Ella Barry, Mrs. A. L. Bliss, Maria Buckley, Mrs. Patsy Conis, Mrs. B. T. Cox, Emma Elberhart, Annie Henderson, Daniel Hagerty, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Jones, James Kershaw, William Loring, G. A. Maynard, Terence Power, Miss L. P. Pierce, L. C. Radin, Eliza Williams, Miss M. Whalen.

—J. Wiley Edmonds camp 100, S. of V., held their regular meeting last Monday evening. The feature of the evening was the presentation to the camp by Com. A. S. Kimball of the brass cannon voted to him at the G. A. R. Carnival. The occasion was suitably commemorated by loading and discharging the cannon, Commander Kimball, who operated the piece being slightly wounded by a flying fragment of the primer.

—The meeting of the Lyceum Association, Wednesday evening, proved an interesting one and a very instructive and entertaining lecture on the "Right Method in Social Reform" was given by Rev. N. P. Gilman. The debate was upon the question: "Should the president and senators of the United States be elected by popular vote." The leading disputants were Messrs. George L. Chandler and James T. Allen. The music for the occasion was furnished by the Allen school orchestra.

—Loyalty Lodge of Good Templars will favor the public with another free concert and temperance lecture Sunday at 3 p. m., sharp, in City Hall. A very fine musical program has been arranged to be rendered by Loyalty Quartet, consisting of Misses Flata and Fogwell, Messrs. Beardwell and Rand. Odd Fellows Quartet, consisting of Mesrs. Rice, Woodberry, Newell and Rand. Miss Fogwell, the popular alto of Channing choir, will sing several solos. The entire band will sing two selections. The lecturer, Jas. L. Bowen of Springfield, is Grand Chief Templar of Massachusetts. He is also a prominent member of the G. A. R. and is one of the most interesting and eloquent speakers in the state. The meeting will commence at 3:30 sharp. All are invited to come early and obtain a good seat.

—The concert given under the auspices of the Veteran Fire Association in City Hall,

Tuesday evening, was one of the finest and most enjoyable ever given in Newton. The numerous encores and recalls plainly proved that everyone was more than satisfied with the performance as a whole, and with each individual artist. There was but one drawback, the absence of Mr. Carlyle Peters, because of illness. His place, however, was filled to the satisfaction of all by the work of Mrs. Alfred DeSeve and Miss Jessie Downer. Mr. DeSeve is well known in Newton but never did the beautiful work of this noted violinist, surpass his work of Tuesday evening. Mr. Herbert Johnson was at his best and the audience were charmed by the pure tones of this artistic tenor. Mrs. Jennie Patrick Walker performed her part of the program to the delight of all. The program closed with a duet by Mr. Johnson and Mrs. Walker, which was a fine piece of work. Mr. Elizabeth Flower Willis, the reader, was a stranger to Newton, but she never fear to return, as a cordial and enthusiastic welcome will be accorded her next time. It is a pleasure to see the association for their very successful concert.

—A most enjoyable concert was given at the Unitarian church last Sunday evening, by Mr. Charles S. Johnson, the organist of the church, assisted by Miss Bessie Fyffe and Mr. J. B. Atwood. The program was most judiciously arranged and included solos for both organ and pianoforte, duets for the same instruments, and violin solos. Mr. Johnson merits the sincere thanks of a musical public for the very enjoyable evening. It is greatly to be deplored that so noble an instrument as the organ should be heard so little in solo work; perhaps the reason for it is to be found in the fact that there are so many excellent organists who are unable to master the instrument to any greater extent than that required by the average congregational service. To the conscientious student of the organ every day brings out new and unthought of possibilities, the natural discouragement resulting from this seemingly unapproachable end may account for the celebrity with which practice is usually dropped upon the accomplishment of the performance of Old Hundred with a staccato-left-foot-pedal. Mr. Johnson possesses the rare accomplishment of playing the organ and pianoforte equally well; he is so good that he is not content with no wise from the peculiarities of the other. Miss Fyffe added much to the pleasure of the evening by her admirable performance of the violin solos, and Mr. Atwood was also of great assistance in the duets for pianoforte and organ. Mr. Johnson is to be congratulated upon the success of the evening, and to be gratefully thanked for his part in the program. It is to be hoped that this concert may be the first of a number to come.

AUBURNDALE.

—Mr. W. W. Briggs is quite ill.

—Farley, pianos, 433 Wash. St. Newton.

—Mr. Harlow, of Cotuit, Mass., is visiting his son, Officer Harlow.

—Mr. Morrage, who was burned by a gas explosion, is able to be out.

—Mr. James Vickers is recovering very slowly from his recent injuries.

—The last sociable of the season was enjoyed last evening by the Congregational society.

—An organ recital is to be given at Auburn Hall next Wednesday evening by a self playing orchestra.

—A photograph exhibition and entertainment will be given in Auburn Hall, Thursday evening, March 10.

—The John Boyle O'Reilly Literary Association give a minstrel entertainment in Auburn Hall, Thursday, March 17.

—Miss Julia Stickney of Lexington street is slowly recovering from the effects of an overdose of quinine taken last week.

—The charter has been received by the Auburndale Fraternal Benefit association and within a few days the building will be in readiness by which to join this organization.

—The king bolt to James Walton's milk wagon broke yesterday, while he was driving through the village, and the horse ran with the forward wheels. The wagon was slightly damaged.

—Grand Warden George H. Howard and suite visited Auburn, E. O. P., Monday evening. Three new candidates were initiated, and after the meeting a musical entertainment was enjoyed, and a light collation of ice cream and cake served.

—Last evening the Latimer society of the Methodist church followed the example of other societies, and gave the services for about one hundred and fifty unfortunate men at the Union Rescue Mission, Boston, at about 7:30. Hot coffee and sandwiches were given to all the men, the only condition being hunger. It was good to see them show their appreciation.

—Mr. Rufus Estabrook of Woodland avenue died yesterday at 1 p. m. of old age, resulting from a complication of disorders. Mr. Estabrook has always been remarkably well and had hardly known a sick day until a few weeks ago, when he slipped on his office steps in Boston, and sustained a ligament or tendon just above the knee. Later he was taken ill with pneumonia, and after throwing this off other complications set in. He died at his residence in Rutland, Mass., and has been a resident of Auburndale for thirty years. He was the original partner in the firm of Estabrook & Eaton, the well known cigar manufacturers, and after remaining in this business for some years disposed of his interest to his brother, Benjamin Estabrook, who retained his connection with the firm until his decease last July. Mr. Estabrook became proprietor of the City Iron Foundry at South Boston, with which he was connected at the time of his death. He was also largely interested in the real estate business. The deceased was well known and greatly esteemed by the large circle of business men with whom he was associated. A widow, two daughters and three sons survive. The funeral will be held from his late residence at 1 p. m. Monday.

BOSTON AMUSEMENTS.

HOLLIS STREET THEATRE.—E. H. Sot hern will follow "Cleopatra" at the Hollis Street Theatre, in Henry Arthur Jones' success, "The Dancing Girl." The play has already been running over 150 nights in London, and the roles played by Mr. Sot hern, the Duke of Guisebury, is entirely different from anything he has yet attempted and is said to be one of his best efforts. The play ran over 100 nights at the Lyceum Theatre, New York, where it proved immensely popular securing the endorsement of the press and people. Mr. Sot hern has surrounded himself with an able company of players, and he is sure as the bright particular star to receive a royal welcome from his numerous Boston friends. The engagement commences next Monday evening.

A LADY or gentleman can be properly and elegantly shod by SAMUEL WARREN'S Forty-six Temple place, Boston. Send for circular.

BOWDOIN THEATRE.—After an absence of several years, one of the best comedienne of the American stage will make her appearance in Boston at the Bowdoin Square Theatre Monday evening next, as the particular star of "The Dazzler,"—bonnie Kate Castleton. This immensely funny bit of nonsense has crowded the principal theatres of the country, and from all accounts will prove as strong a magnet here as elsewhere. Miss Castleton is charming in person and possesses a sprightliness and keen humor which renders her a prime favorite. Her company is an excellent one and the attraction offered will no doubt crowd Boston's handsome new play-house during the engagement.

Mr. Henry B. Harris, the courteous treasurer of the Columbia Theatre, will receive a testimonial at the hands of Managers Frohman, Harris & Atkinson on Monday evening, April 18. The occasion will be the first presentation in Boston of one of Mr. Frohman's latest New York successes.

A feature of the annual testimonial to Mr. Charles J. Rich, the assistant manager of the Hollis Street Theatre, which takes place at that house on Sunday evening, March 20, will be a handsome souvenir program of tasteful design. Mr. Rich is already assured of a large and fashionable audience. The program will be exceedingly entertaining.

Lasell Notes.

Saturday evening, March 5, the Missionary Society of Lasell Seminary held an entertainment. Miss Mary Packard, a former graduate, gave an excellent recitation, the Amphion quartet sang several times, and Miss Kate Plummer gave an excellent organ recital. The room was interlarded with colored cards, and the one who disentangled her part of the web most quickly won a stick pin of eoweb shape. The entrance fee was fifty cents, and a prize was given to the person who took the most unique method of earning the money, as the number of nurses on the list will be sufficient for the needs of this community in all ordinary seasons, and it is hoped that the community will show their appreciation of the provision thus made by sending their calls here in preference to going to outside places. Applications by telephone or otherwise will always receive prompt attention.

Some of the Lasell people are much interested in an entertainment and supper which is planned for Thursday, March 17, in aid of the Missionary Society of the Methodist church, where it is to be held. It is under the management of the ladies and the funds are to be earned by the givers after the plan of the entertainment in aid of missions held at Lasell last Saturday evening.

Monday, March 7, the program for cooking, including the hominy, pan-broiled chops, Graham gems, lyonnaise potatoes, coffee.

Principal Braden led the Sunday school teachers union meeting at the Congregational church, Tuesday evening March 8.

To help towards the missionary funds an impromptu show was given, Friday evening. The fastest girl represented the "Living skeleton," the slowest and smallest the "Fat Woman." There was the "Wild Man of Borneo," the "Ossified Man," "Chief of the Cannibal Islands," "Paderewski," the three headed man, etc.

Bowling.

The Newton Club and the Norfolk House Casino clubs are now tied for second place, the latter club beating Newton at Melrose, Tuesday night.

Team 6 won the final match with team 1 Tuesday night, by 46 points.

The Newton league and second teams visited the Waverly Club at Hyde Park Saturday, and rolled an exhibition game on the new alleys. The scores were not particularly large, as the alleys are just a little raw as yet. The league team won, 755 to 680. Another match was rolled between the Newtons and a picked team of the Waverly, which resulted in Newton winning, 724 to 550.

Newton lost a game to the Vesper B. C. team at Melrose last night by 13 pins. The score: Vesper B. C., 2305; Newton, 2382. Both organizations rolled big scores. The game was won by L. well on account of Goulding's great work in the first string.

The "Big Five" defeated the B. A. A. second team at Newtonville last evening by 11 pins.

Registry for Nurses.

At the Newton Cottage Hospital a registry for nurses has been established which will be a great convenience to the public. There are some excellent nurses resident in Newton and by having a Registry at the hospital where their whereabouts can always be ascertained, the getting of a nurse will be much facilitated. The registry will be managed by the matron of the hospital, assisted by a committee of ladies and medical men, and every precaution will be taken to ascertain the capabilities of a nurse before placing her name upon the Register. The deservedly high reputation of the nurses from this hospital has produced a demand greater than could hitherto

REPORT on the Condition of the First National Bank of West Newton, at the close of business, Mar. 11, 1892.

Loans and discounts	$222,093 98
Overdrafts, secured and unsecured	225 26
U. S. Bonds to secure circulation	25,000 00
Stocks, securities, claims, etc.	4,251 33
Due from approved reserve agents	11,289 45
Banking house, furniture, and fixtures	973 46
Current expenses and taxes paid	2,377 09
Premiums on U. S. Bonds	4,250 00
Checks and other cash items	2,304 95
Bills of other banks	2,309 00
Fractional paper currency, nickels and cents	121 08
Specie	8,583 45
Legal tender notes	9,300 00
Redemption fund with U. S. Treasurer (5 per cent. of circulation)	1,125 00
Total	$294,298 05

LIABILITIES.

Capital stock paid in	$100,000 00
Surplus fund	3,100 00
Undivided profits	8,618 69
National Bank notes outstanding	22,500 00
Dividends unpaid	10 00
Individual deposits subject to check	$153,780 21
Demand certificates of deposit	5,650 00
Certified checks	$38 15 100,077 36
Total	$294,298 05

STATE OF MASSACHUSETTS, COUNTY OF MIDDLESEX, ss:

I, Edward P. Hatch, Cashier of the above-named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

EDWARD P. HATCH, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 7th day of March, 1892.

ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, Notary Public.

JAMES H. NICKERSON, R. F. HOUGHTON, FRED. E. CROCKETT, Directors.

MINER ROBINSON, ELECTRICAL ENGINEER.

12 Pearl Street, Room 27, Boston. Residence, Chestnut St., West Newton. Private Residences fitted for the Electric Light and Power in tallations. High grade Electrical Construction Work of every description. Estimates furnished.

ELECTRIC LIGHT.

Electric Light and Power in tallations. High grade Electrical Construction Work of every description. Estimates furnished.

Telephone. Boston, 3311. West Newton, 331-2.

BARGAINS.

BASS AND IRON BEDSTEDS. BEDSTEDS. The found one 100 design.

H. W. BIGELOW COMPANY, 70 WASHINGTON ST. BOSTON.

H. W. BIGELOW, Residence, Newtonville.

FORKNALL & TOMS,

Wood Turning of Every Description,

STAIR POSTS, RAILS AND BALUSTERS,

House-Brackets, Band Sawing, Moulding, Pattern Making, Etc., Etc.

132 CHARLESTOWN STREET,

SEND US A POSTAL CARD. BOSTON. REUBEN FORKNALL, Newton.

be met. Now that the matter has been systematized, it is believed that the number of nurses on the list will be sufficient for the needs of this community in all ordinary seasons, and it is hoped that the community will show their appreciation of the provision thus made by sending their calls here in preference to going to outside places. Applications by telephone or otherwise will always receive prompt attention.

Your Piano

should be for service, not show. It is the pet instrument of the home. Upon it the whole family depend for music. And as one selection has to suffice for many years, how important that it be choice and serviceable.

When you purchase a BRIGGS PIANO, you get a choice instrument and all the family acquiesce in the wisdom of your selection.

It is really a worthy piano; serviceable, durable, rich in appearance, yet sweet, pure and powerful in tone.

Pointers from the Manufacturers.

C. C. BRIGGS & CO., Mfrs. 5 & 7 Appleton St., Boston.

G. E. OSGOOD & CO., THE LIBERAL HOUSE

FURNISHERS,

744-756 Washington Street, BOSTON.

FOILED BY AN OPERATOR.

BY MARLTON DOWLING.

The western bound train had just started from the depot at Cheyenne, and the passengers were settling themselves comfortably in their seats to enjoy the long stretch of ride which was before them, as well as might be.

I was on my way to new fields of labor, the Western Union Telegraph Company, by whom I had been employed for several years, having transferred me to a station well up among the mountains. I did not care to read. Somehow I could not concentrate my thoughts upon the pages, and the book lay open and unheeded on my knee.

I had sat engrossed in reverie for perhaps fifteen minutes, when my attention was attracted towards two flashily-dressed men who occupied seats facing each other, diagonally across the aisle from me. One was middle-aged, while the other was much younger.

At first I took them to be deaf mutes, for they were certainly carrying on a conversation with their fingers. But a second glance told me that they were not using the symbols by which the poor unfortunate who are deprived of speech communicate with one another, for only the index finger and the thumb of the right hand was brought into requisition.

With half-closed eyes I idly watched them for awhile, when suddenly I became aware of the nature of their conversation, and my surprise was so great that I nearly revealed my knowledge of what they were saying by an exclamation of dismay.

They were actually telegraphing to each other, the quick extension of the forefinger representing the dash, while the thumb indicated the dot.

"The gang boards the train at L—," signalled the elder of the two men. "It will be dark, then. We must manage to get on the rear platform of the express-car at that stop. When well out on the road again, cut the coaches apart, Jim and Tom will take care of the engineer and fireman, while you and I will have to look after the messenger. Does your nerve hold good?"

I could not witness the reply of the younger one, but I judged it was satisfactory, for his companion smiled and slightly nodded his head.

Then, as though thoroughly understanding each other, they turned their attention to what was going on about them.

That I was astonished, scarcely expresses my feelings. I had been, in a most singular manner, made aware of the plot to rob the express.

I knew it was my duty to warn the trainbands, but how was I to be done without exciting suspicion? At length, I determined to step forward into the smoking-car and when an opportunity occurred, to report what I had learned to the conductor.

Then, as nonchalantly as possible, I took a cigar from my pocket, opened my penknife, deliberately cut the end off, and placing the weed between my lips, arose, deposited my bag and overcoat where I had been sitting, and walked slowly toward the forward part of the train.

I did not know but what the robbers might have a confederate in the smoker, so it behooved me to be extremely guarded.

Then again, I had heard of such a thing as the conductor being in league with the "gentlemen of the road," at any rate I realized that I must speak to this official, and were he a friend of the thieves, it would at least frustrate their designs for a time, though it would also give them a chance to escape.

I had consumed perhaps a quarter of a cigar when the man in charge of the train entered.

I caught his attention and motioned him to take a seat by my side, and then placed my credentials from the company in his hand and awaited his perusal thereof.

"Well, young man," he asked, as he returned the paper, "what interest do you suppose that has for me?"

"Very little, directly," I replied. "Only I thought it best to let you know who I am before revealing to you a secret of the greatest importance to you and the lives under your care."

"What do you mean?" demanded the conductor, bending a searching look upon me.

"I learned but a short time since that there are two men in the car behind this, who, with the assistance of others that will board the cars at L—, are to cut the train in two, and compel the engineer to rush ahead with the express-car to some place without fear of interruption."

"Is it possible?" he exclaimed, aghast at the news.

"It is indeed," and then I proceeded to make known how I had discovered the plot.

"What are we to do?" he asked in a whisper. "If there are but two, the train hands can easily secure them."

"But there may be others," I suggested, "and if you attempt to make an arrest it may precipitate matters, and some of your men might receive injury from flying bullets."

"That is true. But what do you propose? We certainly cannot remain idle and allow them to take their course."

"Is there a telegraph station at L—?" I inquired.

"Yes," he replied. "Now, as it is coming on dark, you can stop the train without exciting much suspicion. I will go back a little way with a rear brakeman and tap the wire. With the aid of my pocket relay I will open communication with L— and let the agent there know what is afoot."

"How long will it detain us?"

"Perhaps ten minutes, if I get him on my first call."

"I will do it!" exclaimed the conductor, and he reached up and gave the bell-rope a sharp jerk.

Ere the train had come to a full stop the conductor and myself sprang to the ground, he hurrying forward to whisper to the engineer, while I walked back to join the rear brakeman, who was just alighting with a lantern in his hand.

"What's the matter?" growled the man, not liking to walk back a distance of ten telegraph poles along the dark and lonely road.

"Never mind, now," I answered. "Come along with me, it's the conductor's orders."

When we had got far enough away from the train to escape observation I climbed a pole and tapped the wire.

Fortunately, the operator at L— was on hand.

"It is understood that robbers are to board No. 27 at L—. Two are coming down with us now. Arrest any suspicious person that may be loitering particularly near the station. Have officers in readiness when we arrive. (Signed) Clarkson, conductor of No. 27."

This was the message which I sent, using the name the conductor had given me, and when I received the operator's "O. K." I slid down the pole with a feeling of relief, and, in company with the brakeman, hurried back to the train.

To distract attention from us, the engineer and fireman, during our absence, had busied themselves about the engine, as though repairing part of the machinery, but when we came up the conductor switched his lantern, the two men jumped into the cab and we were off again at an increased rate of speed to make up for lost time.

I resumed my former seat, close to the robbers, and when we drew near to L— I perceived that the brakeman, baggage master and conductor had been waiting for us in our car, and as the train slowed up the four railroad employees threw themselves simultaneously upon the outlaws, and, after a desperate struggle, had them securely bound.

Stepping out upon the dimly-lighted platform at the station we were confronted by an excited crowd, in the midst of which could be seen two villainous-looking wretches safely manacled.

"Ah, ha! Clarkson!" exclaimed the depot-master triumphantly. "I got your despatch just in time, and you see, here are the two birds waiting for you. How do you come out with those on the train?"

"All right," was the reply. "I'll turn them over to you, Mr. Officer," indicating the sheriff, who stood close by leaning upon a Winchester rifle.

"You needn't be afraid but what I'll give a good account of them. You'll have to say off here on your next trip East, as a witness against them."

"Very well. I'll do that with pleasure. But here's a man you want to summon," indicating me. "He put me up to the whole thing, and 'twas he who sent the messenger tapping the wire."

Immediately I was the recipient of admiring looks from the citizens and frowning scowls from the outlaws, and to escape both, I hastened on board the train, after receiving a verbal summons to appear at court.

Upon my testimony and a certain amount of circumstantial evidence, the robbers were adjudged guilty and are now serving out a long term of imprisonment.

The express company, grateful for the service which I had rendered, presented me with a substantial token of their appreciation, which I carry with this day the watch-pocket of my vest.—Yankee Blade.

BOOKS AND MAGAZINES.

Our Little Men and Women. The Pansy, and Baby are full from cover with pictures and stories to delight the young readers. They not only amuse, but instruct, and are among the best in children's literature.—D. Lothrop Co., Boston.

Edwin D. Mead discusses the Chilean trouble in the March New England Magazine, and takes the view that the United States has been made ridiculous by the recent explosion of war brag. Walter Blackburn Harte devotes his "In a Corner of Dodsley's," to exposing the quackery of professional literary advisers.

Besides the silver question, the most important political topics of the year are likely to be pensions, immigration, and the tariff, about all of which the results of fresh study by the best equipped men will be published. The Forum will take an active and leading part in the discussion of the presidential campaign.

The March number of The Forum has two papers on the silver question—one by Mr. Bland, who makes his best argument for silver, and the other by Mr. Leach, director of the mint, who writes to show that in case of free coinage, Europe would dump its silver on us. In the following months The Forum will publish the most thorough discussion of this subject that has been made, by the foremost writers of both continents.—New York.

In the March number of the Ladies' Home Journal Ada Chester Bond has an interesting paper on ex-Empress Eugenie and her secluded life at Farnborough, England. "Are Our Girls Too Independent?" is answered in the decided negative by Mrs. Frank Leslie and Julius Henri Browne. There are the usual departments, and the first part of a serial, "A Brief Prelude," by Margaret Butler Snow, provides good fiction. The entire number is capably illustrated.—Curtis Publishing Co., Philadelphia.

The scene of Mr. Howell's new novel, "The World of Chance," is in New York city, and the hero, a young literary aspirant who goes to the metropolis with the manuscript of his first novel under his arm. If the opening chapters, which appear in the March number of Harper's Magazine, may be taken as an indication of the character of the entire story it is safe to predict that it will outrival in interest anything that its author has hitherto produced.

LITERARY NOTES.

"The Gateways of New York," a description of the means of access to the metropolis and of the proposed new tunnels and bridges, will be the subject of a valuable article by Jno. Gilmer Speed in the next number of Harper's Weekly, published March 9th. It will be accompanied by a map, and will be fully illustrated. Another article of timely interest, to appear in the same number of the Weekly, will be a description, with illustrations, of the Club-houses of Currituck Sound, written by Alexander Hunter.

An article on Woman's Work at the Columbian Exposition, by Mrs. A. B. H. Wakeman, will be one of the attractive features of the forth-coming number of Harper's Bazar, published March 12th. It will be accompanied by portraits of several of the lady managers of the Exposition. The fiction of the number will include a bright story by Isa Cabbell Carington, entitled "The Buried Silver."

A New Saint's Tragedy, a story by Thomas A. Finkerton, will be published shortly in "Harper's Franklin Square Library."

Herbert D. Ward has a charming poem reminiscent of Elizabeth Stuart Phelps, entitled "Her First Love," in the March number of Wide Awake.

All the admirers of the famous "Peppers," will rejoice to learn that the third volume, "Five Little Peppers Grown Up," is nearly ready for publication. It follows "Five Little Peppers Midway."

A very dainty volume for an Easter gift is the beautiful volume just published by D. Lothrop Co., called "Immortal Hopes." It contains Stedman's "Undiscovered Country," Lord Lytton's "There is no Death," etc., with beautiful illustrations in soft tint, to match the binding and printing.

The deepest depth of the sea is reported to be at a point twenty-three miles north of New Guinea, where soundings showed a depth of 26,850 feet.

Deceitful Appearances.

They sat in the corridor at the Union station waiting for the delayed limited express. She was attired in a neat fitting, gray traveling suit, with a heavy cloak thrown over her shoulders, and was one of the sweetest looking creatures that have passed through the station for many a day. He was a fair, slender youth, rather good looking, and was dressed in black and muffled in a heavy chinchilla.

"Don't say 'dear,'" she exclaimed rather fretfully. "Do call me Miss Raymond till we get out of this horrid station. Can't you see everybody is looking at us. They will all know we have been just married."

"Well, Miss Raymond, I sincerely trust you will enjoy your trip to New York," said her companion, assuming as brusque an attitude as he could for such a commonplace remark.

"Why, George, aren't you going with me?"

"Certainly."

"From the manner you spoke I thought you were angry."

"Not at all, Miss Raymond. I would do anything to please you."

"Oh, George, dear, don't talk that way any more. You have given me a fright already."

"Well, what will I do?"

"Call me all the pet names you want, but talk in whispers."

That settled it, but there was some loud whispering in the station for some time afterward, and when the fond couple walked out to their train arm in arm the passengers turned to watch them, and heard a muffled whisper:

"There, George, I don't believe a single soul in that station knows we are a newly married couple."—Cleveland Leader.

Two Accidents.

One day not long ago an old soldier was telling some of his experience during the war and also of some miraculous escapes from death that he had witnessed. "I saw a fellow shot clean through the body by a shrapnel shell within an inch of his heart," he said.

"The shell came out behind and killed a mule, but the poor fellow that was struck only gasped a little for air and then he kept on fighting just as fresh as ever." The room became very quiet and several looked toward Tangle, who was present.

Tangle arose and looked meditatively around. "I saw something of the same kind as that," he began. "It was at one of the first engagements we had when we went to the front. There was a soldier who stood right beside me struck square in the head with a twelve pound cannon ball, and gentlemen, he never knew it." The old soldier who had told the first story looked a little sheepish, and several laughed a little.

"But," some one thought to inquire, "didn't it kill him?" Tangle looked up a little bit surprised. "Oh, yes, certainly it killed him," he replied. "But then maybe it was all for the best. He might have lived to tell the story. It's probably just as well," he added, looking at the old soldier.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Pictures in Japanese Temples.

The votive pictures, yema, of Japanese temples are an outgrowth of an old custom. In ancient times departed warriors were honored by offerings of sake and rice placed before their tablets and tombs. As the idea gained ground that their spirits hovered around their graves, besides food a certain number of spotless white horses were provided, in which these spiritual worthies might take recreation. So it became the custom in wealthy Shinto temples to keep one of these sacred animals. There were many shrines that could not afford to buy a white horse, so the next best thing was to get a picture of one. Hence the name yema, picture horse, from ye, a picture, and uma, a horse.

The use of the yema was first confined to the Shinto religion, but the Buddhists took kindly to the custom. The word yema has long lost its primitive meaning, and has become a generic name for every picture hung up in Shinto shrines or Buddhist temples.—Philadelphia Ledger.

A Light Step.

Anybody can have a light step who will be at the pains to set the foot down right. In that lies all the difference between a thumping, lumping gait and the light tread that makes people call you "velvet footed." The whole art and mystery lies in a single sentence: Put the ball of the foot down first, throwing the weight upon it and letting the heel come to the floor the hundredth part of a second after. Treading flat footed—over all the sole at once—the weight comes with a jar that is about equally destructive to quiet, to grace and to shoe leather. By stepping first on the ball, just back of the toes, its cushiony muscles act as a spring and make of walking a double pleasure.—Harper's Young People.

A Clerical Horse Buyer.

There is a pastor in a midland town whose reputation for honesty is so high and his judgment of horses so good that he is employed by the gentry in his neighborhood to buy their hunters and carriage horses. For this purpose he visits the principal Irish fairs. To so great an extent has this calling been forced upon him that he has been compelled to become quite a dealer in horses; and while he gives satisfaction to his clients he faithfully fulfills his duties of his more sacred office.—London Tit-Bits.

Cinnamon Kills Disease Germs.

After prolonged research and experiment in Pasteur's laboratory, M. Chamberland is reported to have come to the conclusion that no living germ of disease can resist the antiseptic power of essence of cinnamon for more than a few hours. It destroys microbes as effectively if not as rapidly as corrosive sublimate.—New York Journal.

One Trouble with the New Dimes.

The new coins out from the mint this year have run against various objections based on aesthetic grounds. It has remained for a Washington man about town to discover that the dimes are a failure from a practical standpoint. He has detected a defect beside which the bullheadedness of the goddess of liberty and the eagle's attenuated wings are mere trifles.

This gentleman dropped into the theater on a recent evening, and being seized with a desire to ascertain whether the diamonds worn by the star were genuine, turned toward the opera glass case attached to the back of the next chair. He fished a new dime from his pocket and was about to drop the same into the slot, according to established usage, when he found that his dime would not enter. Further investigation with other dimes and slots in the vicinity showed that the new coinage is a misfit for one of its most universal purposes.

The grave question arises: What is to be done with the machines when the old dimes drop out of circulation? The slot machine men would do well to have an understanding with the director of the mint before any more coinages are projected.—Washington Post.

To Prevent Calamities by Fire.

The first thing which a civilized community should require in the erection of houses which are intended to be used for hotels and theaters and halls is that they shall be practically fireproof. If people are "willing to take the risk" the public should refuse to permit them to take it. If proper and reasonable precautions for safety increase the expense of building rents may be increased, and the price of lodging. There need be no fear that a hotel which is known to be practically fireproof will not be amply supported because its rates are higher than those of a death trap. Calamities like the burning of the Hotel Royal have become so common that it is not without serious apprehension that travelers now enter their rooms in hotels. The coil of rope which is supposed to be designed to help them in a direful emergency merely reminds them of their peril and of their probable inability in a sudden alarm to cope with it.—Harper's Weekly.

Hanged and Shot and Still Alive.

John Cook, a life man, has been released on a commutation. Some nine years ago Cook perpetrated a cold blooded murder in Webster county. The people were so worked up over the magnitude of his crime that a mob was organized and Cook was taken from the jail and hanged to a tree. Three shots were fired into his body, and he was left swinging and supposedly dead. The sheriff cut the body down and was surprised to see signs of returning life.

Cook recovered, and in view of the violence he had suffered the judge gave him a life sentence. This was commuted some months later by Governor Thayer to twelve years. He received three years' good time and was released.—Nebraska Cor. Chicago Inter Ocean.

Arrested for Christening.

A curious lawsuit has been instituted in Shenandoah, Va. A few Sundays ago the wife of David Jones brought their infant child to the Episcopal church to be baptized. Before the ceremony began Jones arose and exclaimed: "Hold on! If you christen that child you do it against the wish and religion of the father. I am an English Baptist." The wife said it was her wish to have the child christened and the minister proceeded with the ceremony. The husband then had the clergyman arrested under a law which states that a father has the spiritual and educational control of his child until it arrives at the age of maturity. The case has been sent to court, where it will be tested.—Boston Journal.

Venit, Vidit, et Nupsit in Thirty Minutes.

The record for quick time in love, courtship and marriage was broken in Fairfield, Ia., by an old gentleman from Keokuk county, who came, met an old lady, fell in love with her, proposed, was accepted, procured a license and was married to her all inside of thirty minutes from the time he first laid eyes on her.—Cor. Chicago Herald.

For Bronchitis.

"I never realized the good of a medicine so much as I have in the last few months, during which time I have suffered intensely from pneumonia, followed by bronchitis. After trying various remedies without benefit, I began the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and the effect has been marvelous, a single dose relieving me of choking, and securing a good night's rest."—T. A. Higginbottom, Gen. Store, Long Mountain, Va.

La Grippe.

"Last Spring I was taken down with la grippe. At times I was completely prostrated, and so difficult was my breathing that my breath seemed as if confined in an iron cage. I procured a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and no sooner had I begun taking it than relief followed. I could not believe that the effect would be so rapid."—W. H. Williams, Cook City, S. Dak.

Lung Trouble.

"For more than twenty-five years, I was a sufferer from lung trouble, attended with coughing so severe at times as to cause hemorrhage, the paroxysms frequently lasting three or four hours. I was induced to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and after taking four bottles, was thoroughly cured. I can confidently recommend this medicine."—Franz Hofmann, Clay Centre, Kans.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $5. Prompt to act, sure to cure.

LUMBER.

GILKEY & STONE, ARSENAL ST., WATERTOWN.

Mary E. Wilkins' "Pot of Gold" is the most attractive book for young people that has been published for many a day. It is beautifully printed and bound, and fully illustrated by our best artists.

Eliza Ruhamah Scidmore, who is an intrepid traveller and clever writer, has an entertaining article in the March Wide Awake entitled "Chin-chin, Huang-tua." It describes her visit to a Chinese nobleman and his wife.

Why is HOOD'S Sarsaparilla

Such a great success, and why is it impossible for other Sarsaparillas and blood purifiers to compete with this great medicine? Because

No Other Sarsaparilla or blood purifier gives as much medicine for the money as Hood's Sarsaparilla.

No Other Sarsaparilla has the careful personal supervision of the proprietor in all the details of its preparation, as has Hood's Sarsaparilla.

No Other Sarsaparilla has the merit to secure the confidence of entire communities and hold it year in and year out, as has Hood's Sarsaparilla.

No Other Sarsaparilla can produce from actual cures such wonderful statements of relief given to human suffering as Hood's Sarsaparilla.

No Other Sarsaparilla possesses the Combination, Proportion and Process Peculiar to Hood's Sarsaparilla, and which makes Hood's Sarsaparilla in curative effect Peculiar to itself.

No Other Sarsaparilla combines economy and strength as does Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is the only preparation of which can truly be said, 100 Doses $1.

No Other Sarsaparilla effected such remarkable cures as Hood's Sarsaparilla, of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, blood poisoning and all other blood diseases.

No Other Sarsaparilla has equalled Hood's Sarsaparilla in the relief it gives in the severest cases of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Biliousness, Heartburn, and other stomach disorders.

No Other Sarsaparilla overcomes That Tired Feeling, Restores the Appetite, and "Makes the Weak Strong," like

Hood's Sarsaparilla

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's do not be induced to take any other.

Hood's Pills cure Biliousness

To the Honorable, the Justice of the Peace Court of Newton, within the county of Middlesex:

The petition of Charles A. Jordan of Newton in the county of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, respectfully represents, that he contracted with Rufus Somerby of Boston, having authority from, and rightfully acting for George A. Baker the owner of the panorama hereinafter mentioned, then of Boston, but now of Cazenovia, in the State of New York, for the storage of a panorama, called "Battle of the war of the Rebellion" on the 18th day of March 1886, and for the carriage of the same for the agreed price of one dollar per month, and for the carriage of the same to and from the place of storage for the sum of one and 25-100 dollars; that in accordance with said contract and with the full knowledge and consent of the said George A. Baker, your petitioner has carefully stored and kept said panorama since that time until the date of his last petition, and carried the same to the place of storage, and there is due him therefor in accordance with the said contract the sum of $71, for said storage and $125 for said carting; that on the 17th day of April 1891, your petitioner by his attorney, made a demand on the said George A. Baker in writing for the payment of the sum due him for said storage and carting at the date of said demand, and that since then sixty days have elapsed, and no payment has been made by the said Baker, or any one in his behalf on account of said storage and cartage. Your petitioner claims the said panorama and storage of said panorama, now in his possession, and carting of the same as aforesaid, and prays that an order may be issued for the sale of said panorama in satisfaction for the said debt in accordance with the provisions of the statutes in such cases made and provided.

CHAS. A. JORDAN.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

SUFFOLK, ss. Feb. 25 1892.

Then personally appeared above named Charles A. Jordan and made oath to the facts set forth in the foregoing petition.

Before me, GEORGE W. STETSON, Justice of the Peace, Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

MIDDLESEX, ss.

At the Police Court of Newt. a holden at Newton within the county of Middlesex, for civil business on the twenty fifth day of February A. D. 1892: On the foregoing petition it is ordered that the petitioner give notice to the said George A. Baker, to appear before said Court on the nineteenth day of March A. D. 1892, at nine of the clock in the forenoon, by causing to be published at least once a week for three successive weeks in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in said Newton, before the said nineteenth day of March, a true and attested copy of said petition and of the order of the Court thereon.

The said George A. Baker may then and there appear and show cause, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

By the Court. HENRY L. WHITTLESEY, Clerk.

A true copy of the petition, and the order thereon. HENRY L. WHITTLESEY, Clerk.

Lung Trouble.

Many experiments and costly ones have been made to try to find a substitute for Linseed Oil in the manufacture of paint, but to-day pure linseed oil is the very life of a good painter. You cannot find a painter who will say "no" to this statement, or an honest painter who will tell you that it is more economical for you to buy a paint (because it's cheap) that does not contain its full proportion of Linseed Oil.

Linseed oil is a thing that makes paint cost, and a pure linseed oil paint has almost a fixed value. A paint is cheapened at the expense of the oil, generally by using water.

The Chilton Paints contain the full proportion of the purest and best linseed oil; this was their introduction to the public; their acquaintance with the public, which has ripened into friendship, is due to their merit.

Newton National Bank

NEWTON, MASS.

BUSINESS HOURS:

From 9 A. M. to 12 M., and from 2 to 4 P. M. On Saturdays, from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M.

JOSEPH N. BACON, President. B. FRANKLIN BACON, Cashier.

NEWTON SAVINGS BANK.

INCORPORATED 1831.

Bank Hours: From 9 a. m. to 12 m., and from 2 to 4 p. m.; on Saturdays from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m.

Office in the Newton National Bank Building.

JAMES F. C. HYDE, President. JOHN WARD, Vice President.

ADOLPHUS J. BLANCHARD, Treas. Trustees: Joseph N. Bacon, James F. C. Hyde, Dustin Lacey, Francis Mudge, Wm. Henry Brackett, Samuel M. Jackson, William Dix, Charles E. B. Jones, William C. Strong, Charles A. Minor, Elliott J. Hyde, John Ward and Chas. T. Pulsifer.

COMMITTEE OF INVESTMENT: James F. C. Hyde, Samuel M. Jackson, Francis Mudge, CHAR. A. MIXER, Clerk and Auditor.

Pure golden oil from ball of snow,
And simple suet of Bee—doth go,
To make up Golden COTTOLENE,
Of cooking art the royal queen.

is the new cooking material for all kinds of frying and shortening, to take the place of lard.

Testimonials from CATHARINE OWEN,
MARION HARLAND,
EMMA P. EWING,
ELIZA R. PARKER,
CHRISTINE TERHUNE HERRICK, AMY BARNES,
Mrs. F. A. BENSON,
Mrs. S. T. ROBER,
MARGARET WISTER,
and all the prominent teachers of cooking in this country.
Order it from your grocer.

Manufactured only by
N. K. FAIRBANK & CO.
CHICAGO, and
5 Central Wharf, Boston.

SULPHUR BITTERS

THE BEST BLOOD PURIFIER IN THE WORLD.

WHY SUFFER with that chronic disease? Do you want to die? Sulphur Bitters will cure you as it has thousands.

Why do you suffer with that FOUL, OFFENSIVE BREATH?

You need not if you use Sulphur Bitters. They never fail to cure.
Operatives who are closely confined in the mills and workshops, clerks who do not have sufficient exercise, and all who are confined indoors, should use Sulphur Bitters. They will not then be

WEAK AND SICKLY.

Is your Breath impure. Your Stomach is out of order. Sulphur Bitters is the best medicine to take.
Sulphur Bitters will build you up and make you

STRONG AND HEALTHY.

At the dawn of womanhood, Sulphur
Bitters should be used.

Send 2-cent stamps to A. P. Ordway & Co.,
Boston, Mass., for best medical work published.

Don't Drink Impure water longer when for 50c. you can buy a good filter. They will fit a faucet, whether it has thread or not. Call and see at Barber Bros.

GEO. W. BUSH,

Funeral and Furnishing

UNDERTAKER,
ELMWOOD STREET, NEWTON.
Coffins, Caskets, Robes.
And every modern requisite for the proper performance of the business constantly on hand.
Orders by telephone promptly attended to.
W. H. H. PHILLIPS

Would respectfully inform the citizens of Newton that we can be found at the above place, and will attend to all orders personally. Having had over twenty years' experience in the business, I trust I can attend to all cases that may come under my direction, to the satisfaction of all parties who may require the services of an undertaker. 11

S. K. MacLEOD
Carpenter and Builder.
Jobbing of all kinds neatly and promptly executed.
Bathrooms and fittings for Plumber's Work
Shop, Centre Place, op. Public Library
Residence, Boyd Street, near Jewett.
P. O. Box, 650, NEWTON, MASS.

RHEUMATISM AND KIDNEY COMPLAINT
Cured by
DR. DAM'S VEGETABLE REMEDY
All Grocers sell and warrant it.

AT BEDTIME
I TAKE A PLEASANT NIGHT
DRINK

THE NEXT MORNING FEEL BRIGHT AND
NEW AND MY COMPLEXION IS BETTER.
My doctor says it acts gently on the stomach, liver and kidneys, and is a pleasant laxative. This drink is made from herbs, and is prepared for use as easily as tea. It is local.

LANE'S MEDICINE
All druggists sell it at 50c. and $1.00 per package.
Buy one to-day. Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day. In order to be healthy, it is necessary.

AT BEDTIME
I TAKE
A PLEASANT NIGHT
DRINK

THE NEXT MORNING FEEL BRIGHT AND
NEW AND MY COMPLEXION IS BETTER.
My doctor says it acts gently on the stomach, liver
and kidneys, and is a pleasant laxative. This drink is made from herbs, and is prepared for use as easily
as tea. It is local.

LANE'S MEDICINE
All druggists sell it at 50c. and $1.00 per package.
Buy one to-day. Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day. In order to be healthy, it is necessary.

AT BEDTIME
I TAKE
A PLEASANT NIGHT
DRINK

THE NEXT MORNING FEEL BRIGHT AND
NEW AND MY COMPLEXION IS BETTER.
My doctor says it acts gently on the stomach, liver
and kidneys, and is a pleasant laxative. This drink is made from herbs, and is prepared for use as easily
as tea. It is local.

LANE'S MEDICINE
All druggists sell it at 50c. and $1.00 per package.
Buy one to-day. Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day. In order to be healthy, it is necessary.

INDIA.
Ganges swarms rippleless in the fierce midday
Drenched in the white-hot sun's acutest fires,
Winding in calm its torrid, intolerant way,
Around Benares and its thousand spires.

The monstrous crocodiles on either bank
Loll in the sheen and watch the ichneumon creep,
And 'mid the rushes and the tall grass rank
Of fecal pools the huge flamingoes sleep.

No sound, no stir, no pleasant dip of oars,
No sail to charm the scene, no cloud of white,
Naught but the silence of the scorching shores,
Naught but the wilderness of burning light.

Haster and slave have sought the shadeless town,
The iris fish hide in the algae dense,
With deadly beat the hell sun pourth down,
Blinding a continent in its insulence.

While o'er the slumbering waste of heat and sand,
Where nothing human moves or sways or speaks,
Far in the fertile distance, mute and grand,
Rise the great Himalayas' icy peaks.
—Francis S. Saltus.

The Great Bank of England Swindle.
Four Americans, named George and Austin Bidwell, George McDonald and Edward Hills, contrived to defraud the Bank of England of nearly £1,000,000.
They accomplished their swindle by taking advantage of a custom of the bank which had grown up through the general honesty of business men and methods in England. The bank was accustomed to receive bills of exchange in deposit on account, without verifying their signatures or the acceptances.
Probably until the Bidwells began to experiment on them the bank authorities never had had such paper offered them otherwise than in good faith.

These men contrived by pretense and falsehood to secure the necessary introduction to the bank officers, and opened an account with them under an assumed name. They then had several hundred bills of exchange printed on counterfeit plates and flooded the Bank of England with these bills from all over the world, all signed and accepted with apparent regularity. The bank unsuspectingly cashed these and put the proceeds to the credit of the swindlers, who drew out the money in ostensible business transactions in such a way as to excite no suspicion on the part of the bank officials.

At last the rascals betrayed themselves by neglecting to date the acceptance of two of the fraudulent bills. The bank, sending these to the acceptors to have the omission supplied, discovered the fraud at once. After an exciting chase by detectives all the men were arrested, then tried and convicted, and all sentenced to prison for life. In 1888 George Bidwell was pardoned and allowed to return to the United States. The others are still in prison.—London Letter.

Roaming Dogs Along the Nile.
In Egypt roving dogs are less numerous and less ferocious now than in ancient times, but they become at times terrible to strangers. It has often happened to me when casually passing through a village of upper Egypt about midnight, to be reminded when I met them of the bulldog in one of Dickens' novels, "a bitter of man and a killer of chickens for sport, which usually lived on the right side of the street, but also hid himself on the left side, so as to be ready to jump upon the passer by."

As it is under Tewfik Pasha, so it was in the time of Ramesses II, and the experience of the present day enables us to understand exactly what our scribe meant in the passage I have just quoted.
—Nature.

Hearing of Horses.
It is well known that horses can hear deep sounds which we cannot. For days previous to the earthquake in the Riviera the horses there showed every symptom of abject fear, which continued without any change of character till the fury of the convulsion broke forth. But not till a few seconds before the earth began to quake did human beings hear any sounds, while it is extremely probable that the horses heard the subterranean noises for two or three days previously.—Boston Globe.

The Thumb of the Miller.
It is by the thumb the miller tests the character and qualities of the grain be-grinds, spreading the sample over the fingers by a peculiar movement of the thumb, he gauges its value by the thumb itself. Continual action in this way makes the thumb assume a shape resembling the wide flattened head of the bullhead or Tommy Logge, a fish prevalent in mill streams, which in consequence is popularly known as the miller's thumb.—Chambers' Journal.

Practical Uses of Wood.
Witch hazel is a large and curious forest shrub. The small branches were formerly used for "divining rods," and an extract from it is valued in medical practice. The wood of the American aspens or white poplar is used in the manufacture of paper.—Home and Farm.

Chinese dentists are said to possess a wonderful powder, which is rubbed on the gum over the affected tooth. After an interval of about five minutes the patient is told to sneeze, whereupon the tooth falls out.

A statistician of small things figures
it out that the posterity of one English sparrow amounts in ten years to something like 276,000,000,000 birds.

A minister in Buckinghamshire, England, is or was recently one of the most successful agents employed by a well known insurance office.

There is only one vessel in the British navy which in the last thirty years has been engaged in a sea fight with a hostile warship, the Shah.

It has been found that vaccination is beneficial to horses having the glanders, and this treatment is now being used in France and Germany.

The owl is unable to move the eyeball, which is immovably fixed in the socket
by a strong, elastic, cartilaginous case.

NEWTON FREE LIBRARY.

LIST OF NEW BOOKS.

Barry, P. Barry's Fruit Garden; New Edition, revised and brought down to date, 1890. 101,557

Behaghel, O. Short Historical Grammar of the German Language;
trans. and adapted from 'Deutsche Sprache,' by E. Trechmann. 52,496

Berkeley, H., ed. Japanese Letters; East ern Impressions of Western Men and Manners, as contained in the Correspondence of Tokiwara and Yesshi. 31,968

Japanese views of Europe and Europeans.
Bourget, P. Pastels of Men; trans. by K. P. Womeley. 2 vols. 61,808

Butcher, S. H. Some Aspects of the Greek Genius. 54,693

Lectures delivered to the Greek Class at the University of Edinburgh, with one or two other addresses.

Clark, K. M. A Southern Cross
Fairy Tale. 67,387

A story of Christmas time in New Zealand.

Ellis, A. B. Memoir of Rufus Ellis; including Selections from his Journals and Letters. 94,527

Hart, B. A First English Grammar; Hector, A. F. (Mrs. Alexander).
Mammals. 62,910

Henslow, G. The Making of Flowers.
The author wishes to tell how Nature manufactures her flowers, basing his conclusions on the results of the observations and experiments of eminent botanists.

Hunt, T. S. A New Basis for Chemistry of a Chemical Philosophy. 102,686

Jenkyns, C. C. Hard Life in the Colonies, and Other Experiences
by Sea and Land. 34,385

Compiled from private letters written twenty years ago, and recording colonial experiences of young Englishmen in Australia,
New Zealand, and our own country.

Kibbel, T. E. The Old and the New English Country Life. 32,449

Contents. The country clergy.
The country gentlemen. The farmers. The peasantry. The eighteenth century.

Linton, W. J. The Masters of Wood-Engraving. Ref.

Mirabeau, H. G. R. comte de. Letters during Residence in England, with Introductory Notice on the Life, etc. of the Author. 2 vols. 94,524

Robida, A. Yesterday-Ten Centuries of Toilette; from the French
by Mrs. C. Hoey. 71,339

Robinson, R. E. Veimont; a Study of Independence. 71,341

"Gives a discriminating picture of the people of Vermont, their industries, interests and characteristics." One of the American Commonwealth Series.

Rodough, T. P., ed. The Bravest
Five Hundred of '61; their Noble Deeds described by themselves, with an Account of some Gallant Experiments in Indian Warfare; how the Medal of Honor was Won.

Saintsbury, G., ed. Political Verse.
Sauford, J. L. and Townsend, M. The Great Governing Families of England. 75,255

Seeks to give in a popular form the leading ascertained facts in the history of the great families in connection with the results of the latest researches into the national history.

Skelton, H. J. Economics of Iron and Steel. 101,588

An attempt to make clear the best every-day practice in the heavy iron and steel trades, to those whose province it is to deal with material after it is made.

Stable, G. L. The Log of a Gentleman, Gypsy. 35,281

Stebbing, W. Sir Walter Raleigh; a Biography. 95,456

The writer thinks that owing to the intrinsic difficulties of the subject, there is still room for a new presentation of Raleigh's personality.

Tourgnon, L. S. and others. Tales for a Stormy Night; from the French of Tourgnon, Balzac, Merimee and Daudet. 63,905

E. P. THURSTON, Librarian.

After the Grip Hood's Sarsapilla will restore your strength and health, and expel every trace of poison from the blood.

"The Blood is Life."

Runs the old saying, and everything that ever makes part of any organ of the body must reach its place therein through the blood.
Therefore, if the blood is purified and kept in good condition by the use of Hood's Sarsapilla, it necessarily follows that the benefit of the medicine is imparted to every organ of the body. Can anything be simpler than the method by which this excellent medicine gives good health to all who will try it fairly and patiently?

Satisfaction
Is guaranteed to every one who takes Hood's Sarsapilla fairly and according to directions.
This is the only preparation of which "100 Doses One Dollar" can truly be said.

"Have you seen Hood's Sarsapilla Day and Night?" For particulars send to C. I.
Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Hood's Pills cure liver ills, jaundice, biliousness, sick headache, constipation.

A cold of unusual severity developed in a difficultly decided catarrhal in all its characteristics, threatening a return of my old chronic malady, catarrh. One bottle of Ely's Cream Balm completely eradicated every symptom of that painful and prevailing disorder.—E. W. Warner, Rochester, N. Y.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Mortgagee's Sale of Real Estate.

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Isaac McLellan to Francis Jones, dated April 1st, 1872, and recorded in the Registry of Deeds for the County of Middlesex South District, libro 1477, folio 635 will be sold at public auction, for the breach of the conditions in said mortgage, on the premises, Tuesday the twenty-second day of March 1892, at four o'clock of the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, except part heretofore released, namely:— a certain parcel or parcels of land situated in that part of Newton in the County of Middlesex near Newton Highlands Station, bounded and described as follows: Northerly by Winchester Street, 280 feet; Southwesterly by land now or late of Nancy Thornton, 1132 feet; Southeasterly by land now or late of J. S.
Stor, 144 feet; and Northeasterly by land now or late of Sally Mitchell, 1921. Subject to any unpaid taxes, $500, will be required to be paid in cash by the purchaser at time and place of sale. HELEN P. SHAPLEIGH, Assignee and present holder of said mortgage.

An Old Soldier's Death.

Baron Gemmingen, lieutenant field marshal and inspector general of the Austrian cavalry, who died at his home in Gntleberg, Austria, two weeks ago, had been an active soldier for almost half a century.

When, on the afternoon of his death, his physician told him he had but an hour or two more to live, the old man sat up in bed and called to his military attendant in the next room. The soldier came. "Bring my parade uniform," commanded the general. The uniform was brought. "Now put it on me." The order was obeyed, while the old soldier gasped heavily for breath.

"Have Fritz send in a broiled chicken,
a bottle of Sec, and an imported cigar."

The order was filled, and the tray was laid on the general's bed. He ate a little and drank much. He lighted the cigar. He smoked it half down without taking it from his mouth. As he removed it to knock off the ashes, the end came. He sank back with the cigar still between his fingers, and died before it went out.—New York Sun.

When I began using Ely's Cream Balm my catarrh was so bad I had headache the whole time and discharged a large amount of filthy matter. That has almost entirely disappeared and I have not had headache since.—J. H.
Sommer, Stephent, Conn.

Elderly people remember their spring bitters with a shudder. The present generation have much to be thankful for, not the least of their blessings being such a pleasant and thoroughly effective spring medicine as Ayer's Sarsapilla.
It is a health restorer and health-maintainer.

For all derangements of the throat and lungs, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is the speediest and most reliable remedy. Even in the advanced stages of Consumption, this wonderful preparation affords great relief, checks coughing, and induces a sleep.

Ward off disease by removing the cause of it.
It's with the liver or the blood, nine times out of ten. A sluggish liver makes bad blood—and bad blood makes trouble. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes pure blood. It invigorates the liver and kidneys, rouses every organ into healthful action, and cleanses and renews the whole system. Through the blood it cures. For Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Biliousness, Scrofulous, Skin and Scalp Diseases—even Consumption (or Lung-scrofula) in its earlier stages, it's a certain remedy.

Nothing else is "just as good."
Anything "just as good" could be sold just as this. It's the only blood-purifier that's guaranteed to benefit or cure, in every case, or the money is refunded.

The catarrh that isn't cured costs $500. Not to you, but to the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. They promise to pay you the money, if you have an incurable case.

They don't believe that you have one.

PASTOR KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC

Had the Desired Effect! II.
I, the undersigned, suffered from epilepsy for 6 years, had no appetite and could do no work whatever; consulted a number of doctors, but all said there was no remedy for my disease.
I then took Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic, and am now perfectly healthy, and work all the time.
Thank you for your remedy.

PHILIP MONGEON.
95 PROSPECT ST., NEWARK, N. J., March 8, 1891.

I got some of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic for nervousness and sleeplessness, and it helped me; the first time I took it I had the best sleep I had had for several months. I also know friends of mine who used it and say it is the best nerve tonic they ever used. I write this that some sufferer may use your medicine and be helped by it.

MRS. J. MURPHY.

FREE—A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases sent free to any address and poor patients can also obtain this medicine free of charge.
This remedy has been prepared by the Reverend Pastor Koenig, of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1850 and is now prepared under his direction by the

KOENIG MED. CO., Chicago, Ill.
Sold by Druggists at $1 per Bottle. 6 for $5.
Large Size, $1.75. 6 Bottles for $9.

Meat, Poultry and Game

"THE CHOICEST" OUR MOTTO.

The Newton Market
Established in 1851 and located pleasantly at
Nos. 7 and 8 COLE'S BLOCK, has constantly on hand a LARGE and CHOICE SUPPLY of

Meats, Poultry and Game.

W. H. BRACKETT,
Proprietor. Telephone 7854

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrup, and Castor Oil.
It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency.
Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.
"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
Dr. G. C. Osborn,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. Archer, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
UNITED HOSPITAL AND DISPENSARY,
Boston, Mass.

The Centaur Company, 77 Murray Street, New York City.

Ely's Cream Balm For CATARRH THE POSITIVE CURE.

Dr. James M. Solomon, Jr.'s Botanical Medical Institute
75 Court St. (Scollay Sq.), Boston, Mass.

INDIAN BOTANICAL REMEDIES
Roots, Herbs, Gums and Barks chiefly used. Dr. Solomon treats all CHRONIC
DISEASES, makes a specialty of LUNG TROUBLES, CANCERS, TUMORS, EPILEP-SY, FITS, HEMIPLEGIA, NEURALGIA, SCIATICA, RHEUMATISM, GOUT, BRUISES, SCALD HEAD, HAIR DRESSING, RINGWORM, ETC. LIVER TROUBLES, EYE
DISEASES, AND ALL SKIN DISEASES, RINGWORM, ETC. LIVER TROUBLES, EYE
DISEASES, AND ALL SKIN DISEASES, RINGWORM, ETC. LIVER TROUBLES, EYE DISEASES, AND ALL SKIN DISEASES, RINGWORM, ETC.

Notice to Coachmen.
COLUMBIA POLISH
for cleaning Brass, Silver, all kinds of Metals, Glass and Patent Leather.
For sale by C. H. CAMPBELL, 271 Washington St. Newton. Hardware 491

LADIES AND GENTS BOOTS
Made to fit any shaped foot, stylish if you wish or neat, plain and comfortable if desired. If you feet trouble you try a pair of boots made on my new natural last, and don't suffer any longer. A full line of Ladies' Gents' and Children's Boots,
Shoes and Rubbers kept on hand at bottom price.
A. L. RHYND, 265 Washington St., Newton

Gold Silver
Bronze Medals have been awarded for these instruments
Bay State Guitars,
MANDOLINS and BANJOS; also Wm. B.
THOMAS & SONS, Boston, Mass., Sole Agents for all the States. Send for Circulars and all the latest information.
J. C. HAYNES & CO., Boston

NEWTON COAL CO
—SUCCESSORS TO—
HILLS, BULLENS & CO
—DEALERS IN—
COAL & WOOD
Family Orders a Specialty.
OFFICE, ELIOT BLOCK.
Branch Office, Tainter's
News Stand, Newtonville.
E. BRADSHAW. Agent for Newtonville.

TEETH
$10 A SET. Guaranteed.
Extracted painlessly. All other dental operations performed at equally low rates.
DR. W. H. DUDLEY, 122 Boylston St., between Tremont St. and Park St. Rooms 7, 8 and 9.

WEST END STREET RAILWAY COMPANY.
Newton to Bowdoin Square

WEEK DAY TIME.
First car leaves Newton 5.50 A. M., then every thirty minutes until 9.50 P. M.
Returning leave Bowdoin square 7.00 A. M.
then every thirty minutes until 11.00 P. M.

SUNDAY TIME
First car leaves Newton 7.50 A. M. then every thirty minutes until 9.50 P. M.
Returning leave Bowdoin square 8.30 A. M. and every thirty minutes until 11.00 P. M.
First car for Boston leaves Watertown at 7.15
A. M. F. H. MONKS,
General Manager

ESTABLISHED IN 1866.
T. J. HARTNETT,
PLUMBER & SANITARY ENGINEER.

Iron Drainage and Ventilation a Specialty.
Jobbing promptly attended to.
375 CENTRE STREET, NEWTON.

YOUR ORDER for any kind of
JOB PRINTING
Leave at the Graphic Office.

THE BOSTON HERALD'S GREAT OFFER OF THE AMERICANIZED ENCYCLOPEDIA BRITANNICA, COMPLETE IN TEN VOLUMES,
AND THE DAILY HERALD (EXCEPTING SUNDAY) FOR ONE YEAR FOR $26.00.
The Complete Set delivered on first payment of $2.00, the balance payable $2.00 a month, until the full amount of $26.00 has been paid, or if all paid at once, $23.00. Write for descriptive circulars giving full particulars.

WALTER THORPE, Newton Centre
Agent for the GRAPHIC, and receives subscriptions and makes collections for it. He makes terms for advertising, hand-bills, and all other kinds of printing. Also, Real Estate to sell and to rent, and insurance against fire in the best English and American companies.

NEWTON CENTRE.

—Mr. Andrew Kistler is in Scitua, Pa., this week.
—Mrs. Crane of Dedham street is quite ill with la grippe.
—Mrs. Walter C. Brooks of Beacon street is in Minneapolis, Minn.
—Miss Hatfield of Paul street is out after an illness of two months.
—Go to the Mock Trial and see how Justice is "dispensed with."
—The Leap Year party in Associates Hall, last week, netted $80.
—Rev. Dr. Burton of Dedham preached Sunday at the Baptist church.
—Miss Maud Dyer is at home from Wilbraham academy on a vacation.
—Mr. and Mrs. Warner Holt of Sumner street are at home Tuesday evenings.
—Miss Mary E. Flanders left yesterday on a Raymond excursion for California.
—Miss White's house on Pleasant street has been leased by Mrs. Wyber of Oak Hill.
—Councilman H. D. Degen's new house on Centre street is assuming graceful proportions.
—Mr. and Mrs. William B. Merrill started this week for a short sojourn in Bermuda.
—A number of young ladies are contemplating the foundation of a Young Ladies Social Club.
—Mr. Reuben Stone and family left town Wednesday for their future residence in Berkeley.
—The engagement of Mr. Fred A. Ward to Miss May Goodwin of Allston is announced.
—Mrs. E. J. Meers has returned to her home on Pleasant street, having spent the winter South.
—The swearing of the witnesses is to be an important feature, and they should be watched closely.
—The regular sociable of the Baptist society was enjoyed in the church parlors Wednesday evening.
—The first social of the "Elite" of Oak Hill is to be given in Oak Hill hall, Tuesday evening, March 15.
—Prof. J. B. Thomas gave an address in the Baptist church last evening. Subject, "The Bible and the Baptists."
—Mr. E. N. Wright and family of Rice street will remove next Saturday to Philadelphia, their future home.
—Father O'Donnell of East Boston is to deliver a temperance lecture in the Church of the Sacred Heart, this evening.
—It is reported that Mr. Eugene Pratt has sold out his livery business in Warren, and will soon return to Newton Centre to reside.
—At Richardson's, Philadelphia chickens, prairie chickens, turkeys, grouse, quails, smoked herring, maple sugar, apples.
—There are letters in the postoffice for Miss A. E. Baker, Mary Ann Healy, Mr. J. E. Miller, Mr. L. Pratt, Miss Bella Ross, Noro Lurue.
—Mr. W. C. Brien of Marshall street buried an infant child Sunday. Rev. W. H. Clark officiated at the service. The interment was at Forest Hill.
—Rev. George M. Boynton delivered the missionary address at the Congregational church last Sunday. Dr. Duncan of Boston, who was expected, being unable to come.
—Mr. Eugene Pratt of Warren has leased Mr. Bailey's house on Maple park, and it is understood he will resume his former position with Mr. S. L. Pratt the first of April.
—Rev. Henry W. Pinkham, who graduated from the Newton Theological Institute last June and now has a pastorate at Bridgeport, Conn., is visiting friends here for two weeks.
—The funeral of Mrs. Wm. O'Connell took place from the Church of the Sacred Heart Wednesday morning. Rev. D. J. Wholey officiating. The attendance was very large and interment was at Holyhood.
—The Lew Comedy Co., of Boston, give an entertainment Thursday evening, March 17, in Associates hall, Newton Centre, under the auspices of the Catholic church debt society.
—Mr. Greene of the Catholic Theological School of Maine has been obliged to discontinue his studies there, owing to ill health, and for the present will live with his sister, Mrs. Macgregy, Nahant street.
—Rev. George E. Lattimer of Allston will exchange with Rev. Alexander T. Bowser next Sunday morning. In the evening Rev. S. M. Crothers of St. Paul, Minn., will deliver an address at 7 o'clock at the vesper service.
—We regret to give currency to the rumor that Mr. Samuel Shannon is to be tried for stealing a rooster, but Judge Nickerson will be content with nothing less, for the sake of his widowed hens. You can find out all about it at Associates Hall.
—At the Methodist church next Sabbath evening, the third lecture on hymn writers and their hymns will be given by the pastor. Subject, "William Cowper and His Hymns." Services will commence at 7 o'clock. Seats free. All are cordially invited.
—Mrs. George M. Baker and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Victor J. Loring have left their apartments at the Huntington, Boston, and have taken the house of the Rev. Lemuel C. Barnes, during his absence abroad, corner of Cypress and Parker streets. Mrs. Loring and Miss Baker will receive Thursday afternoons.
—The Concord (N.H.) People and Patriot says that Prof. James F. Morton is very successful as principal of Proctor Academy in Andover, N. H., that "he is a scholar in every sense of the word and has always been successful as a teacher. Mr. Morton has won the respect of the citizens of Andover as well as of his pupils, and the fact that no one hears any remarks in opposition to Mr. Morton is as much in his praise as anything that can be said."

NEWTON HIGHLANDS.

—Mr. Wm. Burns has gone to Lakewood, New Jersey.
—Mrs. W. V. Brigham, is quite ill with pneumonia.
—Mrs. E. E. Bird is suffering from an attack of tonsillitis.
—The Chautauqua Circle will meet next Monday with Mrs. Hollis.
—Mrs. E. J. Hyde has gone to Savannah, Ga., for a stay of two or three weeks.
—The next meeting of the Lincoln club will be with Mrs. Brown, Lincoln street.

—Mrs. Coggeshall is ill with the grip, and is at her former home in Abundantdale.
—Rev. Jona Edwards of Wellesley Hills, will preach Sunday morning at the Congregational church.
—Mr. H. C. Robinson, who has been confined to his home by sickness for several days, is now out again.
—Miss Pike, of Duncklee street, is away for a visit of three weeks among friends and is now at Concord, N. H.
—Dr. S. L. G. Crane, the famous correspondent of the Hartford (Conn.) Times, is shortly to visit the Highlands.
—Rev. E. J. Young, D. D., of Waltham, will preach at Stevens Hall at four p. m., Sunday next. Unitarian service.
—Our Unitarian friends will hold a social in Lincoln Hall on Friday evening of this week to which the public are invited.
—Mrs. Burr of Lake Avenue, who has just recovered from a serious illness, has gone to Topeka, Kansas, for a two months stay.
—Mrs. C. P. Clark of New Haven, has made a short visit to her brother, Mr. Alexander Tyler, this week, on her way to Andover.
—M. E. services Sunday morning at 10:45. Subject, "Co-working, Co-suffering, Co-witnessing;" evening at 7, subject, "Neutrality impossible."

—Mrs. M. C. Winsor and her three sons, will start for India this week, and will join Rev. Mr. Winsor at his mission field. Miss Winsor will remain.
—Waban Tribe of Red Men worked the adoption degree on two palafaces Wednesday evening and two more will take this degree on the 23d inst.
—The latest additions to Mrs. M. D. Frazar's summer European party includes Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Guild and Miss Abbie I. Sweetser of this place.
—A dispensation has been granted by the grand dictator for the consolidation of Crystal Lake Lodge, I. O. O. F. No. 2233, of Newton Highlands, and Garden City Lodge, 1901, of West Newton, the latter lodge taking all the paraphernalia and assuming the obligations of Crystal Lake Lodge.
—The Highland Club entertained the ladies last Tuesday evening with their usual success. A fine musical program, consisting of songs by Mr. Clarence A. Shenden and Mrs. Tewksbury, the solos by Mr. Severance Burrage, and a cornet solo by Mr. Arthur Plummer were rendered and thoroughly enjoyed by all.
—The Hillside Whist Club met at the house of Mr. David Bates Saturday evening, March 5, the number being somewhat limited. Mr. and Mrs. Bates, Mr. and Mrs. Mansfield, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and Mr. H. C. Robinson, being absent. The pretty and appropriate prizes were captured by Mrs. Marston, and Mr. Harry Robinson (substituted) and a very enjoyable evening was passed. The next meeting of the club will be with Mr. and Mrs. Durbin, on Hyde street.
—The second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Ross, who has been ill for several weeks, shows no signs of improvement.
—Mrs. O. J. Kimball who has been in poor health for a long time was attacked with a very severe illness attended with much suffering, on Friday last, but by the active efforts of her physician, after a few hours became more comfortable; but we hear that she was severely ill again on Monday, and a nurse from the Newton Cottage hospital has been secured and is in attendance.

—The members of St. Paul's church are occupied with the religious duties of the Lenten season. Besides the usual services there are services each Wednesday at four, and each Friday at eight. On Wednesdays the Rev. Dr. Shinn of Newton is giving a course of lectures on the Episcopal church which is of special interest to those who wish information on this subject. On Fridays there are special preachers. This Friday the Rev. Carlton P. Mills, former rector, will officiate. Next week Friday the special preacher will be Rev. Reginald H. House, of Longwood.
—The Newton Highlands Improvement Association held their annual meeting on Monday evening, March 7, at the Club house. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mr. M. G. Crane. After the reading of the reports of the secretary, treasurer and executive committee the election of officers took place. President, Mr. M. G. Crane; vice president, Alexander Tyler, secretary, H. W. Taylor; treasurer, S. D. Whittemore; executive committee, Mr. Edward W. Jones, Mr. E. C. Hanson, Mr. C. F. Johnson, Mrs. C. F. Johnson, Mrs. Alexander Tyler, Mrs. H. E. Holmes. The membership of the association for 1921 was one hundred and one (101). Mr. E. H. Tarbell, and Mr. M. G. Crane urged the importance of maintaining an interest in the work of the association, and increasing its membership, and in furtherance of that object motion of Mr. David Bates, it was voted to print in pamphlet form the constitution and by-laws; also a summary of its work since its formation in 1886, and a list of its members. Mr. C. F. Johnson on the amendment of the by-laws that the treasurer be a member ex-officio of the executive committee, which will be acted upon at the next meeting of the association.

NEWTON UPPER FALLS.
—Officer Moulton has been distributing the water bills this week.
—Fred Bosworth of the Newton Rubber Company has been out, because of illness.
—An article on the Quinobequin bowling tournament just closed will be found elsewhere.
—Mr. Bennett of Oak street is again at work for Mr. George Randall of Boylston street.
—Rev. G. W. Holman of the Baptist church spoke very interestingly to a large audience Sunday evening.
—A petition for a new tribe in Needham contains thirty-five names. The tribe will be instituted at an early date.
—One of our grocers waited upon a customer a few days since who wanted to purchase "a bottle of pneumonia."
—The Quinobequin alleys will now be open to private parties and the public Wednesday and Thursday evenings.
—Jack Britton has secured a situation in the Municipal Police & Fire Alarm Telegraph Company of Newton Highlands.
—The committee on bowling and the captains of the teams participating in the recent tournament, meet this evening to decide upon the prizes to be given the winning teams.
—The missionary concert at the Methodist church will probably be given the first Monday in April instead of in connection with the Easter concert as customary. Preparations are being made for the Easter concert.

—A gratifying result of the earnest work being done in the Baptist church is the increased attendance in the Sunday school, where the number is so large that the vestry is getting almost too small to accommodate all, and the school may soon have to meet in the church auditorium.
—Mr. Bissell of the Pettie Machine Works presented $114 to Mrs. Henry Percy one day last week. It was a token of esteem from the fellow employees of the late Mr. Percy, who for twelve years had been a faithful and valuable employee of the Pettie Machine Works.
—If the city had reason to mention Chestnut street near the square as widened a contemporary, would they not have more reason in having Winter street at its junction with Chestnut widened? The removal of the wide piazzas about the post office building would do much to improve the street with comparative slight expense.

—Mr. Phillip T. Bagley, whose home is in this place and who is well known and has many warm friends here, has just been appointed superintendent of the Lowell Street Railway. Mr. Bagley has held a responsible position in the west and south for the past two years for the Thomson-Houston Company.

—The foundry men at the Pettie Machine Works, who have been working irregularly from nine and a half hours to 13 and 11 per day, protested to superintendent Bagley Monday morning one of their number, who was discharged the following morning. The men learning of this refused to go to work Tuesday and after a talk with the superintendent in which he recognized the justice of their claim for 10 hours regular work, they were released for the day without loss of pay and returned to work Wednesday.

QUINOBEQUIN BOWLERS.

SOME GOOD TEAM AVERAGES—A SUCCESSFUL TOURNEY.

The Quinobequin team bowling tournament has ended for the season, and although an entirely new sport in this section of the city, the tournament has proved a strong attraction, and some excellent bowling material has been brought out. The alleys were purchased of the Newton Centre Gun Club late in the summer, and during the fall were removed to this place and set up, considerable improvement being made in the building itself, which was somewhat out of repair. The alleys were of the old length and pattern, and the pins of the old style, and the question of making regulation alleys was considered, but it was decided to make no alterations at that time.

The alleys will probably be made to conform to regulation requirements, however, before another season, thus allowing the association to place a team in one of the large leagues next year, if they so desire.

The tournament opened Wednesday, Dec. 30, with five teams comprising five men each, and great interest has been taken throughout the tournament in the matches between contesting teams. The five teams were originally made up as follows:

Team 1, "Married Men," Louis P. Everett, Capt.; John Gould, Frank J. Hale, Allison A. Smith, Geo. H. Osborne.
Team 2, "Independents," Aleck Dresser, Capt.; Albert Temperley, Chas. Temperley, Fred Kempton, W. F. Bird.
Team 3, "Game-well," W. H. Muchmore, Capt.; Edward Flagg, George Billings, Leonard Dawson, Peter Coleman.
Team 4, "P. O. Square," Edw. Cooper, Capt.; John T. Thomson, W. K. Dunham, Wm. Dyson, Alfred Kempton.
Team 5, "M. A. P. C.," Walter Fisher, Capt.; Frank Jones, Benj. Dresser, Wm. Estabrooks, Russell Gilbert.

The above formation has varied somewhat during the season and considerable time and effort has been spent in trying to secure an absolutely correct list of the players and of the official team scores to show the many who have interested themselves in the tourney, the average standing of each player, and those who have special efforts to become proficient bowlers and who have made fine scores.

Mr. Walter Fisher was chosen secretary of the tournament and the following schedule of games has been played: Dec. 30, teams 1 vs 2; Jan. 3, teams 4 vs 5; Jan. 6, teams 2 vs 3; Jan. 13, teams 1 vs 3; Jan. 13, teams 1 vs 2; Jan. 14, teams 3 vs 4; Jan. 20, teams 2 vs 5; Jan. 21, teams 2 vs 4; Jan. 27, teams 3 vs 3; Jan. 28, teams 1 vs 4; Feb. 3, teams 1 vs 3; Feb. 4, teams 4 vs 5; Feb. 10, teams 1 vs 3; Feb. 11, teams 2 vs 4; Feb. 17, teams 1 vs 2; Feb. 18, teams 3 vs 4; Feb. 24, teams 1 vs 2; Feb. 25, teams 1 vs 4; Mar. 3, teams 4 vs 5; Mar. 4, teams 2 vs 3. The Gamewell team has been the dark horse and only one defeat has overtaken them during the season, when the Independents won, and the last tourney game tied for first place.

The game between the leaders were rolled off last Friday evening, the Independents winning the match and thus first place in the tournament by 89 pins. The Gamewell had had luck and went to pieces in the second string, losing a lead of 34 pins.

The score:

Bowler.	1st			2nd			3rd			Total
	1st	2nd	3rd	1st	2nd	3rd	1st	2nd	3rd
Dresser.....	161	159	159	172	172	172	472	472	472	1416
Brown.....	177	161	186	172	172	172	520	520	520	1560
Temperley.....	160	164	173	172	172	172	517	517	517	1546
Coleman.....	153	222	139	172	172	172	526	526	526	1574
Kempton.....	153	222	139	172	172	172	526	526	526	1574
Totals.....	800	925	840	2074	2074	2074	6218	6218	6218	18710

The result of the bowling shows the total number of pins knocked down by the competing teams as follows: Team 3, 19,882; team 2, 19,871; team 4, 19,615; team 1, 19,407; team 5, 15,332.

The individual team average of the men in each team is given below, the total of team for March 3 not being known:

TEAM. AVERAGE PER MAN.

Team 3	165.6
Team 2	165.6
Team 4	164.4
Team 1	162.2
Team 5	146.1

The schedule of matches won and lost by each team is as follows, team 2 winning the tie with team 3, Friday night:

TEAM. PLAYED. WON. LOST.

Team 2	8	7	1
Team 3	8	7	1
Team 4	8	4	4
Team 1	8	2	6
Team 5	8	0	8

ELIOT.

—Mr. Thompson of Boylston street expects to remove from his present residence.
—Mrs. Thomas Barry, the well known actress, who has been staying with Mrs. Hill, has gone to New York.

—Mr. Robert Turner has resigned the superintendence of the Bacon farm, and it is understood Mr. Mason will take his place.

—Mrs. Hollingsworth and family left for their future home in Malone, N. Y., this week, where Mr. Hollingsworth has been for some weeks.

—The depth of the mud in the streets and on the boulevards of the "little city," was so significant that it was a convenience to church goers last Sunday. Why not petition for concrete sidewalks?

A Remedy for the Grippe Cough.

A remedy recommended for patients afflicted with the grippe is Kemp's Balsam, which is especially adapted to diseases of the throat and lungs. Do not wait for the first symptoms of the disease, but get a bottle and keep it on hand for use the moment it is needed. If neglected the grippe has a tendency to bring on pneumonia. All druggists sell the Balsam.

Spring Opening.

Messrs. Springer Brothers announce their spring opening of new styles in spring garments and invite the early inspection of their friends in Newton. The fine weather of the past few weeks is a hint that spring will soon be here, and now is the time to prepare for it.

Plants For Sale!
A large collection of Palms, Ferns, Chrysanthemums, Etc.
DOYLE'S CONSERVATORIES.
Formerly Hovey's, Cambridge Street, Cambridge
WM. E. DOYLE, 43 Tremont St., Boston.

WALTER C. BROOKS & CO.

Importing Tailors

15 Milk Street - Boston

(Birthplace of Franklin

Opposite Old South Church)

W. C. BROOKS, Residence, NEWTON CENTRE.

We most respectfully announce the arrival of our Spring Importations

FINE WOOLENS

Moderate Prices.

C. B. SOMERS, TAILOR,

149 A Tremont St., Boston.

Residence, Lowell St., Newtonville.

A Novel Entertainment.

One of the most popular and successful entertainments of the season has been the Mock Court Trial, given under the direction of an expert, Capt. A. V. Newton of Worcester, Mass.

Lynn became greatly excited over it as attested by a five column report in its leading daily paper, and best of all by the great audience of leading society people that packed the theatre to the doors.

The success of Lynn was repeated at Lawrence, Salem, Lowell, Brockton, Fall River, Somerville, Worcester, New Bedford and many other cities.

At New Bedford every seat was sold in advance, all the standing room was taken and hundreds were turned away unable to obtain admission.

The leading Boston papers have given this entertainment more frequent, extended and favorable notice than any now before the public. It is a pleasure to announce that the Mock Court Trial will be given in Association Hall on Wednesday evening, March 15, under the auspices of and for the benefit of Newton Centre Improvement Association. All the rules of a regular court of justice will be observed, while there will be fun enough to keep everybody good natured for a year.

The Waban Nurseries.

Wm. C. Strong & Co. have issued their annual catalogue of choice novelties and also the standard kinds of hardy shrubs and trees, and also a supplementary list of plants of special interest. These two pamphlets are of great interest to amateur gardeners, as they contain descriptions of the new varieties that have been described in Garden and Forest, and most amateurs have an ambition to secure at least one or two new varieties every year, and see what they can do with them.

Almost every one in Newton has land enough to do something in the way of cultivating choice plants and shrubs, and they derive a great amount of pleasure and instruction from it. It is not necessary to begin on a large scale, two or three plants will do, if one has little time, and Mr. Strong is a very wise adviser on what varieties are best adapted to Newton. His nurseries are here, so that his plants are acclimated, and the beginner will have everything in his favor.

The Dawson Rose is a new hybrid from the Japanese Multiflora and the General Jacquemont, which Mr. Strong highly recommends as a hardy climber, and a profuse bloomer, which ought to be very popular, and the price of plants is very reasonable. The General Catalogue will be sent to any address for 4 cents, and the Boston salesroom is at the Horticultural building, 57 Bromfield street. Mr. Strong's nurseries are at Waban, and can be readily reached by train from any part of Newton, or orders can be sent by telephone, his number being West Newton, 56.

Cleveland's is the Baking Powder used in the U. S. Army.

PARLOR, HALL, DINING ROOM, AND BED ROOM
FURNITURE
LOWEST PRICES.
F. L. GRAVES,
FURNITURE EMPORIUM,
224 Moody St., Waltham.

Pearmain AND Brooks,
Bankers and Brokers.
(Members Boston Stock Exchange.)
Have Removed to New Stock Exchange Building,
No. 53 State St., Room 218.
SUMNER B. PEARMAIN, L. LORING BROOKS.

WALTER H. THORPE,
Counsellor at Law,
28 State Street, Room 55,
BOSTON, MASS.
Residence, Pelham St., Newton Centre

A. H. ROFFE,
HAY and GRAIN,
LIME, CEMENT and DRAIN PIPE,
Cypress, near Centre Street, Newton Centre.
TELEPHONE CONNECTION.

J. FRANK MAKEE,
Hack, Livery & Boarding STABLE.

Good carriages and careful drivers furnished for Weddings, Funerals and Parties, at short notice.
Carriage at depot from 7.45 a. m. to 7.45 p. m.
All orders attended to day or night.

FURNISHING UNDERTAKER
All funeral requisites furnished.

Pelham and Pleasant Streets Entrance, NEWTON CENTRE.
Telephone connection. 451 C

Choicest Articles in the Grocery Line.

Fresh Print Butter received 4 times a week. Newton Eggs. Flour at Cobbs Prices, including Bristle Y's. Cereal Food, in variety. Canned Goods at 30% off. Salt Pork and Potatoes. All Kinds of Spices, Nuts, Raisins, Dates, Figs, Citrus, Juices and Spices, the purest imported. Also 2 cases of the famous Crosse & Blackwell Manufacture.

W. O. KNAPP & CO.'S,
Stanton Street,
NEWTON CENTRE. 61

Dr. Elbridge C. Leach, DENTIST.
429 COLUMBIA AVE., BOSTON.
The correcting of irregular teeth in children a specialty.
Residence, Crystal St., Newton Centre.
Will make appointments at residence after 6 p. m.

THOMAS W. DIKE, M. D.
Centre Street, Newton Centre.

OFFICE HOURS: Until 9 A. M., 1 to 3 P. M.
Generally at Home Evenings 47-6m

SIDNEY P. CLARK,
REAL ESTATE & INSURANCE.
Houses for Sale and to Rent in all parts of Newton and other Suburbs of Boston. A large number of Choice Building Lots for Sale.

Furnished Houses a Specialty.
178 Washington Street.
AND Cousens' Block, Newton Centre

TEMPERLEY & HURLEY,
HOUSE, SIGN and DECORATIVE PAINTERS.
Paper Hanging, Whiting, Tinting and Whitewashing.

Whiting and Tinting a Specialty.
SHOP:
Newton Highlands.
P. O. BOX 238. 29

S. L. PRATT,
FUNERAL and FURNISHING UNDERTAKER
Newton Centre, Mass.

First-class Appointments and Competent Assistants. To accommodate the people of Upper Falls and vicinity orders may be left at the office of Fanning Printing Co., which will immediately be forwarded to my place.
Also shall continue in the Hack, Livery and Boarding Stable. Business at my old stand, corner of Beacon and Station Streets. 31

W. B. MONROE.
DEALER IN
Provisions, Vegetables, Fruit, Butter and Canned Goods.
All kinds of Fish, Lobsters and Oysters in their Season.

Will call with Market Wagon wherever desired, in Newton Centre, Newton Highlands and surrounding, and will carry the first quality of goods.
No rent to pay and prices consequently very low.

P. O. Box 131, Newton Center.
GEORGE H. LOOMER,
Successor to Armstrong Bros.

Between New Room and J. J. Nobles store is offering a fine line of BOOTS, SHOES, SLIPPERS and RUBBERS, at low prices.

NEWTON CENTRE

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

VOL. XX.—NO. 24.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, MARCH 18, 1892.

TERMS—$2.00 PER YEAR.

We wish to call your attention to the fact that we are the headquarters for Silver, Brass, and Iron Bedsteads of every description. It is now conceded by the majority of people that bedsteads of metal are preferable to those made of wood. Some of the advantages the metallic stands have over those of wood are: durability, cleanliness, healthfulness, they occupy less space, contain no wood to warp, and add much to the furnishings of a room. The brass used in the construction of all our bedsteads is selected stock, carefully polished, and then lacquered with the finest English lacquer, a guarantee against tarnish. We warrant every bedstead we sell to be just as represented, and make a specialty of finishing Iron Bedsteads (with brass trimmings), in any color desired, matching the most delicate tints and shades.

We also wish to call your attention to our Bedding Department. We make to order, luxurious upholstered springs, pure South American horse hair mattresses, choice live geese down and feather pillows and bolsters; and also carry in stock the standard spring beds, California blankets, and in fact almost everything that will have a tendency to make your sleeping hours most comfortable and enjoyable. Estimates given for furnishing private residences and institutions.

You are personally invited to inspect our stock, which consists of the most desirable goods from English and American manufacturers.

PUTNAM & SPOONER,

546 WASHINGTON STREET.

Opposite Adams House, BOSTON.

THE LATEST GENT'S CALF BLUCHER.

$3. $5.

$4. $6.

EVERY PAIR WARRANTED.

STACY, ADAMS & CO.

669 Washington Street, 33 Green Street, BOSTON,
and 440 Harvard St., CAMBRIDGE.

MacDONALD BROS.

MANUFACTURERS OF

AWNINGS.

Canopies for Weddings, Receptions,

ETC., TO LET

And Put Up at Short Notice.

166 and 168 Lincoln Street, BOSTON.

THOS. O'CALLAGHAN & CO.

CARPETS

Those who would wish to furnish their houses at a discount from the regular prices of goods, would do well to purchase at the present time, while we are showing full lines of the standard makes below mentioned, at remarkably low prices. We do not advertise that these will be our prices during the entire Spring, but simply till further notice.

Lowell Brussels, 500 Daghestan Rugs, (Full Five Frame.) (Just Imported.)

97c. Per Yard.

$5.98 Each.

Smith's Best Moquettes, All-Wool Art Squares, (In Large Variety.) (Extra Heavy.)

95c Per Yard.

75c. Per Sq. Yard.

Roxbury Tapestries, Good Weight Art Squares (Acknowledged the Best.)

65c. Per Yard.

50c. Per Sq. Yard.

LOWELL INGRAIN, SHEET LINOLEUMS, (Heaviest All Wool.)

55c. Per Yard.

90c.

Jointless Mattings, LINOLEUMS, 25c. (2 yards wide.) From

50c. Per Square Yard.

Heavy Straw Matting, OIL CLOTHS, From (Good Quality.)

12c. Per Yard.

25c. Per Yard.

THOS. O'CALLAGHAN & CO. THOS. O'CALLAGHAN & CO.

597, 599 and 601
WASHINGTON ST., BOSTON,
OPP. GLOBE THEATRE.

597, 599 and 601
WASHINGTON ST., BOSTON,
OPP. GLOBE THEATRE.

Dr. F. L. McIntosh,
Corner of Washington and Jevett St.

(Office of the late Dr. Keith.)
Office Hours: 4 to 7 P. M. Usually at home
until 9 A. M.
Refers to Dr. W. Wesselhoft, and Dr.
James B. Bell.
Telephone, Newtonville, 46-2.

C. S. DECKER,
Custom Tailor

326 Centre Street,
NEWTON, - MASS.

To the Ladies.

CARD.

SPRINGER BROTHERS

announce the opening of their new styles of Spring and Summer Garments, to which they respectfully invite your early attention.

500 Washington St., Cor. Bedford St.,
BOSTON.

HARRY BROOKS DAY,

TEACHER OF

PIANO-FORTE

Organ, Harmony,
COUNTERPOINT and COMPOSITION

Ellet Block, or Hotel Hunnewell,
NEWTON.

Clara D. Whitman-Reed, M. D.
RESIDENCE AND OFFICE,
437 Centre St., opposite Vernon, Newton
Hours—1 to 3 and 7 to 9 P. M.

CAKE.

Your attention is called to the quality of our Cakes, they are equal to any made.
Try them.

Also

OYSTERS AND SALADS.

CROQUETTES AND PEAS.

ICES AND CREAMS.

JAMES PAXTON,

Caterer and Confectioner,
ELIOT BLOCK, opp. Depot, NEWTON.

Shirts Made to Order!

By E. B. BLACKWELL,
43 THORNTON STREET, - NEWTON.
A Perfect Fit Guaranteed.

Best Material. First-Class Work.
Superior Shirts, $1.50. Best Dress Shirts, $2 each.
Will call on customers at such time and place
as will suit their convenience.

Repairing is Done Neatly and Promptly.
New Rooms, 50c.; Neckbands, 15c.; Wristbands,
15c.; Cuffs, 30c.; Collars 25c.; Centre
Plaids 25c.
Readily fitting shirts made to fit well.

CREAM.

THE FAMOUS

Turner Centre Cream,

FOR SALE BY

C. P. ATKINS

Ten Cents for One-Half Pint.

HOWARD B. COFFIN

DEALER IN

FINE TEAS and BEST COFFEES

AND NEWTON AGENT FOR

DEERFOOT - FARM - PRODUCTS.
363, 361 Centre and 4, 6 Hall Sts.

COLE'S BLOCK, NEWTON.

DO YOU WANT

To learn Watchmaking?

If so, attend the American-Waltham Watchmakers School, where any and all parts of the trade are taught in the most thorough manner.

For further information address or apply to

SAUL BROTHERS,

135 Moody St., Waltham.

S. F. CATE,

FURNISHING UNDERTAKER,

WASHINGTON STREET,
WEST NEWTON, MASS. Telephone 8119.

NEWTON.

C. Farley, Tuner, 433 Washington Street.
—Buy a house lot of Aban, Trowbridge & Co.

—The late Mrs. Seth Adams left $5,000 to the Pomroy Home.

—Miss Edith Hall of this city is visiting Miss Dwight of Springfield.

—The Elliot choir will have a social at the church, tomorrow evening.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Snyder are receiving congratulations. It is a son.

—Mr. H. W. Wellington and family are at Augusta, Ga., for a few weeks.

—Mrs. Williams of Auburn, Me., has been visiting Miss Cleveland at this week.

—The Misses Spear are making extensive improvements to their house on Walnut Park.

—Mr. Chas. E. Billings's three new houses off Church street will be completed during the spring.

—Mr. B. F. Doherty has resigned his position as assistant organist at the Church of Our Lady.

—City Treasurer Kenrick is improving slowly, but is still very weak, although he is now considered out of danger.

—The first snow drops of the season are reported from the garden of the Jackson homestead on Washington street.

—Mr. A. F. Ireland's new house will be a handsome addition to Newtonville avenue, and it commands a magnificent view.

—The Social Science Club will meet at Mrs. Emerson's, Billings Terrace, Wednesday, March 23, at 10 a. m., subject, "Single Tax."

—The Rev. Dr. Wm. R. Lawrence, Dean of the Episcopal Theological school, Cambridge, is expected to preach in Grace church on Sunday night.

—A progressive euchre party was given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Priest of Vernon street, for their guest, Miss Darling. About twenty were present.

—Chapman & Fraser, architects, have completed plans for a gambrel roof, old colonial style residence for Geo. D. Burrage, off Norfolk road, near Chestnut Hill station.

—The Loyal Temperance League, which numbers about fifty children, is arranging to attend the meeting of the W. C. T. U. in the Unitarian church, West Newton, next Tuesday.

—Rev. Mr. Buckingham sent home this week a large box of orange blossoms, which kept perfectly during the transit, and so many orange flowers together were a rare sight for northern people.

—The Lenten services in Grace church are better attended this year than ever before. They are held at 4.30 p. m., Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, also on Wednesday and Friday nights.

—Mr. Wm. C. Bates stepped upon an insecure trap door in his stable yesterday morning, and fell part way through, striking on his side and fracturing two ribs.
Dr. Stone reduced the fracture and says that Mr. Bates will be laid up for ten days at least.

—Sunday evening next, March 20, at 7.30
p. m., Rev. Mr. Calkins' eighth lecture on the Reformation, Thomas Crammer, the Reformer of the Church of England, His services in the reign of Edward VI, and his tragic death under the persecutions of Mary. All are invited.

—The funeral of Miss Mary Davis was held Monday morning at the residence of her brother, Centre street, Rev. Dr. Calkins officiating. A quiet service consisting of Mrs. Goodrich, Mrs. Hibbard and the Messrs. Bacon furnished music. The interment was in the Newton cemetery.

—Mrs. Mary A. Livermore will speak before the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Newton in the Unitarian church,
West Newton, on March 22, at 7.30 p. m.
Mrs. Alice J. Harris will sing. There will also be a session at 2 p. m. at which short addresses will be made. The public is invited.

—Mrs. L. J. Vail of Newtonville avenue died very suddenly Sunday morning from a severe attack of pneumonia. The funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Dr. McKee officiating, and a quartet from the Methodist church furnishing music. The funeral tributes were numerous and beautiful.

—Mrs. Annie F. wife of Mr. George D. Colburn, died at the Hotel Tudor in Boston, last Saturday. She was very well known in Newton, the family having lived for twenty years on Park street, and her death brought sorrow to many friends.
She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Chas. Cobb and Mrs. W. H. Holman. The funeral services were held Tuesday, at her late residence in Boston, and the interment was in the Newton cemetery.

—Louis Ross, son of Mr. H. F. Ross of Newtonville, was severely injured Tuesday evening at Washington street, when he near the intersection of Hovey street he met an electric car and the horse, turning suddenly to avoid the car, slipped upon some ice and fell. The animal was going very fast and Ross was unable to get his leg out of the stirrup before he was pinned to the ground and the leg badly injured. He was taken home in a carriage and physicians summoned.

—The officers of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Newton were elected at a special business meeting, March 14, as follows: Mrs. L. Stevenson, president; Mrs.
W. H. Partridge, treasurer; Mrs. H. H.
Bartlett, secretary; vice-presidents, Mrs.
N. P. Cutler, Eliot church; Mrs. M. Mc-
Claren, Baptist church; Mrs. E. C. Parks, Baptist church; Mrs. G. W. Shinn, Episcopal church; Mrs. F. B. Hornbrook, Episcopal church; superintendents of departments, Loyal Legion, Mrs. E. N. Soule;
assistant, Mrs. M. McClaren; literature, Mrs.
G. H. Dupee; Sunday school work, Mrs. Lum-miss; Union Signal our Message, Mrs. N.
Hadow; press work, Mrs. J. Sondericker; narcotics, Mrs. M. McClaren; evangelistic, Mrs. T. M. Heillon.

Lasell Notes.

The Lasell Missionary Society held its usual monthly meeting Sunday, March 13.
The objects to which this society contributes are the Caroline Lasell Scholarship at Bareilly, India; the Lasell Mission school at Moradabad, India; the Aroosha Nahagian Scholarship at Harpoot, Turkey; also a scholarship for a Japanese student at Tokio, Japan, and a furnished room in Miss Clara Cushman's school in Peking, China.

There are quite a large number of pupils in swimming.

The cooking demonstration of Monday,
March 14, was chicken curry with rice border, apple sauce, floating island.

A small party attended by invitation the opening of the new Homeopathic Hospital on East Concord street, Boston, Wednesday afternoon, March 16.

Vesper services will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church at Abundant next Sunday evening, March 20, at 7.30.
Musical selections will be rendered by the Amphion Male Quartet and the chorus choir, assisted by the Orphean Club of thirty-five voices from Lasell Seminary.

Farewell Reception.

The comrades of Charles Ward Post 62,
G. A. R., wishing to show their appreciation of their worthy chaplain, who has served them for the past seventeen years, and who is soon to leave Newton for Virginia, arranged to give him a farewell reception on Monday evening at the Post hall in Newtonville. Chaplain Morse has purchased a large farm about twenty miles from Petersburg, Va. An informal reception was held until 8 o'clock, when an adjournment was made to the banquet hall. The tables being lighted, Comrade
W. T. Shepherd, chairman of the committee on reception, introduced Comrade Whitney as toastmaster, who introduced the exercises with a few appropriate remarks.

Chaplain Morse had been called out of the room, and now entered, escorted by Comrade Sylvester, and Commander Sweetland, in behalf of the Post, presented the Chaplain with an elegant easy chair, in well chosen words of regret and good wishes.

The chaplain was taken wholly by surprise and wonder that his going away should cause so much regret, and very feelingly responded.

He had no sooner taken his seat than Comrade Fiske was called to address him, and presented a beautifully engrossed testimonial and expression of appreciation of his services elegantly framed and signed by every member of the Post. Remarks were also made by Comrades Wetherbee, Downs, H. Hyde, Lucas, Sylvester, Montgomery, Shepherd, Keyes, Drury, Flood, and others. The gathering broke up by the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

The Gypsy Moth.

The State Board of Agriculture have issued their report of the work done in 1891, which makes an interesting pamphlet of some 26 pages, giving a description of the Gypsy Moth in several stages of its growth, and also scenes of its ravages reproduced from photographs.
Copies will be mailed free to anyone sending his address to Gypsy Moth Department, Malden, Mass., and citizens of Newton are asked to assist the board in making careful observations to see if the pest has come to this vicinity.

So far no cases have been reported in Newton, although some have been found in Waltham and Watertown and it would be strange if Newton had escaped.

The Gypsy Moth Caterpillars are one of the most destructive pests known, they eat the leaves of both evergreen and deciduous trees and even twigs, and leave the branches as bare as if a fire had passed over them. They even devour the grass in the fields, and like the army worm destroy all vegetation. They increase enormously and feed on every plant, and they feed from May to the last of August, and wander from place to place, so that the pest becomes widely scattered. So far, they seem most abundant in the center of population. It is very important that isolated colonies should be promptly reported, as then there is hope of preventing any general spread of the moth, and the commissioners hope from their experience thus far to so reduce the numbers that extermination may eventually be accomplished.

Good Lectures.

The Massachusetts society for promoting good citizenship does not weary in well doing, and its lectures in the Old South meeting house in Boston are of a high order. A new course began Tuesday evening, when Edwin D. Mead treated "Representative government." Herbert Welsh talks about the Indian question on the 28th, April 11 Rev. John Chadwick of Brooklyn discusses "Education as related to citizenship." April 18 Theodore Roosevelt presents his views on "Qualifications for office." Henry Cabot Lodge follows April 25 on "The problem of immigration," and May 2 George W.
Cable considers "The problem of negro suffrage." Tickets for the course will be given to any one interested who is at pains to write to C. F. O'Leary, box 1222, Boston. These are good names and live subjects.

An Old Time Sermon.

Mr. Charles G. Chase, a well known merchant of Boston has recently published in an elegant and attractive form a sermon entitled "That Better World" delivered several years since by Rev. Geo.
W. Field, D. D. then pastor of Salem St.
church, Boston, and of which church
Mr. Chase was at the time a leading and active member.

Salem street church has had several distinguished pastors such as Dr. Blagden, Dr. Edward Beecher and Rev. Mr.
Towne, before Dr. Field was called to superintend the pulpit permanently.

These were very able, very learned and very eloquent preachers but in all that pertained to the living Christian pastor he excelled them all. He was able, learned and eloquent. But more than this he shone forth supremely in those Christian graces which endears the pastor to his flock in a way the mere preacher cannot. This sermon is an exemplification of the fact. It is one of those tender outpourings of love which go direct to the heart. There are many living who will remember the sermon when it was delivered, and those who know Dr. Field will be pleased to see it in print again, and thank Mr. Chase for his labor of love in reproducing it in its present attractive state. Mr. Chase says
"This sermon is printed by a friend of the author, with the hope that it may carry comfort to the want of many believed and sorrowing ones."

F. H. F. West Newton.

Ladies Tailoring Parlors

have been opened at West Newton by Felix Arsenault, in Nickerson's block, where all kinds of ladies' coats, dresses
etc. will be made. See adv.

Newton Memorial Hall Association.

The incorporators of the above association are as follows: J. R. Leeson, A. C. Walworth, W. J. Follett, W. S. Slocum, Henry E. Cobb, Isaac F. Kingsbury, George W.
Morse, W. T. Shepherd, E. Moulton, H. D.
Degen, W. W. Montgomery, J. B. Fuller,
R. F. Luke, Fred'k Johnson, Edward B.
Wilson, N. H. Chadwick, Chas. W. Sweetland, Hosea Hyde, A. T. Sylvester, E. E.
Stiles, H. W. Downs, M. G. Crane, Eben
Thompson, E. Gott, S. E. Howard, Geo. M.
Fiske.

The first meeting for election of officers, adoption of by-laws, etc., has been called to meet at the United States Hotel, Boston, next Tuesday at 3 o'clock, P. M.

THIRD ANNUAL MEET.

FINE ATHLETIC EXHIBITION BY THE N. H.
S. A. A.—LORD '92 WINS SMITH CUP.

The popular new drill hall of the N.
H. S. at Newtonville was again the scene of an enthusiastic gathering of well-known ladies and gentlemen, Tuesday evening, who came to enjoy the third annual meet of the N. H. S. Athletic Association.

There were about five hundred present comprising parents, friends and classmates of the contestants.

The several classes occupied front seats in different portions of the hall, the class colors being tastefully displayed, and during the meet the hall rung with class cheers and strange exclamations brought out in stentorian tones by the many voices. It was an evening of rare enjoyment and pleasure to the audience and the exhibition itself was undoubtedly the most creditable that has been given by the association.

The association officers for '92 were J.
A. Lord, president; H. F. Page, vice-president; H. A. Stone, secretary; executive committee, H. H. Blake, '92, Stewart Bosson, '93, H. F. Craits, '92, James Jordan, '93, Frank Booth, '94, Clifford Kimball, '94, Alfred Page, '95, Lincoln
Barker, '95.

The games officials for the meet consisted of the following: Referee and Umpire, Mr. F. A. Peters, B. A. A.;
'92, Thomas, '92 and Kimball, '94, comprising the entries. The first prize was won by Thomas, '92, distance, 29 ft. 8 in.; second, Kimball, distance, 28 ft. 4 in.

The 30 yard dash consisted of five heats with five men in each. In the first heat Gulick, '95, won first, Knox, '94, second place; second heat, Lord, '92, first,
Blanchard, '94, second; third heat, Jordan,
'93, first, Barnum, '94, second;
fourth heat, Redpath, '94, first, Cobb,
'93, second; fifth heat, Thomas, '92, first,
Redpath, '93, second.

The first in the finals was won by Redpath, time, 4 seconds; second Thomas.

The tug of war was '92's from the start. The team of '92 consisted of Holmes, Estes, Stone and Blake; team of
'94, Cody, Waters, Benedict and Brown, Blake and Brown acting as anchors. At the end of the first minute '92 had 2-1-2
in. advantage; 2d min., 2 in.; 2-1-4 min., 4 in.; 2-3-4 min., 5 in.; 3 min., 4 in.,
by which '92 won the tug of war.

The standing high jump was entered by Gulick, '93 and Redpath, '94. The start was at 3 ft. 8-1-2 in. Redpath won first by 4 ft. 3 in.; Gulick second, by 4 ft.
1 in.

The fencing match between Lorinz,
'93 and Leonard, '93 was rather one sided, the superior work of Loring being manifest from the first, the latter winning by 26 points against Leonard's 8 points.

Swain had won a bye and the finals lay between Loring and Swain.

This contest was of intense interest the contestants being finely matched. Loring was plucky and forced his opponent who stood more on the defensive. During the entire bout the audience were held almost spellbound by the splendid work of the boys.

The first bout ended in a draw, each scoring 8 points and another round of one minute was contested, Swain winning the match by 10 points against Loring's
3 points.

The sparring match in the 135-pound class between Lord '92 and Bradley '93, attracted universal attention, and the enthusiasm of the different classes over their favorites found vent in hearty cheers. In the first round honors were very evenly divided, but in the second Bradley made some telling points. The third was a warm round, Lord winning the contest, though some thought Bradley would take the cup.

The standing broad jump was participated in by Estes, '92, Stone, '92, Waite,
'93, Cobb, '93, Gulick, '95 and Redpath, '94. Waite winning first by 3 ft. 1-1-2 in.; Redpath second by 3 ft.
7-1-2 in. and Estes, third, by 3 ft. 6-1-2 in.

In the rope climbing, a new feature,
Waite, '93, Barker, '95, Barnum, '94 and Gulick, '95 were entered, the first prize being awarded to Waite, time, 8-1-2 seconds, second by Barnum, time 8-5 seconds.

The running broad jump was awarded to Estes, '92 first prize, distance, 13 ft.
2 in.; Stone, '92, second, distance, 10 ft.
7 in., these being the only entries.

The sparring in the 125 lb. class between Lord, '92 and Coxeter, '95, was a good exhibition, Coxeter showing up pluckily but with less science and skill than his opponent, who won the bout.

The finals in the 30 yard dash were participated in by the first winners in the original match, Redpath winning first prize in four seconds, the second going to Thomas and the third to Lord.

CITY GOVERNMENT.

BOTH BRANCHES MET AND SOME VERY PLAIN TALKING DONE.

Both branches of the city council were in session, Monday night, and in the common council there were some very interesting discussions.

In the board of aldermen all the members were present and Mayor Hibbard presided. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Alderman Harbach presented the protest of O. S. Stearns and some 75 others against giving the Newton & Boston Street railway the right to have its terminals at the junction of Cypress and Centre streets, which would prove a source of annoyance to the two churches in that vicinity and disturb their services. Referred.

Alderman Wilson reported from the finance committee in favor of paying the bill of Attorney Blaney against former selectmen of Newton for services in the case of Lemon vs. Newton.

Geo. Beck applied for license for stable on Jackson street, 20x30 feet, with stalls for horse and cow.

Alderman Wilson presented the remonstrance of H. B. Day and other property owners on Berkeley street, against allowing any electric light or telephone poles to be erected on that street.

Alderman Harbach presented the claim of Michael Fox for injuries received in a sewer trench on Newtonville avenue on the 4th of March by the dropping of a bucket, through carelessness, as he alleged. Referred to claims committee.

The claim of Patrick Noonan, for injuries received in the same manner, Feb. 9th, on Clinton or Middle street was also referred.

Alderman Harbach presented a resolution requesting the committee on legislation to oppose the passage of a law for the printing of the assessors' valuations of real estate, saying that the block system now in force in Newton gives all the information needed now, and any one can secure this information by a visit to City Hall.

Alderman Hyde said that no doubt this publication would be of great value to real estate agents, it would be to his firm, but it would cost the city at least $2,000 and was not needed.

Alderman Hyde said that he had a record made up at City Hall for their own use, at considerable expense. He did not see any public need of such publication.

Residents of Clinton place, Ward 6, petitioned for a sewer in said street.

The telephone committee presented its petition for poles on Berkeley street to that part of said street between Chestnut and Exeter streets.

A. F. Perry and others on Mt. Vernon street petitioned for a plank sidewalk.

On motion of Alderman Wilson an order appropriating $255 for the payment of Chas. H. Sprague, Robinson and Blaney, for services rendered in the Lemon case was passed.

On motion of Alderman Sprague $625 was appropriated to be expended by the fire committee, in erecting five fire alarm signal boxes; one at junction of Gardner, Pearl and Walnut streets; one at corner of Grove Hill and Prospect avenues; one at corner of Woodward and Chestnut streets; one at corner of Centre and Walnut street, and one at corner of Beacon and Station streets.

Mrs. Katherine Keefe gave notice of intention to build a house 30x40 on Auburndale avenue, between Robinson and Blaney.

After a short recess the Telephone Company withdrew their application for poles on Prince street, having been given the right to run poles on private property.

HEARING ON POLES.

The continued hearing on poles on Temple, Winthrop and Putnam streets was then opened.

Mr. C. A. Wyman said all the owners of property had signed the protest against poles on those streets, and they did not want any license granted. Mr. Bullard was the only one in favor, and he favored it because he wanted a telephone.

But the company could run new wires the same as they ran the old ones. He was perfectly satisfied with his telephone service.

Mr. W. E. Elder said he was opposed to any poles on Winthrop street, and the residents had rather have their telephone poles taken out than to have poles put up.

Mr. N. C. Pike was also strongly opposed to any poles on the street.

Rev. H. J. Patrick said he was not a property owner but he lived on the street and he was strongly opposed to any poles being erected. He thought City Hall people who had to go between City Hall and the railroad station might have some idea of what a nuisance telephone poles were on the sidewalk.

They were in the way and blocked up the walk, which was designed for foot passengers and not for poles, and numerous accidents had been caused by them. The wires ought to be placed underground out of the way, and he hoped the time would soon come when they would be.

Mr. Geo. P. Whitmore also protested against any poles on the street, said they could be placed on the back of the lots and people would not object.

Mr. Wyman said one of the objectors had caused to protest as a member of his family had been killed by one of these telephone poles.

Mr. Stephen Thacher said he also protested against poles, as they were a blemish to the street and were not needed.

Mayor Hibbard said the Winthrop street residents seemed to be a regular happy family.

not be put underground through these streets.

Mr. Fiske said it would cost too much. After questions from Aldermen Sheppard and Harbach about other possible routes, which Mr. Fiske said would not do, Mr. Wyman asked if the company could not give the one or two wanted telephones as good service as it gave the present ones.

Mr. Fiske said no more telephones would be put in to run on trees, as the service was not satisfactory.

Mr. Wyman said this answer means that the company could put in more telephones, and give good service by the present arrangement, but it won't.

Mr. Fiske said if the board of aldermen refused the license for poles, the company would say it could put in no more telephones.

The hearing was then closed and after another recess, the plumbing ordinance was passed to be ordained.

Business from the common council was disposed of in concurrence.

Then the order appropriating $12,500 for a house and police station at Nonantum came up, Alderman Sheppard moved that the sum be made $10,700, a reduction of $1,800. One of the bids was $9,800 by some modifications of the plans, and the heating would cost $388, and the architect's fees, $500, which would amount to $10,704.

Alderman Hyde objected to having no margin. In all building a margin was necessary, for unforeseen extras, and he moved that the amount be $11,500. Alderman Hyde said the architect had figured to see what could be omitted, and by making the second story of wood instead of brick, and other cut downs the cost had been reduced.

Alderman Harbach said he thought the changes made were a good thing. There was no need of copper gutters when wooden ones would last 25 years.

Alderman Hyde said his experience with the two or three years on the public property committee had convinced him that wooden gutters were a very costly investment.

Alderman Sheppard said he was willing to make the sum $10,800.

Alderman Hyde thought a margin of $90 on a $10,000 building was a very narrow one.

Alderman Hyde's amendment was defeated.

Alderman Sheppard said he wished to call attention to the fact that if the house had been built on the Wellington lot it would have only cost the city $7,500 a difference of $4,000, just to suit the wishes of a few of the Nonantum people.

Alderman Hyde objected to such a statement going out, we are to have now a new police station, which was a necessity, as the old one was all out of repair and would have had to be built even if the house had not been built.

Alderman Sheppard's amendment of $10,800 was then passed and the order adopted.

Alderman Churchill presented a communication from Henry R. Turner, stating that the land he purchased by tax title, belonging to Almira Thacher, on Broomfield street, in 1888, had a defective title on account of the tax sale being defective, and he was willing to assign his right and interest to the city provided the city refunded what he had paid upon it. Referred to the claims committee.

Edward Sands was appointed auctioneer.

On motion of Alderman Sheppard the N. E. Telephone Co. was granted license to run two wires across Chestnut street at the post office at Upper Falls; granted leave to withdraw on petition for two wires across Temple street; granted license to run one wire across Temple street to Mr. Dwyer's residence; granted leave to withdraw on petitions to run two wires across Griffin avenue and two wires across Church street near Maple avenue. The board then adjourned.

Common Council.

President Roffe presided and all the members of the lower branch were present with the exception of Councilman Lunt.

The correctness of the records were questioned by Councilman Weed of Ward 7, who moved to strike out the words, "in non-concurrence sent up," relative to the appropriation of $255 for sanitary annex to the High school. Some discussion ensued; Councilman Weed's motion was lost and the records approved as first read.

Papers from the board of aldermen were received.

The order appropriating $2650 for a sanitary annex, etc., at the High school, called out a motion from Councilman Weed that it be referred back to the members of the public property committee for a more comprehensive report.

Mr. Forknall thought such a motion could not be considered. It could only be referred by this body to a special committee.

Mr. Weed then substituted for his first motion that the members of the joint standing committee of this body, be a special committee to report to the Common Council.

Mr. Forknall hoped such a motion would not prevail. He said the gentleman who offered the original order understood the whole matter, and if any member of the committee has desired further information, why did they not ask him for such information. The work has been completed and the bills have been paid. Why should the matter go before this special committee who have no power in the matter. They could do nothing if it was referred to them.

Mr. Bothfield said as a member of the committee mentioned from this board, he did not consider it his duty to go outside for information which members of the committee give. The committee as a whole should have the right to make it their business to reach the proper parties and secure all needful information. As custodians of the city money it is our business to know how and why and by whom that money is expended.

Mr. Forknall said he was not a member of the public property committee of last year, but all the members of the committee who were re-appointed this year approved the order and he voted favorably, considering their action as a guarantee that the order was all right.

Mr. Kupp wanted to hear from the other members.

Mr. Bothfield said no one had a right to contract bills against the city unless they are authorized to do so. The school committee and board of health are not authorities in these matters. He insisted as a member of the board that if the city's money was to be expended for anything only be done under authority from the city government. There has been too much of this method of spending money and then coming and getting the city to pay it. The principle of the matter is not right.

Mr. Jordan said he was on last year's public property committee but knew nothing of this order.

President Roffe as a member of last year's committee corroborated Councilman Jordan's statement that the matter was not brought before the committee of last year. The work was begun and completed last year and he had understood it was by order of the board of health.

Mr. Weed said the object of his motion was to try and secure more detailed information regarding the matter.

Mr. Staples asked if the bills had been approved and President Roffe said he thought they had not.

Mr. McFee wanted to inquire if the sanitary condition of the school house was such that immediate action was imperative.

President Roffe understood that it was.

Mr. Moulton thought the council was on something of a wild goose chase. No one seems to know anything about this matter which makes it very difficult to vote upon, and he thought it a mighty poor state of things when the council could not get full information from a committee.

Mr. Forknall said the chairman of the public property committee was present and he thought he might enlighten the board.

Alderman Hyde said from what he had overheard the council inferred that the matter had come before the public property committee. The matter did come before the committee and this order was approved by them. He stated that he was informed by the then superintendent of schools, Superintendent Jones, that sanitary conditions at the High school were in a very bad state and that the board of health had passed an order to the effect that the matter needed immediate attention. The alderman in company with Alderman Harbach and architects visited the building, and architects were asked to suggest a means of repairing the vaults to improve the condition of things. The subject was considered and started as any matter of repairs enlarging upon itself as the work progressed until the present annex was the final result. The matter had been explained to the public property committee and the board of aldermen and both bodies approved the order, the aldermen passing it twice, and the board thought it a bad policy to state that it had not been before the committee when the contrary was true. He further stated that he had been given to understand by the superintendent that the school board had taken definite action upon the same matter.

Mr. Bothfield wanted to know how much each member of the committee were allowed to spend of the city's money.

Alderman Hyde said he acted for the best interests of the city in a case which was represented to him to require immediate action. It was at a time of the year when the city government was taking its annual vacation and the members of the committee could not readily be called together to consider the matter, therefore he took the responsibility as chairman of that committee.

Mr. Bothfield asked to be allowed to read some letters bearing on the subject under discussion. The first signed by Mrs. Sherwood, secretary of the school board, stated that no action had ever been taken by that body on the matter, the only order passed by them being a provision for new traps to replace the former ones.

The second letter was from Clerk French of the board of health, stating that the place had been investigated by order of the board and in his report to the board, he stated that the sanitary arrangements were insufficient for the school membership.

The letter was afterwards taken up by Councilman Forknall who thought it only fair that other portions of the letter should be known, the letter being as he understood, public property. He began to make abstracts when he was interrupted by Councilman Bothfield, who asked him to read the letter entire.

Some discussion followed when the letter was passed again and Mr. Bothfield who read it in its entirety.

A sharp contest took place between Councilman Bothfield and Alderman Hyde, the former condemning the principle of expending the city money on matters not first authorized by a committee as a whole, and the latter defending his position by the urgency of the case as represented to him by a gentleman whom he supposed to be honest and truthful.

Councilman Weed's motion to refer the matter to a special committee was put and lost. Mr. Forknall moved that the council confer with the aldermen, the order taking passage.

Councilman Forknall offered an order appropriating $12,500 for a house and police station at Nonantum which was passed.

A petition from E. L. McIntosh and others for a catch basin corner of Jewett and Washington streets, was referred.

A petition for repairs to sidewalk near Wm. Jenks, Nevada street, was referred.

The plumbing ordinances were passed to be ordained.

The Nonantum house house appropriation came back from the aldermen reduced from $12,500 to $10,800.

Mr. Forknall moved to non-concur and told the work which the committee had done in making the house as low priced and substantial as possible. The original order provided for a substantial brick structure, but this second order provides for a second story of wood, wooden gutters instead of copper, less and cheaper gutters, brick in the first story and less plumbing.

The order was thoroughly discussed by Councilmen Degen, Forknall, Green, Staples and McFee participating.

The council adhered to their original motion. Adjourned at 9:40.

Cancer Can be Cured, and by Dr. James M. Solomon, Jr. 75 Court St., Boston, Mass.

Boston, Aug. 26, 1890.

Dr. Solomon has cured a cancer on my lip of seventeen years' standing, it was cut out twice, by what they call eminent surgeons, at intervals of six years, after being cut out each time I knew by the feeling it was still there, and it would be now if I had not been so fortunate as to have Dr. Solomon treat it, he did it without any cutting. I would urge those afflicted with cancer not delay, but to go at once and be cured permanently as I have done. My dear Doctor I thank from the bottom of my heart.

JOHN Y. HALLAHAN, 78 Charlestown Street.

A STRONG RESEMBLANCE.
Professor—Your physiology demonstrates to you that "man is fearfully and wonderfully made."
Student (in undertone)—Nothing remarkable in that; so is boarding-house hash.

"March to search" is the old adage, it searches out any weakness of the system, resulting from impure blood. Those who use Ayer's Sarsaparilla find March to be more searching, but this second order provides for a second story of wood, wooden gutters instead of copper, less and cheaper gutters, brick in the first story and less plumbing.

Aristocracy Open to Others.

The following advertisement lately appeared in an English newspaper:

"Directors wanted of good social standing for a new company now in course of formation; qualification will be found for selected applicants, and remuneration will be on a liberal scale."

To this there were 141 replies received: One earl, one viscount, four barons, seven baronets, one knight, thirteen honorables, six members of parliament, four generals, one admiral, nine colonels, three majors, fourteen army captains, three minor naval officers and seventy-three without rank or title. There were some very amusing letters accompanying the applications. The earl said: "I need not point out that, should you entertain my proposal, an important leverage in procuring a good subscription of public capital will be gained by my title, which is an old one, and likely to prove an attraction to investors. I may also state that if appointed I should always make it a point of driving to the general meetings in my brougham and pair, with servants in full livery. This, I have been told by friends sitting on company boards, is a great factor in inspiring shareholders with confidence."

One of the barons wanted to know "if the fees were paid in advance, irrespective of any profits made by the company." One of the members of parliament wrote that he had no doubt that, if he were appointed, it would result in heavy purchases of shares in his constituency, where he was very popular.

"And," he added, "it would be well if the bona fides of your scheme were assured, at any rate, on the surface." The last part of the sentence would seem to rather give the virtuous legislator away, as he evidently did not care whether the scheme was good or not.—Financial World.

A Bed of Natural Coke.

Natural coke is the last addition to the wonders of fuel formation and we may soon expect to hear of natural candle grease. This discovery of natural coke comes from the far off land of the Wallaby cleft Australia—the home of the dingee and the land of the gum tree. This deposit of coke closely resembles, so at least it is reported, the manufactured article, and the discovery has been made at the Bulli Pass mines in New South Wales. The coal measure at this particular point covers an area of 550 acres and is six feet in thickness.

The upper half of the seam, it is interesting to note, differs but little from the ordinary Australian coals, while the lower portion of the measure is natural coke. The junction of the coal and coke is clearly defined and distinctly traceable all through the workings. A peculiarity about this natural coke is that it is slightly heavier than the ordinary manufactured article and contains a greater percentage of fixed carbon, but a much smaller quantity of ash and a lower percentage of sulphur. This natural coke, it is gratifying to learn, burns without smoke and can be mined for much less than the cost of manufactured coke.—Black Diamond.

Speech Restored by Electricity.

The recovery of speech by Mary Hopkins, a mute inmate of the Wayne county almshouse, after being dumb over four years, has been pronounced marvelous, and the cause and cure alike have baffled physicians not acquainted with the case and given rise to many wonderful stories.

Mrs. Hopkins is between forty and fifty years of age, and was sent to the almshouse about six years ago from Rose Valley. About three years later she suddenly lost speech. James W. Robinson, the county physician, decided that the woman was suffering from paralysis of the vocal cords. He consulted Dr. Andrew F. Sheldon, an old army physician and surgeon, and decided to use an electric battery. The current was passed through the back of the neck and month every day. After about one month's electric treatment the muteness was much surprised upon entering the mute's room one morning to be greeted by a loud "Hello" from Mrs. Hopkins.—Cor. Rochester Post Express.

He Might Well Be Placid.

The members of a certain congregation are still laughing over an episode of last Sunday. The young minister's engagement to a certain pretty girl named Grace in the parish had just been announced after a long time, in which every other pretty girl had thought that possibly she stood a chance of being the favored one, for the young divine was, without meaning it, perhaps a bit of a flirt.

He's a little absentminded, too, and when the time came to give out the hymn he announced placidly, "Hymn 69, 'Oh, happy day that fixed my choice!'" A smile dawned on the faces of the young and giddy, which gradually spread until it even reached the deacons, as he read:

Here rest, my oft divided heart,
O happy bond that seals my vows
To grace which merits all my love!

—Boston Gazette.

To Remedy the Smokeless Powder.

An old man Herr Paul Riehm has invented a mist or fog ball with which to envelop your enemy in a deep mist—may, even a thick fog—which shall not be surpassed, claims the inventor, even by a London particular. These fog balls are easily broken spheres containing ammonia and acids which upon escaping create a fog that envelops all around it until blown away by the wind. Battles, though, are not always fought on windless, calm days. But, says the inventor, with this fog around them it will be impossible for the enemy to find the range or to reply to the fire of the attack.—Western News.

After a Remedy That Had Never Failed.

An old man in Williamsport has applied to Deputy Sheriff Joe Milnor at the jail to borrow the rope with which Wade, the murderer, was hanged. He wants to put it around his wife's neck "to cure her of fits." The deputy sheriff says he'll let the old man have it.—Cor. Philadelphia Record.

THE DISTINCT STYLE of the season is a genteel, long-waisted appearance. Short-waisted women can become long-waisted in appearance by wearing only the Royal Worcester.

W.C. Corsets.
Leading Merchants Sell Them.

H. W. D. COMPANY.

A GOOD DRESSMAKER WANTS A GOOD LINING.
The best quality, lowest prices and largest assortment on hand at

The H. W. Downs Company's Exclusive Lining Store
143 TREMONT ST., BOSTON.
One Door South of Temple Pl.

REAL ESTATE.
NEWTON BRANCH.

HENRY W. SAVAGE.

J. W. THRESHIE, Mgr.

BOSTON OFFICE:
37 Court Street.

NEWTON OFFICE:
1261 Washington St.
WEST NEWTON.
Telephone 73-2.

Telephone 2050.

Mortgages, Insurance and all business pertaining to Real Estate in all parts of Newton prompt attention.

Your Business Solicited.

Spring Approaches!

Do you wish to sell your house? Buy another? Perhaps you desire to build? We have houses at all prices and land of every description to offer you in the Newtons.

Call and see us.

Summer Approaches!

Are you looking for a summer resort? We have 300 acres on the North Shore and 300 acres in Martha's Vineyard, for sale in lots to suit. 150 seashore houses for sale or to let for the season. Call and see us.

ALVORD & WARD.
143 Devonshire St., Boston
Columbus St., Newton Highlands, 912

F. G. BARNES & SON.

Real Estate, Mortgage and Insurance Brokers.

AUCTIONEERS FOR REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY.

FOR SALE AND FOR RENT
a large line of desirable property throughout Newton and vicinity.

Offices: No. 27 State Street, Boston, and Brackett's Block, Newton.

BOOM IN HOUSE LOTS.

ABAN, TROWBRIDGE & CO.,
Can show you plans and prices of Splendid Lots in first class location where great improvements are being made and property is steadily advancing. Buy Now and Save Money. Make the Advance Yourself.

ABAN, TROWBRIDGE & CO.,
No. 2 Pemberton Square, Boston.
ELIOT BLOCK, NEWTON.

CHARLES F. ROGERS,
(Successor to Chas. F. Rand.)
Real Estate Agency

For selling and leasing Real Estate and Negotiating Mortgages, Care of Real Estate and Collection of Rents. Auctioneer for sale of Real Estate and Personal Property. A list of desirable estates for sale and lease always to be found at office. Correspondence solicited.

OFFICE, BRACKETT'S NEW BLOCK,
417 CENTRE STREET, NEWTON.
Newton, Nov. Telephone.

WM. B. YOUNG
REAL ESTATE and INSURANCE AGENT.
NEGOTIATOR OF MORTGAGES,
Land furnished and houses built to suit on easy terms.

Office, 25 CONGRESS ST., BOSTON
Residence, Lake Avenue, Newton Centre.

FRANCIS MURDOCK.
INSURANCE AGENT,
Gas Office, Brackett's Block, Newton, Mass.

INSURANCE TO ANY AMOUNT
placed in first-class Stock and Mutual companies Sole Agent for Newton of the Middlesex Mutual of Concord, Mass.

RICHARD ROWE,
Insurance Agency,
No. 2 Mason Building,
WAT STREET, - - BOSTON
P. O. Box 304, Newtonville. 32

LAWYERS.

WILLIAM F. BACON,
Attorney and Counsellor-at-Law
113 Devonshire St., Room 42,
BOSTON.

CHAS. H. SPRAGUE,
Attorney and Counsellor - at - Law
51 SUMMER STREET, Rooms 13 and 14,
Boston Telephone, 1285; Residence Telephone
West Newton 236.
Residence: Auburn Street, Auburndale.

JESSE C. IVY,
COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
113 Devonshire street, Room 42, Boston, Mass
Residence, Newton. 38-1y

GEORGE W. MORSE,
Attorney & Counsellor-at-Law
28 State St., Room 45, Boston.
Residence, Newtonville, Mass.

W. F. & W. S. SLOCUM
Attorney and Counsellor-at-Law
Rooms 9 and 10 Herald Building, 297 Washington Street, Boston.

WILLIAM F. SLOCUM. WINFIELD S. SLOCUM.
Residence, Newtonville.
Winfield S. Slocum, City Solicitor of Newton.

1882 ESTABLISHED 1887

HUBBARD & PROCTER PHARMACISTS,
Successors to

Chas. F. Rogers,
LANCASTER BLOCK,
NEWTON, MASS.

NEWTON TARIFF REFORM CLUB.

The Tariff is a Tax.

Every person interested in the subject of the Tariff, is cordially invited to take part in the discussions carried on in this column. Respectful consideration will be given to inquiries, statements, and communications of every kind, whether coming from Tariff Reformers, Free Traders or High Protectionists. Address Secretary of the Tariff Reform Club, Newton Centre, Mass.

THE FREE WOOL BILL.

CONGRESSMAN STEVENS GIVES THE VIEWS OF THE MANUFACTURERS.

In the National House last Friday Congressman Stevens of this state spoke as follows on the Free Wool Bill:

The bill which has been reported by the committee of ways and means, to make wool free of duty and reduce the duties on woolen goods, will, I believe, benefit alike the manufacturers of woolen goods and the great mass of the American people who consume them. As a manufacturer I am not afraid to seek the relief of the people by reduced duties on my product, and I believe that the majority of American woolen manufacturers who have studied this question most carefully are rapidly coming over to my opinion. For 30 years I have been an advocate of free wool and reduced duties on woolen goods. For many of these years I seemed to stand alone, but the American woolen industry, under the artificial stimulus of high duties, has been erected by legislation of those who have advocated this sort of medicine. If it is prosperous today, it is because of the enterprise of American manufacturers and the skill and intelligence of American workmen, rather than because of the artificial barriers which have been erected by tariff legislation. The trouble with the attempt to protect the woolen manufacturers by enormous prohibitory duties has been the trouble which has been found in attempting to build up every other industry by this artificial method. The demand for high duties upon woolen goods, above those necessary to maintain the American scale of living for American workmen, and the additional cost of capital and plant, led to the demand for similar duties upon the raw material of manufacture and the woolen manufacturer has found his last state worse than his first. What every American manufacturer of woolen goods will gladly welcome, if he consults the interest of his business alone, is freedom to buy his materials where he can find the best, and where he can find them on the most favorable terms. Free raw materials to the manufacturers of woolen goods is but an extension of the boon which has already been granted to the cotton, silk and leather industries. The advantage of free raw materials to the manufacturer does not stop with the amount of the reduction of duty. It frees the manufacturer from trammels in all directions. Customs decisions on rates of duty no longer keep him in suspense for years as to the cost of his materials. Light duties no longer hinder him to select the poorest wool which comes at the lower rates, for the clothing which he makes for the American people, and the high cost of his materials no longer compels him to scan with eagle eye every other item of expense in the cost of production, including the wages of his workmen. To make up for the hundreds of thousands of dollars which he pays into the treasury, better machinery, larger investments, higher wages to American workmen and lower prices and better goods to American consumers, all these benefits are within his grasp with freedom to buy in every market and to make the best use of his own foresight and judgment and the skill of his men. The abolition of the duty on wool does not mean necessarily a smaller demand or lower prices for American wool. It means that both American wool and foreign can be used to the best advantage for the purposes to which each is best adapted and that they meet by exact proportions in all sorts of fabrics. It means that more wool would be used than is used today because foreign wool, less the duty, would take the place of shoddy and other imitations, and more genuine woolen goods would be sold to American buyers. And it may mean in the future perhaps also the opening of new markets to American manufacturers. Reduced taxes and lower prices always mean increased consumption. That has been the experience of Europe and must be more emphatically the experience of America, where the measure of the growing tastes and education of the citizen is the measure of his wants. Our Republican friends have already found that lifting the taxes from coffee and sugar has given more coffee and more sugar to every American consumer. Benefits to American consumers go hand in hand with benefits to American manufacturers. Free wool means one of two things or both of them, lower prices or better goods. The one is the equivalent of the other. The tariff legislation which has compelled the hesitating workers of Europe to debate the quality of their goods in order to get them into this country at the old prices is the opposite of the tariff legislation proposed in the pending bill, and it will have the opposite effects. The American people will have reason to complain, if the pending legislation, if enacted into law, does not bring them lower prices or better goods. The change may not come at once, changes in industrial conditions seldom come with great rapidity, but the change will surely come. The hundred conditions which regulate prices must feel, mingling with the other forces, the force of gravitation of free materials, of stimulated domestic competition and foreign competition within easier reach. Foreign competition I do not fear while American manufacturers maintain their present high standard of intelligence and skill. The proportion of woolen goods imported into this country to the total amount consumed has been small under high duties, I believe it will continue small under low duties and healthier conditions of domestic production. That I no longer stand alone in these opinions, if I have sometimes seemed to in the years gone by, I will demonstrate by reading a few extracts from letters from the most prominent woolen manufacturers in this country. The petition of the wool consumers' association, representing millions of invested capital and the most progressive and thoughtful of American manufacturers has been laid before your body. It needs no comment from me for it speaks for itself the constantly growing opinion of men who understand this subject and speak as manufacturers and not as politicians. Mr. Stevens then read extracts from letters from Robert Bleakie, Jessie Metcalf and Arthur T. Lyman. He then continued: These expressions are typical of the best opinion of American manufacturers. They are not afraid of free wool and reduced duties. On the contrary, they believe that such conditions will be infinitely more beneficial alike to them and to those who buy of them than the conditions which exist today.

Now, for a word upon the details of the pending bill. I stand here an American manufacturer, but charged also with the high commission which was given the majority of the House by the American people in the elections of 1890, by a clear mandate than any they have ever delivered before, to relieve the people of useless tariff taxation. This bill, in my opinion, does just that with the article with which it deals. You cannot strike down every shred of protection for one finished American product, while you leave it on other such products. You cannot strike down every barrier between the wages of Europe and the wages of America so long as every other industry feels the unhealthy stimulus and the feverish fluctuation in prices due to our present tariff system. If the laborer in the woolen mills goes to buy supplies for himself or his family he pays the artificial prices which the high tariff system enables them to charge. Worse than this, he gets even now no such compensating difference in wages as the difference in the prices of certain articles under healthy conditions or competition and the artificial conditions which prevail today. You cannot strike at the wages of the woolen operative by making duties too low while you surround him in every other industry with all the luxuriant morbid growth of an unhealthy system. The schedule of duties proposed by your committee is a thoroughly symmetrical system. Strike at one point and you impair the symmetry of the whole. The duty on yarns has been made less than that on fabrics, the duty on goods with a cotton warp is less than that on goods all wool; the duty on fabrics is less than on made-up articles. We have put the duty on the cheaper blankets at 25 per cent, so that any striking increase in price by the American manufacturer above what will cover the difference between American and European wages, will open the gates to foreign blankets and force the American manufacturer to do justice to the American buyer. We have made rates lower than those of the Mills bill upon blankets, upon fabrics with a cotton warp and upon all carpeting. The bill of the committee represents, in my opinion, as wise a distribution of duties as could be made. Lower rates than these might cripple American manufacturers, deprive American workmen of their places and defeat many of the objects of progressive tariff reform, which is the aim of the majority of this House. This bill, as it stands, represents infinite possibilities of good to all the American people. If it stimulates manufactures by enabling the poor man to buy more clothing than formerly, the poor woman to buy an all-wool dress where she now buys one of part shoddy or part cotton, the child of poverty to be protected by double blankets where he is now covered by but a single one, the House of Representatives of the 52d Congress will live in the hearts of American people with keener love and higher honors than any House which has ever sat in this capital.

Their Nose in the Trough.

(Springfield Republican.) Answering its own question, "Why is the democratic party so opposed to a protective tariff?" the organ of the American protective tariff league replies that "all men and even animals fear and hate whatever they do not understand." This is a most convincing style of argument. But its impressiveness might be greatly increased by adding that many pigs, for example, fear and hate a swill trough until they get their noses into it and come to understand it.

The Duty of Saying "Oh!"

A certain small boy was aggrieved by the indifference with which his busy father received the news of his bruised finger, and in childish fashion expressed his indignation. The father's tardy excuse that he could have done nothing to help the matter was met by a childish reply, "You might have said, 'Oh!'" The little fellow neither sought nor expected material aid, but he did want sympathy, and his reproachful answer holds the essence of volumes.

It ought to be so easy to say the little word for which our neighbor longs, to utter the bright ejaculation, or to bestow the loving glance for which another's heart is yearning, but we too often forget the duty of saying "Oh!" and keep our pity for the dark days of affliction, our tenderness for the great events of life. Of all negatively disagreeable qualities, indifference is the most trying, for the victim of its cool disregard is not only hurt by it, but furthermore is made to realize his own nothingness in a way which not even true humility accepts willingly. Our own trials and pleasures are so interesting to ourselves that we cannot quite understand why they are of such small consequence to others, and then we make the fatal mistake of letting them obscure our perception of what we in our turn owe. There are, it is true, many selfish, self-indulgent natures to which the blessing of giving is quite unknown, but which demand an inordinate share of attention. We all know them, and after a while we avoid paying the heavy taxes which intercourse with such people so heavily imposes. But it is not of them and their boundless egotism that we are speaking, but of our obligations to the dear every-day and all-day friends whom we love, but whom we sometimes forget to cherish. We must not be too busy to say "Oh!" when little pleasures or little trials come, for if we cannot help in any other way, our readiness to feel with them is welcome and appreciated.—Harper's Bazar.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Don't talk about yourself in company—it can be done much more satisfactorily after you have left.—Elmira Gazette.

"Freddy," asked his teacher, "what does leap-year mean?" "One day extra of school," answered Freddy, sadly.—Harper's Young People.

"Wasn't it awful?" She married a poor dry-goods clerk." "Yes; but just think how handy he will be to send down town to match goods!"—Puck.

That Tired Feeling.

Is often the forerunner of serious illness, which may be broken up if a good tonic like Hood's Sarsaparilla is taken in season. This medicine purifies the kidneys and liver to remove the waste from the system, purifies the blood and builds up the strength.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that contain Mercury.
as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co.
Sold by Druggists, price 75 c. per bottle.

Coughing Leads to Consumption. Kemps Balm will stop the cough at once.

Some boy's fishing excursions turn to wailing on their return home.

A "five sportsman" is generally in dead earnest.

Quester—I hear Fretwell has been going to law again. I understand he has been suing his neighbor for trespass.

Jester—Yes, and with about the same result.

Quester—Why? Didn't he get damages?
Jester—Damages? He got enough to last him a year! He got into an altercation with the defendant and came out with a broken nose, gashed ear, five teeth gone and a forty-dollar suit ripped to shivers.

He—I never thought it possible for me to love anyone as I now love you. You have veritably kindled a fire in my breast that time cannot quench. I beseech you then to relent and become mine.

She—I cannot be sir. Should we wed, you would remember this incident, you speak of, set me kindling fires during all our married life.

Upstart—I have made up my mind to become a journalist. What kind of a paper would you advise me to go to work with.

Gruffley—Well, I think you are best fitted to work with a piece of sand paper.

When a man is "beside himself" he generally demonstrates that he doesn't like the company.

Humanity appears to be very unequally divided between those who can't stand prosperity and those who can't get any to stand.—Binghamton Leader.

Irate Customer (in a restaurant)—"I've been waiting here half an hour." "Hibernian Waiter—"Half an hour! Begor, I've been waiting here two years."—New York Press.

Snooks (reading about French politics)—"What a remarkable man Henri Rochefort is!" "Snikes—"Yes; and think of the delicious cheese he makes!"—Harper's Bazar.

Some of the herbs in Hall's Hair Renewer, that wonderful preparation for restoring the color and thickening the growth of the hair, grow plentifully in New England.

Well, Sarah, what have you been doing to make you look so young? Oh, nothing much, only been using Hall's Hair Renewer to restore the color of my hair.

"Doctor," said the dying editor, "I have one last favor to ask of you." "Name it," said the doctor. "I want you to attend the editor of the other paper!"—Atlanta Constitution.

"There goes a man, who left Congress poorer than he was when he entered it." "Ah! A good proof of his splendid integrity!" "O, no—of his miserable luck at poker."—Life.

Little Johnny is much perplexed to know why it is that he is compelled to go to bed at night when he isn't sleepy, and forced to get up in the morning when he is.—Boston Transcript.

Pushed for Time. Suburban Resident—"I thought you told the new servant girl to clean those windows?" His Better Half—"I did. But she didn't have time to do it before she left."—Puck.

"Well, little boy, what's your name?" "Shadrach Nebuchadnezzar Jones." "Who gave you that name?" "I don't know. But yer betcher life if I find out when I gets me growth they'll be sorry for it."—Life.

A Rare Chance. Art Patron—"Look there, a Rembrandt at 30 francs, and signed, too. What a rare chance!" His Friend—"What does the picture represent?" Art Patron—"The Taking of Sebastopol."—Ephemere Comique.

Explanatory. Angry Citizen—"But this bill for January is more than twice as big as it was for the month before, and my flat was closed nearly the whole month of January. I was on a visit out West." Gas Company's Cashier (yawning)—"Yes, traveling is always pretty expensive. Ten dollars and thirty-five cents, please."—Chicago Tribune.

A Boston editor has a five-year-old boy, who said the other day at the table: "Papa, I wish you were a bake-shop man!" "Why, my boy?" "Because then you could bring home cakes and things, and we could go in and get cookies when we wanted to. Or, if you were a mechanic, or a grocerman, or a carpenter and made nice things, or a blacksmith-shop man—that would be awful fine. Say, papa, is it any good what you do?"—Boston Record.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

BENSODORP'S ROYAL DUTCH COCOA
PURE, ECONOMICAL.
Compare quality and price with any other. SAMPLE FREE.
STEPHEN L. BARTLETT, Importer, Boston, Mass.

Why not WALKER FURNACE?
Best in the world. We can prove it. Ask us what it costs.
Our 4-horse boiler and all other low-pressure boilers made to order.
WALKER & PRATT MFG. CO.,
941 N. STREET, WATERTOWN.

NEWTON GRAPHIC
Job Printing
ESTABLISHMENT
We desire to call the attention of the public to our facilities for the prompt execution of every description of Newspaper, Book, AND Job Printing.

JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT
Established 1810.
Originated by an Old Family Physician, For INTERNAL as much as EXTERNAL Use.
I, S. JOHNSON, Esq. My Dear Sir: Fifty years ago this month your father, Dr. Johnson, called at my store and left with me some Johnson's Anodyne Liniment on sale. I remember him distinctly to-day, and could tell you just how he was dressed on that day fifty years ago. I have sold Johnson's Anodyne Liniment ever since and I can most truly say that it has maintained its high standard and popularity from that time to this. No medicine to-day possesses the confidence of the public to a greater extent than Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. It is doubtful if you have many customers who remember the good old doctor who first commended this medicine, and received it direct from his hand fifty years ago. Extending my kind wishes, I remain, JOHN B. RAND.
FOR PURELY HOUSEHOLD USE, ALMOST A CENTURY.
Generation after Generation have Known and Blessed It.
All who order direct from us, and request it, shall receive a certificate that the money shall be refunded if not abundantly satisfied. Retail price, 25 cents. Six $2.00, express prepaid. If you can't get it near home, ask first. Sold by druggists. Full information sent free. I. S. JOHNSON & CO., 25 Custom House Street, Boston, Mass.

JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT
Established 1810.

Originated by an Old Family Physician, For INTERNAL as much as EXTERNAL Use.

I, S. JOHNSON, Esq. My Dear Sir: Fifty years ago this month your father, Dr. Johnson, called at my store and left with me some Johnson's Anodyne Liniment on sale. I remember him distinctly to-day, and could tell you just how he was dressed on that day fifty years ago. I have sold Johnson's Anodyne Liniment ever since and I can most truly say that it has maintained its high standard and popularity from that time to this. No medicine to-day possesses the confidence of the public to a greater extent than Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. It is doubtful if you have many customers who remember the good old doctor who first commended this medicine, and received it direct from his hand fifty years ago. Extending my kind wishes, I remain, JOHN B. RAND.
FOR PURELY HOUSEHOLD USE, ALMOST A CENTURY.
Generation after Generation have Known and Blessed It.
All who order direct from us, and request it, shall receive a certificate that the money shall be refunded if not abundantly satisfied. Retail price, 25 cents. Six $2.00, express prepaid. If you can't get it near home, ask first. Sold by druggists. Full information sent free. I. S. JOHNSON & CO., 25 Custom House Street, Boston, Mass.

EVERYONE ATTENTION!

If You Want to Purchase HARDWARE, —SUC AS—Carpenters Tools, Nails and House Trimmings, Barbed Wire, Poultry Netting, Pocket Cutlery, clissors, Shears and Lawn Mowers.

Call and see us at our New Store.

If You Want to Paint Your House
We can sell you ready mixed Paints, White Lead, Oil, Varnishes and Brushes.

HAVE YOU BEGUN HOUSE CLEANING?
And do you need a Step Ladder and a Window Brush or a Carpet Sweeper? If you do call at our store and we sell you one of these articles at prices which defy competition.

DO YOU NEED ANY TINWARE?
If you do we can fit you out with just what you want for we manufacture it ourselves.

WE CAN PLEASE YOU WITH ONE OF OUR MYSTIC RANGES, OIL STOVES OR REFRIGERATORS.

A. J. FISKE & CO., PLUMBERS,
WEST NEWTON, MASS.

EXPERIENCE AND PROMPTNESS.
NICE WORK GUARANTEED BY THE

NEWTON CARPET CLEANING COMPANY.

Only 1 cent per yard running for taking up; 3 cents per running yard for cleaning Wool, Brussels or Tapestry; 4 cents for Wiltons, Velvets or Axminster 8 cents per square yard for Turkey Rugs or Carpets; 4 cents per running yard for laying; Stairs, 50 cents and upwards per flight. Carpet Sewing, $2.50 per day. Renovating and repairing of carpets a specialty. Carpet work in all its branches done properly and at reasonable prices. All kinds of Carpet Linings for sale. Church Cushions and Mattings cleaned at bottom prices. Carpets called for and delivered free of charge. Send postal. Sole Manufacturer of the
New Carpets made to order of every shape and size.

SIMON A. WHITE,
P. O. Box 71, Newtonville. Telephone 7. Factory and Residence, Clinton Street.

P. A. MURRAY,

Carriage Builder.

ALL
Work Guaranteed.

Special attention given to REPAIRING AND PAINTING FINE CARRIAGES AND SLEIGES
WASHINGTON, OR. PARK ST., NEWTON.

Water Bugs and Roaches.
CLEAR THEM OUT WITH OUR EXTERMINATOR
No dust. No trouble to use.
Price, 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. If you druggist or grocer does not keep it, we will mail package on receipt of price.
BARNARD & CO.,
7 TEMPLE PLACE, BOSTON.

Genuine Bargains

Always to be obtained by examination of the varied assortment of

IMPERFECT GOODS AND REMNANTS.

STRICTLY ALL WOOL.

Made at the Assabet Mills which are exclusively sold

and at the lowest prices by

THE PEOPLE'S DRY GOODS COMPANY

MAYNARD, MASS.

Job Printing.

ESTABLISHMENT

NEWSPAPER, Book, AND Job Printing.

Job Printing.

Job Printing.

Job Printing.

Job Printing.

Job Printing.

Job Printing.

Job Printing.

Job Printing.

J. HENRY BACON

Successor to Francis Murdock & Co.

Dry Goods & Notions

Ladies' and Gents'

Furnishing Goods,

OIL and STRAW CARPETS,

Trunks, Bags, &c.

BACON'S BLOCK,

Nos. 279 to 281 Washington St.,

NEWTON.

THEODORE L. MASON,

Agent for the celebrated

Rockford Watch

ELGIN, WALTHAM, and other American

Watches always in stock.

Repairing of Fine Watches, French, Grandfather

and American Clocks a specialty.

All work warranted to give satisfaction.

Ellet Block, Centre Street, Newton, Mass.

Mrs. E. A. SMITH,

MILLINERY!

202 Moody Street,

Opposite Walnut Street,

WALTHAM.

PURE - MILK

Supplied daily from

PROSPECT VALLEY FARM,

One Cow's Milk supplied where desired.

H. COLDWELL & SON,

WALTHAM, MASS.

P. O. Box 1992.

J. OTIS McFADDEN,

DEALER IN

Window Shades, Wire Screens, Wall

Papers, Venetian Blinds.

23 CORNHILL, BOSTON.

M. C. HICINS

PRACTICAL PLUMBER

—AND—

Sanitary Engineer.

(Formerly with S. F. Carrier.)

Sumner's Block, Newton.

PLUMBING WORK IN ALL ITS BRANCHES

Having had twenty-two years' experience in the business in this city, perfect satisfaction guaranteed.

CHURCHILL & BEAN

Tailors.

IMPORTERS

FINE CLOTHS

503 Washington St.

BOSTON.

G. F. CHURCHILL, Newtonville.

J. H. BEAN, Dorchester.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the subscribers have been duly appointed Executors of the will of Anne B. Lloyd late of Newton in the County of Middlesex, deceased, and have taken upon themselves the trust by giving bonds, as the law directs. All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same; and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to:

ELDRIDGE H. LLOYD, } Executors
ANNIE M. DEGEN, }
February 26, 1892. 22 31.

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY
255 WASHINGTON STREET, NEW
TON, MASS.

Entered as second class matter.
Subscription for year, $2.00
Single Copies, 5 cents
By mail free of Postage.

All money sent at the sender's risk. All checks, drafts and money orders should be
made payable to

EDWARD D. BALDWIN, Editor and Publisher

TELEPHONE NO. 238-2.

The GRAPHIC is printed and mailed Friday afternoon, and is for sale at all News Stands in the Newtons, and at the Boston & Albany News Room, Boston Depot.

All communications must be accompanied with the name of the writer, and unpublished
communications cannot be returned by mail
unless stamps are enclosed.

TELEPHONE POLES.

The hill section of West Newton is evidently all "torn up" over the proposition to erect telephone poles on its quiet streets, and the residents evidently do not desire such an unsightly addition to their section. They are all of them familiar with Highland Street from the railroad station to Washington street, where huge telephone poles usurp so much of the narrow sidewalk that people passing them have to walk in single file, and when it rains there is not room to carry an ordinary umbrella between the poles and the fence. Whenever there is an entertainment at City Hall these poles drive the crowd that come on the trains into the street and are in every way a nuisance. No wonder West Newton people do not want more of them, and object strongly to having their sidewalks monopolized by the telephone company.

The company hoped to prevent the residents from protesting by proclaiming that no more telephones would be put in that section unless they could have poles in the streets, and this placed those who had applied for telephones in a rather delicate position. It may have been only a "bluff," however, and it was hardly wise for the company to make such a threat, as it accomplished nothing.

The residents almost unanimously retorted that they would rather have no telephones at all than to have the poles.

The company evidently could give as good service as they are now giving, without poles, if they desired to, but the Telephone monopoly has attained such a size that it thinks it can do just about what it likes.

Any one driving about the city and seeing the huge poles with their forest of wire on our main streets, would be convinced that it was about time to enter a protest against any further defacement of the city. Rev. Mr. Patrick's suggestion that the wires could easily be placed under ground was not an unreasonable one, and this ought certainly to be done on the main streets, where the poles are now as prominent as they are ugly, which is saying a good deal.

This is one of those cases where the right to pass through the street is a valuable franchise and the city has hitherto given it away, and even has to pay a heavy rental for the use of its own telephones. The company ought certainly to furnish the city with free service in return for its franchise, and this would be getting off very cheaply. It is about time to make an end to the practice of giving away privileges that should bring some income to the city.

The discussion over the appropriation for a hose house and police station at Nonantum will interest tax payers, many of whom find it hard to understand why such an expensive building is needed in that section, unless it be that the building will be so artistic in design as to prove a constant source of education to the residents, in the art of architecture. In this light the building may be worth all that it costs, even if the original figure of $12,500 be retained. The Common Council insists on this, while the aldermen have cut it down to $10,800. New public buildings appear to come pretty high in Newton, and if a small hose house and police station costs this amount, the tax payer's imagination stands appalled at the probable cost of a new City Hall, which has been so long talked about. A correspondent wants to know why the police station could not have been taken as a model for the Nonantum building, and thinks it might be reproduced at a saving from the figures mentioned and then have a building entirely of brick. The Newton engine house and police station, building and land, is valued at $13,000, and the land is quite valuable, and is probably worth somewhere near $2,000. Whether the building could be reproduced for anywhere near $11,000 we do not know, and it might be interesting to look the matter up. If the Steamer One building which was put up some twenty-four years ago is good enough for Newton it ought to be good enough for Nonantum.

CONGRESSMAN WALKER of this state is certainly an original genius. He told his fellow Congressmen that the manufacturers could get along perfectly well without protection, it did not specially benefit them but only their workmen.

Then after this bit of nonsense, he lectured a fellow Congressman who said he bought goods when he could get them cheaper and proclaimed it to be the duty of every American to buy American goods and so help his brothers who made them. Mr. Walker happened to have his coat on and a member interrupted him to ask if it was not made of imported goods. Mr. Walker admitted that it was but said he bought it because it was taxed double and triple, and these taxes helped the government. The member thought that to be consistent

Mr. Walker ought to wear all-wool American shoddy, but it is wrong to expect a man of Mr. Walker's original genius to be consistent. He will even deny that "double and triple duties" on his coat are taxes, in another speech, and while people admire Mr. Walker's versatility, it is hardly to be expected that they should be convinced by his arguments. They are only intended to amuse, and not to instruct.

The project of annexing Cambridge to Boston is having a very lively hearing before the committee on cities, Newton and most of the towns in Middlesex county are represented to oppose the scheme and also a large share of the citizens of Cambridge, and the city council of the latter city is unanimous against it. Those who favor it seemed to present as their chief argument that the value of Cambridge real estate would rise, if it was annexed to Boston, and secondly that the streets would be better. None of those who favor the project seem to have any idea of what will be done with all the county buildings and other property, and they seem to have some idea that they will make some money by the advance in real estate. But it is difficult to see any good reason for the belief that prices would advance, and to extinguish Cambridge by making it a part of Boston does not seem to be relished by leading citizens of Cambridge. One looks in vain for any Cambridge men of prominence among those who have yet appeared in favor.

MR. EDWARD D. MEAD in his lecture before the Boston Society for the Promotion of Good Citizenship gave a graphic description of Senator Hill as "a man who never spoke a significant word, never took hand in any significant public cause, and never showed the commonest symptom of any kind of greatness, a brazen upstart who has hardly been in his seat since he entered the Senate, or given any indication of a consciousness that any duties attach to the position, or that the place is anything else than a place for electioneering." There are a great many such men in politics, today, and it is the duty of good citizens to see that they are kept out of any honorable office.

THE Indiana Republican platform, adopted by the convention that elected Harrison delegates last week, adopted
this resolution on the silver question:

We are in favor of honest money, of a dollar that, whether it be gold or silver or paper, shall be of like value in the payment of debts.

Senator Hill in his Southern speeches, before what are supposed to be free-silver audiences, gives his position in almost these words, and the silver men claim him. Probably the Indiana conviction did not want to be definite enough to offend any free silver voters.

WE have received a marked copy of the American Protestant, advocating Joseph Bennett of the 25th Ward of Boston as the next Republican candidate for Congress from the Eleventh District, and vouching for him as the strongest candidate the Republicans could put up.

The Boston men of course will want all the honors in the new 11th district.

It is always amusing to see the dire results that follow when a Boston paper turns a new man loose on Newton matters. This week, some writer in the Transcript, in describing building in this city, puts Lake avenue and Hyde street in "Newton proper" and puts in some streets which are not known to any New-tonians.

Whooping Cough Should be Included.

To the Editor of the Graphic:
Dear Sir:—In Rule 15 of the board of health, as published by you, I was surprised to find whooping cough was not included among the diseases excluding children from our public schools, which it certainly ought to be, and I wish to be allowed, through your columns, to call the attention of the board and parents to what a high school authority says about this loathsome sickness.

"Although this disease does not bring the patient immediate danger of life, as Croup or Scarlatina, yet its ravages, when reigning epidemically, have been frightful, and the destruction of life great, particularly by disease consequent upon its attack."

It can be communicated by expecto-rated mucus, or even the breath and exhalation of infected children: from this it is evident that if children shall be saved from the disease, by isolating them from the diseased ones, it can only be done effectually by excluding all social intercourse whatever, and this not merely during the severest period of the cough, but until the last vestige of the cough and expectoration has vanished.

I think there is not a mother in the whole of the Newtons, who, if she has taken a child of hers to any summering place, Hotel or Boarding house, and found there another child with the whooping cough, would not either take hers away or insist on the other leaving.

It is not alone the horrid ailment itself, that is to be dreaded, but also the ill it often leaves in its wake, that has ruined many lives and made them a burden. I think that it is time that public sentiment and professional opinion were enlisted to bring about its exclusion from every public place.

J. E. L.

The Flowers that Bloom in the Spring.

The Massachusetts Horticultural Society will hold during the next week at Horticultural Hall, Boston, a grand exhibition beginning on Tuesday the 22d inst., at 12 o'clock and continuing 'till Friday night—day and evening. Both Halls will be crowded with Plants, Orchids, Roses, and Dutch Bulbs of the very choicest and best the gardeners can produce and will be worth visiting.

NEWTON CLUB.

DUPLICATE WHIST.

Last Saturday evening a very interesting game of ten tables was played between sides selected by Messrs. Brown & Marble; resulting as follows:—

MR. BROWN'S SIDE, N. & S.
Johnson & Priest..... 178
Towns & Wildman..... 141
Mandell & Brackett..... 179
S. Vaghi & Baker..... 185
Pollett & Perkins..... 183
Pierce & Perkins..... 183
Brown & Hall..... 82
Roberts & Leland..... 180
Goodrich & Mendell..... 188
J. H. V. & Fitzpatrick..... 194
Hatch & Adams..... 170
French & Fenn..... 184

MR. MARBLE'S SIDE, E. & W.
Pearson & Fearing..... 186
Lowell & Admitt..... 145
S. Vaghi & Baker..... 185
Hamilton & Richards..... 180
Samson & Ferguson..... 181
Marble & Hunt..... 192
Ames & Wilson..... 181
Curtis & Whitlsey..... 176
Chapman & Jones, A. F..... 170
French & Fenn..... 184

1773

*Played but 22 hands.

Mr. Brown's side won by 16 points. Messrs. H. V. Jones & Fitzpatrick were awarded the prize, consisting of a full set of duplicate whist.

On Saturday evening next, another set of duplicate whist will be offered as a prize and be awarded to those making the best score.

Messrs. Brown & Johnson will choose between the sides and the contest promises to be an exciting one.

Play will commence promptly at 8 and continue until 10 o'clock.

1773

Newton Co-operative Bank.

The officers elected for the ensuing year
are as follows:

President, F. A. Dewson; vice-president,
E. W. Gay; secretary and treasurer, J. C.
Fuller; directors, J. W. French, H. C.
Bohfield, C. S. Kene, T. B. Fitz, J. E.
Hollis, J. Heckman, P. A. McVoy, W.
Pulphus, F. M. Croome, F. A. Dewson,
E. W. Gay, and J. C. Fuller; for attorney,
Chas. T. Davis.

Gain for the year—Depositors, 178;
Share 14.0; Rent, 525.000;
Share Loans, 800; Over capital $30,000;
900 new shares have been sold recently.

Y. M. C. A.

Tickets for to-day's Y. M. C. A. Junior Department entertainment, by W. D. L. Le Roy, sold so rapidly that it was found necessary to adjourn from the Y. M. C.
to Eliot Lower hall.

The enthusiasm and activity of the members of the Junior Department is quite a revelation to friends who have never before come in contact with this feature of Association work.

A ready Department has forty seven members. The Sunday meetings are largely attended and very interesting, thirty-one boys being present last Sunday. Soas tickets sufficient to pay the entire expenses of their entertainment course have already been sold. Plans are under way for a second Reception on Monday afternoon a dumb bell class will commence its lessons.

Hon. G. D. Gilman gave a very interesting and instructive Lecture on "Hawaii" in Eliot Chapel last Monday evening under the auspices of the Y. M.
C. A. and on the 25th Rev. Dr. Stimm will give a course on the "Passion Play."

Last Sunday's four o'clock men's meeting in Y. M. C. A. Hall was well attended and was addressed by Mr. Stephen Moore.

Next Sunday's meeting will be a Praise Service with some special music introduced.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

FREE to boys And girls a solid gold or silver watch to advertise our business. Send stamp a dime to J. A. Water, Water, Mass.

JAPAN TEA CO., Water, Mass.

WE OPEN THE SEASON

—OF—

Carpet Work.

Cleansing, Fitting, Laying.

Give us your orders.

Luther Bent & Co.

WATERTOWN.

There will be a meeting of the

Newton, Auburndale and West

Newton Woman's Christian Temperance Union on Sunday, March

22, at the Unitarian Church,

West Newton, Sessions at 2 and

7.30 p.m. Kate L. Stevenson, State

Sec., and other State Officers will address the afternoon sessions. Mrs.

Mary A. Livermore, will deliver a Lecture in the evening. Good music will be provided.

All are invited.

BARBER SHOP.

Having recently added new furniture, newly painted and frescoed, the shop occupied by us in Dexter Block, Newtonville, as a Barber shop, we are now better fitted than ever for doing first-class work of every description.

Having secured a special artist for the work we are making a specialty of Ladies Hair Cutting, Curling, Singeing, and sham-poing, and respectfully solicit your patronage. Children's Hair Cutting and other work nicely done. Prompt attention to out-side work at reasonable rates.

Open until 8.30 p. m.

E. D. WILLETT.

24 41.

24 41.

24 41.

24 41.

24 41.

WABAN.

—Farley, pianos, 433 Washington street.

—There is a rumor of a gymnasium here.

—Mrs. Fuller is at last able to be up and around again.

—The last traces of the unfortunate toboggan slide are just disappearing.

—Rev. Mr. Morehouse of Newton Centre will conduct the services here next Sunday.

—Mr. Herbert C. Blaney received a flying call last Monday from Mr. W. T. Goodwin, formerly of this village.

—A party of four gentlemen, Messrs.
Harlow, Saville, Davidson and Shaw took a trip to New York the first of this week returning Wednesday.

—A meeting will be held in Collins Hall,
Saturday evening, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of forming a tennis club. Young people interested are requested to be present.

DIED.

VAIL—At Newton, March 13, Joan M., wife of Captain Louis J. Vail, aged 34 years.

WOODWARD—At Newton Highlands, March 12,
Samuel N. Woodward, 72 yrs.

GANE—At West Newton, 12th inst., Emily
Sophia, wife of Henry A. Gane, 75 yrs, 6 mos.

ELLEY—14th inst., at Boston Home for incurables, M. S. Hesse Kelley.

CUTLER—At Newt., 12th inst., Dorothy, infant daughter of Ethan H. and Mary B. Cutler.

CLANCY—At Newton Highlands, 12th inst., C.
Percival Clancy, son of Charles C. and Lena L.
Clancy, of Brattleboro, Vt., 20 yrs, 1 mo., 16 ds.

COLBURN—In Boston, March 12, Annie F. Colburn, wife of George D. Colburn, 66 yrs.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

A cream of tartar baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength—Latest United States Government Food Report.

Royal Baking Powder Co., 106 Wall St., N. Y.

BUSINESS NOTICES

WANTED—We have customers wanting houses in all parts of Newton, $300, $400, $500, $600. Also for furnished house, furnishings, etc. See us about yours.
Aban, Trowbridge & Co., Eliot Block, Newt.

LOST—Sunday, a small pug dog answering to the name of "Jack." A suitable reward will be given for his return to Mr. H. E. Hubbard, Washington St., Newton.

TO LET—House of six rooms on Washington
St. Apply to Henry C. Daniels, 24 1/2

TO RENT AND TO SELL—A house to rent near station, Newton Centre, and 5 other houses, and 3 houses to sell. W. Thorpe, Newton Centre.

3 MINUTES—from Newton depot, to let a furnished room in private family. Terms reasonable. Address, "Want," Graphic Office.

TO LET—Furnished front room in house with modern conveniences, including furnace heat and bath. The minutes walk from Newton station. Address, "A. T.," Graphic Office.

LADY—and her daughter desire a small house or tenement of five or six rooms,
furnishings, etc. See us about yours.
Address, R. P. Martin, Ipswich, Mass., 24 1/2

WANTED—A capable girl for general housework. Apply to Mrs. H. I. Ordway, Gibbs
St., Newton Centre.

TO LET—Pleasant rooms at Hotel Hunnewell, Newton. Apply at Hotel or address S. K. Harwood,
Newton, 24 1/2

A YOUNG MAN—Wants a permanent situation as gardener or coachman or both, understands greenhouse, is cheerful, fruit trees,
furnaces and full charge of gentleman's place.
Address S. A. H., care Mrs. Adeline Martin, Ipswich, Mass.

ANTIDOTE—"Is the great heeache cure."
It affords almost instant relief in cases of headache, neuralgia and rheumatic pains. Price 25 cents, can be mailed to any address. Wheeler Pharmaceutical Co., Boston, Mas.

TO LET—On Church Street, Newton, a tenement of 4 rooms. Rent $11 per month.
Apply to R. J. Renon, 609 Centre St., Jamaica
Plain, or to W. Earle, 248 Church St., Newton.
24 1/2

WASHING—By the Associated Charities, washing or sweeping for a woman at Nonantum, washing to be taken home by a skilled laundress at Auburndale, and employment by the day for both men and women. Address, Mrs. Mary B. Martin, Newtonville. Office hours,
9 to 10 A. M. every week-day, 3 to 5 P. M. Wednesdays, 7.30 to 8.30 P. M. Fridays and Saturdays.

TO LET—A nearly new house of 8 rooms, bath and laundry; all modern conveniences, in a pleasant neighborhood, five minutes from Newton station, on the south side of the track, rent moderate. Apply at this office. 12 1/2

PERNOLLA'S LAUNDRY AND INTEL-IGENCE OFFICE. I have in my laundry a maids, arrived from England. All plain clothes without buttons can be made as nicely as if hot irons were used. Tablecloths and napkins washed and pressed. We were new 15 cents per dozen. I have in the Intelligence Office a girl who gets up and serves dinner, carries packages and laundries. Office hours, such help will please call at Pernolla's Office, Adams street, Newton.

TO LET—Rear of Post Office, house in thorough repair, newly papered and painted throughout. Suitable for four families, and will be let in four tenements or entire. None but respectable and orderly people need apply.
Address with references, Aban, Trowbridge & Co.,
Eliot Block, Newton.

A. B. & J. H. SHEDD, Auctioneers, 16 City Square, Charlestown, Mass.

Mortgagee's Sale.

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Martin O'Brien to Fanny M. Harvey, dated April seventh, 1887, and recorded with Middlesex South District Registry of Deeds libro 2032 folio 257, which said mortgage was duly assigned by said Fanny M. Harvey, to Salmun L. Snow, will be sold at Public Auction for breach of the conditions of said mortgage on TUESDAY, the TWELFTH DAY OF APRIL NEXT, AT TEN O'CLOCK IN THE FORENOON, on the Premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage deed to wit: All that lot of land with the buildings thereon, situated in that part of Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, called West Newton, bounded and described as follows viz: Beginning at the southeasterly corner on Burt's feet, at a point seventy one feet westerly from Waltham Street; thence running Northerly sixty three feet; thence running Westerly sixty three feet; thence running Southerly sixty three feet; thence running Easterly by said Street sixty feet.
Containing 3700 square feet, and is lot numbered two on a plan of land belonging to said Martin O'Brien. Together with all the improvements that may be thereon, and subject to any claim of unpaid taxes and to any other claim that may exist under said mortgage if any. Terms two hundred in cash at the sale, balance in ten days. Further particulars at the time and place of sale.

SALMON L. SNOW, Assignee of said Mortgage.
Boston, March 15, 1892.

24 31.

24 31.

24 31.

24 31.

24 31.

24 31.

24 31.

24 31.

24 31.

24 31.

24 31.

24 31.

24 31.

24 31.

24 31.

24 31.

24 31.

24 31.

24 31.

24 31.

24 31.

24 31.

24 31.

24 31.

NEWTONVILLE.

—Farley, piano tuner, 433 Wash. St.

—Mrs. Pinkham of Walker street has gone to Lynn.

—Mr. E. B. Jones of Walnut terrace is seriously ill.

—Mrs. Livermore will address W. C. T. U. meeting. See adv.

—Mr. Thomas Emerson is building a new house on Edinboro street.

—Miss Maud Lewis is studying with Rachel Noah, the dramatic teacher.

—Miss Eva Growse, niece of Policeman Soule, has returned to her home in Lynn.

—Miss Linda Curtis, who has been visiting here, has returned to North Bridge water.

—Miss Lizzie Goldthwaite has returned from a short visit to her home in Danvers, Mass.

—About fifty friends surprised Miss Lily Lyon at her home on Linwood avenue last evening.

—Miss M. A. Gould has taken a position as operator in the Western Union office in the depot.

—Mrs. Ira Priest and child have arrived and so the paragon takes on the home atmosphere.

—Little Maud Fenno evidently has the true dramatic instinct, and is beginning in season an artistic career.

—Mr. C. H. Woodworth, who has been visiting here, departed Monday for his home in Hagle, South Dakota.

—The regular meeting of the "Lend a Hand," was held in the Universalist church parlors yesterday afternoon.

—Rev. Royal T. Sawyer has returned from Kingston, N. H., where he supplied the pulpit of the Universalist church last Sunday.

—Miss Alice Cobb shows a strong musical talent in her compositions just published, and her execution for so young a girl is excellent.

—A concert by phonograph will be given for the entertainment of the ladies of the members, at the Newton Club House, this (Friday) evening.

—Miss Margaret Wallace and her well trained corps of pupils were cordially admired at their recent exhibition of the Swedish system before the Guild.

—The Boston Transcript says "The proud bowlers of Newton may be known by the smiles of victory that light up their faces. They met the B. A. A. and vanquished them."

—Don't forget, Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Methodist vestry, instead of Tuesday of next week the Guild will listen to Mrs. Deane of Edgartown. Paper on "Influence of Flowers upon National Life."

—The railroad commissioners have filed with the secretary of state their certificate that the Newton and Boston Street Railway Company has complied with the forms of law preliminary to the issuing of a charter.

—Mrs. J. B. Cornish delighted her audience the other evening at the Universalist reception, by her recitations of "Kentucky Belle." A story of the war told with a pathos and quiet dramatic force wonderfully effective.

—The Neighborhood Club met with Miss Minnie McAdams, Wednesday evening. Only two more meetings will be held this season, one at Mr. Water Chalmers' and the other at Mrs. Gertrude Cooke-Dickinson's, Lowell street.

—Mr. Barrett, secretary of the Newton Y. M. C. A., will have charge of the Christian Endeavor meeting next Sunday evening at 7.30, in the Methodist church. The Y. M. C. A. orchestra will be present. All strangers cordially invited.

—At the meeting of the Chas. Ward Post 62, last evening, Comrade John Flood was re-elected officer of the guards. Comrade Geo. L. Keyes presented the Post in behalf of Mrs. R. M. Pulsifer, Batcher's engraving of the Battle of Gettysburg.

—Rev. Royal T. Sawyer proved himself an excellent operative manager at the reception last week. His voice and manner were admirable. Mr. Atwood as an American prima donna and Mrs. W. F. Kimball and Mr. H. V. Pinkham as foreign applicants were capital.

—Miss Hattie Calley gave a very pleasant whist party to about twenty-five of her friends on Monday evening at her home on Austin street. Whist was enjoyed from 8 until 10 o'clock, followed by a collation. Among those present were Miss Jennie Preston, Miss Susie Preston, Miss Trotter, Miss Hawley, Miss Noble of Waltham, Miss Cook of Allston, Miss Atkins, Miss Addie Leavitt, Mr. Jenison, Whitman and Mr. Cook of Allston, Mr. Hawse of Boston.

—The monthly reception was held in the Universalist parlors on Thursday evening, when despite the storm a large number of the parish were present to greet their new pastor, Rev. Ira Priest. After a delicious supper prepared and served by the young people of the Lend a Hand Society, a pleasing program was presented by the Godeard committee. Mr. Chalmers assisted by Mrs. J. L. Atwood. The following program was offered: Piano solo, Miss Addie Leavitt; recitation, Miss Maud Fenno; Tom; telephone talk, Mr. Chalmers; harmonica solo, Mr. G. H. Weston; cornet solo, Master Charles Atwood; recitation, Mrs. J. B. Cornish; harmonica solo, Mr. Weston; Operetta, "Opera," Mrs. Atwood; Mrs. W. F. Kimball, Messrs. Sawyer and Pinkham.

WEST NEWTON.

—Farley, tuner, 433 Wash. St., Newton.

—Mr. B. F. Shattuck is in Florida for a month's stay.

—May Wah Fuy has opened a laundry in Judson block.

—Mrs. Dr. Curtis has gone to New York for a short visit.

—Mr. George Phelps and family have returned from Florida.

—Mr. P. S. Howe has moved into his new house on Prince street.

—Mrs. C. Willard Carter has returned from a visit to Bridgewater.

—Mr. Theodore A. Fleu has been appointed a bail commissioner.

—Robert Campbell, the clerk at the freight house, is seriously ill.

—Mr. S. F. Cate is building an addition to his store-house on Watertown street.

—Mrs. Martia F. H. Wood has issued invitations for afternoon tea and whist for the 28th.

—Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Felton have departed for Florida, where they are to pass a few months.

—Mrs. Fisher Ames and Miss Rosalie Ames are at present in Vienna and will later visit Russia.

—Mr. T. E. Stutson is slightly improved but is still critically ill. His sickness has been the result of overwork.

—Rev. Walter C. Breed of Concord will preach at the Church of the Messiah to-night, Friday, at the usual hour, 7.45 o'clock.

—The annual meeting of the West Newton Savings Bank will be held April 13th. This bank is rapidly growing in favor with depositors.

—W. H. Leatherbee and family departed for the South Monday. Their destination is Florida, where they will sojourn for a few months.

—Rev. Dr. J. S. Lindsay, rector of St. Paul's church, Boston, will be the preacher at the Church of the Messiah on Tuesday next at 7.45 p. m.

—Mr. J. J. Eddy is seriously ill at his home in Winthrop street and his contemplated trip to California has been necessarily postponed.

—The last sociable for the season of the Unitarian church will be held this (Friday) evening. Admiral Kimberly will favor the audience with a lecture.

—Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Pratt left last week for Florida and other parts of the South, for the benefit of Mr. Pratt's health, which has been of late quite delicate.

—Mr. J. L. Damon, Jr., of the Hotel Thorndike, is gradually recovering from an attack of pneumonia. He is now at his summer residence in this place.

—Miss Alice Morton, musical director of the Unity Dramatic Club, has arranged for a fine program to be presented between acts at their entertainment, March 25th.

—The large circle of friends of Miss Sarah Foster will be very happy to learn that she is slowly convalescing, and hopes are entertained she may ultimately recover her health.

—Mr. J. T. Cushman, formerly of Providence, took charge of the tinware and stove business purchased from O. F. Lucas on Monday. He is refitting the establishment and adding new stock to the warehouses.

—Mr. Aaron Barker had a stroke of paralysis Monday and his condition is considered very critical. His son, Mr. George Barker, who has been South, has arrived having been hastily summoned on account of his father's illness.

—James F. C. Hyde has sold a tract of land containing six lots fronting on Chestnut street, Va. engine park, to syndicate which will build two valuable houses there this season. This land adjoins the estate of Charles I. Travell.

—Miss Bessie Hinckley has become quite settled in her new home on Prince street. Tuesday evening of this week, being her birthday, her friends made it an occasion of giving her a surprise visit, and left several tokens of their interest and friendship.

—Michael Kane, a slater employed by W. H. Pettigrew, fell from a staging while at work on the new house on Temple street, last Friday and was severely injured. He was taken to the Cottage Hospital. It is feared that the spine is affected.

—Mr. John Eddy's purpose of accompanying Mrs. E. P. Bond on the Raymond excursion to California last week, was frustrated by illness. He was attacked quite seriously with grippe, rheumatism following, but is now thought to be convalescing.

—The beneficent working of the Cottage Hospital was illustrated last week, when a call for an ambulance from the residence of Mr. L. G. Pratt, where the late Mrs. Gane was attacked by her fatal illness, was responded to in twenty minutes, and she was conveyed with ease and comfort to her home.

—There are letters in the postoffice for Miss Emma Allen, J. E. Bird, Miss M. Donaldson, Annie Darrin, M. F. Duck, Joseph Dwyer, Ellen Flynn, Mary Fisher, Mrs. M. E. Humphrey, Mrs. W. H. Higginson, Mr. Hatch, Maggie Kent, L. Lewis, Mary Millett, M. Schuman, W. S. Weston, Thomas Wales.

—The W. C. T. U. of Newton will join the West Newton and Auburndale Unions in holding a temperance mass meeting in the Unitarian church, West Newton, Tuesday evening, March 22d, to which all friends of temperance are invited. Mrs. M. A. Livermore will deliver an address in the evening.

—The 3-act Comedy, "War to the Knife," which has been in rehearsal the past few weeks by the Unity Dramatic Club, will be presented at the Unitarian church parlors on Friday evening, March 25th, at 7.45 o'clock. Tickets 50 cents, can be obtained of Mr. Fleu, City Hall, Mr. Stacy, post-office and Mr. Richards, Regent street.

—Mr. C. F. Tuttle, it is said, is interested in a southern enterprise, the Boston Boat and Almada Lumber Co., and has been South looking after the affairs of the concern. The Record this week published a rather sensational story, in part an interview with Mr. R. G. Holmes, a southern planter, who says that he came North to inquire concerning the financial status of the company.

—Mr. J. W. Wells died at his residence, Webster Park, Wednesday morning. He was 75 years of age, and had been in poor health for the past few years. Mr. Wells was a former well known Boston business man and had been a resident of this city several years. He was a man of excellent character and was respected by all who knew him.

—The Newton Club (league) and the Neighborhood Club bowling teams played a match on the latter's alleys last evening. The scores were not given out for publication, but the contest was a very interesting one, and the result was a "sporty" event. It furnished an opportunity for measuring skill and testing the strength of the Neighborhood Club team which is to enter the state league next season.

—There will be a people's service next Sunday evening in the Congregational church at 7 o'clock. This is the first of a series of popular character, consisting of responsive reading, Congregational singing in which all who come can take part. The choir will assist the pastor give a brief address. Last Sunday the pastor preached to the young and there was a Sunday school concert exercise in the evening.

—The Pettigrew case has taken another turn in the shape of a suit brought against Officer Shannon whose wages have been attached. Every fair minded person believes in equal justice and the vindication of character. The arrested man has had ample opportunity to present his side of the case and his friends have taken advantage of the avenues open for his defence. The officer has had no opportunity yet in the public prints and it is only fair to suspend judgment until such time as he may be enabled to tell his story to the public. The lower court is not regarded as a hippodrome of justice and that there must have been good evidence to warrant the decision in the Pettigrew case seems only a reasonable conclusion.

—The death of Mrs. H. A. Gane occurred at her residence on Waltham street, Saturday. The deceased was 75 years of age. She was the daughter of James Easterbrook, a descendant of an old New England family, and was born in Brattleboro, Vt. Mrs. Gane was a lady of pleasing domestic tastes, a lover of home and the beautiful in nature. She took great interest in floriculture. She was a woman of sympathetic instincts, and her charity was quietly and lovingly bestowed. Her death will be sincerely mourned but her memory will be ever fragrant with the association of good deeds and a well ordered life. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon, Rev. J. C. Jaynes officiating. The floral tributes included a beautiful pillow inscribed "Grandmother," a wreath of ferns and ivy leaves, and a cross composed of white lilies. The remains were interred in the family lot at Mt. Auburn.

—The meeting held in City Hall, Sunday afternoon, under the auspices of Loyalty Lodge of Good Templars, was a grand success. The hall was filled to its utmost capacity, seats having to be brought from the Congregational church in order to accommodate the vast audience. The program was filled with Good Templars, including the Marshall Scudder Juvenile Temple, composed of Pine Farm boys, representative members from Waltham, Watertown, Natick, Upper Falls, Nonantum, Boston, the Grand Chief Templar, Grand Conclaves and others. It was a very imposing spectacle as they were all decorated with badges or regalia. A fine musical program was presented, including five selections by Loyalty Lodge Quartet in three of which Mr. Dana Libby substituted for Mr. Rand. Two selections by the Pine Farm boys and five by Odd Fellows Quartet. The Pine Farm boys sang with their usual enthusiasm and added materially to the interest of the occasion. One of the most pleasing features of the program was the singing of Miss Fogg in her solo numbers. Loyalty Quartet is a strong combination possessing power and purity of tone. Loyalty Lodge is fortunate in possessing such talent as it not only adds greatly to the interest of their regular lodge meetings, but enables them to do good public work. Odd Fellows Quartet sang several of their most pleasing selections. They have become every year more popular in Odd Fellows Lodge, having done most of their work as yet in that order, being recently organized. Mr. Bowen, the Grand Chief Templar of Massachusetts, made a very eloquent and interesting address, which cannot fail to make an impression on the large audience assembled.

AUBURNDALE.

—Farley, pianos, 433 Wash. St. Newton.

—Mrs. Livermore will address W. C. T. U. meeting. See adv.

—The John Boyle O'Reilly Club Minstrels drew a large house, last night.

—There will be a vesper service at the Methodist church Sunday evening at 7.30.

—Mr. W. F. Hadlock has purchased a handsome and convenient new road wagon.

—Presiding Elder Chadbourne will address the meeting at the Methodist church this evening.

—Dr. F. E. Clark has leased and will occupy the house formerly owned by Mr. M. L. Leavitt, Auburn street.

—The Auburndale Fraternal Benefit Association already has twenty members. The by-laws will be out this week.

—Clinton Crandall, assistant baggage-master, will enter upon his new duties at station agent at Woodland, next Sunday.

—Rev. Walter C. Breed of Concord will be the preacher at the Church of the Messiah tonight, Friday, at the usual hour 7.45.

—Rev. Dr. John S. Lindsay, rector of St. Paul's church, Boston, will preach at the church of the Messiah on Tuesday next at 7.45 p. m. These Lenten services are of great interest and are largely attended.

—There are letters at the postoffice for Miss M. Barrett, Miss Mary Barry, Henry Boussey, Mr. G. B. Brown, Robert Brown, Mrs. M. P. Collins, Miss Della Harrington, Miss Mattie A. R. Jones, Miss M. McDonald, Mr. Martin Noonan.

—Last Sunday morning Rev. F. E. Clark, D. D., preached at the Methodist church. The assembly of the pastor was confined at home with a cold. The sermon was enjoyed by the large congregation present and the desire expressed to hear the doctor again.

—The Vilgawandten society of the Methodist church held a chicken-pie supper last evening and the many original ways in which money had been raised by members of the society, each of whom previously pledged themselves to earn $1.00 out of their business or method of procuring money, was reported and proved very interesting.

—At Sunday's services at the Church of the Messiah, the rector, Rev. John Matteson, announced that the vestry had appointed a committee to take the matter of building the new church in charge and arrange preliminaries. Land was bought some two years ago and various sums of money have been raised and more promised as a nucleus for a new building. Elaborate architectural designs were prepared by the late Charles Edward Parker, but since his death nothing has been done. Now the increasing attendance at worship more than fills the present chapel and Sunday service has compelled action. Rev. John Matteson, the rector, has the unqualified support of the entire parish in the undertaking, and all who contribute to the fund are guaranteed. The bishop visits the parish Tuesday evening, March 29.

—The Boston Transcript says that Mr. J. O. Bishop, a prominent and wealthy member of Brookfield Street Methodist Episcopal church, Boston, Mass., by a unanimous vote of a committee of members of the society, expelled from the church, Tuesday night. The charges against him were, first, having neglected the means of grace as afforded by the society; second, he was a member; second, having failed to contribute to the support of the church; third, having failed to contribute to the support of the gospel and of the benevolent, temperance and other societies. Mr. Bishop showed that he had been out of this state most of the time since July, 1888, being over a year and a half in Europe, and that he had attended a Methodist church in the place where he has lived since April, 1891, and that he has subscribed liberally to this church. The pastor said that a layman could not consult his own views, but that he should consult the church he should attend but Mr. Bishop will appeal to the conference, which is to be held in about three weeks.

—The Boston Transcript says that Mr. J. O. Bishop, a prominent and wealthy member of Brookfield Street Methodist Episcopal church, Boston, Mass., by a unanimous vote of a committee of members of the society, expelled from the church, Tuesday night. The charges against him were, first, having neglected the means of grace as afforded by the society; second, he was a member; second, having failed to contribute to the support of the church; third, having failed to contribute to the support of the gospel and of the benevolent, temperance and other societies. Mr. Bishop showed that he had been out of this state most of the time since July, 1888, being over a year and a half in Europe, and that he had attended a Methodist church in the place where he has lived since April, 1891, and that he has subscribed liberally to this church. The pastor said that a layman could not consult his own views, but that he should consult the church he should attend but Mr. Bishop will appeal to the conference, which is to be held in about three weeks.

—The Boston Transcript says that Mr. J. O. Bishop, a prominent and wealthy member of Brookfield Street Methodist Episcopal church, Boston, Mass., by a unanimous vote of a committee of members of the society, expelled from the church, Tuesday night. The charges against him were, first, having neglected the means of grace as afforded by the society; second, he was a member; second, having failed to contribute to the support of the church; third, having failed to contribute to the support of the gospel and of the benevolent, temperance and other societies. Mr. Bishop showed that he had been out of this state most of the time since July, 1888, being over a year and a half in Europe, and that he had attended a Methodist church in the place where he has lived since April, 1891, and that he has subscribed liberally to this church. The pastor said that a layman could not consult his own views, but that he should consult the church he should attend but Mr. Bishop will appeal to the conference, which is to be held in about three weeks.

—The Boston Transcript says that Mr. J. O. Bishop, a prominent and wealthy member of Brookfield Street Methodist Episcopal church, Boston, Mass., by a unanimous vote of a committee of members of the society, expelled from the church, Tuesday night. The charges against him were, first, having neglected the means of grace as afforded by the society; second, he was a member; second, having failed to contribute to the support of the church; third, having failed to contribute to the support of the gospel and of the benevolent, temperance and other societies. Mr. Bishop showed that he had been out of this state most of the time since July, 1888, being over a year and a half in Europe, and that he had attended a Methodist church in the place where he has lived since April, 1891, and that he has subscribed liberally to this church. The pastor said that a layman could not consult his own views, but that he should consult the church he should attend but Mr. Bishop will appeal to the conference, which is to be held in about three weeks.

—The Boston Transcript says that Mr. J. O. Bishop, a prominent and wealthy member of Brookfield Street Methodist Episcopal church, Boston, Mass., by a unanimous vote of a committee of members of the society, expelled from the church, Tuesday night. The charges against him were, first, having neglected the means of grace as afforded by the society; second, he was a member; second, having failed to contribute to the support of the church; third, having failed to contribute to the support of the gospel and of the benevolent, temperance and other societies. Mr. Bishop showed that he had been out of this state most of the time since July, 1888, being over a year and a half in Europe, and that he had attended a Methodist church in the place where he has lived since April, 1891, and that he has subscribed liberally to this church. The pastor said that a layman could not consult his own views, but that he should consult the church he should attend but Mr. Bishop will appeal to the conference, which is to be held in about three weeks.

—The Boston Transcript says that Mr. J. O. Bishop, a prominent and wealthy member of Brookfield Street Methodist Episcopal church, Boston, Mass., by a unanimous vote of a committee of members of the society, expelled from the church, Tuesday night. The charges against him were, first, having neglected the means of grace as afforded by the society; second, he was a member; second, having failed to contribute to the support of the church; third, having failed to contribute to the support of the gospel and of the benevolent, temperance and other societies. Mr. Bishop showed that he had been out of this state most of the time since July, 1888, being over a year and a half in Europe, and that he had attended a Methodist church in the place where he has lived since April, 1891, and that he has subscribed liberally to this church. The pastor said that a layman could not consult his own views, but that he should consult the church he should attend but Mr. Bishop will appeal to the conference, which is to be held in about three weeks.

—The Boston Transcript says that Mr. J. O. Bishop, a prominent and wealthy member of Brookfield Street Methodist Episcopal church, Boston, Mass., by a unanimous vote of a committee of members of the society, expelled from the church, Tuesday night. The charges against him were, first, having neglected the means of grace as afforded by the society; second, he was a member; second, having failed to contribute to the support of the church; third, having failed to contribute to the support of the gospel and of the benevolent, temperance and other societies. Mr. Bishop showed that he had been out of this state most of the time since July, 1888, being over a year and a half in Europe, and that he had attended a Methodist church in the place where he has lived since April, 1891, and that he has subscribed liberally to this church. The pastor said that a layman could not consult his own views, but that he should consult the church he should attend but Mr. Bishop will appeal to the conference, which is to be held in about three weeks.

—The Boston Transcript says that Mr. J. O. Bishop, a prominent and wealthy member of Brookfield Street Methodist Episcopal church, Boston, Mass., by a unanimous vote of a committee of members of the society, expelled from the church, Tuesday night. The charges against him were, first, having neglected the means of grace as afforded by the society; second, he was a member; second, having failed to contribute to the support of the church; third, having failed to contribute to the support of the gospel and of the benevolent, temperance and other societies. Mr. Bishop showed that he had been out of this state most of the time since July, 1888, being over a year and a half in Europe, and that he had attended a Methodist church in the place where he has lived since April, 1891, and that he has subscribed liberally to this church. The pastor said that a layman could not consult his own views, but that he should consult the church he should attend but Mr. Bishop will appeal to the conference, which is to be held in about three weeks.

—The Boston Transcript says that Mr. J. O. Bishop, a prominent and wealthy member of Brookfield Street Methodist Episcopal church, Boston, Mass., by a unanimous vote of a committee of members of the society, expelled from the church, Tuesday night. The charges against him were, first, having neglected the means of grace as afforded by the society; second, he was a member; second, having failed to contribute to the support of the church; third, having failed to contribute to the support of the gospel and of the benevolent, temperance and other societies. Mr. Bishop showed that he had been out of this state most of the time since July, 1888, being over a year and a half in Europe, and that he had attended a Methodist church in the place where he has lived since April, 1891, and that he has subscribed liberally to this church. The pastor said that a layman could not consult his own views, but that he should consult the church he should attend but Mr. Bishop will appeal to the conference, which is to be held in about three weeks.

—The Boston Transcript says that Mr. J. O. Bishop, a prominent and wealthy member of Brookfield Street Methodist Episcopal church, Boston, Mass., by a unanimous vote of a committee of members of the society, expelled from the church, Tuesday night. The charges against him were, first, having neglected the means of grace as afforded by the society; second, he was a member; second, having failed to contribute to the support of the church; third, having failed to contribute to the support of the gospel and of the benevolent, temperance and other societies. Mr. Bishop showed that he had been out of this state most of the time since July, 1888, being over a year and a half in Europe, and that he had attended a Methodist church in the place where he has lived since April, 1891, and that he has subscribed liberally to this church. The pastor said that a layman could not consult his own views, but that he should consult the church he should attend but Mr. Bishop will appeal to the conference, which is to be held in about three weeks.

—The Boston Transcript says that Mr. J. O. Bishop, a prominent and wealthy member of Brookfield Street Methodist Episcopal church, Boston, Mass., by a unanimous vote of a committee of members of the society, expelled from the church, Tuesday night. The charges against him were, first, having neglected the means of grace as afforded by the society; second, he was a member; second, having failed to contribute to the support of the church; third, having failed to contribute to the support of the gospel and of the benevolent, temperance and other societies. Mr. Bishop showed that he had been out of this state most of the time since July, 1888, being over a year and a half in Europe, and that he had attended a Methodist church in the place where he has lived since April, 1891, and that he has subscribed liberally to this church. The pastor said that a layman could not consult his own views, but that he should consult the church he should attend but Mr. Bishop will appeal to the conference, which is to be held in about three weeks.

—The Boston Transcript says that Mr. J. O. Bishop, a prominent and wealthy member of Brookfield Street Methodist Episcopal church, Boston, Mass., by a unanimous vote of a committee of members of the society, expelled from the church, Tuesday night. The charges against him were, first, having neglected the means of grace as afforded by the society; second, he was a member; second, having failed to contribute to the support of the church; third, having failed to contribute to the support of the gospel and of the benevolent, temperance and other societies. Mr. Bishop showed that he had been out of this state most of the time since July, 1888, being over a year and a half in Europe, and that he had attended a Methodist church in the place where he has lived since April, 1891, and that he has subscribed liberally to this church. The pastor said that a layman could not consult his own views, but that he should consult the church he should attend but Mr. Bishop will appeal to the conference, which is to be held in about three weeks.

—The Boston Transcript says that Mr. J. O. Bishop, a prominent and wealthy member of Brookfield Street Methodist Episcopal church, Boston, Mass., by a unanimous vote of a committee of members of the society, expelled from the church, Tuesday night. The charges against him were, first, having neglected the means of grace as afforded by the society; second, he was a member; second, having failed to contribute to the support of the church; third, having failed to contribute to the support of the gospel and of the benevolent, temperance and other societies. Mr. Bishop showed that he had been out of this state most of the time since July, 1888, being over a year and a half in Europe, and that he had attended a Methodist church in the place where he has lived since April, 1891, and that he has subscribed liberally to this church. The pastor said that a layman could not consult his own views, but that he should consult the church he should attend but Mr. Bishop will appeal to the conference, which is to be held in about three weeks.

—The Boston Transcript says that Mr. J. O. Bishop, a prominent and wealthy member of Brookfield Street Methodist Episcopal church, Boston, Mass., by a unanimous vote of a committee of members of the society, expelled from the church, Tuesday night. The charges against him were, first, having neglected the means of grace as afforded by the society; second, he was a member; second, having failed to contribute to the support of the church; third, having failed to contribute to the support of the gospel and of the benevolent, temperance and other societies. Mr. Bishop showed that he had been out of this state most of the time since July, 1888, being over a year and a half in Europe, and that he had attended a Methodist church in the place where he has lived since April, 1891, and that he has subscribed liberally to this church. The pastor said that a layman could not consult his own views, but that he should consult the church he should attend but Mr. Bishop will appeal to the conference, which is to be held in about three weeks.

—The Boston Transcript says that Mr. J. O. Bishop, a prominent and wealthy member of Brookfield Street Methodist Episcopal church, Boston, Mass., by a unanimous vote of a committee of members of the society, expelled from the church, Tuesday night. The charges against him were, first, having neglected the means of grace as afforded by the society; second, he was a member; second, having failed to contribute to the support of the church; third, having failed to contribute to the support of the gospel and of the benevolent, temperance and other societies. Mr. Bishop showed that he had been out of this state most of the time since July, 1888, being over a year and a half in Europe, and that he had attended a Methodist church in the place where he has lived since April, 1891, and that he has subscribed liberally to this church. The pastor said that a layman could not consult his own views, but that he should consult the church he should attend but Mr. Bishop will appeal to the conference, which is to be held in about three weeks.

—The Boston Transcript says that Mr. J. O. Bishop, a prominent and wealthy member of Brookfield Street Methodist Episcopal church, Boston, Mass., by a unanimous vote of a committee of members of the society, expelled from the church, Tuesday night. The charges against him were, first, having neglected the means of grace as afforded by the society; second, he was a member; second, having failed to contribute to the support of the church; third, having failed to contribute to the support of the gospel and of the benevolent, temperance and other societies. Mr. Bishop showed that he had been out of this state most of the time since July, 1888, being over a year and a half in Europe, and that he had attended a Methodist church in the place where he has lived since April, 1891, and that he has subscribed liberally to this church. The pastor said that a layman could not consult his own views, but that he should consult the church he should attend but Mr. Bishop will appeal to the conference, which is to be held in about three weeks.

—The Boston Transcript says that Mr. J. O. Bishop, a prominent and wealthy member of Brookfield Street Methodist Episcopal church, Boston, Mass., by a unanimous vote of a committee of members of the society, expelled from the church, Tuesday night. The charges against him were, first, having neglected the means of grace as afforded by the society; second, he was a member; second, having failed to contribute to the support of the church; third, having failed to contribute to the support of the gospel and of the benevolent, temperance and other societies. Mr. Bishop showed that he had been out of this state most of the time since July, 1888, being over a year and a half in Europe, and that he had attended a Methodist church in the place where he has lived since April, 1891, and that he has subscribed liberally to this church. The pastor said that a layman could not consult his own views, but that he should consult the church he should attend but Mr. Bishop will appeal to the conference, which is to be held in about three weeks.

—The Boston Transcript says that Mr. J. O. Bishop, a prominent and wealthy member of Brookfield Street Methodist Episcopal church, Boston, Mass., by a unanimous vote of a committee of members of the society, expelled from the church, Tuesday night. The charges against him were, first, having neglected the means of grace as afforded by the society; second, he was a member; second, having failed to contribute to the support of the church; third, having failed to contribute to the support of the gospel and of the benevolent, temperance and other societies. Mr. Bishop showed that he had been out of this state most of the time since July, 1888, being over a year and a half in Europe, and that he had attended a Methodist church in the place where he has lived since April, 1891, and that he has subscribed liberally to this church. The pastor said that a layman could not consult his own views, but that he should consult the church he should attend but Mr. Bishop will appeal to the conference, which is to be held in about three weeks.

—The Boston Transcript says that Mr. J. O. Bishop, a prominent and wealthy member of Brookfield Street Methodist Episcopal church, Boston, Mass., by a unanimous vote of a committee of members of the society, expelled from the church, Tuesday night. The charges against him were, first, having neglected the means of grace as afforded by the society; second, he was a member; second, having failed to contribute to the support of the church; third, having failed to contribute to the support of the gospel and of the benevolent, temperance and other societies. Mr. Bishop showed that he had been out of this state most of the time since July, 1888, being over a year and a half in Europe, and that he had attended a Methodist church in the place where he has lived since April, 1891, and that he has subscribed liberally to this church. The pastor said that a layman could not consult his own views, but that he should consult the church he should attend but Mr. Bishop will appeal to the conference, which is to be held in about three weeks.

—The Boston Transcript says that Mr. J. O. Bishop, a prominent and wealthy member of Brookfield Street Methodist Episcopal church, Boston, Mass., by a unanimous vote of a committee of members of the society, expelled from the church, Tuesday night. The charges against him were, first, having neglected the means of grace as

WHAT TO EAT

is a difficult problem with many people because but few articles of food agree with them. The doctor says

AVOID GREASE and the result is unpalatable food. The reason the physician objects to grease is because lard is the article most used, and every physician knows that hog grease in any shape is unhealthy and indigestible.

Every one interested in pure and healthful food hails with joy the new product which is composed of pure cottonseed oil and pure beef suet—nothing else—not even salt. It is better than either lard or butter for all cooking purposes, and one pound of Cottoline will do as much as two pounds of lard or butter, and it costs less than either.

COTTOLINE

Every housekeeper that tries Cottoline will find in it just what she wants.

Beware of imitations—get the genuine of your grocer.

N. K. FAIRBANK & CO.,
CHICAGO, and
5 Central Wharf, Boston.

SULPHUR BITTERS

Will cure
The worst cases
Of Skin Disease
From a Common Pimple
On the Face
To that awful Disease
Scrofula.

Try a bottle
To-day.

and 3-cent stamps to A. P. Ordway & Co., Boston, Mass., for best medical work published.

GEO. W. BUSH,
Funeral and Furnishing
UNDERTAKER,
ELMWOOD STREET, NEWTON.
Coffins, Caskets, Robes.
And every modern requisite for the proper performance of the business constantly on hand. Orders by telephone promptly attended to.

W. M. H. PHILLIPS
I could respectfully inform the citizens of Newton that we can be found at the above place, and will attend to all orders personally. Having had over twenty years' experience in the business, I trust I can attend to all calls that may come under my direction, to the satisfaction of all parties who may require the services of an undertaker. 11

S. K. MacLEOD
Carpenter and Builder.
Jobbing of all kinds neatly and promptly executed.
Bathrooms and Fittings for Plumber's Work a Specialty.
Shop, Centre Place, op. Public Library
Residence, Boyd Street, near Jewett.
P. O. Box, 559, NEWTON, MASS.

RHEUMATISM AND KIDNEY COMPLAINT
Cured by
DR. DAM'S VEGETABLE REMEDY
All Grocers sell and warrant it.

DO YOU COUGH
DON'T DELAY TAKE KEMP'S
BALSAM
THE BEST COUGH
CURE

It Cures Coughs, Sore Throat, Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Asthma. A certain cure for Consumption in first stage, and a sure relief in advanced stages. Use at once. You will see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Sold by dealers every where. Larger bottles, 50 cents and $1.00.

Signs of Spring.
Sound of gusty driving rain.
When we wake at midnight hour,
Ice tipped branches on the pane
Beating music to the show'r.
Crows that caw from steaming woods,
Robins piping in the glades,
Buds that from their winter noods
Peep and blush like pretty maids.
Grateful odors of damp earth,
Boisterous glee of muddy rills,
Shouting, bawling in her mirth,
Down the bare flanks of the hills.
Here and there a crocus' head
Thrusting up to dare the cold,
While its sisters, warm in bed,
Stir their coverlets of mold.
Spring is coming; spring is near;
She is whirling in the air,
Soon the blithe nymph will be here,
Shaking blossoms from her hair.
—James Buchanan in Harper's Bazar.

Signs of Spring in a City.
The present forward weather seems to be a great reason for the small boy. He gets more solid enjoyment out of the warm days and the dry sidewalks than the street cleaning department of the board of public works. Every small boy who is anybody down on the heights has a pair of roller skates and a good strong pair of lungs. These boys play hockey on the asphalt pavement of that exclusive quarter, catch rides on the backs of grocery wagons and keep up a constant and eternal yelling. Why they yell does not appear. It is perhaps because a small boy cannot do much of anything without yelling. These boys go scurrying around corners on their skates in imminent danger of cracking their own skulls and to the great terror of passers by. They dodge under the heads of spirited coach horses and altogether make a fresh and healthy nuisance of themselves.

Those poorer boys who are not wealthy enough to afford each a pair of roller skates, split up a pair between two and go about pushing the wheeled foot in front of them, evidently having as much fun as the rest. The whipping top is also now much in vogue, and the tops and the rollers make life a burden to the nursemaids with their perambulators and babies and the policeman on the corner.—Brooklyn Eagle.

An American Absentee Landlord.
One of the principal arguments advanced in favor of deer forests is that those who are able to indulge in that luxury spend much money in the Highlands. But how if sportsmen insist on maintaining forest grounds and never visit them? Mr. Winans, whose sporting territory extends from the Beaulieu Firth to the Atlantic—from sea to sea, in fact—has not shot over the land once during the past four years, and as the deer have in consequence multiplied enormously, the crofters of the district have resolved to ask the millionaire to allow them a day's shooting.
The application is doubtless made more with the view of bringing the crofters' grievances before the public than anything else, for it is sure to be ignored. But the continued absence of Mr. Winans raises a wider and more important question: Can the setting aside of a great stretch of country as deer forests which are never shot over be justified on any ground whatever?—Pall Mall Gazette.

Result of Deep Study.
A wealthy newspaper man who lives in Brooklyn has a six-year-old daughter who possesses an alert and inquiring mind. Recently she has become a close student of the almanac. She keeps the family posted on the weather and is well informed regarding all of the church days and the public holidays. One morning she overheard her mother inquiring whether the asman was likely to make his rounds that day. Before the servant could reply the little girl piped up, "Oh, no, mamma, the asman won't be here until the 24 of March."
"Why, yes, my child," said the mother; "he certainly must come today or tomorrow."
"But he can't," persisted the little one. "Cause that is his day."
"What do you mean, dear?" asked the mother, somewhat puzzled.
"Here it is in the almanac," said the child. "See, March 2 is Ash Wednesday."—New York Times.

A Brave Man.
Charles Mungenot, a young engineer on board the ironclad Admiral Baudin, has just had his right hand amputated at the Toulon military hospital as the result of injuries received in the following remarkable manner: He was starting the engines on the vessel, in accordance with instructions, when his hand caught in the machinery. To have withdrawn it at that particular moment might have caused a serious accident to the big ironclad and thus have endangered the lives of everybody on board. With extraordinary courage and sangfroid the brave fellow, who is only twenty-one years of age, did not move until all danger was averted, by which time his hand was literally torn to pieces. He will be recommended for the military medal.—Galignani Messenger.

An American Composer in England.
America is not generally looked upon as the home of composers, but possibly this is rather due to the narrowness of our vision than to any lack of productive capacity. There is just now in England an American lyrical composer whose achievements as a song writer deserve for him a place among the best of contemporary workers in a somewhat wide field. Mr. Sebastian B. Schlesinger combines in no common way the traditions of the creators of German song and the freedom from convention which is the birthright of American citizens.—London Sun.

A Sacramento genius has evolved a fire escape in the shape of a toboggan slide. It is an iron flume circling around a post. The surface is smooth, so that the slider will not gather a harvest of steel shivers.

The wonderful growth of the industry of wool raising is shown from the fact that the Argentine Republic with this year raise 400,000 bales of this article, valued at $40,000,000.

NEWTON FREE LIBRARY.

LIST OF NEW BOOKS.

- Baedeker, K. Egypt Handbook or Travellers' Part Second, Upper Egypt, with Nubia, as far as the Second Cataract and the Western Nile. Vol. 2. 31.112
- Bailou, M. M. Equatorial America: Descriptive of a Visit to St. Thomas, Martinique, Barbadoes, and the Principal Capitals of South America. 33.418
- Barrie, J. M. The Little Minister. 62.911
- Bonyat, G. Across Tibet; being a Translation of "De Paris au Tonkin" a travers le Tibet Inconnu; trans. by C. B. Pictan. 37.245
- Clinch, G. Mayfair and Belgrave; being an Historical Account of the Parish of St. George, Hanover Square. 77.190
- Crawford, R. F., ed. Berge's Complete Natural History of the Animal, Mineral and Vegetable Kingdom. 104.432
- Fisher, A. B. Buckley and Moral Teachings of Science. 91.714
- Intended for "those who, feeling puzzled and adrift in the present chaos of opinion, may welcome even a partial solution from a scientific point of view of the difficulties which oppress their minds."—Frederic.
- Flarsheim, M. Rent, Interest and Wages; or the Real Bearings of the Land Question. 182.60
- Imbert de Saint-Amad, A. L. The Youth of the Duchess of Angoulême; trans. by E. G. Martin. 93.571
- Locke, J. Philosophy of Locke, in Extracts from the Essay concerning Human Understanding arranged with Introductory Notes by J. E. Russell. 55.441
- Mead, C. M. Supernatural Revelation; an Essay concerning the Basis of the Christian Faith. 97.292
- Murray, A. S. Handbook of Greek Archaeology. 104.440
- Vases, bronzes, sculpture, terra cotta, mural paintings, architecture, etc. 93.574
- Præger, F. Wagner as I Knew him. The writer, for half a century an intimate friend of Wagner, considers him "the greatest art personality of this century."—Frederic.
- Prince, J. T. Courses and Methods; a Handbook for Teachers of Primary, Grammar and Ungraded Schools. 82.107
- Hints and suggestions as to good methods of organization and teaching.
- Pris; by the author of Miss Toosey's Mission. 61.804
- Ralston, W. R. S. The Songs of the Russian People, as Illustrative of Slavonic Mythology and Russian Social Life. 66.318
- Royce, J. The Spirit of Modern Philosophy; an Essay in the Form of Lectures. 55.450
- Sloane, T. O. C. Electric Toy Making for Amateurs. 101.604
- Including batteries, magnets, motors, miscellaneous toys and dynamo construction.
- Sturges, H. Tim. Sweetser, M. F. King's Handbook of the United States; planned and edited by Moses King. 33.419
- Trent, J. P. William Gilmore Simms, an American Man of Letters. 91.713
- Walford, E. Chapters from Family Chests. 2 vols. 91.699
- Whitney, A. D. T. A Golden Gossip; a Neighborhood Story Gossip. 63.941
- Wilkins, M. E. The Pot of Gold, and other Stories. 62.916
- Wilmut, S. E. The Development of Navies, during the Last Half-Century. 73.254
- Popularly written account of the development of our own ships of war and the naval armaments in England and other countries, with a description of the principal operations in which squadrons and single ships have engaged.
- E. P. THURSTON, Librarian.

Mar. 16, 1892.
A cold of unusual severity developed in a delicate child, characterized by its characteristics, threatening a return of my old chronic melody, catarrh. One bottle of Ely's Cream Balm completely eradicated every symptom of that painful and prevailing disorder.—E. W. Warner, Rochester, N. Y.

The Barrett Boom.

One of the best known Republicans of the state who is becoming nervous about the senatorship tells me that the party ought to call a special convention to settle the matter, and then have the members of the next Legislature bound by it. He is afraid of Barrett, and yet does not want to admit that Barrett is strong by making a great effort to defeat him. It is beginning to be seen that Barrett's position as speaker and distributor of committee places for the men who have the election of senators in their hands is very strong, and from what has been said here to-day it appears as if his support was growing. The office happens to be in the senatorial line which included Daniel Webster and Charles Sumner. Some people are distressed at the thought of seeing the names of Webster, Sumner and Barrett associated in the highest place in the gift of the state, but others do not find anything incongruous in it, and so the Barrett boom grows. It is said to-day that Lodge has been here several times, and it is related that Barrett has sent Lodge word that he cannot have the senatorship. Perhaps this is no historical fact, however. One of the opponents of Barrett believes that John D. Long ought to be elected to the House next fall for the express purpose of being speaker, and so of taking Barrett's committee distribution out of his hands. It is a delicate situation. If the active canvass is begun, Barrett is as smart as any of them. It is not begun soon he will get ahead of them in any event.—Boston Cor. Springfield Republic.

Mortgagee's Sale of Real Estate.

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Isaac McLellan to Francis Jones, dated April 1st, 1872, and recorded in the Registry of Deeds for the County of Middlesex South of No. 1477, to be sold at public auction, for the breach of the conditions in said mortgage, on the premises, Tuesday the twenty-second day of March 1892, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, except parts heretofore released or mortgaged, a certain piece of land situated in that part of Newton in the County of Middlesex near Newton Highlands Station, bounded and described as follows: Northerly by Winchester Street, 250 feet; Southwesterly by land now or late of Nancy Thornton, 112 feet; Southeasterly by land now or late of J. S. O. 144 feet; and Northeasterly by land now or late of Sally Mitchell, 102 feet, subject to any unpaid taxes, $500.00, will be required to be paid in cash by the purchaser at time and place of sale. HELEN P. SPANGLER, Assignee and present holder of said mortgage.

When I began using Ely's Cream Balm my catarrh was so bad I had headache the whole time and discharged a large amount of filthy matter. That has almost entirely disappeared and I have not had headache since.—J. H. Sommers, Stephentown, Conn.

Didn't Know Kitty was Married.
Ethel is seven years of age, and lives in aristocratic Boston suburb. Betty is the family cat, when she becomes the proud mother of four or five little white balls, they usually first see the light in the stable. The last litter appeared not long ago and Betty found a very comfortable place for them in the family sleigh. They made such a pretty sight that Ethel was taken out by her aunt to look at them.
"Oh, the pretty kittens," she cried. "Whose are they?"
"Why remarked Aunt Emma, "those are Betty's new babies."
"Oh, auntie, that can't be," said the 7-year-old, with wondering surprise in her bright blue eyes. "Don't you know that Betty isn't married?"—Boston Herald.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Blood poisoned by diphtheria, the Grip, typhoid fever, scarlet fever, etc., is made pure and healthy by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Made well
—the weak, nervous or ailing woman who takes Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It's a medicine that's guaranteed to help her. It's an invigorating, restorative tonic, soothing cordial and bracing nerve— and a certain cure for all the functional derangements, painful disorders or chronic weaknesses that affect women. For ulcerations, displacements, bearing-down sensations, everything that's known as a "female complaint," it's an unfailing remedy. It's a peculiar one, too. Peculiar in composition, peculiar in its cures, and peculiar in the way it's sold. It's guaranteed to give satisfaction, in every case, or the money is refunded. You pay only for the good you get.

It's the big, old-fashioned pill that makes the most disturbance—but it's one of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets that does the most good. Mild and gentle, but thorough and effective—the smallest, cheapest and easiest to take. They cleanse and regulate the liver, stomach and bowels.

The Best Remedy
In this world, says J. H. Hoffer of Syracuse, N. Y., is Pastor Koening's Nerve Tonic, because my son, who was partially paralyzed three years ago and attacked by fits, has not had any symptoms of them since he took one bottle of the remedy. I most heartily thank for it.

Nervous Prostration, Sleeplessness, and Weakness.
Pastor Koening, Quaker, Oct. 1, 90.
The Pastor Koening's Nerve Tonic I ordered was for a young lady of my household, who was almost useless to herself and others, owing to nervous prostration, sleeplessness, weakness, etc. 30. To-day there is quite a change. The young person is much better, stronger, and less nervous. She will continue to use your medicine. I think it is very good. REV. P. SARVIE.

FREE
A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases sent free to any address and poor patients can also obtain this medicine free of charge.
This remedy has been prepared by the Reverend Pastor Koening, of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1876, and is used under his direction by the

KOENIG MED. CO., Chicago, Ill.
Sold by Druggists at $1 per Bottle. 6 for $5. Large Size, $1.75. 6 Bottles for $9.

Meat, Poultry and Game

"THE CHOICEST" OUR MOTTO.

The Newton Market

Established in 1851 and located pleasantly at NOS. 7 AND 8 COLE'S BLOCK, has constantly on hand a Large and Choice Supply of Meats, Poultry and Game.

W. H. BRACKETT,
Proprietor. Telephone 7854

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrup, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.
"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
Dr. G. C. Osgood, Lowell, Mass.
"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
Dr. J. F. KINCHLOE, Conway, Ark.
Castoria.
"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.
"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outdoor practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
UNITED HOSPITAL AND DISPENSARY, Boston, Mass.
ALLEN C. SMITH, Pres.,
The Centaur Company, 77 Murray Street, New York City.

Ely's Cream Balm For CATARRH THE POSITIVE CURE.

Dr. James M. Solomon, Jr.'s Botanical Medical Institute, 75 Court St. (Scollay Sq.), Boston, Mass.
INDIAN BOTANICAL REMEDIES
Roots, Herbs, Gums and Barks chiefly used. Dr. Solomon treats all Chronic Diseases, makes a specialty of Lung troubles, Cancers, Tumors, Eczema, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Spinal Complaints, Hemorrhage of Lungs, Eczema and all Skin Diseases, Kidney and Liver Troubles, and all Diseases of the Blood, Piles and Fistula cure without the use of the knife and cure guaranteed. Consultation free.

Notice to Coachmen. COLUMBIA POLISH

for cleaning Brass, Silver, all kind of Metals, Glass and Patent Leather.
For sale by C. CAMPBELL, Hardware, 271 Washington St. Newton. 491

LADIES AND GENTS BOOTS

Made to fit any shaped foot, stylish if you wish or neat, plain and comfortable if desired. If you feel trouble you try a pair of boots made on my new natural last, and don't suffer any longer. Full line of Ladies' Gents' and Children's Boots, Shoes and Rubbers kept on hand, at bottom prices.
A. L. RHYND, 265 Washington St., Newton

Gold Silver Bronze Medals
The highest honors have been awarded for these instruments.
Bay State Guitars,
MANDOLINS and BANJOS; also Wm. B. Tilton & Haynes Excelsior Guitars. Send for Catalogue or all Musical Instruments.
J. C. HAYNES & CO.

NEWTON COAL CO.

—SUCCESSORS TO—
HILLS, BULLENS & CO.
—DEALERS IN—
COAL & WOOD

Family Orders a Specialty.
OFFICE, ELIOT BLOCK.
Branch Office, Tainter's News Stand, Newtonville.
E. BRADSHAW, Agent for Newtonville.

TEETH

$10 a SET. Guaranteed.
Extracted painlessly. All other dental operations performed at equally low rates.
DR. W. H. DUDLEY, 122 Boylston St., between Tremont St. and Park Square, up one flight.
ROOM 7. IN REAR.

WEST END STREET RAILWAY COMPANY.

Newton to Bowdoin Square
WEEK DAY TIME.
First car leaves Newton 5.50 A. M., then every thirty minutes until 9.50 P. M.
Returning leave Bowdoin Square 7.00 A. M. and every thirty minutes until 11.00 P. M.

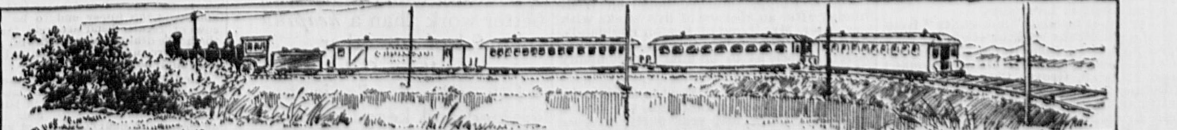

SUNDAY TIME.
First car leaves Newton 7.50 A. M., then every thirty minutes until 9.50 P. M.
Returning leave Bowdoin Square 8.30 A. M. and every thirty minutes until 11.00 P. M.
First car for Boston leaves Watertown at 7.25 A. M.
F. H. MONKS, General Manager

ESTABLISHED IN 1866. T. J. HARTNETT, PLUMBER & SANITARY ENGINEER.

Iron Drainage and Ventilation a Specialty.
Jobbing promptly attended to.
373 CENTRE STREET, NEWTON.

YOUR ORDER for any kind of JOB PRINTING, at the Graphic Office.

Leave
at the Graphic Office.

Daily . . . 50c. a Month. THE BEST RAILROAD NEWS IN Sunday . . . $2.00 a Year.
THE BOSTON HERALD —and— THE SUNDAY HERALD.

WALTER THORPE, Newton Centre
Agent for the GRAPHIC, and receives subscriptions and makes collections for it. He also makes terms for advertising, hand-bills, and all other kinds of printing. Also, Real Estate to sell and to rent, and insurance against fire in the best English and American companies.

NEWTON CENTRE.

—The hydrants have been painted.
—Farley, pianos, 433 Wash. St., Newton.
—Mrs. F. H. Scudder of Bowen street is quite ill.
—Mrs. Livermore will address W. C. T. U. meeting. See adv.
—Mr. Melvin Ware has returned to the employ of Mr. James Carey.
—Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. David Clark. A baby boy came to them on Saturday.
—Mr. Edward Stearns of Billerica is visiting his father, Mr. Carey, Dedham street.
—Mr. A. L. Wadsworth, assistant professor on "The Hill," preached at Rockland last Sunday.
—Mr. George F. Richardson has purchased Mrs. Levi C. Wade's pony for the use of his son.

—Officer Fletcher has been in Boston on court business this week, and Officer Moulton took his place.

—The Rev. D. A. Morehouse has supplied the pulpit for the Congregational church at Orleans, Mass., during the winter.

—Mrs. Adelbert Stone has left the employ of Mr. Chas. Hall, Dedham street, and accepted a position with Mr. Dow, Brookline.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Davis left for Washington, Dc., on Wednesday, and will visit their daughter in New York before their return.

—The Oak Hill party, Tuesday evening, was attended by about 40 couples, visitors coming from West Roxbury, Roslindale and Boston.

—The house recently vacated by Mr. E. N. Wright, Rice street, has been purchased by Mrs. E. N. Hill's father of Hyde Park, who will occupy it.

—The Oak Hill Whist Club met with Mr. and Mrs. Wiswall Friday evening. The prizes were captured by Mr. Stone and Miss Maynard.

—Chapman & Fraser were the architects of C. S. Crane's new double house on Newtonville avenue, which is 70x32 feet, and old colonial in style.

—There are letters in the postoffice for James Doherty, Mr. R. A. Gee, Mrs. J. King, Frank Peters, Bridget Sullivan, Thomas Troy, Chas. D. Williams.

—The engagement of Mr. Edward McAdams to Miss Maggie Collins of this ward is announced. Also of Mr. Fred Berry and Miss Addie Carver of Camden, Me.

—An interesting and successful entertainment was given last evening in Associates Hall, under the auspices of the Church Debt Society of the Sacred Heart.

—Providence, Norfolk and New York societies, clams, salad, wild ducks, French mustard, prunes, olives, cucumber pickles, Porter House steak at Richardson's.

—The Ordu Whist Club met last Thursday and spent the evening playing Duplicate Whist. This was their thirteenth meeting and strangely enough both tables came out even.

—Mr. J. Frank McKee was taken suddenly ill Friday and has since been in a very critical state, his recovery at one time being almost despaired of. He is under the care of Drs. Sylvester and May.

—At the Methodist church next Sunday evening the pastor will give his fourth lecture on hymn writers and their hymns, subject, "Henry Francis Lyte and his Hymns." Services will commence at 7 o'clock. Seats free. All cordially invited.

—The Boston Sunday Globe had an excellent picture of ex-Mayor Burr's two little sons, with a charming account of their funny sayings and doings, but Mayor Burr's friends can recall some of their sayings much more amusing than any quoted by the Globe.

—The first social of the "Elite" of Oak Hill was given in Oak Hill Hall, Tuesday evening. The grand march formed at 9 o'clock, led by Mr. H. C. Esty and Miss Maynard and was participated in by about thirty-two couples. During the evening a dainty collation was served.

—Mention has been made in a local paper that a bid for the erection of a new collection of wall matter would be quite a convenience. We learn that Postmaster Ellis has had such a scheme in mind for a long time, and desirous of doing all he can for the public accommodation, has already written the department at Washington concerning the erection of a bar at that place, and hopes that soon he may receive a favorable response to his application.

—The Cambridge school committee being anxious to improve its course of study for the grammar school, Mr. H. C. Esty, a graduate of the D. S. Farnham to meet the board and a few invited guests at his residence last Thursday evening, to explain the working of the advanced educational thought as carried out in the celebrated William H. Lincoln school of which he is principal. This was certainly a great honor for a grammar school principal.

SUPREME COURT SESSION.

MR. S. A. SHANNON OF NEWTON'S 400 TRIED AND FOUND GUILTY.

The spring session of the Newton Centre Improvement Association's Mock Supreme Court, which was set for the 10th of March, 1892, was called Wednesday evening in Associates Hall, Newton Centre.

The most interesting case on the court docket was the arraignment of Mr. Samuel Shannon, one of the most prominent of Newton's "400," and a resident of the wealthy Lake View section of the metropolis, for the purloining of an antiquated Plymouth Rock rooster, with a history dating from the time of Adam.

The court room was completely filled with friends of the prisoner, and those who came out of mere curiosity, in a case implicating so prominent a member of society in a crime so far beneath the dignity of his position.

Judge Theodore Nickerson entered the court at 8 o'clock, and the court came to order.

As clerk of the court, E. H. Mason arose to read the warrant, after Mr. Shannon had been conducted to the stand by Officer Ulmer, a hush of expectancy fell upon the audience, who awaited the first words which should open a case which had bid fair to rival the famous Baccarat scandal.

The warrant set forth that Samuel A. Shannon had feloniously purloined one Plymouth Rock rooster, valued at $10, from one Amos E. Lawrence.

The prisoner pleaded "not guilty" from behind a ponderous walking stick. The jury were then impaneled as follows and sworn: R. Q. Mills, foreman; Chas. F. Crisp, Grover Cleveland, James G. Blaine, John Sherman, Wm. McKinley, B. F. Butler, W. E. Russell, John L. Sullivan, Rising Sun Morse, and D. B. Hill, their representatives being Messrs. Samuel Ward, foreman; A. R. Flanders, W. F. Harbach, W. M. Bartholomew, J. H. Daniels, E. M. Fowle, E. F.

Melcher, Benj. Hammond, J. M. English, C. H. Corken and W. B. Young.

The prosecuting attorney was Capt. A. V. Newton, and A. S. Perry, Esq., were retained by the defendant.

The witnesses, C. C. Barton, C. M. Ransom, M.D., W. E. Webster, and S. M. Tourtelot were sworn, and Mr. Lawrence, the prosecutor, was first called.

He testified that his former occupation consisted in feeding, fattening and grooming his Plymouth Rock rooster. He told the story of his ancestry, the fowl receiving its name from Adam, later spending 40 days and nights in the ark with Noah, and finally coming over in the Mayflower and landing at Plymouth, the rock being named in honor of the fowl. Mr. Lawrence was visibly affected throughout his testimony, and could with difficulty, apparently, control his feelings.

He had caught the defendant perched upon his hen house with the rooster in his claws on Friday evening, Dec. 24th, and threw pieces of wood at him until he hit the bag, and his heart had been rent with anguish at hearing the beloved voice of his idolized companion, the rooster. But the villain escaped with the fowl.

Leo B. Thomas testified that he lived on Beacon street, and was a married man. [Laughter.] He met a man with a sack the evening of Dec. 24. The man jumped as high as Langdon Ward would want to jump to catch his train. [Laughter.] And he followed, getting struck by the bag, and hearing a noise, which he recognized as his own, the Plymouth Rock rooster. He followed the man to the house, recognized the prisoner, and saw the rooster after the lamp was lighted.

Mr. A. J. Harwood met him at the depot one day and sold him, on the sly, a ticket to a cock fight in the Congregational church sheds. He saw Mr. Shannon with the Plymouth Rock rooster and other sports, Dwight Chester, Dr. Hovey and Dr. Farber were there [laughter]. Shannon bet $10 his rooster would win.

Cross-examined—Did not call for police when following the man for fear of waking him. [Laughter.]

W. E. Webster knew prisoner, and that he was ill with the hen fever in England 40 years ago. Being a believer in homeopathy, the prisoner took herbs to cure the hen fever. Always thought he would come to some bad end, to prison or Congress. Pretty bad end man last winter. [Laughter.]

Officer G. Ulmer testified to arresting prisoner. Got a clue to the cock fight main at Cary Cross, where he overheard Newton Centre sports and bloods talking. He was able to follow so easy a clue. Did not arrest prisoner at the fight, he ran. Did not go after him, happened to meet him. [Laughter.]

Cross-examined—Following clue greatly taxed his brain. [Laughter.] The police sleep nights; makes them grow. [Laughter.]

The witnesses for the defendant were sworn.

Mr. Shannon, the prisoner, said his name was "Shannon." Was not born, he "grewed." By occupation a "dumwimer." He knew Mr. Lawrence. Was down to see one of the "boys" of his society who was sick on the night in question. Went on there to the "Admission Society of the Golden Gwail." On the way home met a gentleman who walked with difficulty. Thought at first he was intoxicated.

Counsel—Pointing to Thomas, "Is that the man there with the heavy mustache?" [Laughter.]

Prisoner—After adjusting his glass and gazing. "Ye-eth."

He helped the man home and stood him up against the door. When he reached home he said "Good evening, dear." To Mrs. Shannon. "She went on—I didn't say anything more." [Laughter.]

Witness continued, bought the rooster of Mr. C. C. Barton. Prisoner asked if he was present at the fight near the church, said he was. Counsel became agitated.

The question was repeated in various forms always bringing the same answer to the great distress of defendant's counsel.

The witness finally went on and stated that the fowl was very knowing and a "very fast wunner." Run faster than Mr. Barton did on the school board. [Laughter.]

Shannon, identified positively by the absence of a tooth extracted by Dr. Kansom. S. M. Tourtelot heard a conversation between Thomas and Webster in which Thomas said he had a grudge against Shannon and should come into court and testify against him.

Mr. Perry delivered his argument before the court in a highly dramatic and impressive way and was followed by Captain Newman.

The judge charged the jury and after a short consultation they returned the verdict of "guilty."

Sentence was then imposed by the judge, that said S. A. Shannon shall shave off his mustache and be confined for 60 days in an ice-chest along with the Plymouth Rock rooster. The court stood adjourned.

NEWTON HIGHLANDS.

—Farley, pianos, 433 Wash. St., Newton.

—The Chautauque Circle will meet next Monday with Miss Baeal.

—Rev. Mr. Jaynes of West Newton will conduct the Unitarian services next Sunday.

—The Monday Club will hold its next meeting with Mrs. Lovering, on Floral avenue.

—Mr. J. O. Ransom and wife have taken board and rooms with Mr. W. F. Hatch in Patterson's block.

—Mr. Geo. Smith, who has occupied the Craft street house for the past few months, has returned to Brighton.

—Mr. Clarence E. Thompson of Boylston street, near Eliot station, has stored his household goods and has left the Highlands.

—Second annual tea of the West End Literary Club this week at Mrs. Carbone's.

—Next Thursday the Club will meet with Miss Kate Manson.

—A large will leave here at 7 o'clock, Monday evening, Mar. 21st, to carry those brothers wishing to attend the opening of the new tribe, I. O. R. M., at Needham.

—Services as usual at the M. E. church Sunday morning at 10.45, preaching by the pastor, subject, "The Right Way." In the evening at 7, Dr. McKewen of Newton will preach.

—Mr. John G. Wholley, the noted Temperance Orator, will speak on the subject of temperance at the Congregational church on Thursday evening, March 24th, at 7.45. The public are cordially invited.

—Mrs. Phipps returned home on Wednesday after an absence of five weeks with her sister, Mrs. Lord of Boston Highlands. Mrs. Lord has so far recovered from her severe illness as to be able to accompany Mrs. Phipps to her home.

—The gentlemen of Newton Highlands, appreciating the kindness of the young ladies in giving a leap year party, propose giving a return party Friday evening, April 1st. We hope all gentlemen will exert themselves to make this, in every way, equal to the previous party.

—The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor held a social at the Congregational chapel on Wednesday evening, to which all the young people of the village over fourteen years of age, and children. A large number were present, a light collation was partaken of, and all had a happy time.

—The funeral of Mr. Samuel Newell Woodward, whose death occurred on Sunday morning, at the age of 73 years, took place this his late residence, Tuesday, at a large number of relatives and friends being present. Rev. Mr. Furber, pastor emeritus, and Rev. Mr. Holmes of the First church and Rev. Mr. Phelps of the Highlands church conducted the service. Interment at Centre street cemetery. Mr. Woodward was one of the first deacons of the Highlands Congregational church. He was of the sixth generation who have lived and died in the old mansion, which was built in 1681, and is probably the oldest house in Newton.

—The funeral of Mr. Percy C. Clancy, who was accidentally killed on Saturday last, at the age of 19 years, took place from the home of the family on Woodward street, on Tuesday. The flowers contributed by friends and neighbors were very beautiful and profuse. He was the son of Mr. C. C. Clancy of the Newton Rubber Co., and was a young man whose services were highly valued by the Rubber Co., at whose Boston office he was an assistant bookkeeper. He was a very faithful and promising, and the community were much saddened at his sudden death. Rev. Mr. Phipps conducted the service, and the interment was at Newton cemetery.

—The Unitarian Society held a very successful entertainment in Lincoln Hall, Friday evening. The first part of the program consisted of the "Minnet," and other dances, very prettily executed by several young ladies and gentlemen, recitations by Mrs. J. T. Waterhouse, a song by Mrs. A. W. Tewksbury and harmonica solo by Mr. H. W. Robinson, all of which were finely rendered and warmly applauded. The second part of the program, in which 12 o'clock music furnished by an orchestra from Needham. Cake, coffee, cocoa, ice cream, were on sale during the evening, from which quite a large sum was realized, and the object of the evening, to raise the first entertainment of this society was a most enjoyable and successful one.

—C. Perseval Clancy, born January 27, 1872, died March 12, 1892. Such was the inscription borne by the mourning, draped card that hung on the craped-bordered door of the office where he so faithfully and cheerfully performed his daily duties. How much this meant to those who knew him in his daily life, none but themselves can know. His childhood was passed among the hills of Vermont, and his education partook of their strength and their beauty. A true lover of nature, the trees, the birds, the flowers were his greatest pleasure. He was one of nature's own children, combining the strength of the oak with the sweetness and delicacy of the wild flowers he so much loved. Honest, truthful and trustworthy, he was in every particular a true gentleman, for every act was prompted by kind heart and right motive. Let it not say he lived in vain because he so soon fulfilled his mission. Signed, Edwin R. Rand of the Newton Rubber Co.

NEWTON LOWER FALLS.

—Mr. F. O. Porter of Springfield made a short visit here last week.

—Mr. R. Schermerhorn has taken a position in the Dudley Mills.

—It is stated that the new business which was to start in the Rice silk mill has been given up.

—Citizens from this end of Wellesley are out with a strong petition for a hose station and hydrant.

—Large quantities of granite have been passing through here for the Hunnewell estate, where a handsome granite dwelling is being built.

—Rev. P. H. Callanan was absent from services at St. John's church last week by the death and burial of his sister, the former occurring last Friday and the latter taking place Monday in Boston.

—Michael Cain, a resident of River street, fell a distance of 20 feet last Friday while slating on a building at West Newton, being built by W. H. Pettigrew. He was injured and taken to the Cottage Hospital for treatment.

—"Do you think that Bertie's cigarettes are killing him?" asked this young man's mother. "I don't know about that," replied his father, "but I doubt very much whether his friends and relatives will survive."—Washington Star.

Mrs. Brown—"Might I ask if there is any need for you to raise your hat to the housemaid?" Mr. Brown—"Well, my dear, if we didn't take any notice of her she'd throw up her place; and she's too stylish just to nod to, and you'd hardly like me to wink at her; so what am I to do?"—Life.

The Policy of the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company, Boston, Mass., a combination of all the most desirable features of Life Insurance, including liberal conditions, Legitimate Insurance at the lowest cost, an Annual Distribution of Surplus, and protection of the Massachusetts Non-Forfeiture Law. See Annual Statement published in another column.

When an Atholston (Kan.) woman was a girl she accidentally hit her young sweet heart in the spine with a croquet mallet, making him a hunchback for life. Afterward she married another man. The hunchback still loved her, and broken-hearted, he moved to another town. The woman, who was now a widow and rich, the hunchback, poor, and she regularly sends him $25 a month under cover of one of his relatives.

A Remedy for the Grippe Cough.

A remedy recommended for patients afflicted with the grippe is Kemp's Balsam, which is especially adapted to disperse the throat and lungs. Do not wait for the first symptoms of the disease, but get a bottle and keep it on hand for use the moment it is needed. If neglected the grippe has a tendency to bring on pneumonia. All druggists sell the Balsam.

They Differ

In make up: Most baking powders contain ammonia or alum. Cleveland's does not; not a particle.

In strength: A rounded spoonful of Cleveland's does better work than a heaping spoonful of any other.

In results: Cake made with Cleveland's is fine grained and keeps fresh. Cleveland's Baking Powder is the best in every way.

Plants For Sale!

A large collection of Palms, Ferns, Chrysanthemums, Etc.

DOYLE'S CONSERVATORIES.

Formerly Hovey's, Cambridge Street, Cambridge

WM. E. DOYLE, 43 Tremont St., Boston.

WALTER C. BROOKS & CO.

Importing Tailors

15 Milk Street - Boston

(Birthplace of Franklin

Opposite Old South Church)

W. C. BROOKS, Residence, NEWTON CENTRE.

We most respectfully announce the arrival of our Spring Importations

FINE WOOLENS

—AT—

Moderate Prices.

C. B. SOMERS, TAILOR,

149 A Tremont St., Boston.

Residence, Lowell St., Newtonville.

City of Newton.

ORDINANCE RELATIVE TO PLUMBING.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Newton, as follows:

SECTION 1. Every person desiring to do plumbing work in the City of Newton shall appear in person at the office of the Board of Health, and receive a certificate of registration.

No person other than a registered plumber shall carry on or engage in the plumbing business, nor make any connection with any private sewer, drain, soil or waste pipe, or any branch pipe connected therewith.

Any violation of the rules hereinafter following, by a registered plumber, not remedied within ten days after notice, will be deemed sufficient cause for revoking his certificate of registration.

Any plumber whose certificate of registration has been revoked for cause will not be allowed to register again without a special vote of the Board of Health.

SECTION 2. The plumbing and draining of all buildings, public and private, shall be executed in accordance with the plans and specifications previously submitted to and approved in writing by the Board of Health or its agents.

No person shall commence work on such drainage or plumbing until such plans and specifications have been submitted to and approved by the Board of Health. Plans and specifications will be approved or rejected within five days of filing the same.

After a plan or piece of work has been approved, no alteration of other will be allowed except on written application of the plumber and approval of the change by the Board of Health or its agent.

SECTION 3. INSPECTION. No person shall cover or conceal any part of the work until after it has been examined and approved by the inspector of the Board of Health. The plumber shall send notice to the Board of Health when the work is sufficiently advanced for such inspection, and shall test all soil, waste, drain and vent pipes in the presence of the plumbing inspector by a pressure test.

When the pressure test is made, the inspector shall be present, and after all openings have been securely closed by the plumber in charge of the work, the inspector shall test the same. If the work does not stand the test, the water shall be turned off by order of the board of health or its agent, and not let on again until the plumbing has been found satisfactory by the inspector.

SECTION 4. HOUSE-DRAIN. That portion of the house-drain which is outside of the building, and more than four feet from the foundation walls, shall be constructed of extra heavy cast iron pipe or of the best quality of vitrified drain pipe.

That portion of the house-drain which is inside the walls or under the building, and that portion outside the building, and within four feet of the foundation wall shall be of extra heavy iron pipe, with a fall of at least one-half inch to the foot. It shall run along the cellar wall, and be securely fastened thereto, or suspended from the floor timbers in iron hangers.

When a trench beneath a basement or cellar floor is unavoidable, it shall be provided with movable covers, and walled up such width as to admit of access to all the joints.

No house drain or private sewer shall pass under another house nor within four feet of the cellar wall of another.

SECTION 5. HOUSE-DRAIN TRAP. When not connected with a public sewer the house-drain shall be provided with a running trap of the same size as the drain located beyond all house connections, which shall have a hand-hole for convenience in cleaning. If the trap be inside the cellar wall the hand-hole shall be on the house side of the wall. When the house-drain is connected with the public sewer the running-trap shall be omitted.

SECTION 6. FRESH AIR INLETS. When a house-drain is not connected with a public sewer there shall be a fresh air inlet, entering the drain between the main trap and all house connections, not less than four inches internal diameter, extending into the external air at least three feet above the ground and away from all windows and doors, the upper end to be protected by a cow or return bend securely fastened. When the house-drain is connected with a public sewer and the running trap is omitted the fresh air inlet shall be omitted.

SECTION 7. SOIL PIPES. All pipes receiving the discharge from water closets, and all branches from a soil pipe over ten feet in length shall be of iron, shall have at least four inches internal diameter, and shall consist of undiminished size at least two feet above the roof, away from all windows, and shall be open at the top.

SECTION 8. CONNECTIONS. All connections with horizontal pipes shall be made by one-eighth bends and Y branches, and all changes in direction shall be by curved pipe. No trap shall be placed at the foot of a vertical soil pipe.

SECTION 9. WASTES. a. Waste pipes from sinks, basins, wash-basins, etc., shall be of lead or iron; those of less than two inches internal diameter shall be of lead; all those over two inches shall be of iron.

b. All waste pipes from safes under fixtures shall be run separately to basement or cellar, and left open; in no case shall they be connected with a soil pipe or any other waste pipe.

c. No waste pipe from a refrigerator or other receptacle in which food or provisions are stored shall be connected with a drain, soil or vent pipe, but shall be separated therefrom by an open air sink or tray furnished with a trap.

d. No steam exhaust, blow-off or drip pipe shall connect with a sewer, house drain, rain water conductor, soil, waste or vent pipe. Such pipes shall discharge into a suitable tank or condenser, from which a proper outlet to the house-drain shall be provided.

SECTION 10. WATER CONDUCTORS. No rain water conductor shall be connected with the house-drain, sewer or cesspool. No rain water conductor shall be connected with a soil, waste or vent pipe, or connected therewith, nor shall any soil, waste or vent pipe be used as a rain water conductor.

SECTION 11. TRAPS. Every pipe connecting a water closet with the soil pipe shall be trapped at the connection with the water closet. Every waste pipe shall be trapped close to the fixture and separately from any water closet. There shall be no traps on main vertical soil or waste pipes, or rain water conductors.

SECTION 12. TANK OVERFLOW. All overflow pipes from tanks shall be left open and in sight. No pipe shall be run into a soil, waste or vent pipe.

SECTION 13. VENTILATION OF TRAPS. All traps shall be furnished with a vent pipe running from the top of the trap, the vent pipe shall be of the grade known as extra heavy; shall be free from holes and other defects, of a uniform thickness, and shall have the full weight of the following table for the corresponding diameter:

Internal diameters. Weight.
2 inches 5 1/2 lb. per ft.
3 inches 9 1/2 lb. per ft.
4 inches 13 lb. per ft.
5 inches 17 lb. per ft.
6 inches 20 lb. per ft.

No tar coated cast iron pipe shall be used.

SECTION 14. CAST IRON PIPES. Every soil and iron waste or venting pipe shall be of the grade known as extra heavy; shall be free from holes and other defects, of a uniform thickness, and shall have the full weight of the following table for the corresponding diameter:

Internal diameters. Weight.
2 inches 5 1/2 lb. per ft.
3 inches 9 1/2 lb. per ft.
4 inches 13 lb. per ft.
5 inches 17 lb. per ft.
6 inches 20 lb. per ft.

No tar coated cast iron pipe shall be used.

SECTION 15. QUALITY OF JOINTS. Every joint in soil or venting pipe shall be made in hydraulic cement, care being taken that the inside of the joint and of the pipe is properly cleaned out before connection is made with the house. Every joint in lead pipe shall be made in solder, and wiped joints are to be used where practicable.

Every joint of an iron and a lead pipe shall be made by a brass or iron ferrule of the same size as lead pipe, set in the hub of the branch of the iron pipe, and caulked with lead. The lead pipe to be attached to the ferrule by a wiped solder joint. Every joint in a cast-iron bell and spigot pipe shall be made with packed oakum and molten lead caulked at least one and one-half inches deep, and made water and air-tight, and no paint or putty shall be allowed until it has been tested.

SECTION 16. WATER CLOSET SUPPLY. No water closet shall be supplied directly from the house supply pipe, but shall be supplied from a special water tank or cistern used for no other purpose.

SECTION 17. SADDLE HUBS. No saddle hubs will be allowed on any plumbing whatsoever.

SECTION 18. RETURN BENDS. No return bends will be allowed except by special permission of the Board of Health or its agent.

SECTION 19. SEAT VENTS. Seat vents shall be introduced whenever practicable, and shall cause every soil, waste or drain pipe therein to be properly provided with traps in conformity with the provisions of section 11.

SECTION 20. No person shall connect the plumbing of any building with any sewer without a permit from the Board of Health.

SECTION 21. No person shall discharge any contents of any privy vault, man

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

VOL. XX.—NO. 25.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, MARCH 25, 1892.

TERMS—$2.00 PER YEAR.

If you wish to you must have a good bed to

SLEEP WELL IN.

OUR SPECIALTIES,
Metallic Bedsteads.
The most Complete and finest line in New England.
Everything in the } Fine Bedding.
way of }
Genuine Live Geese Feathers, Dustless and Odorless.
Down Goods of every description. Light weight Comfortables in Challie Coverings.
Special attention given to the remaking and renovating of Bedding.

PUTNAM & SPOONER,

546 WASHINGTON STREET.
Opposite Adams House. BOSTON.

THE LATEST GENT'S CALF BLUCHER.

$3. $5.
$4. $6.

EVERY PAIR WARRANTED.
STACY, ADAMS & CO.
669 Washington Street, 33 Green Street, BOSTON,
and 440 Harvard St., CAMBRIDGE.

THOS. O'CALLAGHAN & CO.

CARPETS

To sell advertised goods to the shrewd buyer, three conditions are absolutely necessary. First a display of makes acknowledged the best.
Second, an extensive stock from which a satisfactory selection may be made. Third, the lowest prices. We guarantee that in everything we advertise we will satisfy each customer who visits us by a strict fulfillment of all the above conditions.

English, Bigelow

And other Standard Brussels,

97½c. PER YARD.

Smith's Moquettes,

In large variety of patterns and coloring

95c. PER YARD.

Roxbury Tapestries,

Unexcelled in wearing qualities and designs,

65c. PER YARD.

All-Wool Extra Supers,

Comprising the best makes (Extra heavy goods),

55c. PER YARD.

Good Weight Ingrains,

45c. PER YARD.

THOS. O'CALLAGHAN & CO.
597, 599 and 601
WASHINGTON ST., BOSTON,
OPP. GLOBE THEATRE.

All-Wool Art Squares,

An immense stock of all sizes
(The best made),

75c. PER SQ. YARD.

Smyrna Rugs,

JOHN BROMLEY & SON'S,
36x72 inches - - - - - $3.50
30x60 inches - - - - - 2.50
26x54 inches - - - - - 2.00

All other sizes in proportion.

Moquette Rugs,

27x54 inches - - - - - $1.25

WHITE SHEEPSKINS.
30x60 inches - - - - - $3.50

Japanese Rugs

6x9 feet - - - - - $12.50
7'6x10'6 - - - - - 18.00
9x12 feet - - - - - 25.00

Brasher's Oil Cloths,

Heavy grade, PER
25c. YARD.

THOS. O'CALLAGHAN & CO.
597, 599 and 601
WASHINGTON ST., BOSTON,
OPP. GLOBE THEATRE.

FASHIONS!

Our new Styles of Ladies' Spring Garments are now ready.

Springer Bros,

500 WASHINGTON ST.,
BOSTON.

CHANDLER & CO.

We have made large preparations to meet the demand for the popular and choice styles of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Jackets, Reefers, Blasers, Long Garments, Capes, and Wraps for the coming Season.

Prices vary from $5 to $50.

CHANDLER & CO.,

Winter Street,
BOSTON.

HARRY BROOKS DAY,

TEACHER OF PIANO-FORTE
Organ, 'Harmony,
COUNTERPOINT and COMPOSITION
Elliot Block, or Hotel Hunnewell,
NEWTON.

Dr. F. L. McIntosh,

Corner of Washington and Jewett St.
(Office of the late Dr. Keith).
Office Hours: 4 to 7 P. M. Usually at home
until 9 A. M.
Refers to Dr. W. Wesselhoft, and Dr.
James B. Bell.
Telephone, Newtonville, 46-2.

CREAM.

THE FAMOUS
Turner Centre Cream,
FOR SALE BY
C. P. ATKINS
Ten Cents for One-Half Pint.

NEWTON.
C. Farley, Tuner, 433 Washington Street.
—Buy a house lot of Aban, Trowbridge & Co.
—Miss Duncklee is expected home the middle of April.
—See notice of bicycles for sale and to let by E. P. Burnham.
—Mr. Harry Gay is expected home from Europe the middle of April.
—Mr. Moses King and family are at 88
Madison Avenue, New York City.
—Mr. Chas. E. Billings and family left Wednesday for Hot Springs, N. C.
—Mrs. Chas. M. Gay is in New York for a few weeks, visiting her daughter.
—Miss Elizabeth Rand has gone to Washington on a Raymond excursion.
—Mr. William E. Jones and Miss Grace
Jones are in Washington for a few days.
—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Holbrook have returned from a visit at Lakewood, N. Y.
—Democratic Mass. Caucus, next Tuesday evening, at Lower Armory Hall, Newton.
—Regular meeting of the W. C. T. U.
Monday, March 28, 3 p. m., at Y. M. C. A. rooms.
—Mr. and Mrs. Clark have moved into their house, corner of Eldridge and Church streets.
—Mr. Chas. F. Rogers is improving and is able to ride out a short distance on pleasant days.
—On and after Monday, March 28, the N. Y. daily papers can be found on sale at Harrington's News Depot.
—Next Sunday is Mid-Lent Sunday.
Good Friday comes this year on the 15th of April and Easter is the 17th.
—Mrs. J. T. Lodge gave a card party Wednesday afternoon, to ladies, and some six tables were filled with players.
—Mr. Thomas Hitchcock from Andover is spending his vacation with his mother, at Mrs. Knowles, Richardson street.
—Mr. Arthur Brackett has returned from Florida and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brackett are expected to return in about two weeks.
—At the Horticultural show in Boston
the first prize for a single plant of Cyclamen was won by Mrs. M. T. Goddard.
—Dr. Shinn is to deliver his lecture on The Passion Play on Monday evening, March 28th. It will be illustrated with a number of pictures.
—Mrs. E. H. Hames of Walnut Park left on Wednesday to visit her daughter, Mrs.
J. W. Farrington at St. Paul. She expects to be gone two or three months.
—The "green goods" agents have been sending some of their continental regulars to Newton men. They are said to have made quite a harvest in Lynn recently.
—The Newton Social Science Club will meet next Wednesday, March 30, at 2 p. m., with Mrs. Walter Davis, Park street.
Topic, "How far is self-sacrifice justifiable?"
—The first degree staff of Waban lodge,
I. O. O. F., 156, conferred the first degree on several candidates at the meeting of Lafayette lodge, Watertown, Tuesday evening.
—Guy Butler Haskell of Newton and Roland Marshall King of West Newton are again among the "Honor Men" of their class for the term just ended at Phillips Exeter Academy.
—The Ladies' Missionary Societies of Elliot church met Tuesday afternoon, and listened to an account of missionary work in Turkey from Mrs. Hume. A chorus of young ladies furnished music.
—The last of the Biographies in the series on the Reformation will be given next Sunday, March 27, and the following Sunday, April 3. John Knox, the Reformer of the church of Scotland, Elliot church, 7:30 p. m.
—Senator Gilman lectured at the Franklin Street Congregational church in Sonderville, Sunday evening. His subject was "The Progress of Christianity in the Sandwich Islands." The lecture was illustrated by stereopticon views.
—Hugh Blue, an employee of W. H.
Brackett, the provision dealer, while dropping a heavy shoulder of beef on the meat block last Friday was severely cut in the arm, a knife flying up and inflicting an ugly wound in which Dr. Webster took several stitches.
—The music at Grace church on Sunday evening will be as follows: Processional, "Jerusalem high tower thy glorious walls," Magnificat, Kimbles
None Dimittis, Kimbles Anthem, "Blessed is he to whom the Lord
puteth no sin," Selly Recessional, "Guide me O thou Great Jehovah."

—A merry party of thirty-two ladies met at Mrs. Hames's, Walnut Park, on Monday afternoon, it being the final meeting for this season of the Matinee Whist Club. To this last meeting all who had substituted during the season were invited.
The first prizes were won by Miss Emery and Mrs. Pond, the second by Miss Mabel Potter and Mrs. Frank Gross and the third by Mrs. Stephenson and Mrs. Belden.
While the booby prizes were secured by Miss Eggleston and Miss Coppins, though closely pressed by several others.
—Vesper Service at the Channing church next Sunday evening, March 27th, commencing at 7:30 p. m. The following music selections will be used:
Organ Prelude in D minor, by E. Balise
Anthem, "The pillars of the earth," B. Tours Anthem, "In heavenly love abiding,"
P. R. Schuman
Anthem, "Love Divine," P. A. Schnecker
Quartet, "O Loving One Divine," P. A. Schnecker
March Six, at 8 o'clock, by Lieutenant Trio, "Praise Ye the Lord," G. E. Whiting
Organ Postlude in G major, G. E. Whiting
The public are cordially invited to attend.
Seats free in the evening.
—A novel and interesting lecture will be given in Armory Hall, Thursday evening, March 26th, at 8 o'clock, by Lieutenant Wadhams, U. S. N., who has had 27 years service in the Navy. He has cruised on all stations and has visited over thirty countries. Senator John Read of Cambridge, who was an officer in the U. S. Navy during the late war, will briefly describe the Monitors of that time and give a narration of the first attack on Fort Sumter and other defences of Charleston, by the Iron Clad fleet in 1863. Mr. Read was on the "Keokuk" which was sunk in that engagement and was afterwards a prisoner of war eight months in a Southern Stockade, being survived by thirty out of 111 originally captured.
—Daniel Walker Lane died at his residence in Ashburnham of paralysis on Saturday last after a short illness. The deceased was the descendant of an old New England family, the oldest son of Benjamin Lane, grandson of Lieut. Benjamin Lane of revolutionary fame. His early ancestor, Job Lane, was one of the first settlers of Bedford, and his grandfather, Lieut. Lane, became a resident of Ashburnham in 1780.
The Lane family have been associated with the history and development of that town.
His grandfather on the maternal side was an officer in the revolutionary war, and was one of Gen. Washington's bodyguard. The deceased was about 68 years of age. Two children survive him, Cyrus W. Lane of Haverhill and Miss Minerva Lane of this city. He leaves three brothers, one of whom, Mr. George Lane, is also a resident of Newton.

—Mr. Thomas Dalby in a letter to the GRAPHIC from Los Angeles says: "I do not suppose the people will take all I say and believe it, for I do not think I would myself if I had not seen it. On my way from San Francisco to Los Angeles about Feb. 18 and 19, some 150 miles from San Francisco, I saw fifteen mile teams of ten mules each, plowing. Each team had six plows connected together, and an old gentleman who was with me said he knew the owner very well and that he owned thirty thousand acres, and eighteen thousand acres were put in wheat; that the fifteen teams plowed up about six hundred acres per day; and that he also had some steam plows which were very effective. He also said that if there were any more of these teams, it would be crop, they cut the wheat when the heads were green or in the milk and sold it for hay. I find thousands of acres of rye and barley sown and cut in the milk or before being ripe and baled up and sold for hay, and both horses and cows eat it the same as hay. There are some wonderful crops grown in this state."

—Mr. William E. Field, whose death on Tuesday was announced in a London dispatch published in the Boston papers, was a resident of this city. He sailed from New York for Europe on the Teutonic and died very suddenly of apoplexy two days before the steamer reached Queenstown.
The deceased was about 47 years of age.
He was a well known and successful Boston business man, a partner in the leather house of Allen, Field & Lawrence, 72 High street. Mr. Field was a son of the late John Field of Arlington. He was a man of literary tastes, and had been a great traveler, especially through the art centres and great cities of the old world. He was a member of the Club of Odd Volumes, a Boston organization with a membership of well known literary men. Mr. Field had a very fine library, containing a valuable collection of rare works and many art souvenirs, which he had collected abroad. He moved in the very best social circles of Boston and its suburbs. A widow, two sons and a daughter survive him. His family is at present stopping at the Hotel Hunnewell. The news of his demise is a great shock to his many friends in this city and the most tender sympathy is expressed for his family.

—The Unitarian Club gave a reception Wednesday evening to the members of the parish, to celebrate the paying off of the debt on Channing church. The church was built and occupied ten years ago next May, and at that time there was a debt of $2,000. Five years ago it was reduced one half, and for the last two months an earnest effort was made to pay the remaining debt of $8,300, which was so successful that the principal and interest were paid. A year ago all the floating debt was paid so that today Channing church has not a single dollar of indebtedness. Besides paying the debts the church has during the past year continued its regular contributions to the usual benevolent objects.
The reception was of an informal character and some two hundred of the parishioners were present. About 8 o'clock the meeting was called to order and the committee read their report of subscriptions received and payments made, and Rev. Mr. Horn-brooke made a short address expressive of the general satisfaction at the result, and with pleasant references to the debt paying the Newton churches have been engaged in for the past few years. The reception closed with a collation.

—Miss Eames has won a remarkable triumph in Boston and reports of her lack of dramatic power do not seem to have been confirmed by the theatres. The Transcript said Miss Eames was greeted with (for Boston) unusual warmth as she first came upon the stage; a more ideally beautiful appearance as Juliette can hardly be imagined. The first few notes of her voice gave assurance that here was a singer fully equipped by Nature for her task; and, as she went on, she showed her singing to be worthy of her voice. In a word, she sings admirably with warmth, fire, dramatic force, and, for one of her not very long experience, with surprising authority. At moments she fell into the error of almost every singer who sings in Mechanics' Hall for the first time, of forcing her voice unnecessarily, resulting in a slight sharpening of the pitch; but this did not happen often,

and need not have happened at all; for,
when Miss Eames does not over-force her voice she sings true, and that glorious voice of hers may be quite sure of making itself heard at normal pressure. In the balcony and tomb-scenes she rose to her highest pitch of power, and well deserved the more and more enthusiastic recognition of the audience. She showed herself an artist for any country to be proud of.

THE SCHOOL BOARD.
LEAVE OF ABSENCE GRANTED TEACHERS.
—ROUTINE.
The school board met in the High school building Newtonville, Wednesday evening.
Mayor Hibbard presided and Messrs
Bond, Ober, Whiting, Putney, Lawrence, Harwood, Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Martin were present.
Superintendent Aldrich submitted his report in which he said it had been the custom in technical grammar instruction to commence the fifth year with the fourth grade pupils and continue five years. All authorities did not consider it wise to begin so early and he requested the committee on text-books to take this subject under consideration, and report the result to the board.
He recommended the adoption of Wentworth's First Steps in Numbers for the second grades, Montgomery's Leading Facts in American History, Mary Sheldon's and Earle Barnes' studies in American History, and Alexander Johnson's Shorter History of the United States. It was also recommended an increased number of history reference books for the upper grammar grades be supplied.
Leave of absence was granted Grace
N. Gould for the remainder of the year with continuance of salary on recommendation of the Ward Five district committee, and leave of absence from April first was also granted to Adelaide L.
Thompson of the Rice school.
The report of the finance committee on expenses for March was received and the sum of $11,865.21 appropriated.
Mrs. Davis offered an order granting leave of absence from Jan. 16 for the balance of the school year with balance of salary to Elizabeth K. Paddock, and Sarah E. Foster Ward Three.
Mr. Ober said the public property committee had decided it unnecessary for the board to change their rooms to the old Claffin school building until fall and then if it seems advisable the change may be made in a short time.
Mr. Lawrence offered an order that a sufficient number, not exceeding 100 of the Hughes's series of maps and maps of Massachusetts be purchased for use in the schools. The order passed. Also an order was passed instructing the secretary to have the school census taken as required by the public statutes.
Mr. Lawrence thought it a question of some importance that the matter now in the hands of a committee in reference to the opening of the High school, to pupils on April first should be settled.
The gentleman wished if it was in order to move that the report of the committee as made by the superintendent be accepted, or if an order making the report of the superintendent the report of the committee, could be acted upon.
Mr. Harwood said that the superintendent was chairman of all sub-committees and his reports could therefore demand action.
Mayor Hibbard said the order to go through the board would have to be proposed and lay over until the next meeting to accord with the by-laws.
This decision was final and the question will be taken up at the next meeting.
Mrs. Davis asked for information as to what was being done regarding the temperance law pertaining to the schools.
The matter had been brought to her attention by the Newton W. C. T. U.
This did not bring the matter before the board for discussion and a motion by Mr. Whiting was passed that the superintendent consider this question and report at the next meeting.

NEWTON CLUB.
DUPLICATE WHIST.
Last Saturday evening Messrs. Geo. W.
Brown and Frederick Johnson chose sides with the following results:
MR. JOHNSON'S SIDE, N. & S.
Fearing & Lodge.....178
Kingsbury & Pierce.....182
Leland & Roberts.....181
Sampson & Priest.....183
Mendell & Wolfe.....179
Johnson & Tapley.....188
Young & Frost.....179
French & Fennell.....182
Roger-on & Beal.....173
Hamilton & Towne.....115 1791
MR. BROWN'S SIDE, E. & W.
Jones & Fitzpatrick.....183
Fagan & Perkins.....182
Mason & Anders.....183
Mandell & Brackett.....181
Hatch & Toulman.....183
Brown & Marble.....175
Crain & Chapman.....186
Copeland & Whitney.....192
Chaffee & Shirio.....191
Richards & Lawrie.....189
1946 Messrs. Copeland and Whitney won the prize, a full set of duplicate whist.
Next Saturday evening play will commence promptly at 8 o'clock and all desiring to take part should be on hand. U.
Fourteen hands will be played and duplicated, closing before 10 o'clock.

Middlesex County C. E. Convention.
The third annual meeting of the Middlesex County Y. P. S. C. E. will be held in Somerville on Fast Day, April 7, at 2 and 7 p. m. Mayor Hodgkins will welcome them, and Rev. J. H. Ross and Rev. W. W. Sleeper will address the meeting. Rev. Mr. Greet will give a chalk talk. The consecration meeting in the evening will be addressed by Rev.
Mr. Gumbart, Rev. Mr. Irving Meredith and Rev. F. Hyatt Smith. A chorus of 100 voices will sing.
Beautiful Palms.
Decorate your home with palms, Rubber Plants, Dracaenas, Ferns, Cyclemus, rimrooses, &c. All sizes and prices at Mansfield's, Crafts st., Newtonville, P. O.
box 111. All plants delivered free. 18

Money deposited in the Newton Savings Bank on or before April 1st will go at interest April 1st. The bank pays 2 per cent dividend each six months and has a large surplus.

DEMOCRATIC
MASS CAUCUS.
The Democrats of Newton and all others who intend to support the Democratic ticket are invited to meet in MASS CAUCUS
—AT—Lower Armory Hall,
Tuesday Evening, March 29, '92,
AT 8 O'CLOCK.

For the purpose of choosing delegates to the State Convention to be held in Tremont Temple, Boston, April 8, 1892. Also to choose Congressional delegates in such Wards as did not elect them last Fall. Also, to elect a Ward and City Committee of 5 from Ward 5 to serve for ensuing year, and to transact any other business that may properly come before the Caucus.
The President, or in his absence the Secretary of the Ward and City Committee will call the meeting to order and preside until a chairman is chosen.
BRUCE R. WARE, HAYES LOUGE, Secretary, President.

Illustrations and descriptions of public buildings and other wonders of Southern California. They evidently believe in doing everything there on a grand scale.
—Patrick Shea, a resident of the Nonantum district, has brought suit in the sum of $200, against Patrolman Burke for an alleged assault. Shea's premises were raided by the liquor squad about four months ago, and he convicted of maintaining a liquor nuisance and sentenced to three months in the house of correction, from which institution he has just been released. He claims that he was assaulted by Burke at the time of the raid.
—Mr. Charles H. Balcom, assistant superintendent of the Newton & Watertown Garbany, died Thursday, at his home in Watertown, having been ill only by since last Saturday. He was in his usual health up to that time. He had been with the company since 1870, and was highly esteemed by the company. Mr. Charles A.
Balcom of this city, bookkeeper for the gas company, is a son of the deceased.

CITY GOVERNMENT.

THE EXTENSION OF THE STREET RAILWAY TO NEWTON HIGHLANDS GRANTED.

The board of aldermen met Monday night with all the members present and Mayor Hibbard in the chair. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Eleazar Thompson of Newton was appointed an auctioneer.

The annual report of the Superintendent of streets was received for printing.

The order for the Nonantum Hose House came up from the Common Council amended to $12,500 and caused quite a discussion.

Alderman Sheppard moved that the board adhere to its former action in appropriating $10,800, and Alderman Harbach seconded.

Alderman Hyde amended to concur with the lower branch, and Alderman Sprague seconded.

Alderman Hyde called for the yeas and nays, and Aldermen Hyde, Coffin and Sprague voted yeas, and Aldermen Wilson, Harbach, Churchill and Sheppard voted nays.

On Alderman Sheppard's motion all voted yes but Mr. Hyde.

Alderman Hyde said that he thought a compromise might be effected on $11,500 and moved that a committee of conference be appointed.

Alderman Sheppard hoped the board would not recede from its action, as its position was just and correct. The board understood the question in all its points when they first voted, and it would be yielding too much to mere sentiment to change. The position was just this, $11,500 would have placed a suitable building on the Wellington lot, a location fully as good in every way as the Bridge street lot, and the city would then have had a lot in a central location for public purposes.

On the city lot was a police station which would answer every purpose for years. It was never used for prisoners, but only as a lodging house for tramps, and such a building ought to be separate from a hose house. The city would have been better off by giving to an agitation stirred up by the Common Councilman from that section in favor of a public building there, the Nonantum people had asked for this building. It was a mere matter of sentiment and if we must swallow the big dose, let us cut off the edges and make it as easy to get down as possible.

Alderman Hyde said the location was settled long ago and no change would be made now. It was assuming a good deal to say that 7 persons know more than 14. He had experience with the Common Council lately (laughter) and knew they were good men. We need a new police station, and the Chief of Police and the police committee would say so. He hoped some one would move to amend and make the sum $11,000.

Alderman Harbach said he thought the aldermen understood the question thoroughly and from remarks he had heard from members of the lower branch he did not think they did. The building would be just as good as if built on the original plan, except that the second story would be of wood. Boston has just put up such a building at Longwood and if it was good enough for that locality it ought to be good enough for Nonantum. He saw no reason for making any increase.

Alderman Coffin moved that a committee of conference be appointed.

Alderman Churchill said he had favored the Wellington lot, until the City Solicitor had said that the restrictions were an objection.

He favored having a hose house in Nonantum and one was needed there, but the sum of $12,500 was formidable one, when $8,500 had been the largest sum previously mentioned. If $10,800 would put up a suitable building he saw no need of appropriating more.

Alderman Sheppard asked Chief Byxby how long it would take the nearest companies now to reach the locality.

Chief Byxby—Four minutes. Mayor Hibbard said it took six minutes and a half last summer.

Alderman Hyde said it was curious that the recommendations of the public property committee was always opposed. If the sum was divided and $7,500 was asked for a hose house and $3,500 for a police station no one would object.

Mayor Hibbard suggested that the alderman was out of order.

A vote on the appointment of a committee of conference was taken and the motion passed. The Mayor appointed Aldermen Harbach, Hyde and Wilson as such committee.

Wm. H. Way presented a claim for damages for his team falling into a water pipe trench, that had been dug on a water pipe trench on Jan. 2, 1892, referred to claims committee.

Alderman Hyde presented a large number of petitions from Upper Falls and Highlands people for the granting of the petition of the Newton & Boston Street Railway Co. for an extension up Temple street to Newton Highlands, some three or four hundred signatures being attached to the petitions.

On motion of Alderman Harbach a license to keep a pool table in White's block, Newton Centre, was granted to E. C. Harris.

F. H. Jones asked for concrete sidewalk on Berkeley street.

A. L. Jewell and others asked for surface drain on Waltham street to Eliot avenue.

Walter Austin and Charles A. Harrington, assignees of Contractor Killian, asked for the estimates of the work done by and payment made to him and also that their engineer be allowed to examine plans, etc., referred to City Solicitor.

Charles E. Billings asked for concrete walk on Church street.

A. Crafts asked for concrete walk on Boylston street, and similar petitions were received from F. M. Ransom and others.

F. Hutchison gave notice of intention to build house 40 by 30 on Lincoln street.

On motion of Alderman Sheppard, F. C. Perry's petition for abatement of assessment was again referred to the claims committee.

Gro. Beck was granted license to build a stable.

W. M. Russell's license was transferred to his new building.

$52,900 was voted for city expenses during April.

License was granted to N. E. Telephone Co. to put up a pole on Temple street, and two wires to Mr. Dowse's residence. Also to run two wires across Chestnut street at Upper Falls.

A communication from the board of health in regard to the Adams School was presented, the snow drifting into the rooms, and the currents of air making the rooms unsafe for children to sit in. Alderman Hyde said steps had already been taken to remedy the trouble.

The City Auditor's report for 1891 was presented and filed for printing.

Lincoln street at Newton Highlands, also from Sumner along Beacon for 400 feet, also on Homer street westerly from Walnut for 300 feet, subject to all restrictions in former order, the extensions as well as the rest of the road to be finished Dec. 1st.

The board then took a recess, and afterwards went into executive session over the ordinance relating to sidewalks.

NEWTON CONGREGATIONAL CLUB.

THE "EVENING SERVICE" DISCUSSED—LARGE ATTENDANCE.

The Newton Congregational Club held their last meeting for the year in the parlors of the Second Congregational church, West Newton, Monday evening, and an unusually large number were present.

The usual supper furnished by Paxton was enjoyed, 156 persons seating themselves at the tables, and at seven o'clock President A. G. Sherman called the meeting to order and the opening prayer was offered by Rev. Calvin Cutler of Auburndale.

A quartet from Eliot church rendered a selection followed by the reading of the records by the secretary.

The nominating committee made its report and proposed for membership in the club the following names: Walter B. Davis, Joseph Owens, J. Cheever Fuller, Joseph A. Symonds, A. L. Kershaw, Robert Bennett, H. G. Cleveland, Second church; George Leonard, William F. Bacon, Arthur H. Bailey, P. C. Jones, Eliot church; Abram O. Swain, William H. Wales, First church; R. E. Ashenden, Auburndale church; Leonard Boyd, Newton Highlands church; Rev. J. M. Dutton, H. R. Gibbs, H. P. Bird, E. A. Drown, H. N. Miliken, J. B. Cornish, Centre church.

Dr. Harrington for the executive committee said they had been considering a change in the by-laws with reference to the time of adjournment, and it had been thought best to make the hour of adjournment 8.15 or 8.30 instead of 9 o'clock, thus allowing members residing on the south side of the city time to take the 8.27 train home. Otherwise they are compelled to wait until 10.06. The recommendation of the committee was tabled until the next meeting.

The outlook committee reported through Rev. G. G. Phipps of the Highlands. The report proved very interesting, dealing briefly with each section of the city, and the special theme of interest or line of work being carried on in the different societies.

The attendance at the weekly prayer meetings was entered upon at some length, showing at the First church an attendance of 75 to 80 regular members out of a total of 275, about 20 of whom take part. At Auburndale 100 attend and 26 participate; Eliot church, 45 attend, 20 participate; Second church, one-fifth of the church members attend and about one-tenth participate. The conclusion reached from these statistics showed the urgent need of infusing new life and new blood to invigorate and strengthen the weekly attendance and a committee working toward this object might result in much good.

A communication was received from the Delphic Memorial Club asking co-operation in the erection of a memorial to the forefathers.

The topic for the evening, "The Evening Service as Seen from the Pulpit and Pew," was introduced by President Sherman, who called upon Rev. George Leonard of Newtonville to speak.

"What has a pastor reason to expect of the people concerning the evening service?" The speaker said the problem was not a general but a local one. Each church is different in the style and nature of its communications, and local conditions are to be considered in making a success of the evening meeting. Many a pastor believes in the conversational meeting, letting his people carry on the service, thus relieving him of the duty.

The question really depends upon what the pastor thinks the service is for and what his people think it will mean to them. A case was cited where 150 young men were organized into various committees by their pastor, to conduct the Sunday evening meetings, resulting in large audiences of 600 and 700 people at each service, and oftentimes many being unable to gain admittance. The speaker said an evening service is a benefit to the church and it is needful to encourage and keep alive the spirit of Christ in our work. People love physical activity, the intellectual love to listen to learned lectures and discourses, the musical to the symphony concert, and the dramatic to the play.

A case was cited where 150 young men were organized into various committees by their pastor, to conduct the Sunday evening meetings, resulting in large audiences of 600 and 700 people at each service, and oftentimes many being unable to gain admittance. The speaker said an evening service is a benefit to the church and it is needful to encourage and keep alive the spirit of Christ in our work. People love physical activity, the intellectual love to listen to learned lectures and discourses, the musical to the symphony concert, and the dramatic to the play.

Mr. W. S. Slocum spoke upon this phase of the subject: "The aim of a universally small attendance at the evening service indicative of less regard for the Sabbath and church work?" The less attendance at the evening service would seem, from casual observation, to be indicative of less regard for the church and Christian work, but on the other hand is not non-attendance a test of this regard?

A regard for the Sabbath might induce a man to stay away from the evening service. If he attended the morning service and the Sunday school regard for the day and its privileges may be the reason of his absence from evening service. A man owes some time to his family, friends and himself on Sunday. It is during these quiet hours by himself at his home that he gains peace and strength, thus would not the evening service stand in the way of his work? The life of Christ at Capernaum would emphasize this. In the morning he was at the synagogue, in the afternoon with his disciples, in the evening in the homes of his followers, and later he went to a solitary place for prayer. The Sabbath is kept according to our circumstances and surroundings. It is observed one way in Boston, a different way in Newton, and still another way in another place. In Newton a man's week is thoroughly taken up. He goes to his work early and returns late. The Sabbath is just as much crowded to a man of church work as the week day is to the average business man. This is one reason for a deplorable lack of Bible study. What place is there in such a man's Sunday for Bible study. An incident was told of Senator Hoar during the late campaign. Driving eighteen miles to his home in Worcester, Saturday night, after midnight, to be with his family Sunday morning at an hour's Bible study, which was regularly participated in by each member of the family.

Mr. George M. Fiske spoke upon "What are the causes that have led to the present condition of this service? Are they necessary and permanent?" One reason of the decline in attendance may be the many other meetings. The meetings of the Y. P. S. C. E. and such organizations must cause inroads upon this service.

A still more important reason is the lack of attraction to the masses whom it is desired to interest.

People attend the meetings because they are interested, and an interest must be awakened and then entertained.

Much is heard, and truthfully, about the want of sympathy between the church and the working classes, and it is a matter that demands much careful attention.

"Shall we give up the evening preaching service?" Mr. Albert D. Harwood said, with our handsome and attractive church edifices, costing thousands of dollars, one and one half hours a week is quite too little to use these magnificent houses for worship. It pays if used only that little, but it would pay better if used more. The evening service can be used with profit.

We do not go there to listen to eminent theologians, to enjoy pulpit oratory, but it is a place where the non-church goers should be gathered. They are more likely to come in the evening than in the daytime, and they must first be attracted. We have been attracted, they want more than a prayer meeting. They should be excited from going into a meeting which must be supported by their efforts. A brass band could be employed, anything to get them there, and this perhaps would be as good a way to spend some of the money.

The Gospel is not attractive enough of itself. After they have got there let the pastor give a 15 or 20 minute earnest Gospel talk followed by a short praise service and then a short earnest prayer meeting.

George G. Phipps speaking on "How can we save the evening service?" said the church suffers from tired disciples. Live, wide awake, earnest Christian work is essential. To save the evening service it must be redeemed.

Rev. Henry J. Patrick, D. D., spoke upon "What has the effort to enrich this service laid special emphasis upon the musical parts?" The speaker said in talking with Rev. Mr. Horr of Boston upon this subject, the latter told of his efforts in this line. First a neat, attractive program is essential to let people know what is coming, and a good Gospel sermon, a good musical program, with a quartet and congregational singing. His meetings have increased from an attendance of 150 to 600 and 700 people. He emphasizes the need of music.

The world without music would be a dreary place, and what would a church be without music? Music is a great attraction, but the chief thing is the Gospel. The Gospel can be sung more effectively than it can be preached. Sankey has won souls to Christ that Moody could never reach with his eloquence, and all evangelists have their tapers lit by the light of the cross. The only way of uniting people in a service is through song. Beneath the most diverse outward circumstances is a medium whereby all in common may be drawn to the Father.

The subject was then opened for discussion, which was participated in by Rev. E. C. Strong, Mr. G. B. Putnam and Rev. Calvin Cutler.

A motion by Rev. T. J. Holmes to extend a vote of thanks to the choir for their excellent service of song was voted.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and is sold in Toledo, O., by F. J. Cheney & Co. Sold by Druggists, price 75 c. per bottle. Coughing Leads to Consumption. Kemp's Balsam will stop the cough at once.

The trouble with most cough medicines is that they spoil the appetite, weaken digestion, and create bile. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, on the contrary, while it gives immediate relief, assists rather than impairs the assimilative process.

A Remedy for the Grippe Cough.

A remedy recommended for patients afflicted with the grippe is Kemp's Balsam, which is sold in all drug stores. It cures the cough, soothes the throat, and relieves the lungs. Do not wait for the first symptoms of the disease, but get a bottle and keep it on hand for use at once. If neglected the grippe has a tendency to bring on pneumonia. All druggists sell the Balsam.

Limerlip on Cremation.

Mr. Johnson—Have you considered, Parson, this matter of cremation?

Parson Limerlip—As far as I can, Boss. I've seen some days yar winter when I wouldn't kyar if I'd had a homympatic dose of it myself.

Mr. J.—Weather's been too cold for you else? Well, we have had some sangers, that's fact. But, reverting to my question, what do you think of cremation as a means of disposing of the dead?

Parson L.—Well, sah! he's jus' dis way; fo' a pussion dat's hit up his min' whar he'm gwine, he's jus' de same as gwine to de hezitation papahs hit oibs him aftah de fust of de new citizenship, don't yo' see. In under wud's, hit goes for to ackermate 'im ter de tropikum tempyloo. Fo' dat kin' er fokes dat's awrywoo, as de French says, but fo' fokes dat's had all de puspuration am' warm in dis worl' dat dey kin stan' dis kevation bus'nness am' a leetle too mer-tonemus.

Bullfinch—By the way, doctor, I believe you were treating Laidup for the grip.

Bullfinch—Did it go off?

Bigfee—Er—yes.

Bullfinch—Well, what became of Laidup?

Bigfee—He went off with it.

How thick is a coat of paint? A gallon of the Chilton Paint contains 231 cubic inches and covers 250 square feet of surface, two coats. If the schoolhouse is to be painted, we would like to have an answer from some of the scholars. The remarkable covering property of the "Chilton Paint" is worthy of consideration—it is as item of economy not to be overlooked. The Chilton is a "ready-mixed" paint, and we know that there is a prejudice among many against this kind of paints. They think there is something lacking to make them perfect paints. The Chilton is made with the purest and best linseed oil, combined with turpentine and turpentine drier, nothing wanting there. The hand and eye may vary in the grinding and mixing of paint, but the machinery which they use never makes a mistake. The Chilton is a better and more economical paint than any that can be mixed by hand in the old way. Don't be behind the times, you live in it. Inquire about these paints and get a color card. Boston or New York.

Lasell Notes.

Madam Helen Hopekirk, said by many good judges to be the best woman performer upon the piano-forte in the world, will give a recital at Lasell Seminary, Monday evening, March 28. It is free to pupils and some invitations are issued to friends. Madame Hopekirk's concerts in various cities have attracted most favorable notices from the critics. At the Melodian in Boston recently one of her programs included Mozart, Beethoven, Chopin, Schumann and Liszt. The press commended her "playing throughout the recital as marked by those excellences of technique and musical feeling for which it is always conspicuous." The introduction of music from Mozart as well as its rendering was especially approved, so little of Mozart is played in public now-a-days, a thing much to be regretted. Her interpretations of Beethoven, Schumann and Liszt have been pronounced by the best judges "masterly."

The Junior class gave a charming entertainment of a varied character Saturday evening, March 19.

A large portion of the school attended the Vesper service, Sunday evening.

The Patti and Paderewski performances are still quite the fashion. A party will attend also Saturday afternoon. Saturday evening a party to the symphony concert.

The death of Mr. Michael Finnerty, for many years a faithful servant and friend of the school took place this week. As many of the old-time teachers were able to leave the school, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Braden to the funeral on Tuesday.

Prof. J. Walter Davis is called from his duties at the school by the death of his father.

Mr. W. T. Shepherd left for New York City Tuesday evening upon business. Mr. Shepherd's party to visit Washington in the Easter vacation is to be a quite large one. Mr. and Mrs. Shepherd are to take the usual Lasell party to Europe next summer. The circulars have been issued and the plans are all arranged. It is thought that the trip will be an especially agreeable one.

The cooking demonstration of March 21 was a dinner—potato soup, roast beef, spinach, lettuce, French dressing, Danish pudding.

Phases of Life in a Big City.

The way in which different phases of human nature rub against one another in a great city like this was strikingly illustrated while the search was in progress for the victims of the Hotel Royal fire. By a mere coincidence a strong picture was presented to those who had occasion to travel on the Sixth Avenue Elevated railroad late in the evening. Diagonally across the street from the hotel is a hall, in which some sort of an entertainment is held nearly every night, and a passenger on an elevated train can look into the windows of the hall and see the merry-making there.

While the digging was in progress a person on a train in passing the scene of the disaster could look out of the window on one side of the car and see workmen in the light of smoking and flickering torches digging down in the ruins anxious to find what they so much dreaded to see. These men were black and grumpy, and over their heads blackened walls with gaping windows told the stranger in town that this was the scene of the terrible calamity of which he had read so much in the metropolitan newspapers in the last two or three days. The passenger need only turn his head to witness a sight strongly in contrast indeed with the one just described.

A ball was in progress, and everything was bright and cheerful. Men in evening dress had their arms encircling the waists of their fair partners, the women in handsome gowns, with low necks and short sleeves, and each couple dancing around the room to graceful music. They seemed oblivious, as they undoubtedly were, of the gruesome scene only a few feet away and within plain view. In one picture all was pleasure and merriment—all the bright side of life. Through the other frame the picture showed the shadows of misery, misfortune and horror.—New York Tribune.

Sir Morell Mackenzie in Berlin.

Sir Morell Mackenzie's death recalled the plaudits of that eminent surgeon amid the series of extraordinary insults and antagonistic demonstrations in Berlin during the illness of the late Kaiser Frederick. I have seen the people in Berlin throw mud at the carriage of the English doctor, who was popularly supposed to be murdering the German Kaiser, and he was subjected to insults without number whenever he appeared in the crowded streets of the emperor's capital. The bitterness of the German physicians was so keen that it transcended all bounds of medical etiquette, and Sir Morell, lying at Charlottenburg at one time was only saved from continued and unnumbered insults by the protection of the Kaiser's English wife.

The Empress Frederick was a firm believer in her countryman's skill, and she prevailed in the end. After the mist of the medical battle had cleared away it was found that the skill of Sir Morell Mackenzie had been justified, and laurels were piled high upon his brow. He was a typical surgeon in manner, for nothing ever had the slightest effect upon his deep seated and natural tranquillity of manner.—Blakely Hall in Brooklyn Eagle.

Extraordinary Capture of a Hawk.

On one of the cold mornings during the cold spell a large hawk pounced upon one of Benjamin Haller's tame ducks that at the time were in a pool of fresh, unfrozen water in the canal bed a short distance beyond the "third lock" at Macedonia. The hawk fastened its claws around the neck of the fowl close to its body, but the duck was in deep water, and true to its nature it ducked and drew the hawk with it under the water.

Again the duck dove, which was too much for his hawkship. The hawk released its hold on the duck and with difficulty flopped its way to the shore. The weather was cold and froze the feathers of the hawk together so that it could not fly. William Haller was a witness of the capture and escape game between the hawk and duck, and when it was all over he took a hand at the game by capturing the hawk. The bird measured 3 feet 6 inches from the tip of one wing to the tip of the other wing.—Junia Valley Sentinel.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

THE DISTINCT STYLE of the season is a genteel, long-waisted appearance. Short-waisted women can become long-waisted in appearance by wearing only the Royal Worcester W.C. Corsets.

Leading Merchants Sell Them.

A GOOD DRESSMAKER WANTS A GOOD Lining.

The H. W. Downs Company's Exclusive Lining Store

143 TREMONT ST., BOSTON.

One Door South of Temple Pl.

REAL ESTATE. NEWTON BRANCH.

HENRY W. SAVAGE.

J. W. THRESHIE, Mgr.

BOSTON OFFICE: 37 Court Street.

NEWTON OFFICE: 1261 Washington St. WEST NEWTON.

Telephone 2050. Telephone 73-2.

Your Business Solicited.

No Time Like the Present.

To buy or sell your Real Estate. We have charming homes from $2,500 up to $15,000 in the Newtons, some with stables and fruit, some with beautiful views, some with aristocratic surroundings, some retired and quiet, some to rent for the summer, some almost given away. All have the famous Newton convenience.

We have land for sale that will advance 50 per cent in three years.

We have money to loan on real estate at lowest market rate.

There is No Firm Like

ALVORD & WARD.

113 Devonshire St., Boston

Colonial St., Newton Highlands, 9-12 M.

F. G. BARNES & SON.

Real Estate, Mortgage and Insurance Brokers.

AUCTIONEERS for REAL and PERSONAL PROPERTY.

FOR SALE and FOR RENT

a large line of desirable property throughout Newton and vicinity.

Offices: No. 27 State Street, Boston, and Brackett's Block, Newton.

BOOM IN HOUSE LOTS.

ABAN, TROWBRIDGE & CO.,

Can show you plans and prices of Splendid Lots in first class location where great improvements are being made and property is steadily advancing.

Buy Now and Save Money. Make the Advance Yourself.

ABAN, TROWBRIDGE & CO.,

No. 2 Pemberton Square, Boston.

ELIOT BLOCK, NEWTON.

CHARLES F. ROGERS,

(Successor to Chas. F. Rand.)

Real Estate Agency

For selling and leasing Real Estate and Negotiating Mortgages, Care of Real Estate and Collection of Rents. Auctioneer for sale Real Estate and Personal Property. A list of desirable estates for sale and lease always to be found at office. Correspondence solicited.

OFFICE, BRACKETT'S NEW BLOCK,

417 CENTRE STREET, NEWTON.

Newton, Nov. Telephone.

WM. B. YOUNG

REAL ESTATE and IN

SURANCE AGENT.

NEGOTIATOR OF MORTGAGES.

Land furnished and houses built to suit on terms.

Office, 25 CONGRESS ST., BOSTON

Residence, Lake Avenue, Newton Centre.

FRANCIS MURDOCK.

INSURANCE AGENT,

Gas Office, Brackett's Block, Newton, Mass.

INSURANCE TO ANY AMOUNT

placed in first-class Stock and Mutual companies

Sole Agent for Newton of the Middlesex Mutual of Concord, Mass.

RICHARD ROWE,

Insurance Agency,

No. 2 Mason Building,

NEWTON TARIFF REFORM CLUB. The Tariff is a Tax.

Every person interested in the subject of the tariff, is cordially invited to take part in the discussions carried on in this column. Respected consideration will be given to inquiries, criticisms, and communications of every kind, whether coming from tariff reformers, free traders, or high protectionists. Address Secretary of the Tariff Reform Club, Newton Centre, Mass.

A Neglected Duty.

A correspondent has written to call our attention to the fact that if the ways and means committee of the House of Representatives fails to prepare a draft of a bill placing coal and iron ore on the free list, and reducing the duties upon scrap iron and pig iron, it will significantly disappoint the expectations that have been formed of the probable action of Congress if the Democracy succeeded in obtaining control. There is but a little force to this comment. We pointed out some weeks ago that a bill which had been introduced by Mr. Andrew C. Bonney embodied the wishes of tariff reformers in the New England states. The effect of the adoption of this measure would be to place coal and iron ore upon the free list, and to materially reduce the customs duties upon scrap iron, pig iron, and other crude forms of iron and steel.

This is a measure which appeals more directly to New England interests than almost any other which Congress could take up for consideration. The industries that have gone out of existence in this part of the country have been largely those industries which depend for their maintenance upon cheap coal and iron. Compelled to purchase in Pennsylvania and Ohio when their natural market for supply was Canada or beyond the Atlantic, our iron and steel manufacturers have fought a losing fight, and in too many instances have been compelled, to their knowledge, themselves defeated. There have been no geographical or geological obstacle in the way of success. If it were not for the direct interference of Congress, we should have iron foundries, rolling mills, and iron and steel works of all kinds in the New England states, capable of supplying the needs of our people, but perhaps of sending considerable quantities of manufactured wares to foreign and other domestic markets. This industry has been crushed out of existence in the New England states just as effectually as it would have been if Congress had enacted a law prohibiting the citizens of the six states from engaging in the iron and steel business. Such a statute would be looked upon as an instance of government despotism, and yet the indirect action we have referred to has been productive of similar results, and has been by many, even among us, applauded as a wise instance of patriotic legislation.

In the political campaign of 1890, when carried on in this and other New England states during the last three or four years the necessity of winning a Democratic victory as a means of changing this condition of affairs has been repeatedly insisted upon. Our abandoned rolling mills and deserted iron foundries have been pointed out as striking evidences of the iniquitous effects of the existing tariff system, and the voters have been asked to throw their ballots for Democratic candidates, on the ground that one of the results of a Democratic victory would be an effort to remedy this evil. That the victory has been won is too obvious to need comment, but thus far no intimation has been given by the Democratic majority, or rather by the ways and means committee, of an intention of revising the coal or the iron and steel schedules of the tariff. On the contrary, a report has been sent out from Washington that the ways and means committee has no more to propose than that there is nothing to be gained by introducing any more proposed changes in the tariff, and that, with the exception of a reduction to one cent per pound of the duty on tin plates, the record on tariff matters of the Democratic majority will have to rest upon the measures already proposed.

It seems to us that, from the standpoint of justice of expediency, such a conclusion would be altogether unwarrantable. Thus far New England's views on the question of tariff changes have received no distinct recognition, for in the matter of wool we occupy a position in no way different from the rest of the country. With few exceptions our woolen manufacturers are abundantly protected under existing conditions, and the change which would place wool upon the free list would be one which would benefit the consumers of woolen and worsted goods, who are to be found all over the United States. That is, free wool has been advocated here, not because of any special gain that would come to New England in consequence of it, but because of the general benefit that might be expected to accrue.

But the ways and means committee has found occasion to consider the special interests of certain districts in the propositions that have been advanced to place binding twine and cotton ties on the free list. It may be said of the first proposition that, as the material out of which binding twine is made is brought in duty free, the free listing of the twine itself, when perhaps it can be manufactured here as cheap as elsewhere, is a change which Congress is justified in making out of consideration to the western farmers. But there certainly is an incongruity in putting cotton ties upon the free list while maintaining an extravagant and entirely needless protective duty upon the material out of which these ties are made. Such a change is a perversion of all sound economic legislation. Some excuse can be made for taking the duties off of raw material, while not changing the duties upon finished commodities, because that at least would stimulate domestic industry; but to reverse this, to keep the duties upon the raw material and remove them from the finished commodity is a wholly unjustifiable proceeding. All that can be said of it is that it is an attempt to favor a certain section, that is, the South, just as free binding twine is intended to favor the West. But it may be pertinent to ask if tariff reform legislation is to be its character, why the peculiar demands of New England for free coal, free iron ore and low taxed pig iron are not to receive attention?

The most astonishing claim for the McKinley bill is made by a local contemporary which says that "within a week after the passage of the McKinley bill the number of sheep in this country increased 1,000,000." What intelligent and prolific sheep we must have in this country, to increase so fast at only a week's notice, and one shudders to think of what would have become of all these tender lambs if the bill had not passed. The statement is no more absurd, however, than those made by the paid organs of the Protective Tariff League.

For a general family cathartic we can confidently recommend Hood's Pills. They should be in every home medicine chest.

BOSTON AMUSEMENTS.

BOSTON THEATRE.—The amusement-loving public will soon have opportunity of seeing the manifold glories of "The Country Circus," that huge piece of pageantry which has had such a run in the Academy of Music, New York. The Sunday Recorder says: "It should be liberally patronized, for it is a long time since theatre-goers have been treated to a stage production so lavish in its equipment and satisfactory in results. The grand parade which closes the third act of the play is conceded by the oldest theatre-goers to be the most brilliant thing of its kind ever attempted back of the footlights, and the arctic performance which makes up the last act is probably the most satisfactory one ever shown in many a year. 'The Country Circus' is generally conceded to be the most stupendous stage production yet submitted to American theatre-goers. It involves the employment of over 600 people, 60 horses and ponies, band wagons, chariots, etc.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.—Cleveland's consolidated minstrel, which has been given the name of the "big city show," will furnish entertainment at the Grand Opera House next week. There are among the end men such well known artists as James Rostrom, John H. Blackford, George W. Barlow, Jack Verrier, Frank Edwards, Frank Russell, Jack Talbot and Adam Shiran. A pair of trained donkeys is one of the features.

HOLLIS STREET THEATRE.—A hearty welcome awaits Mr. and Mrs. Kendal and their English company at the Hollis Street Theatre, next week. Mr. and Mrs. Kendal are the greatest living exponents of the class of plays they present; and, moreover, being members of the highest social circle in England, their popularity is incredible, and the high place awarded them in their chosen profession undeniable. It seems fitting that the theatre hallowed by such pleasant memories should be the scene of their farewell performance. The repertoire chosen for the engagement is most varied, and could not well be improved upon. It gives a chance to judge of their versatility in a wide range of characters. For the first week of the engagement, beginning next Monday evening, the following plays will be presented: Monday, "Impulse"; Tuesday, "The Squire"; Wednesday matinee, "All for Her"; Wednesday evening, "A Scrap of Paper"; Thursday, "The Ironmaster"; Friday, "A White Lie"; Saturday matinee, "The Queen's Shilling"; Saturday evening, "All for Her."

COLUMBIA THEATRE.—Following "The Lost Paradise," comes one of the earlier successes of the comedy season at the Columbia, "Jane." The play will be presented on Monday next with the original company, headed by Miss Johnston Bennett, Paul Arthur and others, and is announced for a very limited season, giving way later to Mr. Charles Frohman's latest metropolitan success, "Gloriana." On Monday evening, April 18, Mr. Henry B. Harris, the popular treasurer of the house, will receive a testimonial at the hands of Managers Frohman, Harris and Atkinson. The attraction will be the initial production of a new and successful comedy. Mr. Harris announces a large sale of seats at this early date.

BOWDOIN THEATRE.—Next week's attraction at the popular West End theatre will be that immensely successful farce comedy, "The Hustler." The play is now in its second season in New England and has never failed to do an enormous business wherever presented. John Kernell is the bright, particular star, and is supported by a very strong coterie of the best specialty and vaudeville stars that all theatres can command. Monday week brings George Thatcher's Minstrels and "Tuxedo." Hughey Dougherty and all the favorites. On Sunday evening, April 17, Mr. Louis Burkhardt, superintendent of advertising at the Bowdoin Square and Columbia theatres, will have his annual testimonial at the Columbia.

The Voon Train.

(From Harper's Weekly.)

They stood on the station platform. The twin rails sang in a high key with gaining strength, and far down the track a cloud drifted. The cactus was thrusting up new spines through the gray soil, and on the lofty slopes of the Grand Mesa the melting snow hastened the impulse of the irrigating ditches towards the Pacific. Frost still kept the adobe moist and sticky, and he bent over her boot to scrape the hardened clay from the high heel. The boots were gaudily stitched, and the gown she lifted was of some barbarously bright stuff and rudely fashioned.

She rested one brown hand upon his shoulder to steady herself, and smiled down at him. Her teeth were strong and white by contrast with her dusky skin. The yellow feather in her hat lay flatly along one side of her straight black hair.

A woman watched the pair from behind the florid window-shades of the Uncompaghe house across the track. Through the open upper half of the window came the faint smell of growing things and the pungent odor of wet sage. She had been waiting there since sunrise and her sailor face was drawn with weariness and deeply lined. The fringe of yellow hair upon her temples had slipped aside, and the hair that showed beneath was of a dusty drab turning to gray. The snow and mud of two divises splashed the heavy folds of her long riding-skirt. It was high noon now, and the sun beat hotly on the unshuttered window. From the other side of the board partition came an iterant strain:

"In the spring, in the spring,
A young man's fancy
Lightly turns, lightly turns
To thoughts of love."

An engine whistle, tenuous and remote as an echo, struck into the singer's ditty. The woman behind the curtain heard it, and, as if it had been a signal, thrust up the lower sash and leaned out upon the sill. Something bright gleamed in her hand, and the reflection of the sun upon it shot full at the black eyes of the girl across the track. She turned to her companion, who, with a cry, had risen and stood before her.

"My God, it's Janie!" he said.

At the words a pinch of black smoke hung for an instant above the pistol-barrel, and he fell forward.

No one heard the second shot, but an empty revolver lay beside the dead woman behind the curtain.

The ring she wore on the third finger of her left hand was quite new, and the lettering ran:

"From Jim to Janie."

For restoring the color, thickening the growth, and beautifying the hair, and for preventing baldness, Hall's Hair Renewer is unsurpassed.

With Ely's Cream Balm a child can be treated without pain and with perfect safety. It cures catarrh, hay fever and colds in the head. It is easily applied to the nostrils and gives immediate relief. Price 50 cents.

FOWLING.

NEWTON BOAT CLUB TOURNAMENT.

The concluding game in the Newton Boat Club bowling tournament was played last Saturday evening. Six teams have participated in the competition, and each team has played five games. Silk umbrellas were offered for first prizes. A suitable prize was also offered for the highest individual average. The latter goes to Mr. Charles Dole.

Team five won the championship, taking five straight games. Teams two and four are tied for second place, and the game will be rolled off later.

The high scores and averages are given in the following table:

CLASS ONE.
Bowler.	Team.	Games.	Score.	Average.
Dole.....	5	5	178	143.3
Lawrence.....	2	5	172	141.8
C. W. Cole.....	3	5	198	143.5
Kinsley.....	4	5	164	129.3
Plum.....	5	5	151	120.8
Buntin.....	6	5	174	143.9

CLASS TWO.
Bowler.	Team.	Games.	Score.	Average.
Spurr.....	1	5	142	120.7
Selfe.....	2	5	146	115.3
Carter.....	3	5	151	120.6
Richardson.....	4	5	138	115.5
F. N. Baker.....	5	5	160	128.1
W. W. Cole.....	6	5	161	126.0

CLASS THREE.
Bowler.	Team.	Games.	Score.	Average.
Peabody.....	1	5	120	109.8
Gould.....	2	5	165	141.8
Barnes.....	3	5	163	129.3
Burroughs.....	4	5	167	133.8
Newhall.....	5	5	173	136.7
Drake.....	6	5	150	120.9

CLASS FOUR.
Bowler.	Team.	Games.	Score.	Average.
Dewey.....	1	5	143	116.2
Morton.....	2	5	166	121.9
Goffin.....	3	5	150	127.4
Knapp.....	4	5	136	115.5
Cueller.....	5	5	134	114.5
Higgins.....	6	5	114	102.6

CLASS FIVE.
Bowler.	Team.	Games.	Score.	Average.
Vose.....	1	5	128	115.8
Morse.....	2	5	128	110.4
Harvey.....	3	5	150	117.5
Hall.....	4	5	148	121.5
Fairbrother.....	5	5	148	123.5
Stacy.....	6	5	143	112.4

Class 1—Highest 2-string score, Dole of team 1, 337; highest 10-frame score, C. W. Cole of team 3, 198.

Class 2—Highest 2-string score, W. W. Cole, 27; highest 10-frame score, C. W. Cole, 164.

Class 3—Highest 2-string score, Burroughs of team 4, 323; highest 10-frame score, Newhall of team 5, 173.

Class 4—Highest 2-string score, Gould of team 2, 307; highest 10-frame score, Morton of team 2, 166.

Class 5—Highest 2-string score, Hall of team 4, 235; highest 10-frame score, Hall, 160.

Team records—Highest total, team 3, 1,890; highest single string, team 4, 792.

STANDING OF THE TEAMS.

Team.	Won.	Lost.	Team.	Won.	Lost.
Team 1.....	1	4	Team 4.....	3	2
Team 2.....	2	3	Team 5.....	3	2
Team 3.....	3	2	Team 6.....	1	4

The Newton Boat Club and Melrose team at the Riverside alleys, Tuesday evening, 2270 to 2173. Follett was high roller, and Pratt finished only four pins behind him. The former got a good spare, taking pins 5 and 10 on a second ball.

It was the neutral match for Newton. The team has finished with 15 victories and 6 defeats, and is practically tied with the Casino team for second place, the latter having one more game to play.

Teams 5 and 10 played a match Wednesday evening, the latter winning by 100 pins. Morse and Hawley of team 5 were absent.

The Newton Boat Club and Melrose teams played at the Casino alleys, Wednesday night, the former winning 2161 to 2100.

The Advance in Education.
(From President Gilmore's Recent Address at Johns Hopkins University.)

It is well not to be too near-sighted, and confine our studies to local institutions. Intellectual myopia, above all things, is to be avoided. It is far better for us to look abroad and see what is transpiring there. The first thing we notice is the recent remarkable revival in university education. France is engaged in restoring the rights and dignities of its old foundations. Germany is strengthening its world-renowned seminaries and discussing methods of primary education. Oxford and Cambridge are widening their scope and enlarging their borders; the Victoria university of Manchester and the Albert university of London are new allies of learning. So, too, at home, since this university was established in 1876, see what changes have come to pass. Four new foundations—in Chicago, in California, in Massachusetts and in Washington—their coming with a hope of promise to the front. The state universities of Michigan, Wisconsin, California, Texas and elsewhere are drawing liberally upon the public treasury for their support. A university which is not 10 years old is not the Hopkins, has now an income of half a million dollars. Another institution at the headwaters of the Mississippi has not far from a quarter of a million

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

BENDOOR'S
ROYAL DUTCH COCOA
PURE, ECONOMICAL.
Compare quality and price with any other.
SAMPLE FREE.
STEPHEN L. BARTLETT, Importer, Boston, Mass.
Commonwealth of Massachusetts.
MIDDLESEX, ss. PROBATE COURT.
To all persons interested in the estate under the will of Ann E. March, late of Newton in said county deceased, testate, given in trust for the benefit of Elizabeth G. Leonard, (DECEASED):
Whereas, George A. Flint the trustee under said will, has presented for allowance the sixth account of his trusteeship;
You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge in said County, on the first Tuesday of April next, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be allowed. And said Trustee is ordered to serve this citation by publishing the same once a week in the Newton Graphic a newspaper printed at Newton, three weeks successively, the last publication to be two days at least before said Court.
Witness, George M. Brooks, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this sixteenth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.
24-31 J. H. TYLER, Register.

dollars for its support. President Eliot of Harvard, within a few days, has said that $1,000,000 is requisite for the current annual expenses of that ancient college.

Twenty years ago students in colleges were said to be diminishing in numbers. Now careful statistics show a marked increase. We rejoice in the enlargement of our members, but Harvard, Yale, Michigan and Cornell never had so many students as at present. Think for a moment what this means. Think of the large additions to church and state. Think of the large additions to human happiness by keener intellectual enjoyment and a nobler love of life. Public men are now turning to the universities for guidance. We need more thinkers—men who can see the end from the beginning, men who know the value of institutions, who can interpret the past, watch the present and guide the future. The wisest and best educated should be found in the common councils, in the Legislature and in Congress. They should be our commissioners of education, our teachers. It should not be possible for the keeper of a low groggery or policy-shop to be a member of a board which controls the education of our unsullied boys and our sweet-tempered girls. If the fountains be polluted what will be the streams? We need more knowledge. The paths of inquiry are clear; the route has been surveyed. Now for detailed investigation.

Censor—I was spending the day with Danbini yesterday at his new quarters. He has been getting in some morceaus, hasn't he?

Denser—Yes; I dined with him last week.

Censor—Ah! Then you have feasted on his latest acquisitions. Isn't that Tin-toretto fine?

Denser—I don't remember having tried that, but his spaghetti fitted my palate to a dot.

How To Make Money WITH A FEW HENS

Is the motto and teachings of the Best Poultry Paper published. It Costs Only 50 cts. a year; six months 25 cts. Cash or stamps. Sample free. Address FARM-POULTRY, Box 2118, Boston, Mass.

NOTHING ON EARTH WILL MAKE HENS LAY
LIKE
SHERIDAN'S
CONDITION POWDER
IF YOU CAN'T GET IT NEAR HOME, SEND TO US.

It is Absolutely Pure, Highly Concentrated, Most Economical, because such small doses. Strictly a Medicine. Not a Food. You can buy or raise food as cheap as we can. Prevents and Cures all diseases of Poultry. Worth more than gold when hens are moulting. One large can saved me $40, and six more to prevent from this winter's moult. For sale by druggists, grocers, general store and feed-dealers. No other made like it. We will send post-paid by mail as follows:—A new elegantly illustrated copy of the "FARMER'S POULTRY RAISING GUIDE" (price 50 cents). Contains a daily poultry account worth the price, and two small packages of Powder for 60 cents; or, one large 14 pound can for $1.20 (regular price) and Guide free. Sample pack, 50c. five for $1.00. Six large cans, express prepaid, $5.00. Send stamps or cash. In quantity costs less than one-cent a day per hen. Testimonials sent free. J. S. JOHNSON & CO., 22 Custom House Street, Boston, Mass.

EVERYONE ATTENTION!

If You Want to Purchase HARDWARE,
Carpenters Tools, Nails and House Trimmings, Barbed Wire, Poultry Netting, Pocket Cutlery, cissors, Shears and Lawn Mowers
Call and see us at our New Store.

If You Want to Paint Your House
We can sell you ready mixed Paints, White Lead, Oil, Varnishes and Brushes.
HAVE YOU BEGUN HOUSE CLEANING?

And do you need a Step Ladder and a Window Brush or a Carpet Sweeper? If you do call at our store and we sell you one of these articles at prices which defy competition.

DO YOU NEED ANY TINWARE?
If you do we can fit you out with just what you want for we manufacture it ourselves.

WE CAN PLEASE YOU WITH ONE OF OUR MYSTIC RANGES, OIL STOVES OR REFRIGERATORS.

A. J. FISKE & CO., PLUMBERS,
WEST NEWTON, MASS.

22
3m.

EXPERIENCE AND PROMPTNESS.

NICE WORK GUARANTEED BY THE
NEWTON CARPET CLEANING COMPANY.

Only 1 cent per yard running for taking up; 3 cents per running yard for cleaning. Wool, Bruse sell or Pasteurized for Wilkins, Velvets or Axminsters 8 cents per square yard. Turf Rugs or Carpets; 4 cents per running yard for laying; Stairs, 50 cents and upwards per flight. Carpet Sewing, $2.50 per day. Renovating and repairing of carpets a specialty. Carpet work in all its branches done promptly and at reasonable prices. All kinds of Carpet Linings for sale. Church Cushions and Mattings cleaned at bottom prices. Carpets called for and delivered free of charge. Send postal. Sole Manufacturer of the

New Carpets made to order of every shape and size.

SIMON A. WHITE,
P. O. Box 71, Newtonville, Telephone 7. Factory and Residence, Clinton Street.

P. A. MURRAY,

Carriage Builder.

Work Guaranteed.

Special attention given to REPAIRING AND PAINTING FINE CARRIAGES AND SLEIGES
WASHINGTON, COR. PARK ST., NEWTON.

Water Bugs and Roaches.
CLEAR THEM OUT WITH OUR EXTERMINATOR

No dust. No trouble to use.
Price, 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. If you druggist or grocer does not keep it, we will mail package on receipt of price.

BARNARD & CO.,
7 TEMPLE PLACE, BOSTON.

Genuine Bargains

Always to be obtained by examination of the varied assortment of

IMPERFECT GOODS AND REMNANTS.

STRICTLY ALL WOOL.

Made at the Assabet Mills which are exclusively sold

and at the lowest prices by

THE PEOPLE'S DRY GOODS COMPANY

MAYNARD, MASS.

24-31

J. H. TYLER, Register.

24-31

J. H. TYLER, Register.

J. HENRY BACON

Successor to Francis Murdock & Co.

Dry Goods & Notions

Ladies and Gents' Furnishing Goods,

OIL and STRAW CARPETS,

Trunks, Bags, &c.

BACON'S BLOCK,

Nos. 279 to 281 Washington St.,
NEWTON.

THEODORE L. MASON,
Agent for the celebrated

Rockford Watch

ELGIN, WALTHAM, and other American Watches always in stock.

Repairing of Fine Watches, French Grandfather and American Clocks a specialty. All work warranted to give satisfaction.

Eliot Block, Centre Street, Newton, Mass.

Mrs. E. A. SMITH.

MILLINERY!

202 Moody Street,

Opposite Walnut Street,
WALTHAM.

PURE - MILK

supplied daily from
PROSPECT VALLEY FARM.

One Cow's Milk supplied where desired.

H. COLDWELL & SON,

WALTHAM, MASS.

P. O. Box, 1992.

NEWTONVILLE.

—Mrs. A. L. Brown left Friday for Pittsfield, Mass.

—Miss Grace Dennison is at home for the April vacation.

—Mrs. Norman's little one is recovering from scarlet fever.

—A. H. Noyes will leave for Lowell, Mass., next week.

—Mrs. Geo. Elliot has been very ill but is improving slowly.

—Miss Nellie Roberts is expected home next week from Florida.

—Miss Maybelle P. Davis will sail for Europe next Saturday.

—Waban Lodge will work the third degree next Thursday evening.

—Miss Eva Wight has resigned her position at the telephone office.

—A movement is on foot to organize a strong local baseball team.

—Miss Alice Woodman left Tuesday for a short visit to Northampton.

—Mr. A. C. Jenkins is about to erect a dwelling house on Watertown street.

—Miss Bessie Macomber of Crafts street is recovering from her recent illness.

—Mr. John La Farge's pictures are on exhibition this week at Dole & Richards.

—Higgins & Nickerson have broken ground for two new houses on Foster street.

—The management of Mr. Edward J. Wiley and Miss Mabel Park is announced.

—Mr. Jackson, clerk at Gaudet's, has returned after a long absence at his home.

—Democratic Mass. Caucus, next Tuesday evening, at Lower Armory Hall, Newton.

—Mr. Geo. Washburn is gaining in strength and hopes soon to be in his usual health.

—Mrs. Isaac Halton left Monday for Kansas City, where she will make her permanent home.

—Mrs. Pinkham has returned from a visit to Lynn to her home at W. C. Soule's, Walnut street.

—Mr. W. E. Willis has purchased the Kent house at the corner of Watertown and Nevada streets.

—Louis Ross, who was injured by a fall from his horse last week, is now doing as well as can be expected.

—A special meeting of the Lend a Hand was held on Thursday afternoon in the Unitarian church parlors.

—Mr. William McAdams has rented his house at the end of Brooks avenue to Mr. Henry Soule, who will soon occupy it.

—Mr. N. H. Chadwick's business partner, Mr. O. Stilling, died at his home in Boston, Monday morning, after a long illness.

—Rev. Royal T. Sawyer again supplied the Unitarian church pulpit at Kingston, N. H., on last Sunday, returning home early in the week.

—The last lesson of the Webster course was given on Wednesday afternoon; the pupils have found the methods very delightful and of great practical value.

—The many friends of Mrs. Frank Wight will regret her departure to Westboro, Mass., where they will move, April 1st, Mr. Wight being engaged in business there.

—Go to Armory Hall Thursday evening, March 31st, at 8 o'clock, and hear Lieut. Wadham's lecture on life on board a man-of-war. See no ice on next page. Tickets 35 cents.

—Gen. Hull Lodge, A. O. U. W., added five new members to its rolls Monday evening, and had fourteen applications for membership presented. Indications now point to two hundred members before Jan. 1, 1893.

—The gentlemen who so thoroughly enjoyed the Leap Year Party given a few weeks since by the young ladies of the Lend a Hand Society, will give a return party in Tremont Hall, Thursday evening, March 31st.

—A large number attended a very interesting Christian Endeavor meeting held last Sunday evening in the Methodist church. Mr. Barrett, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., having charge, and music being furnished by the Newton Y. M. C. A. orchestra.

—Letters remain uncollected for at the post office as follows:—James Allen, M. Edna Barnes, Mrs. Richard Cody, Mary Curtis, Dennis J. Delander, Mrs. Matson, Mrs. E. Mead, Lizzie Melly, Louise Mitchell, Patrick Seully, Albert Strang.

—Norwobega tribe 76, I. O. R. M., ex-empowered the chiefs deeded at the institution of Hahatan tribe of Needham, before the great chiefs and visiting brothers, Monday evening. The Newton red men presented Hahatan tribe with a beautiful floral horse shoe.

—A meeting of Gen. Hull Lodge, A. O. U. W., was held in Tremont Hall on Monday evening, when several new members were initiated, and a collation followed the exercises. Among the names added were Messrs. Green, Nickerson, Gibbs, Chaloner, Westworth and Somers.

—To correct what seems to be a quite general misunderstanding, our readers are informed that Dr. S. F. Chase does not have his time to his dental practice at Newtonville, its demands having long since become so great as to necessitate closing his Boston office. The doctor's office being at his residence, No. 303 Walnut street, is available at all hours in case of emergency.

—One of the most delightful receptions of the season was given to the Neighbors' Club by Miss McAdams on Wednesday evening at her residence on Lowell street. The parlors were handsomely decorated with Catherine Mermel and Marchal Niel roses, while the floral favors were violets and mignonette. Whist was the game of the evening and the prizes were won by Mr. C. B. Somers and Mrs. Chaloner, while Mr. and Mrs. Soule bore the foot honors gracefully. A delicious collation was served, when speeches were in order. The company dispersed at a late hour.

—A course of entertainments composed of two concerts and two lectures, the proceeds to go toward the maintenance of a Boys' Club, under the auspices of the Unitarian Boys' Club Association, will be given at the Columbus Avenue Unitarian church, Boston, on the evening of April 6 and 20, and May 4th and 25th. The concert on April 6 promises to be of a very high order, the artists including Mrs. E. Humphrey Allen, Miss Georgia Gray, Miss Gertrude Catlin, Mr. Walter Lowell Heath, Mr. Chas. N. Allen and Mr. Edwin L. Gardner. Tickets can be procured of Miss Lizzie Goldthwaite.

—A very charming dancing party was given on last Monday evening by the Maude Fenno, at her home at Cabot street to forty of her friends. All looked sweetly in dainty evening costumes, and after dancing the usual collation was served. The march was led by Maude Fenno and Master Harold Taylor. Noticeable among the costumes worn by the little misses were those of Carrie Curtis, who wore pink silk and flowers, Ethel Noyes, red crepe and black lace, Elsie Witherell, brown silk, Marian Nichols, grey crepe and old rose silk, Vera Rumery, pink silk and white tulle, Mary Hollings, pink silk, Maude Fenno, white and yellow silk. Amongst those present were Carrie Curtis, Ethel Noyes, Elsie Witherell, Marian Nichols, Vera Rumery, Ada Powers, Mary Hollings, Beatrice Cook, Bessie Hartshorn, Mabel Curtis, Grace Curtis, Sadie Bailey, Rillie Garrison, Elsie Clapp, Florence Abbott, Lucia Proctor, Lulu Davis, Masters Taylor, Davis, Proctor, Witherell, Cabot, Boynton, Hyde, Hackett, Porter Brown, Woodworth, Palmer, Parker and Powers.

—Mrs. Fanny Deane of Edgartown gave a very interesting paper before the Woman's Guild on Monday afternoon in the Methodist vestry. Although not a regular day for meeting a large audience was present to hear Mrs. Deane upon "The Influence of Flowers upon the National Life," and as she applied her theory of the beneficent, refining, uplifting influence of flowers in the various departments of life, the domestic, educational and political, of their presence at the christening, the graduation, the wedding, the funeral, the important part they play even in literature and art and sculpture. One was persuaded that life would be very barren and cheerless without their sweetness and perfume and beauty. Mrs. Deane quoted famous leaders of ancient and modern times, and the flowers of different nations; the rose of England, the Scotch thistle, the lily of France, lotus of Egypt, cornflower of Germany, etc., but she did not give her ideas in regard to what our national flower should be, though she felt sure the presence of flowers at the polls would help to purify the ballot by their silent but pervasive influence. Mrs. Martin read resolutions upon the death of Mrs. John W. Dickinson, the founder of the Guild, who said that eight years ago in the solitude of her sick chamber, Mrs. Dickinson conceived and carried to such perfection the plans for the Woman's Guild, that at the first meeting they were adopted without dissent, showing how clear a head and what correct judgment she possessed. The next talk, on April 5th, will be given by Mrs. Atkinson of Newton Centre on Japan.

WEST NEWTON.

—Farley, tuner, 433 Wash. St., Newton.

—Mr. Edward Stutson has so far recovered as to be able to walk out.

—Roland M. King is one of the honor men in the preparatory class at Exeter.

—Democratic Mass. Caucus, next Tuesday evening, at Lower Armory Hall, Newton.

—Mr. Fred Huestis has removed to Westfield, where he has purchased a farm of 900 acres.

—J. Wiley Edmonds Camp 100, S. of V., expect to muster two recruits at their next meeting, April 4.

—Mr. J. H. Nickerson has a fine assortment of suitings for spring wear, which will be made up at low prices.

—Miss Mamie Metcalf, who has been visiting relatives in the West, is expected home the latter part of this week.

—Deposits made in the West Newton Savings bank on or before April 5th, will draw interest for the next quarter.

—Two houses on Eliot avenue, West Newton have been sold to F. Augustus F. Arnold. With each are 7500 feet of land.

—Miss Mamie Howland entertained a company of her friends at a high tea at her home on Highland street, Wednesday afternoon.

—The meeting of the Educational Club will be held this Friday p. m. Subject, "Woman Suffrage." Opening papers by Mrs. E. A. Walton and Mrs. Martin.

—Troop A, First Mass. Cavalry of J. Wiley Edmonds Camp, S. V., visit the Watertown camp this evening with the object of inducing members of that camp to join Troop A.

—A three act comedy by Henry J. Byron, entitled, "War to the Knife" will be given by the City Dramatic Club (this Friday) evening in the Unitarian church parlors. Tickets may be had at the door.

—A new long distance telephone is to be put in the guard room at police headquarters by order of Mayor Hibbard. It will be a great convenience and may be of great advantage in hastening the ends of justice.

—There will be a sale of useful and fancy articles, for the benefit of the W. C. T. U., at the Lend-a-Hand rooms, Washington street, on the afternoon and evening of March 31st. All are invited. Tea will be served at 6 o'clock.

—At the last sociable of the Unitarian church, Admiral Kimberley entertained the audience with an account of his first visit to Japan in 1893. It was an interesting and amusing address, and a unanimous vote of thanks was tendered him by the company present.

—Go to Armory Hall Thursday evening, March 31st, at 8 o'clock and hear what the late war can tell of the attack on Fort Sumter, etc., and the life of a prisoner in Southern Stockade. See notice on next page. Tickets 35 cents.

—A hearing has been in progress this week at the U. S. court building before the special commission appointed to consider the legal and financial aspects involved in the seizure by Newton of land of A. B. Perry of Needham for water purposes. A decision has not been yet given in the case.

—Mr. Granville Leland died at his home on Auburn street, last Friday, after an illness of a few months' duration. The deceased was born in Boston and was 65 years of age. He was a gardener by occupation. The funeral services were held Tuesday and the interment was made at Dorchester.

—Those friends who remember the short stay and pastorate of Rev. Amory Battles over the Unitarian church of this place some years ago, will be pained to hear the announcement of his death in Bangor, March 1, where he had spent the larger portion of his life, being fifty years in the ministry and a long time pastor over the Universalist church.

—There are letters at the post office for Prof. Bradley, Miss Annie Barrack, Mrs. Borsy, J. C. Bennett, Mary J. Cret, Mary A. Condy, Annie Danforth, Bridget Dugan, E. Hibbard, Miss Harbison, Eliza P. Jones, Mrs. C. Kellogg, John Murray, Mrs. Eliza Moore, Mrs. John Riley, George W. Saunders, Patrick Riley, J. W. Woods, Margaret Whelan, Dr. H. L. Wright.

—The second People's Service will be held next Sunday evening in the Congregational church at 7. It will be a service of praise. "An evening with Charles Wesley." All are cordially invited to come and take part in the responsive readings and the congregational singing. Those who are not regular attendants at Church are especially invited. A brief after meeting is held in the parlors.

—Boynton Lodge, No. 20, U. O. of I. O. L. W., will celebrate their second anniversary on Wednesday evening, March 30, in K. of H. hall, by an entertainment and supper. The wonderful boy cornetist, Master Fred Howard of Cambridge, has been engaged. Miss Kittie Bodener of Cambridge, the child soprano, who has a very sweet voice, will sing. Home talent will also contribute interesting selections.

—Mrs. Louisa Budd Snow died at her residence on Washington street, last Saturday. She had been a resident here for half a century and was highly esteemed. The deceased was 72 years of age and had been an invalid for several years. A son and daughter survive her. The funeral took place from the residence, Tuesday afternoon, Rev. H. J. Patrick, D. D., officiating. The music was furnished by the Newton lodge, I. O. O. F. male quartet and the selections comprised "Nearer My God to Thee," "Rock of Ages" and "Gathering Home." The remains were interred in the Newton Cemetery.

—At the concert to be given by the choir of the Congregational church, Wednesday evening, March 30th, the new National Hymn, entitled, "Columbia's Jubilee," written by Granville B. Putnam, Esq., music by J. Eliot Trowbridge will be performed for the first time. It has been scored for orchestra and military band. The Watertown Orchestral Club, eighteen members, will play the accompaniment on this occasion. As this hymn will undoubtedly be very largely used in our country, and in all probability, produced at the World's Fair, Chicago, in 1893, a good opportunity is to be given to the people of Newton to hear its first rendering under very favorable circumstances.

—Mr. Aaron Barker died at his residence on Washington street, Saturday last. The deceased was 71 years of age. He was born and lived during his well-rounded life in the house which was not only the scene of his final sickness and death, but the place of the hallowed memories of his boyhood, his early and ripened manhood and the proved home of his later years. He was a man of excellent character who bequeathed to his descendants the record of an honorable career and the example of a good, Christian life. A widow and four sons survive him. The funeral took place from the Second Congregational church, Monday, Rev. Dr. Patrick officiating. The floral tributes included an ivy wreath, a sheaf of wheat and a beautiful pillow inscribed "Father." Appropriate selections were rendered by a mixed quartet. The remains were interred in the Newton cemetery.

—Read Admiral Kimberley retires from active service, having reached the limit of age, on April 2nd of this year, which will cause a general promotion all along the line. He was born in Troy, N. Y., April 2, 1820, and Dec. 8, 1846, was appointed from Illinois a midshipman in the navy. In 1853 he was commissioned a lieutenant, and July 16, 1852, lieutenant commander. He was commissioned commander July 25, 1860; captain, Oct. 3, 1874; commodore, Sept. 27, 1884, and read admiral Jan. 26, 1887. He was on shore duty from 1878 until 1887, when he was ordered to the command of the Charlestown Navy Yard to that of the Pacific station. It was his courage and ability in directing the movements of the Pacific squadron that saved many human lives in the Samoan disaster, and his diplomacy that resulted in establishing peace on the island. He was given a public reception in San Francisco in recognition of his services at Samoa, and was similarly honored in this city as the guest of the Newton Club, many distinguished citizens, state officials, military and naval officers being present.

—A union meeting of the Newton W. C. T. U. societies was held in the Unitarian church, Tuesday, March 22. Mrs. E. B. Rowe of West Newton presided. The exercises opened with devotional services conducted by Mrs. Martha Hyde of Newtonville, followed by addresses by Mrs. Kate Lente of Newton, state secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth Gordon of Auburndale, Mrs. Helen G. Rice, national superintendent of W. C. T. U., juvenile department, and others. Mrs. Stevenson detailed methods of work in the interests of the development and increased usefulness of the Newton societies. Miss Gordon gave an address on Lady Henry Somerset, speaking of her relation to the work as president of the British Woman's Temperance Association, and vice-president-at-large of the World's Temperance Union. A feature of the afternoon exercises, following the addresses, was the rendering of temperance songs and recitations by members of the Loyal Legion, which was represented by nearly 200 children. At the evening session Mrs. Kate Lente Stevenson presided, and after making an address introduced Mrs. Mary A. Livermore. The latter spoke about an hour upon the temperance question.

AUBURNDALE.

—Farley, pianos, 433 Wash. St. Newton.

—Mr. F. I. Falkenberg is very ill with pneumonia.

—Horace Lovell of Catuit is assistant baggage-master at the depot.

—Democratic Mass. Caucus, next Tuesday evening, at Lower Armory Hall, Newton.

—Mr. E. B. Haskell of Vista avenue is spending a few days in Florida at the Tampa Bay Hotel.

—Mr. Arthur S. Kimball was the first plumber to register under the new plumbing ordinance.

—The Newton Boat Club team was defeated on the B. A. A. alleys last night by the Casino team. The score was 27 to 20.

—There are letters at the postoffice for Misses Calleehan, Mrs. J. L. Dorr, Miss Mary Moran, Miss M. Miller, Mr. James W. Ryan.

—Mr. Carleton of Brockton, who is photographing plans for the city assessors is boarding at Mr. Chas. Green's, Lexington.

—Mr. E. A. Walker intends making some extensive alterations in his place of business for the better accommodation of his customers and to facilitate the execution of orders.

—Dr. Peloubet preached a most excellent sermon to a full house at the Methodist church last Sunday morning, and the evening made an address at the vesper service.

—The house of hose 5 is to be thoroughly repaired inside and painted, and a large drop lamp similar to those in some of the other department houses will be put in to light the main floor. Hall & Washburn have the contract for doing the painting.

—Rev. T. W. Bishop entertained the Newton "Tuesday Club" at his residence last Tuesday evening. Caterer Marshall of West Newton, late popular headwaiter at the Woodland Park Hotel, provided the collation, served in his best style, at the close of the essay and its discussion.

—Michael Finnerty, who for some years was gardener at Lasell Seminary, died this week in Worcester. A year ago his wife died of cancer and he was deemed necessary to take him to the Worcester asylum. He was a member of Auburn Assembly, R. S. of G. T., and his widow will receive an insurance from that order amounting to $2000.

—The vesper service on Sunday evening at the Methodist church was fully appreciated by the large congregation who gathered to listen to the service of song arranged by Prof. Davis. The Alphon Male Quartet and the large chorus rendered finely their parts, adding to their well deserved praise. But the service was not a mere sacred concert—it was a service.

—Herbert S. Ware, at the office of Carter & Peabody, has sold for the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions a piece of property in the village, known as the Caleb Wright estate. The lot contains 31,000 square feet of land and the house has fourteen rooms. Alexander Wright is the purchaser.

—Miss Amy Plympton Fiske celebrated her tenth birthday on Saturday afternoon, Mar. 12th, by giving to twenty of her little girl friends a doll's party and a pink tea at her home on Walcott street. A delightful afternoon with dolls and games was enjoyed. One of the pleasing features was the presentation to the children of a "Jack Horner Pie" by Mr. Philletus Propagandus from the North Pole, each guest being invited to take a plum or package which caused much merriment.

—The death of Mrs. Charlotte Holbrook removes from our midst one of the best known and beloved Christian women of our village. She was the widow of the late Anthony Holbrook and was 74 years of age. The deceased was one of the most active members who, with her husband, founded the Methodist church here, with which she has ever been a most worthy member. She leaves a son and daughter, Wm. B. Holbrook and Mrs. Walter D. Lathrappe. The funeral took place at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the Methodist church, Rev. L. T. Frost of Watertown and Rev. T. W. Bishop officiating and the interment was at the Newton cemetery.

—Lady Henry Somerset arrived in Newton Saturday and went directly to the Woodland Park Hotel, accompanied by Miss Frances Willard and Miss Gordon. She is seeking a needed rest. She will make a public address, however, in Tremont Temple, Boston, Thursday evening, April 7, under the auspices of the Massachusetts W. C. T. U. Next week she will go to Portland, Me., to call on Neal Dow, the noted temperance lecturer. She will also visit Post Whittier at his home in Newburyport. No receptions or entertainments have been announced. Although the ladies of Newton are anxious to meet the distinguished English lady who has devoted so much time to philanthropy and the cause of temperance.

—Mr. Joseph Davis died at his residence, corner of Central street and Woodland avenue, Tuesday evening. He had been in poor health for some time past and the end was not unexpected. The deceased came to this place 21 years ago and opened a grocery store in that part of Haskins' block now used by Hall & Washburn, painters. After remaining in this building five years he constructed the Davis block on Auburn street and conducted the grocery business there until it was purchased four years ago by Mr. F. A. Childs, the deceased retiring at that time from active business. Prayers were held at 12 o'clock, Rev. Calvin Cutler and T. W. Bishop officiating. The remains were taken to Rutland for interment.

WABAN.

—Where is that police signal box?

—Farley, pianos, 433 Washington street.

—Don't forget the theatricals, April 8th.

—There are quite a few cases of chicken-pox among the children of this village.

—Democratic Mass. Caucus, next Tuesday evening, at Lower Armory Hall, Newton.

—The Benevolent Society met Wednesday and the Literary Club, Friday last, at Mrs. Gould's.

—Miss Lillie Collins of Beacon street has been the guest of Miss Florence Crosby of Malden for the last few days.

—Miss Bertha Childs, who has been confined to the house for the past week with a severe cold, is now able to be about again.

—The "Sings" at the Hall on Sunday evenings are enjoyed by all who attend. We are greatly indebted to Mr. Buffum for his kindness and the interest which he puts in the work. He deserves a hearty vote of thanks.

—The new Tennis Club held its first meeting last Saturday evening and elected officers. The prospects are of the brightest, and you may be sure you will hear of it again in the near future in form of a grand minstrel performance.

—Waban is getting to be a village of "Clubs," especially among the young people. The young ladies have already formed two clubs, "S. B." and the "S. H. G.," from which the boys are entirely excluded. A few of the jealous ones give most amusing interpretations of these initials, but they are apt to be free rather than literal translations. The "S. B." is a noble enterprise and it is an assured fact, that they will do some profitable work during the coming year.

Newton Street Railway Company.
At the meeting of the Newton & Boston Street Railway Company the following officers were chosen: Horace B. Parker, president; Austin R. Mitchell, vice-president; James L. Richards, treasurer; Louis E. P. Smith, clerk. Directors, James W. French, Jasper N. Kollar, Samuel L. Powers, Horace B. Parker, Austin R. Mitchell, James L. Richards, George W. Morse.

Your Piano

should be for service, not show. It is the pet instrument of the home. Upon it the whole family depend for music. And as one selection has to suffice for many years, how important that it be choice and serviceable.

When you purchase a BRIGGS PIANO, you get a choice instrument and all the family acquiesce in the wisdom of your selection.

It is really a worthy piano; serviceable, durable, rich in appearance, yet sweet, pure and powerful in tone.

Pointers from the Manufacturers.

C. C. BRIGGS & CO., Mfrs.
5 & 7 Appleton St., Boston.

Deposits made in the West Newton Savings Bank, on or before April 5th, will draw interest for the next quarter. J. H. NICKERSON, Treasurer.

DR. S. F. CHASE,
DENTIST.
Office and Residence, 303 Walnut St., Newtonville.
Careful and thorough operating in all branches. NEW METHOD FOR ARTIFICIAL TEETH.

J. H. NICKERSON,
Merchant Tailor
—AND—
Clothier,
WEST NEWTON, MASS.

Is now prepared to furnish the styles for Spring of 1892, in Dress or Business Suits, Overcoats or Trousers to measure at low prices. Also a good assortment of Ready Made Clothing for men and boys. Furnishing Goods, Hats and Caps, Trunks and Travelling Bags.

MILLINERY OPENING

OUR REGULAR SPRING OPENING
of the latest New York and Paris

Hats, Bonnets

—AND—

Millinery Novelties

will take place

Wednesday & Thursday,
March 30 & 31.

To which we invite the Ladies of Newton.

J. W. MACURDY,
133 Moody Street,
SOUTH SIDE, WALTHAM.

MINER ROBINSON,
ELECTRICAL ENGINEER.

12 Pearl Street, Room 27, Boston. Residence, Chestnut St., West Newton. Private Residences fitted for the

ELECTRIC LIGHT.

Electric Light and Power Installations. High grade Electrical Construction Work of every description. Estimates Furnished.

TELEPHONE. Boston 3311. West Newton, 234-9.

BARGAINS.

B BRASS B EDSTEAD'S
B AND IRON B EDSTEAD'S
where in N. E. 100 design
H. W. BIGELOW COMPANY,
70 WASHINGTON ST.
BOSTON.
H. W. BIGELOW, Residence, Newtonville.

FORKNALL & TOMS,

Wood Turning of Every Description,
STAIR POSTS, RAILS AND BALUSTERS,
House-Brackets, Band Sawing, Moulding, Pattern Making, Etc., Etc.
132 CHARLESTOWN STREET
SEND US A POSTAL CARD. BOSTON. REUBEN FORKNALL, Newton.

BARBER SHOP. It Will Not Rot Like

Having recently added new furniture, newly painted and frescoed the rooms occupied by us in Dexter Block, Newtonville, as a Barber shop, we are now better fitted than ever for doing first-class work of every description. Having secured a special artist for the work we are making a specialty of Ladies Hair Cutting, Curling, Singeing, and shampooing, and respectfully solicit your patronage. Children's Hair Cutting and other work nicely done. Prompt attention to outside work at reasonable rates. Open until 8:30 p. m. Specialty of Razor Honing.

E. D. WILLETT,
24 St. Treas.
West Newton Savings Bank.
The annual meeting of the Corporation of the West Newton Savings Bank will be held at their banking room, on Wednesday, April 13th, 1892, at 7 o'clock, p. m. J. H. NICKERSON, President.

The undersigned desires to announce that he has opened Ladies Tailoring Parlors where will be made Coats, Dresses and Riding Habits. Robes de Reception a Specialty. FELIX ARSENAULT, Nickerson's Block, 21 St. West Newton.

DENTISTRY
H. E. JOHNSON, D.D.S.
Ten years Practical Experience.
Office, over Ingraham's Drug Store, WEST NEWTON.
First class operating in all branches at reasonable rates.
Office Hours: 8:30 a. m. to 5:00 p. m.

Upmann's Extra 5.
U'S EXTRA 5
"Has Proved the Best 5c. Cigar."

S. A. MERRITT.
Designer, Draper and Maker of latest fashionable modes in Evening and Street Costumes. Reasonable Prices. 33 PARSONS STREET, NEWTONVILLE. Electric Cars pass the Street. 10

LACTART
Livery, Hack & Boarding Stable
(Established 1861.)
Barge, "City of Newton."
Boat Sleigh, "Snow Bird."
S. F. CATE, West Newton
Leave YOUR ORDER for any kind of JOHN PRINTING at the Graphic Office.

ACID OF BILE. Cures Dyspepsia. 25c 50c a bottle

FANNIE'S LEGACY.

For three years of her life she operated a typewriter in an office not far from the Pullitzer building. You may have met her in the "L" train, going uptown at night. You have perhaps noticed her dark eyes, the curly bang above them and the tired expression in a face which would have been pretty if it had half a chance. She was drawing $15 a week then. Now she has fifty thousand round, hard dollars of her own, and she's the happiest girl in all New York.

We'll call her Fannie Brevort—that is not her name, but it will do. One year ago I met her. She and I boarded at the same "private boarding-house," where our landlady, besides the onerous duties of housekeeping, took upon herself the gratuitous supervision of our morals and private business. Fannie occupied a hall room at $6 a week, where she washed her handkerchiefs and hose, drying the former pasted wet on the window pane, and the latter hung over the back of a wooden chair. Her employer paid her $15 a week, $6 of which, as I have just said, went for board and lodging, the remaining serving to dress her, allowing a margin for caramels and an occasional pair of gloves or a lace collar for her mother "over in Jersey." To reduce expenses she sent semi-monthly wash home, where, doubtless, this same good mother did it with the honest hands whose toil-hardened palms were covered with the new gloves on Sunday.

Fannie liked pretty things and would have them. She had a lithe, rounded figure, a good nose, clear complexion, and short untwined hair which she never was too tired, sleepy, sick, cold, or warm to put up in about fifty little curl papers every night before she went to bed.

She had lots of beaux and threatened to marry every one of them, especially when there was a long spell of bad weather. "Don't do it, Fan," I'd say, and she didn't. The truth is, Fannie is rich. She "fell heir" to $50,000, all of a sudden and all in a heap this summer when the dog-days were pattering with their tongues out and Wall street looked so dead that there didn't seem to be $50,000 on it. It came from an old lawsuit which Fan had told me about, but which I had practically set down to her prolific imagination.

In fact, I think Fan had no more faith in the lawsuit than I did. If she had she wouldn't have gone on working so hard and threatening to marry as she did. There was one man particularly who appeared to get the brunt of all Fan's despondencies. "Oh, pshaw," she would say, coming in from the outdoors, tired, bored and drabbed. "I'd just as well go on and marry Tom."

"Do you love him, Fan?" I would interrupt.

"N—y—e—s—I don't know whether I do or not."

She went on drawing her p's and q's, and washing her own handkerchiefs in her own snug, independent little hall-room, respectfully declining to take the boys up on any proposition more reciprocal than theater tickets or a stroll uptown after dinner.

"Well, I was out of town in June, and when I came home I found a letter from Fannie which made my eyes blink."

"Why aren't you here to congratulate me?" it ran. "You were so good to me when I was poor. I am rich now. Fifty thousand dollars, all my own! Let me know when you come, and I'll tell you all about it."

I lost no time in letting her know and down she came in an imported wool gown, and shoes and gloves like an empress.

"It was the lawsuit!" she said, hugging me rapturously. I've got $5000 down and the rest is just to my order."

"I didn't see anything of it in the papers."

"No. I dozed the reporters. I didn't care to be written up in a 'From Poverty to Affluence.' They make the poverty so black and grimy in order to shine up the affluence and the story. Then they will put in your name, which you know is the unkindest cut of all!"

"Well, what are you going to do?"

"You'd better ask what I've already done."

"Well?"

"To begin with, I finished my time with Mr. ———. I packed my things, weeks of being out, and he'd been so good to me that I wouldn't leave him until he got a satisfactory substitute."

"Good girl!" I parenthesized, while Fan rattled on.

"I sent for mamma and took a furnished flat, got us both all the clothes we needed, and entertained her evenings until my time was up. Then I took her down to Newport and spent a fortnight. Then I have a brother out West, you know. He is a farmer, and pretty poor, I guess, from the letters he wrote me and the excuses he made for not sending mamma money. I sent him a check for $1000, and promised more, as he may need it. He has been wanting to buy a farm of his own for a long time. I don't intend to give him too much money at a time. I want to see how he uses the first thousand or two. He has three children, whom I can educate. We had a lovely time at Newport! Don't I look well?"

"Now," she went on, after I had admired the gown, "I'm back in the city for a winter's study."

"Study?"

"Yes. I'm ignorant as a Hoosier. I have a good voice, you know, and I'm going to cultivate it for all it is worth—singing and elocution. Somehow or other," and her face took a sad, far-away look, "I feel shaky about this money. It seems to me as if it might, at any day, fly away on the same wings it flew in with. If I ever have to make my living again I don't want to go back to short-hand and typewriting."

"But there are so many singers and elocutionists!" I began.

"I know it. I mean the elocution I only strengthen my voice. I think I really can sing. If I lose the money I shall go on the stage. I am going to study patiently and technically, with that thought in view."

"Oh, Fan, you must get that notion out of your head, dear. Why, you can marry anybody you want now."

Her eyes flashed fire.

"Yes, when I don't need to!" she said. "I'll not marry. I met some of the catches at Newport. They made me think of the girl at school who always chummed with the one who had the candy or a barrel of apples from home. I'm never going to marry anybody! I don't want anybody!"

She stopped short and looked at me, then tumbled down on my bed all face rufled and silk hose and French heels and so on.

Dear, dear! I fussed over her, petting her and straightened out her skirts, so she wouldn't rumple them so. "Wh' t's the matter with the child?"

"It's 'F—om'!" she sobbed, mashing her lovely bonnet between the pillows.

"What's the matter with him? Is he dead?"

"He is to me! He hasn't come near me since I got t' e hateful old money, and I made Jimmy Deans let him know, accidentally—when I got back from Newport!"

"Why, I thought you didn't love him, Fannie?"

"I didn't then. I couldn't afford it. He couldn't either. We were both poor."

"Oh, if that's all, dear, you are all right. Don't cry. You can easily enough get him back."

"But I shan't! I'm just as proud as he is, if I am rich. I shan't marry anybody. I shall go on the stage and make a great success; then he'll be ashamed of himself, and I'll never, never forgive him!"

She jumped up and wiped her eyes.

"Was I must be going," she said, pounding my powder-puff on her red nose. "Mamma gets lonesome when I stay away long. She won't go out by herself for fear she'll get kidnapped, or the elevated trains will fall through on her."

After that I didn't see or hear anything of Fannie for several weeks, one morning she came bounding in all smiles and hairdresser's bangs, and said, "Hurry up and get ready to go home with me this afternoon. I want you to help me to get ready for my wedding."

Your wedding?

"Yes. It's Tom! It's to be one week from to-day. We've moved back to Jersey, you know. Mamma couldn't get used to the noise and the elevated cars. She got homesick for the old farm. It was heavily mortgaged and I intended to let it go, but I bought it back for her and fixed it up awfully cozy. We spend our summers there. It is almost as pretty as Lenox and lots more homelike. And last Sunday morning who should come but Tom!"

"After I had come to think, I wondered how he ever came to come. It was awfully sweet of him. He is as 'proud as a peacock' and I had been told when he had that break just before we got the money. I am going to lend Tom $10,000—just as I would anybody else—you know. I don't want him to be under obligations to any one. He has always said that he could get rich in five years. He'll be $50,000 to start with. I double the amount, you see, to make sure! But I can't help but wonder how he ever made up his mind to come."

I did not tell her that I had gone down any told Tom the whole story, and how he stood holding my hand, his eyes full of tears and no words on his quivering lips. I knew he would see her before twenty-four hours, and he did.

They are now in Georgia, visiting Tom's people, and Fannie writes me that she is going to bring his younger brother—who has remarkably talent for drawing—to New York for an education in designing.

After all, $50,000 might have fallen into worse hands than Fannie's—don't you think so?—New York World.

How Our Roads May Be Improved.

(Col. A. A. Pope to the Forum.)

I would have each state by a legislative enactment do at once two or three things in the direction of this movement, namely: procure and disseminate information by establishing a bureau where the facts relating to the expense, mechanical construction, care, durability, use and extent of the different kinds of roads shall be known and ascertained; then I would have some kind of state supervision and advisory assistance by a competent engineer or engineers appointed by the state to advise on road and bridge building, repairing upon scientific principles, and upon a comprehensive and economical plan for the whole state; thirdly, I would have the state either own or control and maintain some through highways, connecting the principal towns in the state, and connecting these with the principal towns of neighboring states, where they are most needed, either for great public exigencies or for the greatest general use. The state would thus promote the equalization and the general reduction of expense of construction and maintenance of these main roads, and would give a provable example and a strong incentive to the adjacent towns to construct better contributory roads as feeders to the main ones. I would have the state divide the expenses of this scheme of road betterment in the tax levy, so that part of it should be apportioned to the whole state, part to the counties through which the roads run, and part to the towns. And, further, I would have this tax levy kept small and the investment adequate and quickly made by the business man's method of borrowing the money on long loans. It would thus be easily paid out of the profits by those sharing them.

Non-Tax Payers.

It is common to find in discussions of reform in municipal government, say the Springfield Republican, the assumption that the large majority of citizens who nominally pay no taxes pay none in fact. Curiously enough Senator John Sherman has fallen into the same error. He was recently quoted as saying that non-tax-paying classes that they have no interest in economy and honesty in local administration, when in fact they have as great interest as anybody.

How Often.

We see some young man who has squandered his money and ruined his health by excesses, and before 30 years of age is an all broken down and played out man! In all such cases I prescribe nature's tonic and nerve, Sulphur Bitters. They supply food for the brain, strengthen the nerves, and are successful in mines cases out of ten.—Old Physician.

What Was It, John.

That made your face so red and clear from pimples, said his sweetheart. Why, don't you know, Eva? For over a year I took everything I could think of without helping me, then I bought two bottles of Sulphur Bitters, and now I haven't one pimple on my face. It is the best blood cleanser I ever saw.

Digging Up Old Silver Money.

Treasure seekers will be turning up the streets of Savannah now for hidden wealth. Three of the city street hands are richer by a number of dollars for a recent find. While the city force was at work on Bull street excavating for sewer traps and laying sewers, preparatory to the asphaltting of Bull street to the park, a party of workmen uncovered a pile of silver which had been hidden, doubtless, for more than half a century.

The workmen were digging a trench along Bull street, near Jones Street lane, when one of them, William Dunn, turned up a pile of silver half dollars and other silver money with his spade.

Dunn dropped his spade at once and commenced to gather the silver into his hat. George B. Blandin, a negro, who had just shoveled over the same spot, turned and saw Dunn gathering up silver without limit, it seemed to him. Blandin, too, dropped his spade and went for the silver with both hands. A white laborer named Scully also reached the spot in time to get a share of the newly discovered wealth. The cache was soon exhausted, and the men proceeded to examine their gains. Most of it was in silver half dollars of the dates from 1824 to 1836 with some of an earlier date than 1824. There were also a number of French and Spanish pieces.

Dunn, who is an old man, refused to let anybody count his money, and carried it off without letting any one know the exact amount. The others estimated his pile at over $50, but he informed a reporter that he had sold all of it for $18.75, its face value, to various parties.

Blandin said he got $10 and that Scully got $25. Blandin sold his to various parties for a slight advance on its face value, and Scully did the same. In Scully's pile was a very old five franc piece.—Savannah News.

Not Dead Enough for That.

William Long, the colored man who hanged himself in a cell at the Cottage Grove avenue police station and was thought to be dead when cut down by Desk Sergeant Prim, proved to be a mighty lively corpse.

After Long was cut down he feigned death and was hastily removed to the Michael Reese hospital in hopes that the physicians there might be able to bring him back to life, and they were.

Long was laid upon the dissecting table, and just as a feeler Dr. Davis dashed some cold water in his face. The onslaught was so sudden that Long blinked, but still played possum.

Dr. Davis' quick eye caught the movement of Long's eyelids, and he concluded to have some fun with the man. Turning to one of his assistants, he said:

"I think this rosin is a little small for all to see here, so I think we had better cut the body in two and take half of it in the other room and then all can see."

That was enough for Long, and with a yell he sprang from the table and made a dash for a window. Officers Davis, Keliher and Mahoney were present and promptly rearrested him.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

His Life Insurance a Burden.

M. N. Allen, of Titusville, who has enlarged ideas on the subject of life insurance, has made arrangements to visit Central America on business and pleasure. Having paid up life insurance policies in three companies, he had to apply to them for a permit to make the trip. One of the companies returned him a very ambiguous reply and the other two demanded of him a large premium for the privilege. Mr. Allen has determined to postpone his trip until he can look up the authorities to see whether he can go away without sacrificing a part of his policies. Central America is the home of revolutions, fevers, venomous reptiles and wild beasts, and naturally the traveler in that glorious climate is not considered a first class risk.—Jamestown Journal.

Return of a Cent After Nine Years.

Nine years ago Ed Goss, an Auburn confectioner, was working in an Auburn shoe factory.

One day, just for curiosity, he took a cent from his pocket and cut the letters "Goss" on it, and not long after used it toward paying a little bill which he owed around the corner.

The other day some one came into his store, and in the change handed him for a pound of candy chips was the cent with his name upon it, which had come again into his possession after all these years.

Who can tell through how many hands the lettered cent passed in its nine years circulation.—Auburn (Mass.) Gazette.

A Thousand Dollar Nugget.

It has just leaked out that on Wednesday E. Getchel, a Georgetown miner, found a nugget valued at $1,000 in Deane gulch, one mile east of Georgetown. When Getchel found the nugget he was sluicing off the ground, which had been condemned as worked out for the purpose of filling a reservoir at the mouth of the gulch. He noticed a few colors, and followed up the lead to where he found what he supposed to be a piece of quartz, but was astonished upon finding it to be gold. Its weight is 56½ ounces.—Georgetown (Colo.) Letter.

Big Profits in Cheap Gas.

The last annual report of the manager of the city gas works in Bilbao, Spain, shows a profit of nearly $50,000 upon capital amounting to only $175,000 invested in plant. The average net cost of gas during the year was about thirty cents per 1,000 feet, and the average selling price was ninety-two cents.—New York Journal.

Curious Effect of the Aurora.

The presence of the aurora borealis had a queer effect upon the paper on which the Boston Journal is printed the other day. The paper is run dry, and it became so heavily charged with electricity that it smoldered every time the big press was started, and the fragments adhered as though joined with mastic.—Journalist.

THE FIRST CALL.

Fanny B. Payne, in Harper's Bazar.

SCENE I.

Parlor of Mrs. Newcome's house. Bessy Newcome, aged eight, drumming on the piano. Enter Mrs. Suburban, who comes to make her first call.

Mrs. S. This is Mrs. Newcome's little girl, isn't it? How do you do?

Bessy. Oh, I know you. You're Mrs. Suburban, ain't you?

Mrs. S. Yes, that is my name. What is yours?

Bessy. Elizabeth Louisa Newcome. They call me Bessy. I'm named after my aunt Bessy. She's coming to stay with us tomorrow. Do you know her?

Mrs. S. No. I have never met her. I think Bessy is a pretty name, don't you?

Bessy. No, I don't. Mamma said it was about time you called. She said she thought it was mean you didn't call on her before you gave that tea, so that she could go too. I think she felt awful bad about that. She had a nice new dress—all lace down the front, and ribbon bows and things. She was making her plans to wear it; I heard her. Aren't you sorry now you didn't ask her? Because perhaps you'll never see the dress. If she wasn't home I'd go up and get it for you. It's a pity for you not to see it. I heard papa say it cost a great deal.

Mrs. S. (trying to change the conversation, and looking out of the window). Why, you can see our house quite plainly from here, can't you?

Bessy. Yes, indeed we can. And it's such a nice place to see all the things you do. Mamma, when I was a little girl, I thought I didn't believe she'd like it if she knew I told you. You have a good deal of company, don't you? We did wonder so why the doctor went there twice the other day. What was the matter?

Don't you tell me? Then I can tell mamma. She'll be so relieved to know. Wasn't that a handsome man staying with you last week? She thought he was lovely. But won't you tell me about the dresses? I don't believe they cost as much as mamma's. They don't look so.

This isn't made of silk, is it? I should think you would have it on silk. The rattle is so nice, mamma says it always makes her feel rich. Sometimes I don't think we're very rich, do you?

Mrs. S. Why, I don't know, Bessy. Do you think your mamma is at home?

I understood the maid to say she was. Bessy. That wasn't a maid; that was the doctor. I don't know, dressed she was a maid, because she waits on the table too. Would that make her a maid?

Mrs. S. (puzzled). Why, yes, I think so.

Bessy. Do you have a cook and a maid too? Mamma was wondering how you could have a tea if you only had one girl. Do you suppose we could give one? Who would go to the door? Mamma thought perhaps Mrs. Gay would lend us her waitress. She keeps a real waitress. Do you? Perhaps you would lend us yours. I guess I'll go up and tell mamma you have one, then she can ask you when she comes down. She must be most dressed by this time. It would be just splendid if you would.

(Skips out of the parlor, and runs into Mrs. Newcome, who is just coming in from the door.)

Mrs. S. My darling, be careful; you will ruin your mamma's dress. How do you like Mrs. Suburban? I beg your pardon for keeping you so long. By an inadvertency I did not understand from my waitress that you were here. I hope little Bessy has entertained you. Run up stairs, sweetheart.

Mrs. S. Oh, she has indeed!

Mrs. S. She is a good little thing—really never gives me any trouble at all—Bessy (excitedly). Oh, mamma, I told her about the waitress, and she's got one. She'll lend—

Mrs. S. (a little anxiously). What are you talking about, Bessy? Obey mamma, and go up stairs.

Bessy (after a pause). She was awful sorry about your not going to her tea. You haven't said anything about your tea, mamma.

Mrs. S. (bewildered). My tea? Bessy, obey me, and go up stairs at once. (Turning to Mrs. S. O. H. I suppose she meant a little tea I think of giving. I hope I shall have the pleasure of seeing you, Mrs. Suburban. But of course you will receive a card—

Bessy (from the stairs). Mamma, she said Jane was a maid, because—

(Mrs. Suburban saves the situation by rising and bidding good-by.)

SCENE II.

Mr. and Mrs. Suburban dressing for dinner.

Mrs. S. Jack, I called on the Newcomes to-day, and— Well, I want to ask you.

Mr. S. What, my dear?

Mrs. S. Need we ask them to dinner?

How now?—To what reason do you attribute Patti's wonderful popularity?

Wagg—Oh, to diva's reasons.

Wooden—I see they have introduced a bill against the sweating system into Congress.

Greenback—Yes, and I hope it will pass.

Wooden—Well, how will that affect the Turkish bath business.

AT HAND

In a dangerous emergency, AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is prompt to act and sure to cure. A dose taken on the first symptoms of Croup or Bronchitis, checks further progress of these complaints. It softens the phlegm, soothes the inflamed membrane, and induces sleep. As a remedy for colds, coughs, loss of voice, la grippe, pneumonia, and even consumption, in its early stages, AYER'S Cherry Pectoral excels all similar preparations. It is endorsed by leading physicians, is agreeable to the taste, does not interfere with digestion, and needs to be taken usually in small doses.

From repeated tests in my own family, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has proved itself a very efficient remedy for colds, coughs, and the various disorders of the throat and lungs.—A. W. Bartlett, Pittsfield, N. H.

For the last 25 years I have been taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for lung troubles, and am assured that its use has saved my life. I have recommended it to hundreds. I find the most effective way of taking this medicine is in small and frequent doses.—T. M. Mahews, P. M., Sherman, Ohio.

My wife suffered from a cold; nothing helped her but Ayer's Cherry Pectoral which effected a cure.—R. Amero, Plymouth, N. S.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Prompt to act, sure to cure

Wm. L. DeLacey, Esq., who was in the famous "Fighting Jersey Brigade" under Gen. Phil Kearney, has used Hood's Sarsaparilla with great benefit.

Purify Your Blood

as a general tonic to cleanse the blood and sharpen the appetite. "It is the best anti-malaria remedy," he says, "that I know of." Certainly the cordial endorsement of so prominent a man should convince you that Hood's Sarsaparilla is worthy your confidence.

Mr. Charles F. Drexel, a well known former

Spring Medicine

resident of Baltimore, Md., now Deputy City Treasurer of Omaha, Neb., writes that Hood's Sarsaparilla has effected a Phenomenal Cure in the case of his son, who when two years of age became afflicted with "Hemorrhoids."

It first developed in his right eye, and the discharge from the same caused the whole face on that side to break out in a nasty, running sore. The poor little fellow was indeed unable to look at. Physicians gave him only temporary relief.

He almost lost the sight of one eye, and the best oculists in Baltimore failed to benefit him. Finally Mrs. Drexel insisted upon trying Hood's Sarsaparilla and before he had taken half a bottle he looked like another child. His eyesight was fully restored. In fact, says Mr. Drexel, "he is the healthiest of our three children."

Hood's Sarsaparilla

and we feel that too much praise cannot be given Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Try Hood's Pills for Biliousness this spring.

ADAMS' MACHINE SHOP. MACHINE JOBBING AND REPAIRING. All kinds of Machine Sharpening and Grinding. BICYCLE AND TRICYCLE REPAIRING. SPECIALTY. LAMPS, MOWERS, SHARPENING. SKATE SHARPENING. LOCK-SMITHING AND KEY FITTING, WORK GUARANTEED. 396 WASHINGTON STREET, NEWTON. P. O. BOX 114. 16-17

SHERIFF'S SALE Commonwealth of Massachusetts. MIDDLESEX, ss. February 16th 1892. Taken on execution and will be sold at Public Auction at my office in my dwelling house, No. 23 Church street, in Newton in said County of Middlesex on Saturday the sixteenth day of April 1892, at nine o'clock A. M., all the right title and interest that Martin O'Brien of said County of Middlesex had on the ninth day of April A. D. 1891 at seven o'clock and forty-five minutes A. M. (that being the time when the same was attached on execution) in and to the following described parcel of real estate to wit: A certain parcel of land situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex being lots 3 and 4 on a plan made by Charles A. Pease n dated April 1, 1891 and recorded in the Middlesex Registry of Deeds Book 68 Plan 29, the same being bounded and described as follows: Beginning at the easterly corner of said lot 3 at a point in the northerly line of a new street called in Newton in the County of Middlesex being lots 3 and 4 on a plan made by Charles A. Pease n dated April 1, 1891 and recorded in the Middlesex Registry of Deeds Book 68 Plan 29, the same being bounded and described as follows: Beginning at the easterly corner of said lot 3 at a point in the northerly line of a new street called in Newton in the County of Middlesex being lots 3 and 4 on a plan made by Charles A. Pease n dated April 1, 1891 and recorded in the Middlesex Registry of Deeds Book 68 Plan 29, the same being bounded and described as follows: Beginning at the easterly corner of said lot 3 at a point in the northerly line of a new street called in Newton in the County of Middlesex being lots 3 and 4 on a plan made by Charles A. Pease n dated April 1, 1891 and recorded in the Middlesex Registry of Deeds Book 68 Plan 29, the same being bounded and described as follows: Beginning at the easterly corner of said lot 3 at a point in the northerly line of a new street called in Newton in the County of Middlesex being lots 3 and 4 on a plan made by Charles A. Pease n dated April 1, 1891 and recorded in the Middlesex Registry of Deeds Book 68 Plan 29, the same being bounded and described as follows: Beginning at the easterly corner of said lot 3 at a point in the northerly line of a new street called in Newton in the County of Middlesex being lots 3 and 4 on a plan made by Charles A. Pease n dated April 1, 1891 and recorded in the Middlesex Registry of Deeds Book 68 Plan 29, the same being bounded and described as follows: Beginning at the easterly corner of said lot 3 at a point in the northerly line of a new street called in Newton in the County of Middlesex being lots 3 and 4 on a plan made by Charles A. Pease n dated April 1, 1891 and recorded in the Middlesex Registry of Deeds Book 68 Plan 29, the same being bounded and described as follows: Beginning at the easterly corner of said lot 3 at a point in the northerly line of a new street called in Newton in the County of Middlesex being lots 3 and 4 on a plan made by Charles A. Pease n dated April 1, 1891 and recorded in the Middlesex Registry of Deeds Book 68 Plan 29, the same being bounded and described as follows: Beginning at the easterly corner of said lot 3 at a point in the northerly line of a new street called in Newton in the County of Middlesex being lots 3 and 4 on a plan made by Charles A. Pease n dated April 1, 1891 and recorded in the Middlesex Registry of Deeds Book 68 Plan 29, the same being bounded and described as follows: Beginning at the easterly corner of said lot 3 at a point in the northerly line of a new street called in Newton in the County of Middlesex being lots 3 and 4 on a plan made by Charles A. Pease n dated April 1, 1891 and recorded in the Middlesex Registry of Deeds Book 68 Plan 29, the same being bounded and described as follows: Beginning at the easterly corner of said lot 3 at a point in the northerly line of a new street called in Newton in the County of Middlesex being lots 3 and 4 on a plan made by Charles A. Pease n dated April 1, 1891 and recorded in the Middlesex Registry of Deeds Book 68 Plan 29, the same being bounded and described as follows: Beginning at the easterly corner of said lot 3 at a point in the northerly line of a new street called in Newton in the County of Middlesex being lots 3 and 4 on a plan made by Charles A. Pease n dated April 1, 1891 and recorded in the Middlesex Registry of Deeds Book 68 Plan 29, the same being bounded and described as follows:

Cooking is a subtle art.
Of life it is the greater part.
Try as you will with beauty's stay
The cook will steal your heart away.
Of all things having purity,
Let cooking always foremost be.
Each day USE GOLDEN COTTOLINE
No fear your food will then be clean
Each dish is worthy of a Queen.

Cottolene

we may all tickle our palates with

—PIE—
and have no fear of dyspepsia.
The properties of Cottolene are purely hygienic.

Manufactured by
N. K. FAIRBANK & CO.
CHICAGO, and
5 Central Wharf, Boston.

SULPHUR BITTERS

TRUTHS FOR THE SICK.

For those DEATHLY BILIOUS SPELLS depend on Sulphur Bitters; it never fails to cure.

DO YOU SUFFER with that tired and all-gone feeling? If so Sulphur Bitters; it will cure you.

Don't be without a bottle. TRY
IT.

THE of a fair face is a beautiful SECRET skin. Sulphur Bitters makes both.

If you do not wish to suffer from RHEUMATISM, use a bottle of Sulphur Bitters; it never fails to cure.

Are you CONSTIPATED? If so,
Sulphur Bitters is just what you need.

Poor, weak, and weary mothers
RAISE PUNY, PINOLING children.
Sulphur Bitters will make them strong, hearty, and healthy.

Cleanse the vitiated blood when you see its impurities bursting through the skin in Rely on Sulphur Bitters and health will follow.

Send 3-cent stamps to A. F. Ordway & Co., Boston, Mass., for best medical work published.

TEETH

$10 a SET. Guaranteed.

Extracted painlessly. All other dental operations performed at equally low rates.
DR. W. R. DUDLEY, 122 Boylston St., between Tremont St. and Park Square, on one night.
ROOM 7, 12 REAR.

GEO. W. BUSH,

Funeral and Furnishing

UNDERTAKER,
ELMWOOD STREET, NEWTON.

Coffins, Caskets, Robes,
And every modern requisite for the proper peformance of the business constantly on hand.
Orders by telephone promptly attended to.

W. M. H. PHILLIPS

We would respectfully inform the citizens of Newton that we can be found at the above place, and will attend to all orders personally. Having had over twenty years experience in the business, I trust I can attend to all calls that may come under my direction, to the satisfaction of all parties who may require the services of an undertaker. 11

S. K. MacLEOD

Carpenter and Builder.

Jobbing of all kinds neatly and promptly
executed.

Bathrooms and Fittings for Plumbers' Work done at a speciality.

Shop, Centre Place, op. Public Library
Residence, Boyd street, near Jewett.
P. O. Box, 550, NEWTON, MASS.

RHEUMATISM AND KIDNEY COMPLAINT

Cured by

DR. DAM'S VEGETABLE REMEDY

All Grocers sell and warrant it.

AT BEDTIME
I TAKE
A PLEASANT HERB
DRINK

THE NEXT MORNING I FEEL BRIGHT AND
NEW AND MY COMPLEXION IS BETTER.

My doctor says it acts gently on the stomach, liver and kidneys, and is a pleasant laxative. This drink is made from herbs, and is prepared for use as easily as tea. It is called

LANE'S MEDICINE

All druggists sell it at 50c. and $1.00 per package.
Buy one today. Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day. In order to be healthy, this is necessary.

Four Boston men, who were dining together, consulted their watches and found that every one of them had stopped. They are now trying to account for it.

A Giddy Girl of Seventy.
Mary A. Livermore, who has recently passed her seventieth birthday, attended not long ago a little gathering of people where Dr. Holmes and Whittier were present. The conversation turned upon ages, and the two great poets having confessed to their eightieth birthdays, Mrs. Livermore announced her approaching seventieth, when Mr. Whittier replied, "Get thee along, get thee along; thou art but a giddy girl."—Boston Letter.

The Austrian minister of war has issued orders for dogs to be trained for service as messengers and sentinels, and also to assist in discovering the wounded on the field of battle.

Major Yasunasa Fukushima, military attache of the Japanese legation in Berlin, is about to start out on a horseback ride from the German capital to Tokio.
Exclusive of waterways, which he will have to travel by boat, he estimates that he will cover about 10,000 miles. He expects to ride six days in every seven, and to cover about thirty to thirty-five miles a day on the average. His trip, with due allowance for unforeseen delays, will last about fifteen months, and during it he will suffer the intense cold of two winters and the correspondingly intense heat of a summer.

Major Yasunasa Fukushima in his great fur coat weighs 154 pounds; his extra clothing, twenty-five pounds, and his arms, tools, etc., thirty-three pounds.
The total weight for his horse, therefore, will be 212 pounds. The way of horse and rider will be from Berlin to St. Petersburg via Warsaw and Kovno; from St. Petersburg to Moscow, Kasan, Omsk, Semipalatinsk; through Mongolia via Kobdo, Ulaanbaatar, the northern part of the Gobi desert, Kiachta to Siberia; and from Irkutsk to Vladivostok, along the road on the left bank of the Amur and the right bank of the Ussuri. Then he will proceed to Manchuria and China. From Peking he will ride to Shanghai, will sail over the Chinese sea to Nagasaki, and will ride thence to his home in Tokio.—New York Sun.

A Gift Repaid.
Dr. A. Billhardt, of Sandusky, O., many years ago, while in Philadelphia one evening, walking through a well known quarter of that city, was stopped by a pale faced gentleman who begged pitiably for assistance. His story of wrongs and misfortune was so plausible that the doctor handed him the amount asked for and was on the point of continuing his walk when the stranger stopped him again, asked his name and address, promising that when fortune smiled upon him he should be well remembered.

Recently, upon opening a small package directed to him from Melmore, a mining town in South America, the doctor found glistening in a downy bit of cotton a brilliant scintillating with all the colors of the rainbow. Inclosed with the gem was a card reading:
Dr. A. Billhardt:
DEAR SIR—Several years ago I met you in the streets of Philadelphia. I was starving and asked you for bread; you gave it to me.
For your kindness I return you a stone. It is of great value, but nothing, I assure you, in comparison to the gratitude I feel for the kindness you extended. BARNES ISO ROSSA.

That the doctor was amazed goes without saying, and no wonder. The gem weighs twenty carats and its value is estimated at $8,000.—Cor. Chicago Inter Ocean.

Burglar Proof Glass.
Under the name of wire glass a new invention has been brought on the market in Dresden. The process of manufacture consists in furnishing glass in a hot plastic condition with a flexible metallic layer, iron wire netting, for instance, which is completely inclosed by the vitreous substance and effectively protected against exterior influences, as rust, etc. The new glass possesses much greater resisting power than the ordinary material and is, it is claimed, indifferent to the most abrupt changes of temperature and will even withstand open fire.

The glass is specially adapted for skylights, the powerful resisting qualities of the material enabling the usual wire protectors to be dispensed with. As wire glass cannot be cut by the diamond, except under the application of great force, and cannot be broken without creating considerable noise, the substance is claimed to be in a measure burglar proof.—Iron.

Shall We Eat the Seed of the Sunflower?
In return for the corn which Uncle Sam proposes to teach the Russians how to eat, it is seriously suggested that we shall adopt a few hints from them respecting the usefulness of the sunflower.
There are regions in the west which will be most profitably utilized for the cultivation of this plant, which has been found so valuable for food purposes in the empire of the czar that 750,000 acres in that country are annually planted with it. Two kinds there are chiefly—one which bears small seeds, used for making oil, while the other produces big seeds, which are consumed in enormous quantities by the common people in the same way that peanuts are eaten here, except that they are devoured raw.
—Washington Star.

Typewriting in London.
Across the water typewriting is being elevated to a place among the arts. A typewriting "at home" was recently given in London by two women who excel in the profession (?). A magic lantern provided with exhibition slides illustrative of the twin occupations, shorthand and typewriting, and duly explained by an expert was the feature of the "at home." The beauty of the work shown drew exclamations of surprised pleasure from the assembly. A panthea and a representation of the Pantheon at Rome was considered especially fine.—New York Times.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Established in 1851 and located pleasantly at
NOS. 7 AND 8 COLE'S BLOCK,
has constantly on hand a LARGE and CHOICE
SUPPLY OF
Meats, Poultry and Game.
W. H. BRACKETT,
Proprietor. Telephone 7854

THE BEST SOCIETY NEWS IN
THE BOSTON HERALD —and— THE SUNDAY HERALD.

Daily . . . 50c. a Month. Sunday . . . $2.00 a Year.

NEWTON FREE LIBRARY.

LIST OF NEW BOOKS.

- Balch, T. The French in America during the War of the Independence of the United States, 1777-83; a Translation by T. W. Balch. 77.188
Gives a sketch of the origin and events of the Revolutionary War, an account of the expedition of the French forces under Rochambeau.
Bourget, P. Impressions of Italy; from the French by M. J. Serrano. 32.451
The diary of an excursion made in 1890 through Tuscany, Umbria, the Marches, Otranto and Calabria.
Evolution in Science, Philosophy and Art; Popular Lectures and Discussions before the Brooklyn Ethical Association. 103.546
Seventeen of the separate pamphlets of the Evolution series are published together. They are by E. D. Cope and others.
Fenn, G. M. The Crystal Hunters; a Boy's Adventures in the Higher Alps. 63.930
Guyot, Y. Principles of Social Economy. 82.159
Hardy, J. Tess of the D'Urbervilles; a Pure Woman faithfully Presented. 63.938
Hatton, J. Cigarette Papers for After-Dinner Smoking. 54.715
Jefferson, R. The Dewy Morn. 63.933
Marston, P. B. A Last Harvest; Lyrics and Sonnets from the Book of Love; edited with Biog. Sketch by L. C. Moulton. 53.426
Meiklabin, J. M. D. A Short Geography with the Commercial Highways of the World. 31.375
Morris, M. Monte se. 91.708
Belongs to English Men of Action series.
Potter, H. C. Waymarks, 1870-91; being Discourses with some Account of their Occasions. 91.705
"Discourses which mark incidents that may be called representative in the history of the life of the Church and of the nation during the last twenty years."
Reagan, J. E. Recollections and Letters; trans. by I. F. Hagood. 92.652
Riddell, C. E. L. A Mad-Tour; or a Journey undertaken in an Insane Moment through Central Europe on Foot. 34.386
Rogers, J. E. T. The Industrial and Commercial History of England; edited by A. G. L. Rogers. 86.122
Lectures delivered to the University of Oxford.
Russell, W. C. A Strange Elopement. 63.932
Shaler, N. S. The Story of our Continent; a Reader in the Geography and Geology of North America. 102.593
Seeks to give "a simple explanation of the way in which our continent has come to its present physical state, and at the same time to show how this physical state affects the life of the people."
Sinnott, A. P. The Rationale of Mesmerism. 101.609
Terhune, M. V. (Marion Harland.) His Great Self. 63.940
Theuriet, A. Les Bastien-Lepage and his Art; a Memoir; also Jules Bastien-Lepage as Artist, by G. Clausen; Modern Realism in Painting by W. Sierck, and a Study of Marie Bastien-Lepage by M. Blind. 97.310
Tyndall, J. New Fragments. 54.717
Ward, H. M. The Oak; a Popular Introduction to Forest Botany. 101.606
One of the volumes of a new series called the Modern Science Series to be edited by Sir John Lubbock, and intended to be less technical than other scientific series.
Wicksteed, P. H. Four Lectures on Henrik Ibsen; dealing chiefly with his Metrical Works. 51.550
Woodward, J. J. and Burnett, G. Heraldry, British and Foreign; with English and French Glossaries. 2 vols. 76.217
Wright, H. C. Children's Stories in English Literature. Vol. 2. From Shakespeare to Tennyson. 54.527
E. P. THURSTON, Librarian, Mar. 23, 1892.

My catarrh was very bad. For thirty years I have been troubled with it—have tried a number of remedies without relief. A druggist advised Ely's Cream Balm. I have used only one bottle and I can say I feel like a new man. I make this voluntary statement that others may know of the Balm.—J. W. Mathewson, (Lawyer), Pawtucket, R. I.

Something funny happened at a recent White House reception, Paul Desprez of the French legation, when the crush was at its height, suddenly missed from his breast his decoration of the order of Tunis, and notified the ushers and servants of his loss. A search was unavailing for some time, and Mr. Desprez was on the point of notifying the police when he was jostled against a handsome woman. Raising his eyes to hers to apologize for his apparent mistake, he discovered his missing jewel caught in her luxuriant hair. Mr. Desprez politely called the fair one's attention to the new decoration and she surrendered it with a blush and an expression of wonder as to how in the world it ever got caught in her tresses.

Cancer can be cured, and by Dr. James M. Solomon, Jr., 75 Court St., Boston, Mass.

Boston, Aug. 26, 1890.
Dr. Solomon has cured a cancer on my lip of seventeen years' standing, it was cut out twice, by what they called eminent surgeons, at intervals of six years, after being cut out each time I knew by the feeling it was still there, and it would be now if I had not been so fortunate as to have Dr. Solomon treat it, he did it without any cutting. I would urge those afflicted with cancer not delay, but to go at once and be cured permanently as I have done. My dear Doctor I thank from the bottom of my heart,
JOHN HALLAHAN,
78 Charlestown Street.

"What's in a name?" Well, that depends. For instance, the name of "Ayer's" is sufficient guarantee that Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a genuine, scientific blood-purifier, and not a sham, like so much that goes by the name of "sarsaparilla." Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the standard.

It is not theory but fact—that Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the weak strong. A fair trial will convince you of its merit.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Established in 1851 and located pleasantly at
NOS. 7 AND 8 COLE'S BLOCK,
has constantly on hand a LARGE and CHOICE
SUPPLY OF
Meats, Poultry and Game.
W. H. BRACKETT,
Proprietor. Telephone 7854

THE BEST SOCIETY NEWS IN
THE BOSTON HERALD —and— THE SUNDAY HERALD.

Daily . . . 50c. a Month. Sunday . . . $2.00 a Year.

THE BOSTON HERALD —and— THE SUNDAY HERALD.

Daily . . . 50c. a Month. Sunday . . . $2.00 a Year.

THE BOSTON HERALD —and— THE SUNDAY HERALD.

Daily . . . 50c. a Month. Sunday . . . $2.00 a Year.

THE BOSTON HERALD —and— THE SUNDAY HERALD.

Daily . . . 50c. a Month. Sunday . . . $2.00 a Year.

We Shall Know Each Other There.

Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation? Heb. 1:14.

When the evening shadows gather,
And the long day's work is done;
When we reach the unknown country
'Tis beyond the setting sun.
After all the weary wait,
In their peaceful rest to share,
No more need of angelic parting—
We shall know each other there.

Cherished forms who walked beside us
Down the aisles of bygone years,
How we watched them fade and vanish,
Through a mist of falling tears,
Loving voices hushed in silence,
Joining now the angel band,
Singing glory, hallelujah,
Over in the Beulah land.

But if Jesus bids us enter
Through the early portals wide,
They will be a first to meet us,
Over on the other side.
Safe within our Father's mansion,
Clad in robes so bright and fair,
Hymning out a joyous welcome,
We shall know each other there.

All the way they've walked beside us,
Ever near us though unseen,
Hidden from our limited vision,
All the while their tender accents
Whispered words of love and cheer,
But life's battle raged so fiercely,
That our ears were dull to hear.

Hush then, each rebellious murmur,
For we, too, are going home;
Going to find our hours hold treasures,
When the first great cause to roam.
On the resurrection morning,
Free from toil and free from care,
With our tear-dimmed eyes made perfect,
We shall know each other there.

—C. E. B.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a blood purifier entitles it to your confidence. No other preparation has such a record of cures of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Blood Poisoning, or other blood diseases. To try it is to know its merit. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla.

COPYRIGHT 1891

—the big, old-fashioned pill. It's pretty hard to have to take it, too.
You wouldn't, if you realized fully how it shocks and weakens the system.

Luckily, you don't have to take
it. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are better. They're sensible. They do, mildly and gently, more than the ordinary pill, with all its disturbance. They regulate the liver, stomach and bowels, as well as thoroughly cleanse them. They're the original Little Liver Pills, purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, the smallest and the easiest to take.
One little Pellet for a gentle laxative—three for a cathartic. Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels are promptly and permanently cured.
They're the cheapest, too, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned.
You pay only for the good you get.

They're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned.
You pay only for the good you get.

Sleeplessness Cured. IV
ST. SEVERIN, Koyleron P. O. Pa.
I am glad to testify that I used Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic with the best success for sleeplessness, and believe that it is really a great relief for suffering humanity.

E. FRANK, Pastor.
One of the parties to whom I sold some of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic was telling me today that he had suffered from great distress and pain through his whole body. After using one bottle he was entirely cured.

JOHN W. CARVER, Merchant.
My wife suffered for a number of years from violent nervousness and spent hundreds of dollars for doctors and medicine, but all to no avail. After taking only two bottles of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic her trouble has subsided.

JOHN FULLMER.
—A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases sent free to any address
who will send a 3-cent stamp.
This medicine is free of charge.
This remedy has been prepared by the Reverend Pastor Koenig of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1850, and is now prepared under his direction by the

KOENIG MED. CO., Chicago, Ill.
Sold by Druggists at $1 per Bottle. 6 for $5.
Large Size, $1.75. 6 Bottles for $9.

Meat, Poultry and Game

"THE CHOICEST" OUR MOTTO.

The Newton Market

Established in 1851 and located pleasantly at
NOS. 7 AND 8 COLE'S BLOCK,
has constantly on hand a LARGE and CHOICE
SUPPLY OF
Meats, Poultry and Game.
W. H. BRACKETT,
Proprietor. Telephone 7854

THE BEST SOCIETY NEWS IN
THE BOSTON HERALD —and— THE SUNDAY HERALD.

Daily . . . 50c. a Month. Sunday . . . $2.00 a Year.

THE BOSTON HERALD —and— THE SUNDAY HERALD.

Daily . . . 50c. a Month. Sunday . . . $2.00 a Year.

THE BOSTON HERALD —and— THE SUNDAY HERALD.

Daily . . . 50c. a Month. Sunday . . . $2.00 a Year.

THE BOSTON HERALD —and— THE SUNDAY HERALD.

Daily . . . 50c. a Month. Sunday . . . $2.00 a Year.

THE BOSTON HERALD —and— THE SUNDAY HERALD.

Daily . . . 50c. a Month. Sunday . . . $2.00 a Year.

THE BOSTON HERALD —and— THE SUNDAY HERALD.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil.
It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency.
Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach
and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.
"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its
good effect upon their children."
Dr. G. C. Osmond,
Lowell, Mass.
"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
Dr. J. F. KINCHLOE, Corway, Ark.
The Centaur Company, 77 Murray Street, New York City.

Castoria.
"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription
known to me."
H. A. ARCHER, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.
"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria,
and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
UNITED HOSPITAL AND DISPENSARY,
Boston, Mass.
ALLEN C. SMITH, Pres.

The Centaur Company, 77 Murray Street, New York City.

Elys Cream Balm For CATARRH

THE POSITIVE CURE.
ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York. Price 50c.

Dr. James M. Solomon, Jr.'s Botanical Medical Institute
75 Court St. (Scollay Sq.), Boston, Mass.

INDIAN BOTANICAL REMEDIES

Roots, Herbs, Gums and Barks chiefly used. Dr. Solomon treats all Chronic Diseases, makes a specialty of Lung Troubles, CANCERS, TUMORS, EPILEP-TIC FITS, RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, ST. VITUS DANCE, SPINAL COMPLAINTS, HEMORRHOIDS OF LUNGS, EYE AND SKIN DISEASES, ETC. ELY'S CREAM BALM LIVER TROUBLES and all DISEASES OF THE BLOOD. PILLS and FISTULA cured without the use of the knife and cure guaranteed. Consultation free.

can be positively and permanently cured, by BOSTON DRUG, secret, safe, and absolutely sure edge, can be given in tea, coffee or food.

DRUNKENNESS POSITIVELY CURED.

WM. R. BROWN CO., Boston.

HIGH CLASS OF DENTISTRY

AT THE Boston Dental Institute

HAVE your Dentistry done at this office. The Best appointed Dental Rooms in New England franchises. Consultation free. Lady attendants. First-class Proprietor in all the BOSTON DENTAL INSTITUTE, Dr. G. A. STILES & CO., - - - Proprietors.

No. 122 Boylston Street, opposite the Common.
G. A. STILES. ROOTS 1, 2 and 3. L. JORDAN

LADIES AND GENTS BOOTS

Made to fit any shaped foot, stylish if you wish,
or neat, plain and comfortable if desired. If you feel trouble you try a pair of boots made on our new natural last, and don't suffer any longer. A full line of Ladies' Gents' and Children's Boots,
Shoes and Rubbers kept on hand at bottom price.

A. L. RHYND, 265 Washington St., Newton

Bay State

Guitars
Mandolins
Banjos

These have received the highest honors in competition, six silver, three bronze, one gold medal and three diplomas.
Musical Instruments of every description, including Huppa Errol and Wm. A. Tilton Guitars, Mand and Orchestral Instruments, Strings, etc. Send for Catalogue.

NEWTON COAL CO

—SUCCESSORS TO—
HILLS, BULLENS & CO.

WALTER THORPE, Newton Centre
Agent for the GRAPHIC, and receives subscriptions and makes collections for it. He takes orders for advertising, hand-bills, and all other kinds of printing. Also, Real Estate to sell and to rent, and insurance against fire in the best English and American companies.

NEWTON CENTRE.

—Farley, pianos, 433 Wash. St., Newton.
—Mrs. M. E. Brown has gone to Biddeford, Me.
—Mrs. Reuben Stone of Berkeley was in town this week.
—Judge and Mrs. Robert R. Bishop are visiting in New York.
—Mr. Moses L. Stevens is in Henneker, N. H., on a business trip.
—Mr. W. E. Armstrong has purchased a fine road horse bred in Maine.
—Miss Webb of Cuttish is visiting Miss Caroline Capron of Beacon street.
—Democratic Mass. Caucus, next Tuesday evening, at Lower Armory Hall, Newton.
—Mr. H. H. Read has commenced the construction of a house on Glenwood avenue.
—Almost everything to eat including shad, lettuce and tomatoes at Richardson's market.
—Mr. Fred M. Berry of W. O. Knapp's store, is at his home in Bridgton, Me., for two weeks.
—Miss A. E. Clark of this place has joined Mrs. M. D. Frazar's summer party for Europe.
—Mr. Willard Morse has recovered from his illness and will at once return to his business in Lynn.
—Miss Grace Willard, who has been visiting friends here, has returned to her home in Worcester.
—Mrs. Levi C. Wade, who has been in Europe since November last, expects to return home the first of May.
—Rev. Mr. Stearns of New York state, and son of Dr. O. S. Stearns, preached in the Baptist church Sunday.
—Mr. and Mrs. Halsted, who have been stopping at Capt. J. E. Cousens, Summer street, have returned to Boston.
—Miss Grace Shannon and Miss Mabel Blanchard of Boston are guests of Mrs. Samuel A. Shannon, Lake avenue.
—Mrs. George E. Barrows was in town this week from Mechanics Falls, Me., where Mr. Barrows is still staying at his home.
—Mr. Ratcliff of Jamaica Plain, who is connected with the treasurer's office of the Boston & Albany railroad, has moved into his house on Rice street.
—Mr. and Mrs. William Byers and child have returned from New York City, and are once more occupying their pleasant residence on Moreland avenue.
—A nonsensical rumor has been going the rounds that Mr. Harris' place was interfered with at the suggestion of outside parties. The rumor is without the slightest foundation.
—Mr. B. Frank Lynn, of the Newton Baptist Theological Institution, has accepted a call to a large pastorate in Newbury, Kan. He left town Monday for his new field of labor.
—The engagements announced last week have created some disturbance. The notice was sent to this office by mail from outside parties, and the item was evidently given in perfect good faith.
—Many Newton Centre people will be interested in the announcement of the wedding of Mr. Reginald Gray and Miss Rose Lee of Beacon street, at the Arlington street church, Boston, on Saturday, April 2.
—There are letters at the postoffice for John Cahill, Miss M. L. Headley, Mrs. H. H. Leavitt, Mrs. John McCarthy, Jackson street, Miss Annie Turner.
—Mrs. Smith, Hovey, Mills and others of this place attended on Monday the funeral of Mr. Hezekiah S. Chittenden, deacon of the Clarendon street church, Boston. Dr. Smith and Hovey assisting Dr. A. J. Gordon in the service.
—The nameless, as yet, Young Ladies' Club met last Tuesday afternoon and evening at the residence of Mrs. William Bemis, Lyman street, and spent several hours of social enjoyment, gentlemen being invited for the evening.
—At the Methodist church next Sunday evening the fifth and last lecture will be given by the pastor on Hymn Writers and Their Hymns, subject, "Ray Palmer and his Hymns." Services will commence at 7 o'clock. Seats free; all are cordially invited.
—The Misses Capron of Beacon street entertained a large number of guests on Tuesday evening, by a drive whist party. The party was one of the prettiest given this winter, as to gowns, flowers and prizes. A bountiful supper followed the card playing, and was served in the large oak finished dining room.
—A horse driven by Mrs. Emma Kneeland became unmanageable on Centre street, near Parkman's block. Tuesday afternoon, and upset the vehicle, throwing out the occupant who received some severe bruises, but fortunately nothing more serious. The horse was captured by Officer Fletcher near the depot.
—The horse of a contractor employed at Councilman Deagan's new house ran yesterday with a hitch weight attached, colliding with Mr. N. N. James' horse and carriage, which was being driven by his daughter. As to gowns, flowers and prizes. A bountiful supper followed the card playing, and was served in the large oak finished dining room.
—Samuel J. Brown, architect, is erecting a house for W. M. Flinders on the shores of Lake Crystal. It is about 40 feet by 42 and is built in the palatial colonial style with a deck on top surrounded by a balustrade. A piazza with coupled Ionic columns runs across the front. On the lake facade is an octagonal feature which runs up to the main cornice. Colonial leaded lights embellish the front. The house has a central hall finished in oak and rooms on each side.
—A very pretty card party was given by Miss Stuart at her home on Friday evening last. Prizes were captured by Miss Bennett, first, and Miss Clement, second. Mr. Fred Cutler, first among those present were the Misses Bassett, Miss Merriam, Miss Worcester, Miss Bennett, Miss Leconte, Miss Clement, Miss Cushman, Mr. Will Pierce, Mr. Frank Fennessy, Mr. Arthur Evans, Mr. Huntress, Mr. Frank Leconte, Mr. Stevens, Mr. Russell Ballou, Mr. Evans, Mr. Fred Cutler.
—The frequenters of Harris pool rooms in White's block were surprised to learn on Saturday that the cues must remain in the racks by Officer Fletcher's orders. Mr. Harris was running the table without a license from the city, and the officer who was aware of this thought it time to interfere. A petition was hustled in to the board of aldermen Monday and a license granted and Tuesday morning business was resumed. The conduct of the place has been above reproach thus far, but it is just as well to keep within the requirements of the law.
—The list of entries for the lawn tennis tournament at the Tampa Bay Hotel, Tampa, Fla., on the 25th, is a notable one, and includes such players as Valentine G. Hall and Edward Hall, of New York; Fred Hovey of Harvard College, the present inter-collegiate champion of the United States and Canada, and others. This tournament has attracted the attention of society people and lovers of tennis in all parts of the country, and many applications have been made for rooms at the Tampa Bay Hotel by parties desirous of witnessing the sport.

The ladies of the Unitarian Society have arranged the Associates' Hall for May 3 and 4, with the intention of holding a May Festival, which promises to be a very fine affair. The various committees have been appointed and are actively at work with the determination to make it a most decided success. While there will be many features of the usual church fair, there will also be much that is attractive in the way of entertainment, including dancing about the May pole, music, both vocal and orchestral, and many other attractions to be announced later, as the plans become perfected.

—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Shannon of Lake avenue gave a delightful musicale last evening in honor of their niece, Miss Shannon. Fifty or more guests filled the pretty parlors and the following program was enjoyed by all. The Apple in Female Quartet sang several selections, Mrs. Young, the first soprano singing alone. Miss Shannon and Miss Merriam both gave violin solos and a duet, Miss Blanchard accompanying, followed by Miss Belle Bassett, who sang contralto solo, with orchestra, by Miss Merriam. After the music the dining rooms were thrown open and supper was served.

—Mrs. Thomas J. Smith of Beacon street entertained the King's Daughters of the Unitarian Society, with many of their friends, on Saturday evening, March 19. The entertainment was in the form of "Progressive peanuts" and those who have never tried this game have no idea of its fascination and of the skill required to make it successful. The prizes were taken by Miss Gertrude Friend, Miss Hames, Mr. Russell A. Ballou, Jr., and Mr. Oscar E. Hames, while Mr. Willis Bond took the consolation. A dainty collation was then served, after which a short time was given to music. These young ladies will give a "German" this evening at the home of their president, Miss Helen L. Loring.

The death of Miss Margaret Andrews, this week, aged 19, has cast a shadow over the hearts of many who are sadly afflicted in the passing away of one so bright and winsome, whose life seemed just budding into a future of such promise, with such bright prospects and happiness awaiting her. The illness came upon her while at Bradford Academy which she was attending, and two weeks ago she was brought to her home here, overlooking Crystal Lake. Sunday morning her family gathered about her for the last time in this life and watched beside the daughter and friend until the spirit silently departed. The funeral was held from the house, Wednesday, at 3 o'clock. There was a very large attendance and the services were unusually impressive. Rev. Theodore J. Holmes, pastor of the First Church, conducted the service, and the Arion male quartet of Boston sang. The casket emblematic of her sweet pure nature, was of white broadcloth with silver mountings and beautiful and costly cut flowers were strewn upon the casket in rich confusion by loving hands. The pall bearers were Messrs. Clarence and George Holmes, Messrs. Will and Fred Rising. The remains were taken to the Newton Cemetery.

The village will be at home to receive friends at the Associates' Hall, Wednesday evening, March 30, 1892, from 8 to 11:30 o'clock. Cordial invitations have been issued to a number. Gott's orchestra will furnish the music. The reception is given under the auspices of the Newton Improvement Association. The matrons will be Mrs. D. B. Claflin, Mrs. E. H. Fennessy, Mrs. E. M. Fowle, Mrs. F. Fitz, Mrs. A. F. Leitch, Mrs. M. C. Leconte, Mrs. D. H. Masor, Mrs. M. C. Rice, Mrs. J. H. Sanborn, Mrs. S. A. Sylvester, Mrs. A. C. Walworth, Mrs. W. E. Webster; the Matron's aids, Mrs. W. N. Bartholomew, Mrs. A. L. Harwood, Mrs. E. F. Melcher, Mrs. J. W. Parker, Mrs. W. L. Rand, Mrs. S. A. Shannon, Mrs. W. M. Flinders, Mrs. D. T. Kidder, Jr., Mrs. H. Ordway, Mrs. T. A. Phipps, Mrs. R. L. Rogers, Mrs. R. E. Taylor, the Hostesses, Mrs. D. B. Harding, Mrs. G. A. Pierce, Mrs. C. R. Mills, Mrs. G. S. Smith, Miss Mabel Blanchard, Miss Helen R. Rice. Character sketches will be given by Mr. Hadley and the Bellamy Quadrille will be a feature of the evening. The ushers are Messrs. C. C. Barton, F. E. Fennessy, W. E. Flinders, D. F. Kidder, Jr., E. F. Melcher, H. L. Ordway, J. W. Parker, A. Phipps, A. L. Rand, S. A. Shannon, G. S. Smith, B. E. Taylor, Leo B. Thomas and Geo. Warren.

NEWTON HIGHLANDS.

—Farley, pianos, 433 Wash. St., Newton.
—Mrs. L. K. Brigham returned last week from her sojourn at Lakewood.
—Miss Gertrude Nelson is at home for a vacation of two or three weeks.
—The West End Literary Club will meet next Thursday with Mrs. J. E. Smith.
—The Chautauque Circle will meet next Monday with Miss Bryant, Florio avenue.
—Democratic Mass. Caucus, next Tuesday evening, at Lower Armory Hall, Newton.
—Houses for sale and to let, also house lots for sale by E. H. Greenwood, Stevens building.
—Rev. Thomas L. Fisher of Clinton will be the preacher at the Friday service at St. Paul's, April 1st.
—The hunters degree was expected to be worked on two nights at the last meeting of Waban tribe 101.
—Mr. John F. Barnes has moved into the L. A. Ross house on Hyde street, which he recently purchased.
—Rev. E. J. Young of Waltham will conduct the Unitarian service next Sunday at Stevens Hall, at 4 o'clock.
—Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Guild and Miss Abbie L. Switzer of this village will spend the summer abroad.
—Services as usual Sunday at the M. E. church in the morning at 10:45, evening at 7. Preaching by the pastor.
—Mr. James Ayres has sold the house on Hillside avenue, next the Harriman estate, to Mr. E. P. Bosson, for $7000.
—Subscriptions, business notices and advertising cards solicited for the Newton Graphic by E. H. Greenwood, agent.
—Persons visiting the postoffice will notice the absence of Mrs. Nash, who is confined to the house with an attack of the grippe.
—The Chautauqueans expect to have a lecture from Mr. Geo. M. Towle, April 13. Those wishing to hear him again may secure tickets from members of the circle.
—Mr. N. D. Moody, the warden at the Newton Almshouse for the past fourteen years, has sent in his resignation to take effect April 1st, and he will remove to Quincy, where he has purchased an estate.
—List of letters remaining in the post office: Nelson Court, Fred Jordan, Josephine Olson, Frank Palmer, Herbert Regan, Miss H. P. Shapleigh, Mrs. Agnes Young.
—We hear that Mr. M. E. Baird of Hyde street will remove to Hartford, in order that he may have his home near where he conducts his business. His estate at the Highlands is offered for sale.
—Mr. Frank K. Moore and wife, who have made their home for the past few months with Mr. G. L. Avery, will now commence housekeeping, and have leased a house of Mr. Dickerman at Eliot.
—A large number of the members of the Newton Congregational Club from the Highlands church, attended the meeting of the Club on Monday evening, at Rev. Mr. Patrick's church, West Newton. The next meeting will be in October.

The Monday Club will hold its next meeting with Mrs. G. Stone of Walnut street, if the weather is pleasant, but if stormy the meeting will be with Mrs. Lovering, Floral avenue, and to avoid uncertainty a notice will be posted in the postoffice at 1 o'clock on Monday.

—Miss Virginia Day of the New West Commission, addressed the Christian Endeavor Society, to which the public were also invited, at the Congregational chapel, on Tuesday evening, giving an account of the work being done in Mexico, also among the Indian tribes of the southwest.

—Waban tribe, I. O. R. M. visited Needham Monday evening and worked the adoption degree at the installation of the new Hahaton tribe 109, instituted on that evening by the great sachems. The chiefs degree was worked by Norumbega tribe of Newtonville. Both tribes were complimented on their work.
—The death of Mrs. W. V. Brigham occurred on Thursday afternoon of last week. On Sunday Rev. Mr. Phipps, by request of the family, held a prayer service at the home of the deceased, after which the funeral service took place at the Episcopal church, of which church Mrs. Brigham was a member, confirmed on the coming of Bishop Brooks in April. The service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Williams, the rector, assisted by Rev. Mr. Phipps. Burial in the family lot at Newton cemetery. Mrs. Brigham was a devoted wife and mother, and her loss will be greatly felt by the family and also by a large circle of friends.

NEWTON UPPER FALLS.

—Farley, tuner, 433 Wash. St., Newton.
—Mr. James Daly is quite ill with tonsillitis.
—Mr. George Cutler of Eliot street is at home ill.
—Mrs. L. A. Graham has removed to Woonsocket, R. I.
—A new outside door was put in at the postoffice yesterday.
—Mr. and Mrs. Adam Miller are in New York city for a week.
—Congratulations are in order for Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Furdon. A son.
—William Jackson has severed his connection with the Petee Machine Works.
—Democratic Mass. Caucus, next Tuesday evening, at Lower Armory Hall, Newton.
—The new store on High street is expected to be finished about the middle of June.
—Mr. C. S. Cockery left town this week on a business trip south and west for the Waltham Emery Company.
—Thomas Ryan has concluded his labors for John Thomason and has opened a cobbler's shop in Edes basement.
—Mr. John W. Buckley, who was in the west for some years, has decided to return there and will leave town next week.
—John Thomason has engaged a first class cobbler from Malden, who has been highly recommended, and will work this morning. Fred Kempton has been doing the work for a few days past.
—The Clover Club had a delightful meeting Tuesday evening at the house of Miss Ethel Sablin, Boylston street. Miss Edith Ethel of Gardiner, who is visiting Miss Sablin, was the guest of the evening. The usual social time was enjoyed.
—The Quinobquin Association will give one of their enjoyable suppers next Wednesday evening, and a large and enthusiastic attendance is assured. Not only for members but the soloists were given are privileged to bring their male friends who are willing to share the small expense, 75 cents, to see how the "Quinnies" enjoy it after an existence of over a score of years.
—The second entertainment in aid of the Baptist church took place in Prospect hall last evening. The concert consisted of local and instrumental music by home talent. Among the soloists were Mrs. J. A. Gould, Jr., Miss Edith C. Newell, Mr. S. Morgan and Mr. W. L. Fisher. Ice cream and cake were served by the ladies at the conclusion of the entertainment.

NEWTON LOWER FALLS.

—Mr. Fred Fuller spent a few days this week in this village.
—Mr. T. E. Healy will soon remove to a house lately bought on Grove street.
—Mr. Fred Cadman has rented one of the upper tenements of the postoffice block.
—Democratic Mass. Caucus, next Tuesday evening, at Lower Armory Hall, Newton.
—About ten from this village are employed at the paper and rubber mills in Upperville.
—A late report has it that the Rice Silk mill is to be put in use for the manufacture of woolen goods.
—The cadets of St. John's church selected a pattern for their new uniforms at a meeting held Tuesday evening.
—Mr. S. E. Morse will start for his new home in Richmond, Va., next Saturday. His family will remove there later.
—Sullivan's extract mills have increased their number of help one half during the past two weeks and are turning out more work than ever before.
—The apothecary business of John B. Williams, Wellesley Hills, was attached last week by L. K. Putney and keeper put in. The business will be disposed of next week.
—Mr. Hobson Swallow has purchased the mills of A. C. Wiswall, paper manufacturer, and changes the plant to one for manufacture of wool extracts. It is stated Mr. Wiswall is to be a partner.
—Rev. W. T. Perrin will give an illustrated lecture on sights and scenes in Palestine at Christmas time, next Monday evening, in Freeman Hall. The lecture will be illustrated by stereopticon.
—There will be a temperance meeting in the M. E. church, Sunday, March 27, at 7 p. m. Quite a number of the young people will take part in the exercises, both by speaking and singing. The public are invited.
—At the recent annual meeting of the New England Education Society, held

The four Official Reports,

U. S. Gov't, Bulletin No. 10;
Canadian Gov't, Bulletin No. 13; Ohio Food Commission, and N. J. Food Commission, show

Cleveland's Baking Powder

strongest of all pure cream of tartar powders, yielding (average) 12.27 per cent. carbonic acid gas.

See summary of official reports, Scientific American, Nov. 8, 1890.

Plants For Sale!

A large collection of Palms, Ferns, Chrysanthemums, Etc.
DOYLE'S CONSERVATORIES.
Formerly Hovey's, Cambridge Street, Cambridge
WM. E. DOYLE, 43 Tremont St., Boston.

WALTER C. BROOKS & CO.

Importing Tailors
15 Milk Street - Boston
(Birthplace of Franklin
Opposite Old South Church)

W. C. BROOKS, Residence, NEWTON CENTRE.

We most respectfully announce the arrival of our Spring Importations

FINE WOOLENS

Moderate Prices.
C. B. SOMERS, TAILOR,
149 A Tremont St., Boston.
Residence, Lowell St., Newtonville.

In Boston, Rev. Dr. J. H. Twombly was re-elected president. Mr. Twombly was the principal founder of this society, which was organized in 1855. During its history the society has aided nearly 1000 young men in securing an education for the Methodist ministry.

High School Notes.

The class of '93 presented a fine silver cup to their classmate, Mr. James G. Bradley, as a mark of their appreciation of his fine exhibition of boxing at the recent Athletic Meet.

Miss Maybell P. Davis leaves New York, April 2nd, on the steamship Werre, of the North German Lloyd Line for an extended European trip.
The class of '92 held a class meeting at recess Tuesday, March 22. Resolutions were passed on the death of Miss Andrews. Also a note of thanks was extended to Mr. Goodwin and the school committee for the use of the Drill Hall for the class reception.

A meeting of the Lyceum was held in room 14 at recess, Monday, March 21. A bill relating to Indian Education was introduced and referred to the appropriations committee.
The next regular meeting of the Lyceum will be held in room 14, Saturday evening, March 26.
Mr. H. F. Page, '93, has been chosen captain of the School Base Ball Team temporarily. All those who wish to try for a place on the team, are requested to give their names to Mr. Page as early as possible.

A social club has recently been organized in the class of '94.
The N. K. C. of '93 and S. N. C. of '94 were very pleasantly entertained by Messrs. Isaac and Walter Dillingham at the Woodland Park Hotel, Wednesday evening, March 23. Dainty score cards were distributed and bowling was indulged in for about an hour.

Games were then played, and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. Miss Edith Rogers and Mr. Felton captured the prizes in bowling.
The Q. U. E. of '92 held a dancing party at the Newton Boat Club House, Wednesday evening, March 23.
By Edward F. Barnes, Auctioneer, 27 State Street, Boston.

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Nathan G. Green to Charles E. Stevens as he is guardian of Sarah J. Storms and by said Charles E. Stevens guardian as aforesaid assigned to Isaac R. Stevens as he is now the guardian of the said Sarah J. Storms by assignment dated April 25th 1890 and recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Deeds Library 1955 Folio 223 will be sold at Public Auction for benefit of the condition as named in said mortgage, the premises hereinafter described on Wednesday the 26th day of April 1892 at four o'clock in the afternoon all and singular the premises situated in and one in the County of Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point on the southerly line of Washington street by land of William E. Coffin and running southerly by said land of Coffin by a line making an angle of 50 degrees 6 minutes with said line of said street Bellevue street forty five and seventy hundredths (45.70) feet, thence turning and running southerly by said line of Lewis E. Coffin fifty eight and seventy hundredths (58.70) feet to Washington street, thence turning and running westerly by said Washington street fifty eight and fourteen hundredths (58.14) feet to the point of beginning, containing 3187 square feet and being the same land as described in a deed of Henry F. Roa by deed dated January 25th 1890 and duly recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Deeds, Five hundred dollars will be required to be paid in cash by the purchaser at the time and place of sale. Further particulars of the Auctioneer.

ISAAC R. STEVENS,
Guardian of Sarah J. Storms, Assignee and Mortgagee.

25 31

Shirts Made to Order!

By E. B. BLACKWELL,
48 THORNTON STREET, - NEWTON.
A Perfect Fit Guaranteed.

Best Material. First-Class Work.
Superior Shirts, $1.50, Best Dress Shirts, $2 each.
Will call on customers at such time and place as will suit their convenience.

Repairing is Done Neatly and Promptly.
New Bosoms, 50c; Neckbands, 15c; Wristbands, 15c; Collars, 30c; Collars 25c; Centre Plats 25c.

Readily fitted shirts made to fit well.

Shirts Made to Order!

By E. B. BLACKWELL,
48 THORNTON STREET, - NEWTON.
A Perfect Fit Guaranteed.

Best Material. First-Class Work.
Superior Shirts, $1.50, Best Dress Shirts, $2 each.
Will call on customers at such time and place as will suit their convenience.

Repairing is Done Neatly and Promptly.
New Bosoms, 50c; Neckbands, 15c; Wristbands, 15c; Collars, 30c; Collars 25c; Centre Plats 25c.

Readily fitted shirts made to fit well.

Shirts Made to Order!

By E. B. BLACKWELL,
48 THORNTON STREET, - NEWTON.
A Perfect Fit Guaranteed.

Best Material. First-Class Work.
Superior Shirts, $1.50, Best Dress Shirts, $2 each.
Will call on customers at such time and place as will suit their convenience.

Repairing is Done Neatly and Promptly.
New Bosoms, 50c; Neckbands, 15c; Wristbands, 15c; Collars, 30c; Collars 25c; Centre Plats 25c.

Readily fitted shirts made to fit well.

Shirts Made to Order!

By E. B. BLACKWELL,
48 THORNTON STREET, - NEWTON.
A Perfect Fit Guaranteed.

Best Material. First-Class Work.
Superior Shirts, $1.50, Best Dress Shirts, $2 each.
Will call on customers at such time and place as will suit their convenience.

Repairing is Done Neatly and Promptly.
New Bosoms, 50c; Neckbands, 15c; Wristbands, 15c; Collars, 30c; Collars 25c; Centre Plats 25c.

Readily fitted shirts made to fit well.

Shirts Made to Order!

By E. B. BLACKWELL,
48 THORNTON STREET, - NEWTON.
A Perfect Fit Guaranteed.

Best Material. First-Class Work.
Superior Shirts, $1.50, Best Dress Shirts, $2 each.
Will call on customers at such time and place as will suit their convenience.

Repairing is Done Neatly and Promptly.
New Bosoms, 50c; Neckbands, 15c; Wristbands, 15c; Collars, 30c; Collars 25c; Centre Plats 25c.

Readily fitted shirts made to fit well.

Shirts Made to Order!

By E. B. BLACKWELL,
48 THORNTON STREET, - NEWTON.
A Perfect Fit Guaranteed.

Best Material. First-Class Work.
Superior Shirts, $1.50, Best Dress Shirts, $2 each.
Will call on customers at such time and place as will suit their convenience.

Repairing is Done Neatly and Promptly.
New Bosoms, 50c; Neckbands, 15c; Wristbands, 15c; Collars, 30c; Collars 25c; Centre Plats 25c.

Readily fitted shirts made to fit well.

Pearmain AND Brooks,

Bankers and Brokers.
(Members Boston Stock Exchange.)
Have Removed to New Stock Exchange Building,
No. 53 State St., Room 218.
SUMNER B. PEARMAIN, L. LORING BROOKS.

WALTER H. THORPE,
Counsellor at Law,
28 State Street, Room 55,
BOSTON, MASS.
Residence, Pelham St., Newton Centre

A. H. ROFFE,
HAY and GRAIN,
LIME, CEMENT AND DRAIN PIPE,
Cypress, near Centre Street, Newton Centre.
TELEPHONE CONNECTION. 3

J. FRANK MAKEE,
Hack, Livery & Boarding STABLE.
Good coaches and careful drivers furnished for Weddings, Funerals and Parties, at short notice.
Carriage at depot from 7:45 a. m. to 7:45 p. m.
All orders attended to day or night.

ALSO,
FURNISHING UNDERTAKER
All funeral requisites furnished.
Pelham and Pleasant Streets Entrance,
NEWTON CENTRE.
Telephone connection. 451

Choice Articles in the Grocery Line.
Fresh Print Butter received 4 times a week.
Newton Eggs. Flour at Cobb's Prices, including Bridal Yeast, Cereal Food, in variety. Canned Goods of all kinds. Salt, Potatoes, Raisins,
All Kinds of Apples, Nuts, Raisins, Dates,
Figs, Citrus, Currants and Spice, the purest.
Imported Jellies and Preserves of the famous Crosse & Blackwell manufacture.
Candy Candy! Candy!

W. O. KNAPP & CO.'S,
Station Street,
NEWTON CENTRE. 51

Dr. Elbridge C. Leach,
DENTIST.
429 COLUMBIA AVE., BOSTON.
The correcting of irregular teeth in children
most a specialty.
Residence, Crystal St., Newton Centre.
Will make appointments at residence after 6 P. M.

THOMAS W. DIKE, M.D.
Centre Street, Newton Centre.
OFFICE HOURS: Until 9 A. M., 1 to 3 P. M., Generally at Home Evenings 47-6m

TEMPERLEY & HURLEY,
HOUSE, SIGN and DECORATIVE PAINTERS.
Paper Hanging, Whiting, Tinting and Whitewashing.
Whiting and Tinting a Specialty.
SHOP:
Newton Highlands.
P. O. BOX 238. 29

S. L. PRATT,
FUNERAL and FURNISHING UNDERTAKER
Newton Centre, Mass.
First-class Appointments and Competent A dendants. To accommodate the people of Upper Falls and vicinity orders may be left at the office of Fanning Printing Co., which will immediately be forwarded to me by telephone.
Also, small continue in the Hack, Livery and Boarding Stable. Business at my old stand, corner of Beacon and Station Streets. 31

GEORGE H. LOOMER,
Successor to Armstrong Bros.
Between New Room and J. J. Noble Street, offering a fine line of BOOTS, SHOES, SLIPPERS and RUBBERS, at low prices. NEWTON CENTRE

The Largest and Finest Business Establishment in the City of Waltham.

PARLOR, HALL, DINING ROOM, AND BED ROOM

FURNITURE
LOWEST PRICES.
F. L. GRAVES,
FURNITURE EMPORIUM,
224 Moody St., Waltham.

LUMBER.
GILKEY & STONE,
ARSENAL ST., WATERTOWN.

CAKE.
Your attention is called to the quality of our Cakes, they are equal to any made.
Try them.
Also OYSTERS and SALADS.
CROQUETTES and PEAS.
ICES and CREAMS.
JAMES PAXTON,
Caterer and Confectioner,
ELIOT BLOCK, opp. Depot, NEWTON.

S. F. CATE,
FURNISHING - UNDERTAKER
WASHINGTON STREET,
WEST NEWTON, MASS. Telephone 8119.